On February 6, 2004, an action captioned U.S. Bank National Association v. Riverstone Networks, Inc. was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California. U.S. Bank is the trustee for holders of convertible subordinated notes issued under the terms of an indenture dated November 21, 2001. The complaint alleges that Riverstone Networks, Inc. (the Company) breached its contractual obligations to the note holders, and seeks recovery of the full amount of the notes, $131,750,000, along with interest and liquidated damages. The Company intends to defend the action vigorously.

Except for the historical information contained herein, the matters set forth in this Report, including the Company's belief and intent regarding legal proceedings, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof and are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially. These risks and uncertainties include the outcome of the litigation, and the risks detailed from time to time in the Company's SEC reports. The Company disclaims any intent or obligation to update or revise these forward-looking statements.

SIGNATURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
