Involvement in Certain Legal Proceedings

On February 14, 2001, FRD Acquisition Co. ("FRD"), a former wholly-owned subsidiary of Advantica Restaurant Group, Inc. ("Advantica"), now Denny's Corporation, filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "FRD Chapter 11 Proceeding") to facilitate the divestiture of its Coco's and Carrows brands and to preserve their going concern value. Mss. Farris and Sanders and Messrs. Marchioli, Marks, and Shepherd were each directors of FRD and Ms. Parish and Mr. Green served as executive officers of FRD during the FRD Chapter 11 Proceeding, which concluded with Advantica's divestiture of FRD and the Coco's and Carrows brands on July 10, 2002. Upon the completion of the divestiture of FRD, Advantica, on July 11, 2002, changed its name to Denny's Corporation.

In 2000, two proceedings were filed in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California under Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code naming Margaret L. Jenkins, Denny's Senior Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer, Marketing and Product Development, as debtor (case 00-35060, filed September 1, 2000, dismissed November 16, 2000; and case 00-43703 filed December 5, 2000, dismissed January 12, 2001). Both cases were dismissed shortly after they were filed, and no debts were discharged or otherwise affected by the proceedings.

Compensation and Incentives Committee. The Compensation and Incentives Committee (the "Compensation Committee"), is responsible for overseeing (and advising the Board on) the compensation of Company officers; reviewing and making recommendations to the Board concerning compensation practices, policies, procedures and retirement benefit plans and programs for the employees of the Company; evaluating the performance of the Chief Executive Officer; and overseeing the activities of plan administrators and trustees and other fiduciaries under the Company's various employee benefit plans. In 2003, the Compensation Committee held six (6) meetings.

Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee (the "Corporate Governance Committee") is primarily responsible for developing and monitoring for compliance the Company's Corporate Governance Policy as well as ensuring that it is made available to security holders and potential investors. In connection with this responsibility, the committee is responsible for monitoring and safeguarding the independence of the Board, overseeing and reviewing the Company's processes for providing information to the Board, overseeing the evaluation of the Board and management and monitoring and overseeing the planning for CEO and senior management succession. Additionally, the Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for recommending nominees to the Board, as well as recommending directors for appointment to committees of the Board and to the chairs of such committees. These responsibilities include establishing criteria for Board and committee membership, considering rotation of committee members, reviewing candidates' qualifications and any potential conflicts with the Company's interest, assessing the contributions of current directors in connection with their re-nomination, reviewing and approving related party transactions of directors and making recommendations to the full Board regarding the position of chairman and lead director, when appropriate. The Corporate Governance Committee was formed by the Board on November 20, 2002. It held five (5) meetings in 2003. The Corporate Governance Committee will consider nominees recommended by stockholders. For more information regarding the process for shareholders to submit recommendations of Board nominees to the Corporate Governance Committee for consideration, please see "Director Nominations" on page 8. For further information and a description of the Company's Corporate Governance Policy, see "Corporate Governance."

Lead Director, Board Meeting Information.

In addition to the above-mentioned committee assignments, the Board began in January 1999 appointing, from among its members, a Lead Director. The Lead Director role was designed generally to include regularly meeting by telephone with the Chief Executive Officer to discuss the financial and operational status of the Company and staying abreast of Company issues in a more in-depth manner than required of other Board members. Ms. Sanders served as Lead Director for years 1999 and 2000 and Mr. Marks served as Lead Director during 2001. In 2002, with the appointment of Charles F. Moran, an independent director, as the Company's Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Board determined that there would not be a need to designate a Lead Director, so long as the Chairman of the Board was an independent director.

During 2003, there were nine (9) meetings of the Board of Directors of Denny's Corporation. Each director of Denny's Corporation attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board (and, as applicable committees thereof) during 2003.

Table of Contents

Compensation of Directors

Each director of Denny's Corporation, other than Mr. Marchioli, receives cash compensation as follows: (i) a $30,000 annual cash retainer (paid in $7,500 installments on a quarterly basis), (ii) an annual restricted stock retainer (the size of such award determined annually by the Compensation Committee although to date in 2004 no such retainer has been awarded) with a requirement that the restricted stock be held until the director resigns or retires from the Board (historically the size of award has been based upon a value of $10,000 as of the date of grant), and (iii) a stock option grant, typically every three (3) years. Such options typically have a term of 10 years, become exercisable at a rate of 33 1/3% per annum for three consecutive years beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant and have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. The Interim Chairman of the Board will receive $100,000 on an annual basis for his service as Interim Chairman of the Board and Chair of the Audit Committee. The Chair of the Corporate Governance Committee and the Compensation Committee each receive additional compensation annually of $15,000 for their service as the committee chair. Also, each member of the Board is paid for attendance at or participation in any unscheduled, unplanned specially called meeting (i.e., any meeting called in addition to the dates, typically five, set for the year, for scheduled Board and committee meetings); $1,000 if in person and $500 if telephonic.

Audit Committee Financial Experts

The Board has determined that at least two Board members currently serving on the Audit Committee of Denny's Corporation, Robert E. Marks and Debra Smithart-Oglesby, are Audit Committee Financial Experts, as that term is defined by the SEC, based upon their respective business experience and educational backgrounds which includes Mr. Marks' experience analyzing and evaluating financial statements (of the same or greater complexity as the Company's) as a part of his over 20 years of work experience in the field of private equity investments, in more than 15 different industries.

Director Nominations

The Corporate Governance Committee will consider director-nominees recommended by shareholders. A shareholder who wishes to recommend to the committee a person or persons for consideration as a nominee for election to the Board of Directors must send a written notice to the committee by mail addressed to the attention of the Secretary of Denny's Corporation at the corporate offices in Spartanburg, South Carolina. The written notice must set forth (i) the name of each person whom the shareholder recommends be considered as a nominee, (ii) a business address and telephone number for each nominee (e-mail address is optional), and (iii) biographical information regarding each nominee, including the person's employment and other relevant experience. To be considered by the committee, a shareholder recommendation must be received no later than the 120th calendar day before the first anniversary date of Denny's Corporation's proxy statement prepared in connection with the previous year's annual meeting.

The Corporate Governance Committee believes that a nominee recommended for a position on the Board must meet the following minimum qualifications:

Edgar Filing: DENNYS CORP - Form DEF 14A

he or she must be fluent in the English language.

Table of Contents

Annually, the Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors of Denny's Corporation will identify the areas of expertise or skill needed on the Board for the upcoming Board term. The Committee will identify potential nominees for director from (1) the slate of current directors, (2) referrals from professional search firms, typically in those instances when the committee identifies a needed skill or expertise not possessed by the current slate of directors, and (3) recommendations from shareholders.

The committee will evaluate a potential nominee by considering whether the potential nominee meets the minimum qualifications identified by the committee, as well as considering the following factors:

- whether the potential nominee has leadership, strategic, or policy setting experience in a complex organization, including any scientific, governmental, educational, or other non-profit organization;
- whether the potential nominee has experience and expertise that is relevant to Denny's business including any specialized business experience, technical expertise, or other specialized skills, and whether the potential nominee has knowledge regarding issues affecting Denny's;
- whether the potential nominee is highly accomplished in his or her respective field;
- whether the potential nominee has high ethical character and a reputation for honesty, integrity, and sound business judgment;
- whether the potential nominee is independent, as defined by listing standards, whether he or she is free of any conflict of interest or the appearance of any conflict of interest, and whether he or she is willing and able to represent the interests of all Denny's Corporation shareholders; and
- any factor affecting the ability or willingness of the potential nominee to devote sufficient time to the Board's activities and to enhance his or her understanding of Denny's business.

Additionally, with respect to an incumbent director whom the committee is considering as a potential nominee for re-election, the committee will review and consider the incumbent director's service to Denny's Corporation during his or her term, including the number of meetings attended, level of participation, and overall contribution to the Company. The manner in which the committee evaluates a potential nominee will not differ based on whether the potential nominee is recommended by a Denny's Corporation shareholder.

The Company did not pay any fee to any third party to identify or evaluate or assist in identifying or evaluating potential nominees for director at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The independent directors did not receive, by December 25, 2003 (the 120th calendar day before the first anniversary of the date of Denny's Corporation 2003 proxy statement), any recommended nominee from a shareholder who beneficially owns more than 5% of Common Stock or from a group of shareholders who beneficially own, in the aggregate, more than 5% of the Common Stock.

Communications Between Security Holders and Board of Directors

The process for security holders of Denny's Corporation to send communications to the Board is as follows. Security holders may send written communications to the Board or any one or more of the individual members of the Board by directing such communication to the Secretary of Denny's Corporation by mail in the care of the Secretary, at our principal executive offices, or by e-mail to rparish@dennys.com. SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC AUDITORS

As a result of the adoption of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, and related regulations adopted and proposed by the SEC, and by each national securities exchange and securities association, audit committees of public companies are now formally charged with the responsibility for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee takes this responsibility very seriously and consequently undertook last year, with the assistance of senior management, the process of evaluating and interviewing a limited number of national accounting firms, including the independent auditors for the 2002 fiscal year, Deloitte & Touche LLP (Deloitte & Touche). As a result of this process, the Audit Committee selected the firm of KPMG LLP (KPMG) as the principal independent public auditors of the Company for the year 2003. This selection was subsequently ratified and approved by the stockholders at the 2003 Annual Meeting.

For the year 2004, the Audit Committee has selected KPMG as the principal independent public auditors of the Company. This selection is submitted for ratification of and approval by the stockholders at this Annual Meeting. Representatives of KPMG will attend the Annual Meeting. They will have an opportunity to make a statement, if they so desire, and to respond to appropriate questions. If the stockholders do not ratify this selection, other certified public accountants will be considered by the Audit Committee. Deloitte & Touche, the Company's principal independent public auditors for the year 2002, are not expected to be in attendance at the Annual Meeting.

Changes in Certifying Accountant

On April 22, 2003, Denny's Corporation notified Deloitte & Touche that it would not be retained by the Company to perform the audit of the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. Deloitte & Touche had served as the Company's principal independent accountants since 1986. The decision not to retain Deloitte & Touche was made by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company and, upon recommendation by that committee, was approved by the full Board of Directors.

In connection with the audits of the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal years ended December 25, 2002 and December 26, 2001, the Company had no disagreement with Deloitte & Touche on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Deloitte & Touche, would have caused them to make reference to such disagreement in their reports for such periods.

The audit reports of Deloitte & Touche on the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal years ended December 25, 2002 and December 26, 2001 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles, except for an explanatory paragraph relating to the change in method of accounting for intangible assets in 2002 to conform to Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets", as described in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements. Deloitte & Touche was provided a copy of the above disclosures and was requested to furnish us with a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether it agrees with the above statements and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A letter from Deloitte & Touche is attached as Exhibit 16 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Commission as of April 23, 2003.

On April 22, 2003, the Company engaged the accounting firm of KPMG as independent accountants to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The decision to engage KPMG was made by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Denny's Corporation, and, upon recommendation by that committee, was approved by the full Board of Directors. As of April 22, 2003, the Company had not on any prior occasions consulted with KPMG regarding any of the matters set forth in Item 304(a)(2) of the Commission's Regulation S-K.

Table of Contents2003 Audit Information

Deloitte & Touche served as the Company's principal independent accountant to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 25, 2002. As discussed above and previously disclosed, as of April 22, 2003 the Audit Committee notified Deloitte & Touche that it would not be retained to perform the audit of the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003 and determined to engage KPMG as independent accountants to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal period ended December 31, 2003. The fees billed in the fiscal year ended December 25, 2002 and in the period through April 22, 2003 for Deloitte & Touche's services to the Company and the fees billed in the fiscal period ended December 31, 2003 for KPMG's services to the Company were:

In the above table, in accordance with applicable SEC rules:

- audit fees are fees billed by the independent auditors for professional services for the audit of the consolidated financial statements included in the Company's Form 10-K and review of financial statements included in the Company's Form 10-Qs, or for services that are normally provided by the auditors in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements; of the amount of fees billed by Deloitte & Touche under this category, $10,000 represents fees billed by Deloitte & Touche for professional services rendered in 2002 for the audit of the consolidated financial statements of FRD for the portion of the year prior to the divestiture of FRD on July 10, 2002;
- audit-related fees are fees billed by the independent auditors for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the financial statements, and generally include fees for consents and comfort letters and for audits of the Company's employee benefit plans; included in the amount of fees billed by Deloitte & Touche under this category during the interim period ended April 22, 2003 were $79,830 in fees which were actually incurred after the interim period but that relate to the Company's transition to KPMG as its independent auditors;
- tax fees are fees billed by the independent auditors for professional services for tax compliance, tax advice, and tax planning; and
- all other fees are fees billed by the independent auditors to the Company for any services not included in the first three categories above, and include fees related to executive financial planning services and the divestiture of FRD.

Audit Committee's Pre-approval Policies and Procedures

Edgar Filing: DENNYS CORP - Form DEF 14A

It is the policy of the Audit Committee to pre-approve all audit and permitted non-audit services proposed to be performed by the Company's independent auditor. The process for such pre-approval is typically as follows. Committee pre-approval is sought at one of the committee's regularly scheduled meetings following the presentation of information at such meeting detailing the particular services proposed to be performed. Additionally, the Chair of the Audit Committee has been delegated the authority by the committee to pre-approve, where necessary, such services requiring pre-approval in between regularly scheduled committee meetings. The Chair will report any such decisions at the committee's next scheduled meeting. None of the services described above were approved by the Audit Committee pursuant to the exception provided by Rule 2-01(c)(7)(i)(C) under Regulation S-X.

APPROVAL OF 2004 INCENTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Denny's Corporation has approved certain incentive compensation arrangements for 2004 for the Company's executive officers and certain other salaried employees pursuant to the 2004 Denny's Incentive Program (the "2004 Incentive Program"). Such arrangements are being presented to the stockholders for their approval at the Annual Meeting to the extent required under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), in order to maximize the tax deductibility to the Company of amounts that may ultimately be paid under such arrangements to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the four highest compensated officers other than the Chief Executive Officer. With the exception of awards which may be paid as a result of attainment of 2004 first quarter goals, no payments will be made under the 2004 Incentive Program if the stockholders do not approve this proposal.

Under the 2004 Incentive Program, plan participants will be eligible to receive target awards ("Target Awards") equal to a percentage of their base salary depending on the group classification assigned to such participant. The amount of Target Award that may be received by a participant under the 2004 Incentive Program is determined by the attainment of certain predetermined, established quarterly and annual goals which fall within the following six (6) specific categories: (i) Same Store Customer Count ("SSCC") (support center and senior management participants receive 10% of their respective target awards if Denny's attains targeted SSCC, field management receives 20%); (ii) Same Store Sales ("SSS") (support center, field management and senior management participants receive 15% of their respective target awards if Denny's attains targeted SSS); (iii) Same Store Sales - Franchise ("SSSF") (support center, field management and senior management participants receive 15% of their respective target awards if Denny's attains targeted SSSF); (iv) EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) (support center participants receive 20% of their target awards if Denny's attains targeted EBITDA, field management receives 30% and senior management 40%); (v) Cash Flow (support center, field management and senior management participants receive 10% of their respective target awards if Denny's attains targeted cash flow for the year); and (vi) Company Team/Department Objectives, which are based on stated criteria for one to four overall objectives (field management and senior management participants receive 10% of their respective target awards if the Team/Department objectives are achieved, 30% for support center participants).

If earned, the portion of the Target Awards that relate to targeted SSCC, SSS and SSSF will be paid on a quarterly basis. If the Company does not meet a quarterly goal in one or all of these categories but successfully meets the target for the year, the full annual award will be paid at year-end, minus any previous quarterly payouts. If SSCC and/or EBITDA target performance levels are exceeded, a participant's award will be increased by incremental amounts in direct relation to the excess performance amounts, but in no event may these incremental awards attributable to additional performance exceed 25% of the total actual incremental dollar increase in actual EBITDA over targeted EBITDA (the "25% Incremental EBITDA"). The maximum amount any participant may receive under the 2004 Incentive Program is $650,000 plus any incremental amount attributable to exceeding SSCC or EBITDA performance targets, which will be paid on a pro rata basis among participants, subject to an incremental limit equal to the lesser of 25% Incremental EBITDA or $1,950,000.

Payments of awards under the 2004 Incentive Program will be made as soon as practicable after the end of the quarter or calendar year when applicable and final financial results for the applicable period are compiled. Participants whose employment terminates before the end of the 2004 fiscal year are ineligible for annual award payouts under the program unless the Compensation Committee in its discretion determines otherwise. Employees hired during the 2004 fiscal year will generally be eligible to receive prorated awards based upon the time during the fiscal year that they were active participants. The Compensation Committee has reserved the right to cancel, modify or amend the 2004 Incentive Program at any time up through and including the day before the end of the performance period, and such cancellation, modification or amendment may be retroactive to the beginning of the year; provided, however, that no such modification or amendment shall effect the performance formulas under the Target Awards for 2004 or shall increase the maximum amount that may be paid to any participant under the program. A total of approximately 400 employees are participants in the 2004 Incentive Program.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation and Incentives Committee Report

Compensation Philosophy and Practice

Under the oversight and direction of the Compensation Committee, the Company has developed and implemented a compensation program for its executive officers designed to attract and retain top quality leadership talent while ensuring senior leaders' interests are sufficiently aligned with the interests of stockholders.

At the end of 2002 and the beginning of 2003, the Compensation Committee conducted an RFP (Request for Proposal) process which resulted in their review of several executive compensation consulting firms with the goal of selecting an executive compensation consultant to advise and assist the committee in its executive compensation oversight responsibilities. At the conclusion of the process, the committee selected Hewitt Associates LLC (Hewitt), an international human resources consulting firm, to continue as its compensation consultant. Hewitt will assist the committee, as needed, in the development and design of an executive compensation package which appropriately responds to the research data further discussed below and addresses the following goals set forth for the Company's long-term incentive and overall compensation program (i) promote retention, (ii) reward achievement of the business strategy, (iii) make progress toward market-level pay, (iv) complement the short-term incentive program, (v) be simple and easily understood, and (vi) use the resources that are available (stock versus cash). The Company will continue to seek opportunities to utilize long-term equity based incentives under the Omnibus Plan described further below.

In September 2001, Hewitt completed a study of the Company's compensation program for its top executive and management positions. To form a basis of comparison, Hewitt conducted a compensation measurement study against a custom group of 18 restaurant, food service, entertainment, retail and hospitality companies. The study concluded that while cash compensation (i.e., base salary and target bonus) for executives was generally in line with the market, long-term incentives and target benefits provided by the Company were below market resulting in the Company's total overall compensation package for its senior management being generally below the current market. Consequently, in 2002, the Company, consistent with the findings of the Hewitt study, initiated steps to move toward a greater emphasis on equity-based long-term incentive compensation, by (1) establishing the Omnibus Plan (approved by stockholders in May 2002), which is designed to add needed flexibility for compensating Company executives (and other employees) through stock ownership and other rights while promoting the financial success and growth of the Company and the interests of stockholders; and (2) implementing for 2002 under the Omnibus Plan, the Total Shareholder Return (TSR) Program, which was an incentive vehicle for selected executives that utilized total shareholder return versus peer comparisons as the performance measure (discussed further below). Under the 2002 TSR Program, awards were earned which resulted in two equal payouts in stock and cash being made to executives in 2003.

2003 Executive Officer Compensation Program

The 2003 executive officer compensation program of the Company had three primary components: (1) Base Salary, (2) Short-term Incentives, and (3) Long-term Incentives. Base Salary is established on the basis of (i) annual quantitative market data in the form of salary comparisons to peer position groupings within the restaurant and food service industry and other industries for positions not unique to the food service sector, and (ii) Company specific factors such as positions of responsibility and authority, years of experience and performance. Short-term Incentives under the Company's 2003 Incentive Program (which is substantially similar to the 2004 Incentive Plan described elsewhere herein see Approval of 2004 Incentive Compensation), were based primarily upon the achievement of certain Company quantitative performance goals such as targeted EBITDA, same store sales, customer counts, Direct Connect (i.e., the interactive voice response system at Denny's which collects customer feedback on service in the restaurants) and targeted cash flow performance levels. For 2003, as a result of the quantitative performance goals not being achieved, the Compensation Committee did not approve any payments of awards to employees under the 2003 Incentive Program. Long-term Incentives in 2003 consisted of stock options. During 2003, certain executive officers of the Company were granted options under the Omnibus Plan. Under the 2002 TSR Program (described above), certain executive officers (excluding the CEO) received in February and December 2003, payments of awards as a result of certain targeted TSR peer comparisons being achieved in 2002. The Compensation Committee, in administering such programs and plans, allocated awards to the Company's executive officers and others based on an evaluation of their relative levels of responsibility for and their potential contribution to the Company's operating results in order to provide them long-term incentives to enhance stockholder value as well as taking into consideration the aforementioned compensation study and market analysis.

Additionally, Company executives are eligible to participate in certain Company retirement and savings plans, as well as various other benefit plans intended to provide a safety net of coverage against various events, such as death, disability and retirement.

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

With respect to Section 162(m) of the Code and underlying regulations pertaining to the deductibility of compensation to certain executive officers in excess of $1 million, the Compensation Committee has adopted a policy to comply with such limitations, to the extent practicable, including its presentation of the Company's annual incentive compensation plans to the stockholders for prior approval. However, the Compensation Committee has also determined that some flexibility is required, notwithstanding these statutory and regulatory provisions, in negotiating and implementing the Company's incentive compensation programs. It has, therefore, retained the discretion to award some bonus payments based on non-quantitative performance objectives and other criteria which it may determine, in its discretion, from time to time.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

In the form of base salary, bonus payments and other payments, Mr. Marchioli received in 2003 the compensation reflected and described in the Summary Compensation Table set forth below. Such compensation to Mr. Marchioli was in accordance with the terms of his employment agreement, as amended and as described elsewhere herein, and followed generally the philosophy and programs described above for the Company's executive officers.

The Pension Plan is noncontributory and covers a limited number of employees of Denny's, Inc. In 1999, the Pension Plan was amended to effect the following changes (1) no new participants will be allowed into the plan after December 31, 1999; (2) all future pension benefit accruals for highly compensated employees will be earned beginning January 1, 2000 under the ancillary plan described below; and (3) all benefit accruals earned under the plan and ancillary plan will be frozen as of December 31, 2004. Participants in the Pension Plan, therefore, are limited to those employees who, on or prior to December 31, 1999, had attained the age of 21 and had completed one thousand hours of service. A participant's annual retirement benefit under the Pension Plan at normal retirement age is calculated by multiplying the number of years of participation in the Pension Plan (not to exceed 35 years, and not including years after 1999 for highly compensated participants or years after 2004 for other participants) by the sum of one percent of the average Compensation (as defined below) paid during 60 consecutive calendar months chosen to produce the highest average through 1999 for highly compensated participants or through 2004 for other participants (Average Compensation for the purposes of this paragraph) plus an additional one-half of one percent of the Average Compensation in excess of the average Social Security wage base. Benefits payable cannot exceed 50% of the Average Compensation. Plan benefits are normally in the form of a life annuity or, if the retiree is married, a joint and survivor annuity. Compensation for the purpose of this paragraph generally consists of all remuneration paid by the employer to the employee for services rendered as reported or reportable on Form W-2 for federal income tax withholding purposes (including the amount of any year-end bonus paid), excluding reimbursements and other expense allowances, fringe benefits, moving expenses, deferred compensation and welfare benefits (such exclusions including, without limitation, severance pay, leadership retention payments, relocation allowance, gross-up pay to compensate for taxable reimbursements, hiring bonuses, cost of living differentials, special overseas premiums, compensation resulting from participation in, or cancellation of, stock option plans, contributions by the employer to the Pension Plan or any other benefits plan and imputed income resulting from the use of Company property or services). Compensation also includes employee elective contributions under a Section 401(k) plan maintained by the employer and salary reduction amounts under a Section 125 plan maintained by the employer. The funding of the Pension Plan is based on actuarial determinations. The Pension Plan was amended early in 2002 to change the name of the plan's sponsor (but not the name of the plan) and to make certain technical changes required by recent legislation. The changes do not affect the calculation of benefits.

Ancillary to the Pension Plan is a non-qualified plan for a select group of management and highly compensated employees that provides for benefits limited by the limits on benefits and compensation under the Code. Compensation and Average Compensation are defined in this ancillary plan the same way they are defined in the Pension Plan. Consequently, the accrual of all further benefits under the ancillary plan shall cease on and after December 31, 2004. Benefits payable under the ancillary plan are included in the table above.

The maximum annual pension benefit payable under the Pension Plan for 2003 was $160,000 (or, if greater, the participant's 1982 accrued benefit).

Except for the accrual of certain non-qualified benefits as described herein, the Compensation included under the Pension Plan (including the ancillary non-qualified plan) generally corresponds with the annual compensation of the named executive officers in the Summary Compensation Table above. Includable Compensation for 2003 for Mss. Parish, Jenkins and Emplit and Messrs. Marchioli and Green was $359,970, $397,500, $289,796, $651,731, and $301,420, respectively.

As of December 31, 2003, the estimated credited years of service under the Advantica Pension Plan and the ancillary plan for Mss. Parish, Jenkins and Emplit and Messrs. Marchioli and Green, were 8, 0, 7, 0, and 7, respectively.

Employees may retire as early as age 55 with five years of service. Employees with age and service equaling or exceeding 85 and who are within five years of the normal retirement age will receive no reduction of accrued benefits. Employees who are at least 55 years of age with 15 years of service will receive a reduction of three percent in accrued benefits for the first five years prior to normal retirement date and six percent for the next five years. Accrued benefits for employees retiring with less than 15 years of service will be actuarially reduced. Retirement benefits are fully vested after a participant completes five years of service.

In addition to the compensation described above, in the event of Mr. Marchioli's termination of employment during the term of the Marchioli Employment Agreement II, the Company is required to make payments as follows based upon the cause of such termination: (i) if by reason of death, Mr. Marchioli's surviving spouse is entitled to be paid an amount equal to Mr. Marchioli's base salary and annual bonus and his eligible family dependents are entitled to receive certain health and welfare benefits for a one-year period after his death; (ii) if by reason of permanent disability, Mr. Marchioli is entitled to be paid one-half of his base salary and annual bonus and he and his eligible family dependents are entitled to receive certain health and welfare benefits for a period of two years after termination of employment; and (iii) if by the Company other than for cause, Mr. Marchioli is, in general, entitled to (a) a lump sum in an amount equal to two year times his then current annual base salary and annual

In the event of termination for cause or voluntary termination, the Company shall pay Mr. Marchioli the portion of his annual base salary earned through his termination date and generally the benefits due him under the Company's benefit plans for his services rendered to the Company through his date of termination.

Each of the named executive officers, other than Mr. Marchioli and Ms. Jenkins, are parties to separate letter agreements with the Company which provide, for the named executive officers, the following compensation and benefits. Each named executive officer will be entitled to the payment of severance benefits, in the event (A) the executive is terminated without cause, or (B) the executive elects to terminate his/her employment because (i) the Company has in effect reduced the executive's base salary or the executive's responsibilities, or (ii) the executive is required to relocate greater than 100 miles from the current Company headquarters in Spartanburg, SC, equal to the sum of (a) two times the named executive's then current base pay and targeted annual bonus, (b) an amount, grossed up for applicable taxes, equal to actual benefit credits for an eighteen-month period and vested benefits under the ancillary non-qualified pension plan, (c) a lump sum amount equal to two (2) times the named executive's annual car allowance and (d) an amount equal to any accrued but unused vacation time. Such severance payment shall be guaranteed by certain subsidiaries of the Company. The letter agreements further provide that the named executive officers will receive career placement benefits upon a termination without cause and that all stock options granted by the Company to the named executive officer shall become 100% exercisable in the event of (a) termination without cause, (b) a dissolution or liquidation of the Company, (c) a sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, (d) a merger or consolidation involving the Company in which Denny's Corporation is not the surviving corporation or in which holders of the Common Stock receive securities from another corporation, or (e) a tender offer for at least a majority of the outstanding Common Stock.

In connection with the announcement in November, 2003, that the Company had begun a process of exploring possible alternatives to improve its long-term liquidity and capital structure, the Company awarded to certain members of management including Mr. Marchioli and the other named executive officers, retention bonuses which amount to a total of 75% of the named executive officer's base salary to be paid in three designated installments throughout the above described exploration and implementation of alternatives period, provided the named officer is employed by the Company on such designated date.

In connection with her employment, the Company agreed to pay Ms. Jenkins in addition to her base salary and incentive bonus plan participation (i) an annual housing allowance of $24,000 with gross-up, (ii) an $8,000 annual travel allowance (grossed-up) for a two (2) year period beginning with her employment date (provided she has not exercised the Company provided executive relocation package), (iii) a severance payment (if her employment is terminated without cause) in an amount equal to the sum of 100% of her current annual base pay amount, or, in the event of a termination without cause within one year of a change in control, in an amount equal to 200% of her current annual salary and her targeted annual bonus.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Board and management clearly recognize the importance of a firm commitment to key corporate governance standards. Consequently, it is the goal of the Board and management to develop and adhere to a set of standards, that not only complies to the letter with all applicable regulatory guidance, but implements best practices of corporate governance.

In 2002, the Corporate Governance Committee of the Board was developed and charged with, among other things, the development of a set of corporate governance standards for the Company. In January 2003, the Board upon the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee, adopted the Denny's Corporate Governance Policy. This policy may be viewed in detail at the Company's website, www.dennys.com. Highlights of the Company's current corporate governance practices include:

- Board committees consist of only independent board members.
- Independent directors have the opportunity to meet in executive session regularly (i.e., at each regularly scheduled Board/Board committee meeting).
- All Board committees may retain outside advisors, as they deem appropriate.
- Board effectiveness and performance is reviewed annually by the Corporate Governance Committee.
- A commitment to continue to adhere to the corporate governance listing standards, even though such standards do not currently apply to the Company.

Additionally, during 2002 and 2003 the Company's goal of maintaining a Board made up of a majority of independent directors was achieved with all members, with the exception of the Chief Executive Officer, being independent of the Company under NASDAQ listing standards.

Code of Ethics

Denny's Corporation has adopted a code of ethics entitled Denny's Corporation Standards of Business Conduct which is applicable to the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Controller, all other executive officers and key financial and accounting personnel as well as each salaried employee of the Company. The Denny's Corporation Standards of Business Conduct is posted on the Denny's website at www.dennys.com.

Denny's will post on its website any amendments to, or waivers from, a provision of the Denny's Corporation Standards of Business Conduct that applies to the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Controller or persons performing similar functions, and that relates to (i) honest and ethical conduct, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships; (ii) full, fair, accurate, timely, and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that Denny's Corporation files with, or submits to, the SEC and in other public communications made by Denny's Corporation; (iii) compliance with applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations; (iv) the prompt internal reporting of violations of Denny's Corporation Standards of Business Conduct to an appropriate person or persons identified in the standards; or (v) accountability to adherence to the standards.
