Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The securities referenced in Item 1 are shares of Common Stock of the Company. On July 1, 2005, pursuant to an Amended and Restated Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of March 29, 2005 (the Purchase Agreement), among the Company, Willtek Communications GmbH (Willtek), Investcorp Technology Ventures and Damany Holding GmbH (Damany), the Company acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of Willtek. Upon consummation of the transaction, Willtek became a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, each share of capital stock of Willtek was exchangeable for one (1) share of Common Stock of the Company, for an aggregate purchase price of 8,000,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company, 1,000,000 shares of which are in escrow pursuant to the Purchase Agreement and a related indemnity escrow agreement (the Escrowed Shares). Following the first anniversary of the closing of transaction, the Escrowed Shares remaining in escrow will be released on a pro rata basis to Investcorp Technology Ventures and Damany. All of the shares of Common Stock reported in this filing are the result of the shares of common stock of Willtek beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons being exchanged for shares of Common Stock of the Company pursuant to the Purchase Agreement. A copy of the Purchase Agreement is incorporated by reference as Exhibit (a) to this Schedule 13D.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

As described in Item 3 above, the securities reported in this Schedule 13D were issued by the Company and acquired by the Reporting Persons upon exchange of the shares of Willtek capital stock that were beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons in connection with the Company's acquisition of all of the outstanding capital stock of Willtek.

Except as described herein, none of the Reporting Persons or, to the best of their knowledge, any of the persons listed in Schedule 1 to this Schedule 13D, has any current plans or proposals that would result in any person acquiring additional or disposing of securities of the Company, an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation of the Company or any of its subsidiaries with or into any third entity, the sale or transfer of a material amount of the Company's or any of its subsidiaries' assets to a third party, a material change in the Company's capitalization or dividend structure, any other material change in the Company's corporate structure or business, changes in the Company's certificate of incorporation, bylaws or related instruments, or any action similar to any of the foregoing.

The Reporting Persons may from time to time acquire beneficial ownership of additional equity or non-equity securities of the Company and may from time to time cease to have beneficial ownership of Common Stock or of other equity or non-equity securities of the Company, depending upon price, market conditions, availability of funds, evaluation of alternative investments and other factors. Without limitation of the foregoing, the Reporting Persons' intention generally is to explore means to realize favorable returns upon their investment in the shares of Common Stock and accordingly, on an on-going basis, the Reporting Persons may seek, evaluate and/or respond to offers to sell or otherwise dispose of the shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by them, either through open market or privately negotiated transactions. Such transactions may include transfers of the shares of Common Stock to their ultimate beneficial owners, individual shares on behalf of the ultimate beneficial owners, underwritten offerings of the shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons on behalf of the ultimate beneficial owners and dispositions through negotiated transactions that result in a third party's acquisition of some or all of the shares of Common Stock. The Reporting Persons reserve the right to take any action with respect to the Company or any of its equity securities or non-equity securities in any manner permitted by law.

As described in Item 6 below, pursuant to the Shareholders' Agreement, dated as of July 1, 2005 (the Shareholders' Agreement), among the Company, Investcorp Technology Ventures and Damany, Investcorp Technology Ventures nominated, and the Company caused to be appointed, two (2) persons designated by Investcorp Technology Ventures to serve as directors of the Company for a term to expire at the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders, such appointment taking effect as of the closing of the transaction contemplated by the Purchase Agreement. As described in Item 6 below, Investcorp Technology Ventures is entitled pursuant to the Shareholders' Agreement to nominate (and the Company will cause to be nominated) a certain number of directors of the Company based on Investcorp Technology Ventures' and its affiliates' percent ownership of the Company's outstanding Common Stock.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships With Respect to Securities of the Issuer

(a) Shareholders' Agreement

Director Nominations

Pursuant to the Shareholders' Agreement, effective as of the closing of the transaction contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, the Company appointed two persons designated by Investcorp Technology Ventures as directors of the Company's board for a term to expire at the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders.

Pursuant to the Shareholders' Agreement, Investcorp Technology Ventures will continue to be entitled to nominate, and the Company will cause to be nominated, directors as follows:

two (2) directors for so long as Investcorp Technology Ventures and its affiliates own 12.5% of the issued and outstanding Common Stock of the Company; and one (1) director for so long as Investcorp Investment Technology Ventures and its affiliates own less than 12.5% but more than 5% of the issued and outstanding common stock of the Company.

The Company has agreed that one of the directors nominated by Investcorp Technology Ventures will be designated as Chairman of the Board. Until the earliest of July 1, 2007 or the date when Investcorp Technology Ventures no longer has the right to nominate directors of the Company pursuant to the Shareholders Agreement, Damany and its permitted transferees will vote, or cause to be voted, all of their shares of capital stock of the Company in favor of Investcorp Technology Ventures director nominees recommended by the Company's board for election as directors.

Transfer Restrictions

Until July 1, 2006, Investcorp Technology Ventures may not sell or otherwise transfer its shares of Common Stock of the Company received in the transaction. At no time may Investcorp Technology Ventures knowingly transfer its shares of Common Stock of the Company received in the transaction to certain competitors of the Company without the prior written consent of a majority of the Company's directors (excluding directors nominated by Investcorp Technology Ventures). In the event that Investcorp Technology Ventures receives a bona fide offer from a competitor to purchase its shares of Common Stock of the Company, the Company has an irrevocable and exclusive option, but not an obligation, to purchase all, but not less than all, of the shares that the competitor proposed to purchase from Investcorp Technology Ventures. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Investcorp Technology Ventures is permitted to transfer its shares of Common Stock (1) to an affiliate if the affiliate agrees in writing to be bound by the Shareholders Agreement, (2) pursuant to any merger, consolidation or other transaction which has been approved by the Company's board of directors and the Company's shareholders or (3) pursuant to any tender offer or exchange offer made by the Company.

Registration Rights

As described in more detail below, the Shareholders Agreement also provides Investcorp Technology Ventures, Damany and their respective permitted transferees with certain rights to have the Company register with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") the shares of Common Stock they received in the transaction. The Company will pay all expenses of such registration, except for underwriting commissions, transfer taxes and the fees and expenses of more than one law firm representing the selling shareholders.

Each stockholder and each permitted transferee who includes shares in any underwritten offering of the Company described below is required to agree not to effect any sale or distribution of any equity security, or any security convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any equity security, of the Company, other than as part of the underwritten public offering, during a period of up to 90 days following the completion of the underwritten public offering.

Demand Registration Rights

The Company is required to register with the SEC two public offerings that may be requested after July 1, 2006 by holders of not less than 25% of the Common Stock shares issued in the transaction and any securities issues or distributed or issuable in respect of such shares of Common Stock. In the sole discretion of the parties requesting such a demand registration, the registration may be effected as a shelf offering that will permit the stockholders whose shares are included to sell them whenever they want for a period of up to two years after the time the shelf registration statement becomes effective.

The selling shareholders are entitled to select the underwriters, including the managing underwriter, for any of the foregoing demand registrations. If the number of shares requested to be included in an underwritten public offering pursuant to these demand registration rights exceeds the maximum number of shares that the underwriters determine can be included without adversely affecting the success of the offering, then the shares included in the offering will be determined on a pro rata basis among the selling shareholders.

The Company's obligation to effect any such demand registrations terminates upon the earlier of (1) following July 1, 2006, the registrable securities held by Investcorp Technology Ventures, Damany and their respective transferees represent less than one percent (1%) of all of the Company's outstanding shares of Common Stock and (2) Investcorp Technology Ventures, Damany and their respective transferees are not affiliates of the Company and they are able to sell their shares of Common Stock in a single transaction pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Incidental Registration Rights

The offerings described above are offerings for which the Company can be required to file registration statements by the specified persons. The persons who benefit from the Shareholders' Agreement also have the right to include their shares in any registration statement the Company may file after July 1, 2006 to offer and sell shares for the Company's own account (other than in connection with acquisitions or employee benefit plans) or for the account of any other stockholder. If this kind of registration statement involves an underwritten public offering and the underwriters conclude that the number of shares requested to be included exceeds the maximum number of shares that can be included without adversely affecting the success of the offering, all of the shares which the Company initially proposed to be sold pursuant to such registration statement will be included in the offering. If unallocated shares remain, they will be allocated to the persons entitled to the benefits of the Shareholders' Agreement on a pro rata basis. The Company's obligation to include the shares of Common Stock held by Investcorp Technology Ventures, Damany and their respective permitted transferees in such a registration statement terminates upon the earlier of (1) following July 1, 2006, the registrable securities held by Investcorp Technology Ventures, Damany and their respective transferees represent less than one percent (1%) of all of the Company's outstanding shares of Common Stock and (2) Investcorp Technology Ventures, Damany and their respective transferees are not affiliates of the Company and they are able to sell their shares of Common Stock in a single transaction pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

(b) Amended and Restated Loan Agreement

On July 1, 2005, Investcorp Technology Ventures, Willtek and the Company entered into the Amended and Restated Loan Agreement, pursuant to which Investcorp Technology Ventures loaned Willtek 3,500,000.
