Avalon Holdings Corporation is a controlled company as defined by the American Stock Exchange company guide because over 50% of the voting power of the Company is held by Mr. Klingle. In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements contained in the 2005 Annual Report on SEC Form 10-K with the Company's management and independent auditors. Board Committee Reports on Executive Compensation

Compensation Committee Report. The Company maintains a cash compensation program which is designed to motivate, retain and attract management and is comprised of salaries and bonuses. Under the Company's program, the cash compensation of executive officers of the Company is dependent, in part, on discretionary bonuses which take into account the past performance and potential of the executive officer.

Mr. Klinge is the Chairman of the Board and Chairman of the Compensation Committee. Ongoing executive officer compensation is determined subjectively, in that the Chairman of the Compensation Committee provides recommendations to the Compensation Committee for the proposed remuneration of the Company's officers based on his evaluation of those individuals' performance, any change in their responsibilities and their potential to contribute to the success of the Company. No specific weights have been assigned to these factors by the Committee. The basis upon which the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company for the last completed fiscal year was determined was generally the same as for other executive officers, with the exception of Mr. Kenneth J. McMahon, Chief Executive Officer of American Waste Management Services, Inc. (AWMS), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. In order to provide an incentive for Mr. McMahon to grow and increase the profitability of AWMS, Mr. McMahon receives, as a bonus, ten percent of the income before taxes. In 2005, AWMS increased net operating revenues by 13.4% or $3.2 million and income before taxes by 26% or $.5 million.

Avalon is a controlled company because over 50% of the voting power is held by Mr. Klinge. Although the Company's executive compensation program is established by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, which is currently composed of the below-named directors, from time to time the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors as a whole discuss, generally, the reasonableness of the amounts of compensation received by the Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers.

The Compensation Committee recommended and the Board of Directors approved a discretionary contribution to the Company's 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan for 2005 in the amount of two percent of each participant's cash compensation subject to Internal Revenue Code limitations.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code addresses the nondeductibility for federal income tax purposes of certain compensation in excess of $1 million paid to an employee during the taxable year. As it is highly unlikely that any executive officer or other employee of the Company will be awarded compensation in excess of $1 million in the foreseeable future, the Compensation Committee has not established a policy with respect to the nondeductibility of such employee compensation.

The Compensation Committee believes that the Chief Executive Officer, as well as the other executive officers of the Company, are dedicated to achieving significant improvements in the Company's long-term financial performance and that the compensation policies, plans and programs implemented by the Company contribute to achieving this management focus.
