Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)

June 30, 2006

NOTE A BASIS OF PRESENTATION

As of June 30, 2006, the Company's real estate portfolio included interests in fifteen shopping centers and fifteen apartment communities. The Company holds, directly or indirectly through wholly-owned subsidiaries, a fee interest in twenty-eight of its properties, and long-term ground leases on the remaining two properties—Southwood Shopping Center in Gretna, Louisiana and Westland Shopping Center in Kenner, Louisiana. Fourteen properties are held through partnerships and limited partnerships whereby the owners are wholly-owned subsidiaries of Sizeler Property Investors, Inc. Fifteen properties in the portfolio are held through wholly-owned subsidiary corporations or limited liability companies. One of the properties, Southwood Shopping Center, is owned by a partnership in which the Company has a 50% interest, which is accounted for using the equity method. Sizeler Property Investors, Inc., the wholly-owned subsidiaries, partnerships and limited partnerships, are referred to collectively as the Company.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) for interim financial information and with instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. Furthermore, the preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could materially differ from those estimates.

Operating results for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2006, are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2006. The consolidated balance sheet at December 31, 2005, has been derived from the audited consolidated financial statements at that date, but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Sizeler Property Investors, Inc. Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

NOTE B RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain reclassifications have been made in the 2005 consolidated financial statements to conform to the 2006 consolidated financial statement presentation.

NOTE C REAL ESTATE INVESTMENTS

The Company has evaluated its land holdings and designated certain parcels of land as held for development or sale as of June 30, 2006. This land is made up of approximately 56 acres at various locations and has a book value of approximately $6.8 million. During the second quarter 2006, the Company sold a 9.9 acre parcel of land located in Lake Mary, Florida, and received net proceeds of approximately $3.7 million, which was used to reduce bank debt. The Company recognized a gain on this sale of approximately $531,000.

During the second quarter of 2006, the Company sold its Hammond Square Mall and received net proceeds of approximately $13.7 million, which was used to reduce bank debt. The Company recognized a loss on this sale of approximately $5.3 million. The decision to sell Hammond Square Mall was based on market conditions.

The Company acquired The Villages of Williamsburg, an apartment community with 194 units located in Shreveport, Louisiana, on September 9, 2005 for $9.3 million. The Company recorded $173,000 of the purchase price as an intangible asset for leases acquired and in-place at the time of acquisition and is amortizing this intangible asset over the estimated average remaining life of the leases. The remaining purchase price was allocated among land and building.

Table of Contents

On May 10, 2005, the Company sold its Bryn Mawr Apartments, a 240-unit apartment community, located in Naples, Florida, acquired in 1993. The Company received net proceeds of approximately $23.7 million of which approximately $9.2 million was used to repay indebtedness secured by the property. The remaining $15.5 million was used to repay short term bank debt and added to the Company's cash and cash equivalents. A gain of approximately $15.7 million was recognized in the second quarter of 2005.

The Company allocates the purchase price of each acquired investment property between land, building and improvements, other intangibles (including acquired above market leases, acquired below market leases, customer relationships and acquired in place leases) and any assumed financing that is determined to be above or below market terms. The Company uses the information contained in third party appraisals as the primary basis for allocating the purchase price between land and site improvements. The aggregate value of other intangibles is measured based on the difference between the purchase price and the property valued as if vacant.

NOTE D MORTGAGE NOTES PAYABLE

The Company's mortgage notes payable are secured by certain land, buildings and improvements. As of June 30, 2006, mortgage notes payable totaled approximately $82.8 million. Individual notes ranged from $2.3 million to $20.2 million, with fixed rates of interest ranging from 5.97% to 7.94% and maturity dates ranging from May 1, 2008 to August 1, 2014. Net book values of properties securing these mortgage notes payable totaled approximately $127.2 million at June 30, 2006, with individual property net book values ranging from $2.1 million to $29.9 million.

NOTE E SEGMENT DISCLOSURE

The Company is engaged in two operating segments, the ownership and rental of retail shopping center properties and the ownership and rental of apartment properties. These reportable segments offer different products or services and are managed separately as each requires different operating strategies and management expertise. There are no intersegment sales or transfers.

The Company assesses and measures segment operating results based on a performance measure referred to as net operating income and is based on the operating revenue and operating expenses directly associated with the operation of the real estate properties (excluding depreciation and amortization, administrative and interest expense). Net operating income is not a measure of operating results as measured by GAAP, and should not be considered an alternative to net income as a measure of the Company's operating performance and to cash flows as a measure of liquidity.

The operating revenue, operating costs, operating income and real estate investments for each of the reportable segments are summarized below for the three-month periods ended June 30, 2006 and 2005.

Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 123 (FAS 123(R)). Under FAS No. 123(R), the Company is required to recognize as expense the estimated fair value of all share-based payments to employees, including the fair value of employee stock options. This expense is recognized over the period during which the employee is required to provide service in exchange for the award. Pro forma disclosure of the estimated expense impact of such awards is no longer an alternative to expense recognition in the financial statements. The Company adopted the modified prospective transition method for implementation of FAS 123(R) which does not include restatement of prior periods. Also, the Company uses the Black-Scholes method for computing the fair value of options on the grant date.

On January 3, 2006 the Company granted stock options for 150,000 of its common shares under the 1996 Stock Option and Incentive Plan to the Chairman of the Board. The option grant is subject to shareholder approval. The shares vest six months from the date of grant. The Company accounted for the stock option award in accordance with FAS 123(R). The options were valued using the Black-Scholes method. The compensation expense recognized in the financial statements for the three-and six-months ended June 30, 2006 was $137,000 and $274,000, respectively. No compensation was recognized in the three and six months ended June 30, 2005.

On February 9, 2005, the Company granted 87,500 restricted shares under the 1996 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, as amended, to certain of its officers, of which 26,000 shares remain unvested and outstanding. The shares vest 20% on each of February 9, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010; and are subject to certain acceleration or forfeiture provisions pursuant to the Plan. These restricted shares were valued based on the closing price on the New York Stock Exchange on February 9, 2005, the date of grant. The Company accounts for restricted stock in accordance with FAS No. 123(R) and, accordingly, compensation expense is recognized over the expected vesting period. Compensation expense related to restricted stock of $19,000 and $38,000 was recognized for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006, respectively. Compensation expense related to restricted stock of $44,000 and $78,000 was recognized for the three and six months ended June 30, 2005, respectively.

During the second quarter of 2006, a partial payment of $1 million in insurance proceeds was received, resulting in a receivable balance related to the hurricanes of approximately $2 million as of June 30, 2006. The final charge to expense, as a result of these hurricanes, however, is subject to the Company's final cost assessment of required repairs as well as settlement of the insurance claim.

Comparison of the Three Months Ended June 30, 2006 and 2005

Operating revenue totaled approximately $13.1 million for the three months ended June 30, 2006, compared to approximately $11.9 million in 2005. Operating revenue was positively affected by an increase in retail revenue, an overall improvement in the level of apartment units leased as well as rents charged on these units, and the addition of The Villages of Williamsburg apartment property to the portfolio.

Operating expenses, without non-ordinary expenses, were approximately $4.6 million in 2006, compared to approximately $4.0 million in 2005. Operating expenses increased due to higher real estate taxes, utility costs, costs of property operations and maintenance and due to the addition of the above mentioned property, as compared to 2005.

Table of Contents

Non-ordinary expenses incurred during the second quarter ended June 30, 2006 totaled approximately $912,000. These non-ordinary items included:

$157,000 of hurricane expenses as described below.

$755,000 of restructuring costs primarily composed of legal and financial consulting fees and compensation expense of $137,000 incurred due to the expensing of stock options granted in January 2006 in accordance with FAS 123(R).

The compensation expense related to stock options is considered part of restructuring costs because the options were granted in connection with our corporate restructuring.

Operations and maintenance and other operating expenses increased $488,000 and $43,000, respectively. The increase was due to the new development projects, as well as the addition of The Villages of Williamsburg apartment property, and higher utilities.

Administrative expenses were significantly reduced to approximately $931,000 as compared to $1,693,000 for the same period in 2005. This decrease for the quarter is attributable to lower costs for payroll, equipment maintenance, travel and entertainment, and legal and accounting services.

Interest expense for the three months ended June 30, 2006 decreased $453,000 compared to the same period last year, due primarily to the payoff of the second mortgages held on the apartment properties and the effects of conversion and redemption of $56.6 million of debentures, partially offset by higher interest rates on our bank lines of credit.

During the third quarter of 2005, the Company's properties sustained storm damages from a succession of hurricanes. The Company incurred costs in preparation for these storms in addition to losses from actual damages, including the loss of rents, as well as for storm clean-up. The Company has insurance to cover a substantial portion of the costs incurred by such events. The Company estimates that its cash exposure to the insurance deductible as well as non-covered costs to be approximately $4.3 million. After taking into consideration existing book values of assets and capitalization policies, an expense of $1.4 million was recorded during 2005 and additional expense of approximately $157,000 was recorded for cost incurred during second quarter 2006. During the second quarter of 2006, a partial payment of $1 million in insurance proceeds was received, resulting in a receivable balance related to the hurricanes of approximately $2 million as of June 30, 2006. The final charge to expense, however, is subject to the Company's final cost assessment of required repairs as well as settlement of the insurance claim.

For the three months ended June 30, 2006, there was a net loss of approximately $7.1 million compared to net income of approximately $15.9 million in the prior year's quarter. The 2006 period included a net loss on the sale of real estate of $4,805,000 primarily due to the sale of Hammond Square Mall. The Company also recorded an accelerated charge to depreciation expense of $4,258,000 due to the partial demolition of a real estate asset as part of a redevelopment project at Lantana Shopping Center in Palm Beach County, Florida. The 2005 period included a gain on the sale of real estate operations totaling $15,692,000 attributable to the sale of Bryn Mawr Apartments. After distributions to preferred shareholders, the net loss allocated to common shareholders was $7,291,000 in the current year's quarter, compared to net income allocated to common shareholders of $15,720,000 for the same period last year. Net income, before the sales of real estate assets and the accelerated charge to depreciation expense, for the three-month period ended June 30, 2006 totaled $1,923,000 compared to $233,000 a year ago. The improvement is due primarily to the above mentioned items.

Comparison of the Six Months Ended June 30, 2006 and 2005

Operating revenue totaled approximately $26.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2006, compared to approximately $23.7 million in 2005. Operating revenue was positively affected by an increase in retail revenue, an overall improvement in the level of apartment units leased as well as rents charged on these units, and the addition of The Villages of Williamsburg apartment property to the portfolio.

Table of Contents

Operating expenses, without non-ordinary expenses, were approximately $9.1 million in 2006, compared to approximately $7.9 million in 2005. The increase in ordinary operating expenses was due to the new development projects, as well as the addition of The Villages of Williamsburg apartment property, and higher utilities.

Non-ordinary expenses incurred during the six months ended June 30, 2006 totaled approximately $1,491,000. These non-ordinary items included:

$345,000 of hurricane expenses as described below.

$1,146,000 of restructuring costs primarily composed of legal and financial consulting fees and compensation expense of $274,000 incurred due to the expensing of stock options granted in January 2006 in accordance with FAS 123(R).

The compensation expense related to stock options is considered part of restructuring costs because the options were granted in connection with our corporate restructuring.

Operations and maintenance and other operating expenses increased $971,000 and $204,000, respectively. The increase was due to the new development projects, as well as the addition of The Villages of Williamsburg apartment property, and higher utilities.

Administrative expenses were significantly reduced to approximately $1,754,000 as compared to $3,529,000 for the same period in 2005. This decrease of approximately $1.8 million for the six months is attributable to lower costs for payroll, equipment maintenance, travel and entertainment, and legal and accounting services.

Interest expense for the six months ended June 30, 2006 decreased $1.6 million to $3,694,000 compared to $5,304,000 in the same period last year, due primarily to the payoff of the second mortgages held on the apartment properties and the effects of conversion and redemption of $56.6 million of debentures, partially offset by higher interest rates on our bank lines of credit.

During the third quarter of 2005, the Company's properties sustained storm damages from a succession of hurricanes. The Company incurred costs in preparation for these storms in addition to losses from actual damages, including the loss of rents, as well as for storm clean-up. The Company has insurance to cover a substantial portion of the costs incurred by such events. The final charge to expense, however, is subject to the Company's final cost assessment of required repairs as well as settlement of the insurance claim.

For the six months ended June 30, 2006, there was a net loss of $4,430,000 compared to net income of $15,973,000 for the same period in 2005. The 2005 period included a gain on the sale of real estate operations of $15,692,000 attributable to the sale of Bryn Mawr Apartments. After distributions to preferred shareholders, $4,776,000 of net loss was allocated to common shareholders, compared to $15,563,000 of net income allocated to common shareholders in the same period last year. Net income, before the sales of real estate assets and the accelerated charge to depreciation expense, for the six-month period ended June 30, 2006 totaled $4,633,000 compared to $281,000 a year ago. The improvement is due primarily to the above mentioned items.

Table of Contents*Discontinued Operations*

For the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, the results of operations of Hammond Square Mall, sold in May 2006, and Bryn Mawr Apartments, sold in May 2005, were classified as discontinued operations. Liquidity and Capital Resources

The sources of working capital for the Company on both a short-term and long-term basis are provided by operating activities, from which the Company generally funds operating requirements, periodic distributions to investors and capital expenditures, supplemented as needed by mortgage or other financings as well as property sales. Sixteen of the properties in the portfolio are currently unencumbered by mortgage debt, and at June 30, 2006, the Company had approximately $4.7 million in cash and cash equivalents. The Company maintains unsecured credit lines of $50 million with commercial banks-of which approximately $44.7 million was available at June 30, 2006-which it utilizes to temporarily finance the cost of portfolio growth, property improvements, and other expenditures. Utilization of the bank lines is subject to certain restrictive covenants, borrowing levels, and the maintenance of prescribed financial ratios:

Minimum net worth, adding back accumulated depreciation - must exceed $115 million

Debt to equity must not exceed 150% of equity

Distributions to funds from operations must not exceed 100% of funds from operations

Unencumbered assets to committed bank lines must exceed 100% of committed bank lines

Interest coverage funds from operations plus interest expense must exceed 150% of interest expense

Net operating income from unencumbered assets to the funded portion of committed bank lines must exceed 15% of funded bank lines

Edgar Filing: SIZELER PROPERTY INVESTORS INC - Form 10-Q

Funds from operations from unencumbered assets to interest expense on funded unsecured debt must exceed 200% of interest expense on funded unsecured debt

The Company was in compliance with these covenants as of June 30, 2006.

Net cash flows provided by operating activities increased approximately $8.0 million in 2006 from 2005. The increase is primarily attributable to an improvement in net operating income of approximately $4.6 million and a $2.5 million increase in accounts receivable primarily attributable to the hurricane claim.

Net cash flows provided by investing activities decreased approximately $7.7 million in 2006 from 2005, primarily due to a decrease in proceeds from the sale of real estate.

Table of Contents

Net cash flows used in financing activities increased approximately $11.1 million in 2006 from 2005, primarily due to a $26.7 million decrease in proceeds from issuance of shares of common stock pursuant to the March 2005 equity placement and direct stock purchase and stock option plans, a $2.0 million increase in the purchase of preferred stock and an $838,000 increase in distributions paid to common shareholders because of additional shares outstanding. The increase was partially offset by a $7.3 million reduction in the amount of borrowing on notes payable to banks, a $9.2 decrease in principal payments on mortgage notes payable and a $2.6 million reduction in redemption of debentures in 2006 compared to 2005.

Stock Repurchase Programs

The Board of Directors has authorized the repurchase of up to 1,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock. This repurchase program may be limited or terminated at any time without prior notice. Stock repurchases under this program may be made through open market and privately negotiated transactions at times and in such amounts as management deems appropriate. The timing and actual number of shares repurchased will depend on a variety of factors including price, corporate and regulatory requirements and other market conditions. No shares have been repurchased under this plan as of June 30, 2006.

On December 1, 2005, the Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of all or a portion of the 336,040 issued and outstanding shares of its 9.75% Series B Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock. The shares may be purchased in the open market or in privately negotiated transactions, and at times and in amounts that the Company's management deems appropriate. As of June 30, 2006 the Company had repurchased 89,500 shares of its preferred stock resulting in a balance of 246,540 shares outstanding.

Contractual Obligations

Holders of our Series B cumulative redeemable preferred stock are entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors, out of funds legally available for the payment of distributions, preferential cumulative cash distributions at the rate of 9.75% per annum of the liquidation preference per share (equivalent to a fixed annual amount of $2.4375 per share). Distributions on the Series B preferred stock will be payable quarterly in arrears on the fifteenth day of February, May, August and November of each year, or, if not a business day, the next succeeding business day. The preferred stock is redeemable after May 10, 2007, in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time, for cash at a redemption price of $25.00 per share, plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon to the date fixed for redemption, without interest.

Our common stock distribution policy is to pay quarterly distributions to shareholders, based upon, among other things, funds from operations, as opposed to net income. Because funds from operations excludes the deduction of non-cash charges, principally depreciation on real estate assets, quarterly distributions will typically be greater than net income and may include a tax-deferred return of capital component.

There were no other material changes outside the ordinary course of our business during the three months ended June 30, 2006, to our contractual obligations as set forth in the Liquidity and Capital Resources section of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Funds From Operations

The Company defines Funds from Operations (FFO) as net income, computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP), excluding: gains or losses from sales of property; those items defined as extraordinary under GAAP; plus depreciation on real estate assets, impairment write downs and after adjustments for unconsolidated partnerships (and joint ventures). Adjustments for unconsolidated partnerships and joint ventures are calculated to reflect funds from operations on the same basis.

FFO is a key operating measure used by management in evaluating operating performance, and trends in operating performance. The Company also uses FFO to compare operating performance with other equity REITs, particularly those who own retail and residential properties. In computing FFO, the Company excludes the effect of depreciation, amortization, impairment write downs and gains and losses from sales of real estate.

Table of Contents

In the Company's view, these amounts, which are derived from historical cost, are of limited relevance in evaluating current performance. The Company's experience, and the experience of other owners of shopping centers and apartment communities in the markets in which we operate, is that depreciation and amortization have virtually no correlation with changes in the value of the properties. Real estate assets can also appreciate, rather than depreciate in value over time.

The Company believes that FFO, by excluding items referred to above, which can vary among owners of similar assets in similar condition based on historical cost accounting and useful life estimates, can help compare the operating performance of a company's real estate. The Company's FFO may not be comparable to FFO reported by other REITs, who may not define FFO in a comparable manner or may use different interpretations in the calculation. The Company believes that FFO may also facilitate comparisons of operating performances between us and other equity REITs. Investors should review FFO, along with GAAP net income and other appropriate operating measures and cash flows from operating activities, investing activities and financing activities when trying to understand an equity REIT's operating performance. FFO is not a GAAP measure or a disclosure required by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

As previously stated, computations of FFO differ among REITs. Thus, an investor should be attentive to differences in FFO computations when comparing FFO among REITs. FFO does not represent cash generated from operating activities in accordance with GAAP, nor does it represent cash available to pay distributions and should not be considered as an alternative to net income, determined in accordance with GAAP, as an indication of financial performance, or to cash flow from operating activities, determined in accordance with GAAP, as a measure of liquidity, nor is it indicative of funds available to fund cash needs, including the ability to make cash distributions. A reconciliation of net income to basic FFO is presented below (in thousands):

For the three months ended June 30, 2006, the net loss available to common shareholders was approximately $7.3 million compared to income of $15.7 million for the same period in 2005. For the six months ended June 30, 2006, the net loss available to common shareholders was approximately $4.8 million compared to income of $15.6 million for the same period in 2005. The decrease was due to a net loss on the sale of real estate of $4,805,000, primarily attributable to the sale of Hammond Square Mall and an accelerated charge to depreciation expense of $4,258,000 due to the partial demolition of a real estate asset as part of a redevelopment project at Lantana Shopping Center in Palm Beach County, Florida, to construct a new Publix Supermarket and an Office Depot. The 2005 period included a gain on the sale of real estate operations totaling $15,692,000 attributable to the sale of Bryn Mawr Apartments. The decrease was partially offset by a reduction in administrative expenses to approximately $1,754,000 million as compared to $3,529,000 for the same period in 2005. This decrease of approximately $1,775,000 for the six months is attributable to lower costs for payroll, equipment maintenance, travel and entertainment, and legal and accounting services. Additionally, interest expense for the six months ended June 30, 2006, totaled $3,694,000 compared to $5,304,000 in the same period last year due primarily to the payoff of the second mortgages held on the apartment properties and the effects of conversion and redemption of approximately $56 million of debentures, partially offset by higher interest rates on our bank lines of credit.

Effects of Inflation

Substantially all of the Company's retail leases contain provisions designed to provide us with a hedge against inflation. Most of the Company's retail leases contain provisions that enable the Company to receive percentage rentals based on tenant sales in excess of a stated breakpoint and/or provide for periodic increases in minimum rent during the lease term. The majority of retail leases are for terms of less than ten years, which allows the Company to adjust rentals to changing market conditions. In addition, most retail leases require tenants to pay a contribution towards property operating expenses, thereby reducing exposure to higher operating costs caused by inflation. Apartment leases are written for short terms, generally six to twelve months, and are adjusted according to changing market conditions.

Future Results

Investors and potential investors in the Company's securities are cautioned that a number of factors could adversely affect the Company and cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to (a) the inability to lease current or future vacant space in the Company's properties; (b) decisions by tenants and anchor tenants who own their space to close stores at properties; (c) the inability of tenants to pay rent and other expenses; (d) tenant financial difficulties; (e) general economic and world conditions, including threats to the United States homeland from unfriendly factions; (f) decreases in rental rates available from tenants; (g) increases in operating costs at properties; (h) increases in corporate operating costs associated with new regulatory requirements; (i) lack of availability of financing for acquisition, development and rehabilitation of properties; (j) force majeure as it relates to construction and renovation projects; (k) possible dispositions of mature properties since the Company is continuously engaged in the examination of the various lines of business; (l) increases in interest rates; (m) a general economic downturn resulting in lower retail sales and causing downward pressure on occupancies and rents at retail properties; (n) forces of nature; (o) the adverse tax consequences if the Company were to fail to qualify as a REIT in any taxable year; and (p) inability of Sizeler to enter into a definitive merger agreement with Revenue Properties or complete the transactions contemplated thereby.

Except as required under federal securities laws and the rules and regulations of the SEC, the Company does not have any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements in this Form 10-Q, whether as a result of new information, future events, changes in assumptions or otherwise, including specifically any statements previously provided with respect to expected operating results or performance.
