*¹ Net business profits represent the amount before credit costs for trust accounts and provision for general allowance for credit losses.*² Announced on May 23, 2007

[Factors affecting earnings forecast]

MUFG forecasts a decrease in net business profits (sum of the two banks) compared to the amounts previously announced, primarily due to a decrease in trading income caused by a change in interest-rate trends, and a narrowing of the loan spread in lending to domestic corporate customers.

MUFG forecasts a decrease in consolidated ordinary profit and net income compared to the amounts previously announced, mainly due to a decrease in net business profits as mentioned above, and a downward revision of earnings forecast of Mitsubishi UFJ NICOS Co., Ltd., a consolidated subsidiary, caused mainly by the recording of reconstruction allowance due to the implementation of structural reforms.

Regarding investments in sub-prime loan related financial products, the investments had a negative impact of approximately ¥5.0 billion to our ordinary profit for the six months ended September 30, 2007 due to impairment losses.

As of the end of September 2007, the amount of the total investment securities on a MUFG Group basis was about ¥43 trillion, of which investments in sub-prime loan related securitized financial products was about ¥260 billion. Nearly all of the sub-prime loan related securitized financial products were asset-backed securities backed by non-securitized assets*1 and around 96% were rated at the highest rating of Triple A.

These investments are expected to have a negative impact of approximately ¥5.0 billion on our ordinary profit under Japanese GAAP for the six months ended September 30, 2007, mainly due to impairment losses.

In addition, according to our valuation, the appraisal loss on these investments as of the end of September 2007 was approximately ¥20 billion. The total appraisal gains/losses on our investment securities as of the end of September 2007 was an appraisal gain of approximately ¥2.9 trillion.

MUFG Group, including Union Bank of California, its consolidated subsidiary in the United States which provides residential mortgage loans, does not engage in sub-prime real estate lending.

In addition, MUFG Group is not involved in arranging securitization of such loans, nor is it involved in providing warehousing loans*2 collateralized with sub-prime loan related assets.

In addition, the assets held by ABCP programs which MUFG Group sponsors do not include sub-prime loan related assets, and there are no cases where MUFG Group organizes a SIV (Structured Investment Vehicle) and provides liquidity assistance to such a SIV by itself.

For your reference, Mitsubishi UFJ Securities Co., Ltd., a consolidated subsidiary of ours does not have any investments in sub-prime loan related financial products.

*1 In general, asset-backed securities backed by non-securitized assets such as loans are not complex in terms of risks compared to the asset-backed securities backed by securitized assets.

*2 Loans provided to investment banks creating securitization products that are provided until such products are sold.

	End of September 2007	End of July 2007
Balance of sub-prime loan related investments	Approximately 260.0 billion yen	Approximately 280.0 billion yen
Appraisal losses on sub-prime loan related investments	Approximately 20.0 billion yen	Approximately 5.0 billion yen
