Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On April 15, 2009, Noble International, Ltd. (the Company) entered into an Accommodation Agreement (the Accommodation Agreement) with General Motors Corporation, Ford Motor Company and Chrysler, LLC (collectively, the Customers).

Pursuant to the terms of the Accommodation Agreement, the Customers agreed to expedite payment of amounts owed to the Company, to refrain from resourcing their purchases of certain roll-formed products to other suppliers and to cooperate with the Company's efforts to sell its roll-forming operations, provided the Company meets certain milestones. Under the Accommodation Agreement the Company agreed to cooperate with the Customers in resourcing their purchases of roll-formed products if the Company does not meet the milestones and granted the Customers an option to acquire dedicated tooling and equipment.

The Accommodation Agreement will continue until the earlier of: May 31, 2009; the completion of the Customers' resourcing of laser-welded products and the sale of the Company's roll-forming operations, or a resourcing of those operations if a sale does not occur by a specified date; or the occurrence of an event of default.

Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

In connection with execution of the Accommodation Agreement, the Memorandum of Understanding dated February 23, 2009 among the Company and the Customers, disclosed and described by the Company in previous Current Reports on Form 8-K, was terminated.

Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard.

On April 16, 2009, the Company received a Nasdaq Staff Determination letter (the Determination) indicating that the Company is subject to delisting as a result of its failure to pay certain fees required by Nasdaq Listing Rule 5210(d). Accordingly, unless the Company appeals the Determination, the Company will be delisted on April 27, 2009.

The Company is considering an appeal of the Determination to the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel. There can be no assurance the Panel will grant a request for continued listing.
