ITEM 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On April 22, 2009, General Motors Corporation ( GM ) entered into Amendment Number Two (the Amendment ) to the Loan and Security Agreement dated as of December 31, 2008 (as amended, the Loan Agreement ) between GM as Borrower and the U.S. Department of the Treasury as lender (the U.S. Treasury ). The Amendment increased the aggregate maximum amount available for GM to borrow under the Loan Agreement to $15.4 billion. On April 24, GM drew a $2.0 billion advance under the Loan Agreement (the Advance ) and delivered an additional note payable to the U.S. Treasury in a principal amount of $133,400,000 as compensation for the Advance, pursuant to the terms of the Warrant Agreement dated as of December 31, 2008 between GM and the U.S. Treasury. As required by the Loan Agreement, prior to receiving the Advance GM provided a statement describing its intended use of the proceeds of the Advance, which was considered acceptable by the U.S. Treasury.

Consistent with the policies and terms of the Agreement as originally signed, the Amendment also requires GM take all necessary actions to ensure that its employee benefit plans covered by the Loan Agreement (including future benefit plans) comply with the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008, as amended by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 ( EESA ), including the provisions for the Capital Purchase Program, as implemented by any guidance or regulations in effect from time to time. In addition, GM and its majority-owned subsidiaries are required to comply with the Employ American Workers Act. Finally, the Amendment enhances the requirements for reporting on internal controls over compliance with specified sections of the Loan Agreement, certification of the use of proceeds of the Advance, and recordkeeping relating to the implementation of the Credit Agreement dated as of April 2, 2009 between GM Supplier Receivables LLC and the U.S. Treasury or any other federal support programs provided to GM pursuant to EESA.
