VisionChina Media Inc. Announces Counter-Suit Commenced by Former Shareholders of Digital Media Group Company Limited

BEIJING, March 2, 2011 /PRNewswire-Asia/ VisionChina Media Inc. (VisionChina Media or the Company) (Nasdaq: VISN), one of China's largest out-of-home digital television advertising networks on mass transportation systems, today announced that it, together with its wholly-owned subsidiary Vision Best Limited (Vision Best), were named in a lawsuit commenced on February 25, 2011 by Shareholder Representative Services, LLC, Oak Investment Partners XII, Limited Partnership, Gobi Partners, Inc., Gobi Fund, Inc., and Gobi Fund II, L.P. (collectively, the Former Digital Media Group Shareholders) in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, New York County, relating to VisionChina Media's November 16, 2009 acquisition of Digital Media Group Company Limited (Digital Media Group).

The lawsuit is a counter-suit to a lawsuit filed by VisionChina Media and Vision Best on December 27, 2010 against the Former Digital Media Group Shareholders. The Former Digital Media Group Shareholders' complaint alleges that VisionChina Media and Vision Best breached certain agreements related to the Company's acquisition of Digital Media Group, by allegedly declining to make certain installment payments that the Former Digital Media Group Shareholders claim they were entitled to receive, and allegedly declining to take other steps to facilitate the transfer of Company stock that the Former Digital Media Group Shareholders are entitled to receive in connection with the acquisition. According to the complaint, the Former Digital Media Group Shareholders are seeking specific enforcement of the contracts at issue, compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, permanent and preliminary injunctive relief and such other relief as the court deems just and proper.

Also on February 25, 2011, the Former Digital Media Group Shareholders filed two motions against VisionChina Media and Vision Best in their newly-filed lawsuit. They submitted a motion for attachment, seeking an order of attachment in the amount of $30 million against VisionChina Media and Vision Best and directing them to transfer assets into the State of New York to satisfy a prospective judgment. They also filed a motion in the new lawsuit for a preliminary injunction, seeking a preliminary order that VisionChina Media and Vision Best remove the restrictive legend on certain VisionChina Media stock received by the Former Digital Media Group Shareholders in connection with the acquisition, and provide consents or authorizations required to convert the Company's stock that the Former Digital Media Group Shareholders are entitled to receive to American Depository Shares and make them freely tradable.

The Company and Vision Best believe that the Former Digital Media Group Shareholders' claims and related motions are without merit and intend to vigorously defend the claims and oppose the motions. The motions are scheduled to be presented for the New York court's consideration on March 15, 2011.
