Introduction

This Amendment No. 3 (this Amendment) amends and supplements the Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the Statement) originally filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) by Tasty Baking Company, a Pennsylvania corporation (Tasty), on April 21, 2011, as amended by Amendments No. 1 and No. 2 filed by Tasty with the SEC on April 25, 2011 and May 2, 2011, respectively. The Statement relates to the offer by Compass Merger Sub, Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation (Merger Sub) and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Flowers Foods, Inc., a Georgia corporation (Flowers), to purchase all of the outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.50 per share, of Tasty at a purchase price of $4.00 per share, net to the selling shareholder in cash, without interest and subject to any required withholding taxes, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase dated April 21, 2011, and in the related Letter of Transmittal, copies of which are attached to the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO filed by Flowers and certain of its affiliates, including Merger Sub, with the SEC on April 21, 2011, as amended from time to time.

Janney may also be paid a fee currently estimated to be approximately $1,958,151 (calculated as a percentage of the total consideration paid and the principal amount of indebtedness assumed in connection with the Offer and Merger), less the prior service fees and fees paid for rendering its opinion, which fee is contingent upon the successful completion of the Offer and Merger. The actual amount of this contingent fee is subject to adjustment based on the final balance sheet at closing. In addition to these fees payable to Janney pursuant to the Engagement Letter, Tasty has agreed to reimburse Janney for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection with its services and for the rendering of its opinion, provided that these expenses cannot exceed a cap of $40,000 without the consent of Tasty. Item 8, Additional Information, under the heading Litigation is hereby amended and supplemented by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following section which contains updated information:

A. Michelsen and Enochs v. Tasty Baking Company, et al.

On April 21, 2011, a Verified Shareholder Derivative and Class Action Complaint was filed in Michelsen and Enochs v. Tasty Baking Company, et al., No. 11-04-02487, in the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania (Michelsen Complaint). The Michelsen Complaint named as defendants the members of Tasty's Board of Directors, as well as Tasty, Flowers and Flowers Bakeries, LLC, a Georgia limited liability company and wholly-owned subsidiary of Flowers (Flowers Bakeries). The Michelsen Complaint alleged, among other things, that Tasty's directors breached their fiduciary duties to Tasty's shareholders in connection with the Offer and the Merger, and further claimed that Flowers and Flowers Bakeries aided and abetted those alleged breaches of fiduciary duty. The Michelsen Complaint further alleged that Tasty's directors engaged in the waste of Tasty's assets by entering into the Merger Agreement. The Michelsen Complaint also alleged that the Offer and Merger between Tasty and Flowers involves an unfair price, an unfair and self-serving sales process with preclusive deal protection devices, and that Tasty's directors agreed to the transactions to benefit themselves personally. The Michelsen Complaint sought rescission of the Merger Agreement and injunctive relief, including to enjoin the Offer and Merger, and an award of attorneys' and other fees and costs, in addition to other relief.

B. Paul F. Ringheiser III v. Tasty Baking Company, et al.

On April 27, 2011, a Verified Shareholder Derivative and Class Action Complaint was filed in Paul F. Ringheiser III v. Tasty Baking Company, et al., No. 11-04-02927, in the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania (the Ringheiser Complaint). The Ringheiser Complaint named as defendants the members of Tasty's Board of Directors, as well as Tasty, Flowers and Flowers Bakeries. The Ringheiser Complaint alleged, among other things, that Tasty's directors breached their fiduciary duties to Tasty's shareholders in connection with the Offer and the Merger, and further claimed that Flowers and Flowers Bakeries aided and abetted those alleged breaches of fiduciary duty. The Ringheiser Complaint further alleged that Tasty's directors engaged in the waste of Tasty's assets by entering into the Merger Agreement. The Ringheiser Complaint also alleged that the Offer and Merger between Tasty and Flowers involves an unfair price, an unfair and self-serving sales process with preclusive deal protection devices, and that Tasty's directors agreed to the transactions to benefit themselves personally. The Ringheiser Complaint alleged additionally that the Top-Up Option will have a dilutive effect on appraisal value. The Ringheiser Complaint sought rescission of the Merger Agreement and injunctive relief, including to enjoin the Offer and Merger, and an award of attorneys' and other fees and costs, in addition to other relief.

C. Joan Taylor v. Tasty Baking Company, et al.

On April 29, 2011, a Verified Shareholder Derivative Complaint was filed in Joan Taylor v. Tasty Baking Company, et al., No. 11-05-00004, in the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania (the Taylor Complaint). The Taylor Complaint named as defendants the members of Tasty's Board of Directors, as well as Tasty, Flowers and Flowers Bakeries. The Taylor Complaint alleged, among other things, that Tasty's directors breached their fiduciary duties to Tasty's shareholders in connection with the Offer and the Merger, and further claimed that Tasty and Flowers Bakeries aided and abetted those alleged breaches of fiduciary duty. The Taylor Complaint further alleged that Tasty's directors engaged in the waste of Tasty's assets by entering into the Merger Agreement. The Taylor Complaint also alleged that the Offer and Merger between Tasty and Flowers involves an unfair price, an unfair and self-serving sales process with preclusive deal protection devices, and that Tasty's directors agreed to the transactions to benefit themselves personally. The Taylor Complaint alleged additionally that the disclosures contained in the Statement omit material information about the Offer and Merger. The Taylor Complaint sought rescission of the Merger Agreement and injunctive relief, including to enjoin the Offer and Merger, and an award of attorneys' and other fees and costs, in addition to other relief.

D. David Raul Demand

On April 27, 2011, Tasty's Board of Directors received a written shareholder litigation demand (the Demand) on behalf of a shareholder, David Raul, alleging breaches of fiduciary duty by the Board and management in connection with the Offer and the Merger, and demanding that the Board take action to ensure that the consideration provided in the Offer is fair to Tasty and its shareholders, and to otherwise recover, for Tasty's benefit, the damages described in the letter. The Demand threatens that Mr. Raul will commence a shareholder derivative suit on behalf of Tasty absent immediate action by the Board to that effect. To Tasty's knowledge, no complaint has been filed in connection with this Demand.

E. Consolidation of Pending Actions

On May 11, 2011, by agreement of the parties, a Stipulation to Consolidate was filed with the Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania with regard to the actions described in the Michelsen Complaint, the Ringheiser Complaint and the Taylor Complaint. If approved by the Court, this will consolidate these proceedings before the Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania. The consolidated action will be entitled In re Tasty Baking Company Shareholder Litigation, Case No. 11-04-02487 (the Consolidated Action).

F. Settlement

The defendants named in the Consolidated Action (the Defendants) believe that the Consolidated Action is entirely without merit, and that they have valid defenses to all claims raised by David Raul and the plaintiffs named in the Consolidated Action (collectively, the Plaintiffs). Nevertheless, and despite their belief that they ultimately would have prevailed in the defense of the Plaintiffs' claims, to avoid the costs, disruption and distraction associated with such litigation, on May 11, 2011, the Defendants entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Plaintiffs. Under the MOU, the Plaintiffs and the purported class of Tasty shareholders they represent will dismiss the Consolidated Action with prejudice, withdraw the Demand and discharge and release the Defendants, their agents, advisors and certain affiliated parties from and against all direct, derivative, legal or equitable claims, known and unknown, that are based on, arise out of or relate in any way, directly or indirectly, to the allegations and claims in the Consolidated Action, the Demand, the Contemplated Transactions, the negotiations and deliberations related to the Merger Agreement, the various public filings relating to the Contemplated Transactions and certain other potential legal or equitable claims described more fully in the MOU. In exchange for such settlement and release, the parties agreed, after arm's length discussions between and among the Defendants and Plaintiffs, that Tasty would provide additional supplemental disclosures to the Statement (such disclosures being set forth in this Amendment), although Tasty does not make any admission that such additional supplemental disclosures are material as a matter of law or in the context of a shareholder's decision to tender Shares into and accept the Offer. After reaching agreement on the substantive terms of the settlement, the parties also agreed that the Plaintiffs may apply to the court for an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and that Tasty, or its successor, will pay to Plaintiffs' counsel an amount not more than $250,000 as is approved by court order. The settlement, including the payment by the Defendants of any such fees and expenses, is also contingent upon, among other things, consummation of the Contemplated Transactions and the approval of the Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania. The MOU recognizes, among other things, that the parties will cooperate and use their best efforts to execute a Stipulation of Settlement and present the Stipulation of Settlement and such other documentation as may be required by the court within forty-five (45) days from the date of the MOU in order to obtain court approval of the settlement.

The MOU provides that Tasty and the members of its Board of Directors deny that they committed any violation of law or breach of duty or acted improperly in any way, and they believe that they acted properly at all times and that the Consolidated Action has no merit, but wish to settle the Consolidated Action in order to avoid the costs, disruption and distraction of further litigation. In the event that the MOU is not approved and the conditions described above are not satisfied, the Defendants will continue to vigorously defend the Consolidated Action.

This summary of the MOU does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the MOU, which is filed as Exhibit (a)(13) to the Statement and which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9. Exhibits.
