Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information

In the Prospectus Supplement dated June 1, 2011, Applied assumed for purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information that it would raise $1.5 billion, instead of $1.75 billion, in gross proceeds in this offering. As a result, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not reflect the adjustments that would have resulted from the incremental capital raise, including a corresponding reduction in short-term debt and corresponding changes to net interest expense for the periods presented.
