ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS

1. As most recently referenced in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2011, our subsidiary, Sensata Technologies, Inc., has been involved in litigation, styled Whirlpool Corporation et al. v. Sensata Technologies Inc. et al., Docket No. 2009 L-001022, Cook County Circuit Court, Illinois. On October 25, 2011, the parties to the litigation entered into a settlement agreement to resolve the lawsuit. As it concerns us, the lawsuit was settled for an amount consistent with our existing reserve as of September 30, 2011 and will therefore not have an effect on our results of operations for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2011. While the agreement between the parties provides for sharing of certain possible future liabilities, if any, we do not believe that such losses are probable at this time.

2. As most recently referenced in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2011, Texas Instruments has agreed to indemnify us for certain costs we may incur pursuant to the 2006 Asset and Share Purchase Agreement ( ASPA ). Pursuant to the ASPA, to the extent that the aggregate amount of costs and/or damages we incur exceeds $30.0 million, Texas Instruments will reimburse us for amounts incurred in excess of that threshold. On October 25, 2011, we reached an agreement with Texas Instruments concerning claims we have made that we believed apply towards the $30.0 million threshold. Texas Instruments has agreed that the threshold has been met and any future costs that we may incur, if indemnifiable, under the ASPA, will be reimbursed by Texas Instruments until the aggregate costs, including those incurred by both companies, exceed $300.0 million. We do not believe that costs will exceed $300.0 million.
