Item 8.01. Other Events.

On November 18, 2011, Webster Bank received final court approval for settlement of the previously reported litigation with Community Building Systems, Inc., the developer of the Broadwin condominium conversion project in Columbus, Ohio, and certain original unit purchasers in the project. As a result of the settlement, which is for an amount significantly less than previously reserved in connection with the litigation, Webster Financial Corporation ( Webster ) will record a pre-tax benefit of approximately $9.5 million in its results for the three months ended December 31, 2011.

Under the settlement, in exchange for complete and general releases from the plaintiffs, Webster Bank will pay a total of $10.5 million to the plaintiffs and deliver a quit-claim deed to the condominium units at the Broadwin property owned by a Webster Bank affiliate to a designee of Community Building Systems, Inc. The parties agree that the settlement is a compromise of disputed claims and does not constitute an admission by any party that any claim, defense or fact alleged by any other party is true or meritorious.

Additional information regarding the litigation can be found under the heading Broadwin Condominium Matter in Part II, Item 1 of Webster s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2011, as updated in Part II, Item 1 of its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for each of the quarters ended June 30, 2011 and September 30, 2011.
