Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 19, 2011, Manhattan Associates, Inc. (the Company) entered into a new Executive Employment Agreement (the Agreement) with its current President and Chief Executive Officer, Peter F. Sinisgalli, that will become effective on April 13, 2012 (the Effective Date) following the expiration of Mr. Sinisgalli's existing employment agreement with the Company, provided he is still employed on the Effective Date. Prior to the Effective Date, his current employment agreement will remain in effect. The new Agreement expires on April 12, 2014. The Company's Board of Directors authorized a committee consisting of John J. Huntz, Jr., Chairman of the Board, and Thomas E. Noonan, Chairman of the Compensation Committee of the Board, to negotiate and enter into, with the assistance of the Board's compensation consultant and outside legal counsel, the Agreement with Mr. Sinisgalli.

In consideration of his continued employment with the Company on and after the Effective Date as its President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Sinisgalli is entitled under the Agreement to an annual base salary of $494,000, subject to annual increase at the discretion of the Board or Compensation Committee, and will be eligible to receive a performance-based bonus with a target opportunity of no less than 100% of his base salary, as determined by the Board or Compensation Committee. Mr. Sinisgalli is also eligible to receive performance- and/or service-based equity incentives from time to time under the Company's stock incentive plan. The form, vesting, forfeiture and other terms and conditions of such grants shall be determined by the Board or the Compensation Committee, provided that equity incentives granted to Mr. Sinisgalli that provide solely for service-based vesting shall vest in 16 equal quarterly installments beginning on the last day of the calendar quarter ending more than 60 days after the grant date.

In the event Mr. Sinisgalli is terminated by the Company, other than for cause, disability or his death, or in the event Mr. Sinisgalli quits as a result of a constructive termination (as defined in the Agreement), he will be entitled to continuation of his base salary and health coverage for 18 months as severance benefits, subject to his execution of a general release in favor of the Company (the form of which is attached to the Agreement as an exhibit) and his compliance with certain noncompete, nonsolicitation and confidentiality covenants. In addition, if Mr. Sinisgalli is terminated after a change of control of the Company (as defined in the Agreement) under the circumstances described in the preceding sentence, he will be entitled to a pro rata bonus for the year of termination. In general, the severance payments to Mr. Sinisgalli are limited such that he will not receive any parachute payment as described in Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code. Further, he is not entitled under the Agreement to any reimbursement or gross up of any excise taxes he may become obligated to pay under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

This summary of the terms and conditions of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1, and incorporated by reference herein.
