CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS,

AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

On September 29, 2010, we completed a business combination with NexCore Group LP by acquiring 90% of the partnership interests in NexCore Group LP, which we refer to as the Acquisition. NexCore Group LP was originally created in 2004 to provide solutions to hospitals and healthcare systems through a national platform focused on strategic and operational consulting, development, acquisitions, financing, leasing, and asset and property management services. In connection with the Acquisition, our former operations were discontinued and we continued NexCore Group LP's existing business activities. In April 2011, we changed our state of incorporation from Colorado to Delaware and changed our name from CapTerra Financial Group, Inc. to NexCore Healthcare Capital Corp.

Except as set forth below, there were no transactions during 2011 or 2010, or any currently proposed transaction that, to our knowledge, any director, executive officer, nominee, future director, five percent stockholder, or any member of the immediate family of the foregoing persons, have or will have a direct or indirect material interest in which the amount involved exceeds $120,000. In addition, none of the foregoing persons have been indebted to us during such periods in an amount exceeding $120,000.

Revenue, Direct Costs of Revenue and Accounts Receivable

Revenue associated with transactions with properties where certain officers of the Company have, or the Company itself has, an ownership interest in, or can significantly influence decision-making on behalf of the property, is related party revenue.

GDBA Investments LLLP

GDBA, a private investment company, provided financing to our predecessor company, CapTerra. Upon completion of the Acquisition on September 29, 2010, one senior subordinated note with GDBA was outstanding. On September 30, 2010, one of our wholly-owned subsidiaries signed a promissory note with Safe Harbor I, LLC, an entity controlled by GDBA and BOCO, in the amount of $25,000, which was used entirely as a principal reduction payment for the note held by Citizens Bank described in Note 6 to our Consolidated Financial Statements. On December 12, 2010, the note was amended and assigned to GDBA. Additionally, on December 1, 2010, we signed promissory notes totaling $425,000 between GDBA and our consolidated affiliates that were used to repay outstanding debt to vendors. All the notes carried a 0.46% annual interest rate. The outstanding balances of these notes are detailed in the table below. As of December 31, 2010 total interest accrued for all notes due GDBA was $593. These notes were repaid in full during the year ended December 31, 2011.

BOCO Investments, LLC

BOCO, a private investment company, provided financing to our predecessor company, CapTerra, and continues to provide various financial services to us. Upon completion of the Acquisition on September 29, 2010, one senior subordinated note with BOCO was outstanding with an annual interest rate of 0.46%.

Additionally, NexCore Group LP has a revolving line of credit with BOCO. The line of credit in the amount of up to $2,000,000 bears an annual interest rate of 8% and is secured by substantially all of our assets. During June 2011, the line of credit was extended until July 29, 2012. There was no outstanding balance on this line of credit as of December 31, 2011 or 2010, respectively. As of December 31, 2010, total interest accrued for all notes due BOCO was $3,155. These notes were repaid in full during the year ended December 31, 2011.

Transfer of Assets

On March 25, 2011, we transferred our interests in nine subsidiaries holding real estate assets to CDA, a subsidiary of BOCO, in exchange for CDA assuming our related party debt with BOCO and GDBA, and the credit facility with First Citizens Bank. The related party debt that was assumed by CDA was no longer an obligation of ours as of March 25, 2011.

Guaranties

We executed project completion guaranties with US Bank and Wells Fargo in connection with construction loans for development projects that commenced in September 2010, June 2011 and November 2011. The guaranty agreements unconditionally guarantee US Bank and Wells Fargo that the projects will be completed, all costs will be paid, and that each property will be free and clear of all liens prior to the release of each specific guaranty. As of December 31, 2011, we believe any amounts associated with these guaranties will be de minimus and therefore have not recorded a corresponding liability. Additionally, affiliates of Messrs. Klemsz and Snyder executed limited payment guaranties with US Bank and Wells Fargo related to those construction loans and the completion guaranties, for which they will receive fees upon completion of the projects. Messrs. Venn, Kloepfer and Gross (our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Investment Officer and Chief Operating Officer, respectively) have agreed, subject to certain limitations, to indemnify the related party if the related party is required to make payment under these limited payment guaranties.

We have a contract with WestMountain Asset Management under which WestMountain provides marketing consulting services to us for approximately $6,000 per month.

COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(a) OF THE EXCHANGE ACT

Section 16(a) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's executive officers, directors and holders of more than 10% of our outstanding shares of Common Stock to file reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Common Stock with the SEC. Executive officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file. The Company believes that during its most recent fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, its executive officers, directors and greater than 10% stockholders complied with the filing requirements under Section 16(a) except that Mr. Lawless filed late a Form 3 and Form 4 that related to his commencement of employment.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS AND NOMINATIONS FOR

THE 2013 ANNUAL MEETING

Proxy statement proposals

Under SEC rules, proposals that stockholders seek to have included in the proxy statement for our next annual meeting of stockholders must be received by our Secretary no later than December 20, 2012.

Other proposals and nominations

Our Bylaws govern the submission of nominations for director or other business proposals that a stockholder wishes to have considered at a meeting of stockholders, but which are not included in our proxy statement for that meeting. Under our Bylaws, nominations for director or other business proposals to be addressed at our next annual meeting may be made by a stockholder entitled to vote who has delivered a notice to us by the later of the ninetieth day prior to next year's annual meeting and the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of next year's annual meeting is first made. The notice must contain the information required by the Bylaws.

These advance notice provisions are in addition to, and separate from, the requirements that a stockholder must meet in order to have a proposal included in the proxy statement under the rules of the SEC. Copies of our Bylaws may be obtained from the Secretary.

OTHER INFORMATION

Important notice regarding delivery of security holder documents

SEC rules and Delaware law permit us to mail one annual report and proxy statement, or notice of internet availability, as applicable, in one envelope to all stockholders residing at the same address if certain conditions are met. This is called householding and can result in significant savings of paper and mailing costs. We household all annual reports, proxy statements and notices of internet availability mailed to stockholders.

If you choose not to household, you should send a written request (including your name and address) to our Secretary at the address listed above. In addition, if you choose to continue householding but would like to receive an additional copy of the annual report, proxy statement or notice of internet availability for members of your household, you may contact our Secretary. Stockholders residing at the same address who are receiving multiple copies of our annual report, proxy statement or notice of internet availability may request householding in the future by contacting the Secretary at the address or phone number set forth above.

Annual Report

We filed our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011 with the SEC on March 30, 2012. A copy of the Annual Report is enclosed with this Information Statement.
