Director Resignations

On September 25, 2013, Michael Casey resigned from the Board of Directors of DURECT Corporation, effective December 31, 2013. Mr. Casey's decision to resign is not the result of any disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to the Company's operation, policies or practices.

On September 25, 2013, the Company's Board of Directors appointed Jay Shepard as a Class II director, whose term expires at our 2014 annual meeting, effective September 26, 2013.

Mr. Shepard has over 30 years' experience in the pharmaceutical, biotechnology and drug delivery fields. Mr. Shepard currently serves as an Executive Partner at Sofinnova Ventures. From 2010 until 2012, he was President and CEO of NextWave Pharmaceuticals, a pediatric focused therapeutics company which was acquired in November 2012 by Pfizer in a deal valued up to $700 million shortly after NextWave obtained FDA approval for Quillivant XR, a treatment for Attention-Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD). While serving at NextWave, Mr. Shepard maintained a strategic advisor relationship with Sofinnova Ventures, which he joined in 2008 as an Executive in Residence. Prior to Sofinnova Ventures, Mr. Shepard was President and CEO of Ilypsa, a nephrology therapeutics company acquired by Amgen for $420 million. He then helped with Ilypsa's spin-out company, Relypsa, serving as interim President and CEO. Before Ilypsa, Mr. Shepard served as Vice President, Commercial Operations at Telik, where he was responsible for all activities related to market preparation toward the launch of the company's lead oncology compounds. Previously, he was Vice President of ALZA Pharmaceuticals' Oncology Business Unit, having held leadership positions of increasing responsibility in the establishment and operation of ALZA's specialty pharmaceutical sales and marketing group. Mr. Shepard began his career in pharmaceutical sales and marketing at Ortho Pharmaceutical and Syntex Laboratories.

Mr. Shepard has been appointed to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company.

As compensation for his service on the Board of Directors and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, Mr. Shepard will receive the Company's standard compensation for non-employee directors as described in the Company's Proxy Statement filed with the SEC on April 29, 2013, including a grant of nonstatutory options to purchase shares of our common stock granted to all new non-employee directors, which by approval of the Board of Directors on September 25, 2013 was increased by 35,000 shares to a total of 70,000 shares. These options have a ten-year term and become exercisable in installments of one-third of the total number of shares granted on each anniversary of the grant.

There are no understandings or arrangements between Mr. Shepard and any other person pursuant to which he was selected as a director.
