State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Spectrum Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company) has determined that it is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (the Form 10-Q) for the quarter ended September 30, 2013 within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense because it requires additional time to first complete restatements of its first and second fiscal quarters of 2013, as described below.

On November 12, 2013, the Company disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K that management of the Company and the Audit Committee of its Board of Directors concluded that its interim financial statements for the quarters ended March 31, 2013 and June 30, 2013, previously issued by the Company should no longer be relied upon and should be restated. The Company expects to complete and file these restated financial statements on Form 10-Q/A, and file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2013, within the permitted 5-day extension from the prescribed due date of November 12, 2013.

Words such as expect, will, anticipate, believe, estimate, intend, plan, potential and similar expressions also identify forward-looking statements. There can be no assurance that the Company's management, Audit Committee or independent registered public accounting firm will not reach conclusions that are different from management's preliminary identification of issues. These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, including the risk that additional information relating to the scope of the improprieties may arise from the ongoing review of this matter, the risk that the process of preparing the financial statements or other subsequent events would require the Company to make additional adjustments, the time and effort required to complete the restatement and the ramifications of the Company's potential inability to timely file required reports. Forward-looking statements reflect management's analysis as of the filing date of this Notice, and the Company does not undertake to revise these statements to reflect subsequent developments.

(Telephone No.)

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed ? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Total revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2013 were $42.4 million compared to $69.0 million for the three months ended September 30, 2012. The change was primarily a result of a change in Fusilev sales which were $23.1 million in three months ended September 30, 2013 versus $52.0 million for three months ended September 30, 2012. Fusilev sales were higher in 2012 as a result of a drug shortage with competitor products.

Total operating expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2013 were $55.7 million compared to $45.9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2012. The increase in operating expense was driven primarily by an increase in selling, general and administrative expenses ($6.1 million), an increase in research and development costs ($3.5 million), an increase in amortization and impairment of purchased intangibles ($3.1 million), offset by lower cost of product sales ($2.9 million).

The Company reported a net loss for the three months ended September 30, 2013 of $7.8 million or $0.13 per share compared to net income for the three months ended September 30, 2012 of $21.5 million or $0.37 per share.

The above statements are preliminary and subject to change based, among other things, on the Company's completion of the restatements discussed above.
