Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 27, 2013, ChemoCentryx, Inc. (the Company) received notice that Glaxo Group Limited (GSK), an affiliate of GlaxoSmithKline declined its option to the C5aR program and returned all rights to CCX354 and its two identified back-up compounds to the Company under the Product Development and Commercialization Agreement, effective as of August 22, 2006, by and between the Company and GSK, as amended (the Agreement), leaving no active research programs under the Agreement, and thus ending the Agreement, effective November 27, 2013.

The Agreement had provided GSK with an option to license certain product candidates on an exclusive, worldwide basis. Upon exercise of a product option by GSK, the Company would grant GSK an exclusive license to the specific product compounds, and GSK would bear all future costs and responsibility associated with furthering the development of the drug candidate. If such programs were then advanced through development by GSK, the Company would be entitled to receive regulatory and commercial milestone payments based on performance and royalties of future product sales, if any.

The foregoing description of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, a copy of which was filed as an exhibit to Amendment No. 2 to the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-1 on January 6, 2012 (Registration No. 333-177332), and Amendments Nos. 1-5 to the Agreement, copies of which were filed as exhibits to the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-1 on October 14, 2011 (Registration No. 333-177332).

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On December 3, 2013, the Company issued a press release announcing top-line CCX168 Phase II data in anti-neutrophil cytoplasmic antibody-associated renal vasculitis and the end of the Agreement. A copy of the press release is being furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

The information contained in this Item 7.01, including the exhibit referenced herein, is being furnished and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section. Such information shall not be incorporated by reference into any filing of the Company, whether made before or after the date hereof, regardless of any general incorporation language in such filing.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
