ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On March 23, 2014, Hanmi Financial Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Hanmi), entered into an Amended and Restated Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Amended and Restated Merger Agreement) with Central Bancorp, Inc., a Texas corporation (CBI), and Harmony Merger Sub Inc., a Texas corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Hanmi (Merger Sub). The Amended and Restated Merger Agreement amends and restates the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 15, 2013, by and among Hanmi, CBI and Merger Sub (the Original Merger Agreement).

Under the terms of the Original Merger Agreement, Hanmi had agreed to pay an aggregate merger consideration of $50 million in respect of all outstanding shares of CBI common stock, par value $1.00 per share (the CBI Shares), which $50 million would be reduced on a dollar-for-dollar basis by (i) up to a specified dollar amount depending on CBI's ability to realize certain tax refunds arising from CBI's restatement of previous years' tax returns or refunds of prior overpayments prior to the closing date or CBI's 2013 tax liabilities exceeding a certain amount (that specified dollar amount in the Original Merger Agreement was $23 million, less $4 million applied by CBI prior to the date of the Original Merger Agreement to reduce then anticipated 2013 estimated taxes) and (ii) the amount of certain losses incurred or reasonably expected to be incurred in the event CBI's banking subsidiary United Central Bank (UCB) fails to secure reimbursements or assurances of reimbursement under the loss share agreements between UCB and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC) or the FDIC asserts any clawbacks. To address concerns that any tax refund referred to in clause (i) of the preceding sentence might not be achieved prior to the closing of the merger, pursuant to the Amended and Restated Merger Agreement, Hanmi and CBI have agreed to revise that portion of the structure of the merger consideration as follows. Assuming completion of the merger, the amount to be deducted in respect of this tax matter is $21 million less the aggregate amount of cash actually received by CBI between the date of the Original Merger Agreement and the closing date of the merger arising from any restatement or amendment of CBI's 2012 or earlier years' tax returns or a refund of CBI's 2012 or earlier years' U.S. federal income tax liability (but in no event less than zero). In addition, in the event that any such refunds are not received by CBI in an amount of at least $21 million prior to the closing date of the merger (any such deficiency, the Remaining Amount), then Hanmi will also issue as additional merger consideration in respect of each CBI Share outstanding immediately prior to the closing of the merger one non-transferrable contingent value right (a Contingent Value Right). In the aggregate, the Contingent Value Rights would represent the right to receive the Remaining Amount in the event that CBI (or its successor) receives any portion of such Remaining Amount (less all reasonable fees, expenses and other amounts actually incurred by CBI (or its successor) and its affiliates after the effective time of the merger with respect to obtaining such refunds, including reasonable fees and expenses paid to any outside counsel or other advisor and any fees or expenses (including with respect to indemnification) of the shareholders' representative to the extent not paid by CBI prior to the effective time of the merger) at or prior to July 31, 2015. In addition to addressing the timing concern through the potential issuance of Contingent Value Rights, this aspect of the merger consideration structure related to potential tax refunds was also modified to address incidental changes in CBI's tax posture between the date of the Original Merger Agreement and the date of the Amended and Restated Merger Agreement.

Any such Contingent Value Rights will be issued pursuant to a contingent value rights agreement (the CVR Agreement) to be entered into prior to the effective time of the merger by and among Hanmi, a shareholders representative and a rights agent (which rights agent may be Hanmi or any of its subsidiaries, at the election of Hanmi).

The Contingent Value Rights may not be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged, encumbered or in any other manner transferred or disposed of, in whole or in part except in the limited circumstances specified in the CVR Agreement. The Contingent Value Rights will not have any voting or dividend rights, and interest will not accrue on any amounts payable on the Contingent Value Rights to any Contingent Value Right holder, and the Contingent Value Rights will not represent any equity or ownership interest in Hanmi, in any constituent company to the merger, any affiliate of Hanmi or any other person.

Other than as set forth herein, the terms, economics and conditions of the Amended and Restated Merger Agreement are substantially the same as the terms of the Original Merger Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Amended and Restated Merger Agreement and the CVR Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amended and Restated Merger Agreement and the CVR Agreement, which are filed as Exhibit 2.1 and Exhibit 10.1 hereto, respectively, and are incorporated into this Current Report by reference.
