Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 15, 2014, Allegheny Technologies Incorporated (the Company) amended its $400 million domestic revolving credit facility (the Facility) to, among other things, modify the maximum leverage ratio and the minimum interest coverage ratio permitted under the Facility. In addition, the Company amended the Facility to provide for a springing lien on certain of the Company's accounts receivable and inventory (the Springing Lien). The Springing Lien will become effective in the future if either (i) the Company is rated BB+ or lower from Standard & Poor's and Ba1 or lower from Moody's or (ii) an event of default under the Facility has occurred, is continuing and has not been waived or cured (collectively, the Springing Lien Conditions). In the event that the Springing Lien becomes effective, it subsequently will be released if (i) the Company is rated BBB- or higher from Standard & Poor's or Baa3 or higher from Moody's and if no event of default under the Facility has occurred and is continuing or (ii) if the Springing Lien Condition was caused by an event of default under the Facility, such event of default has been cured or waived. Following any such release, the Springing Lien would be reinstated if either of the Springing Lien Conditions again occurs.

The amendment to the Facility is evidenced by an Eighth Amendment to Credit Agreement, dated October 15, 2014 (the Eighth Amendment), by and among ATI Funding Corporation, TDY Holdings, LLC, the guarantors party thereto, the lenders party thereto and PNC Bank, National Association, as administrative agent for the lenders. The foregoing is a summary of the material terms and conditions of the Eighth Amendment and not a complete discussion of the document. Accordingly, the foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Eighth Amendment, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
