On May 11, 2015, Harman International Industries, Incorporated, a Delaware corporation (the Company), completed a public offering of $400,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 4.150% Senior Notes due 2025 (the Notes).

The Notes were issued under an Indenture (the Base Indenture), dated as of May 11, 2015, by and between the Company and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee (the Trustee), as supplemented by the First Supplemental Indenture, dated as of May 11, 2015, by and between the Company and the Trustee, establishing the terms and providing for the issuance of the Notes (the First Supplemental Indenture and, together with the Base Indenture, the Indenture).

The First Supplemental Indenture and Form of Note, which is included therein, provide, among other things, that the Notes bear interest at a rate of 4.150% per year, payable semi-annually in arrears on May 15 and November 15 of each year, commencing on November 15, 2015, and will mature on May 15, 2025.

The Company estimates that the net proceeds from the offering of the Notes will be approximately $394.1 million after deducting underwriting discounts and estimated offering expenses payable by the Company. The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the offering of the Notes to repay a portion of indebtedness outstanding under the Company's revolving credit facility under that certain Multi-Currency Credit Agreement, dated March 26, 2015, by and among the Company, Harman Holding GmbH & Co. KG, J.P. At any time prior to February 15, 2025, the Company will have the right to redeem the Notes, in whole or in part from time to time, at the Company's option, at a make-whole redemption price, plus accrued and unpaid interest. At any time on or after February 15, 2025, the Company may redeem the Notes, in whole or in part from time to time, at the Company's option, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest. The Company is required to offer to repurchase the Notes for cash at a price of 101% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest, upon the occurrence of a change of control triggering event.

The Indenture contains covenants that, subject to certain exceptions, limit the Company's ability to: (i) incur indebtedness secured by principal properties, (ii) enter into certain sale and leaseback transactions with respect to principal properties and (iii) enter into certain mergers, consolidations and transfers of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis.

The Indenture also contains customary events of default. If an event of default occurs and is continuing with respect to any series of the Notes, then the Trustee may, and at the direction of the

In addition, in the case of an event of default arising from certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of the Company or its significant subsidiaries, the principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on the Notes will become due and payable immediately.
