Ms. Stacey's last day of employment was July 13, 2015 (Separation Date).

The Company and Ms. Stacey are also parties to an Employment Agreement, dated April 25, 2014, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as Exhibit 10.1 to Antares' Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending on June 30, 2014 (the Employment Agreement), which provides for certain severance payments and benefits subject to the execution and non-revocation by Ms. Stacey of a written release in a form acceptable to Antares. In consideration for the release provided by Ms. Stacey in the Separation Agreement, and for continuing compliance with the obligations contained in the Separation Agreement, Ms. Stacey will receive severance payments and benefits in accordance with terms of the Separation Agreement, which includes, among other severance payments and benefits, all severance payments and benefits that she is entitled to under the Employment Agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of the Separation Agreement, Ms. Stacey will receive the following:

Twelve months of continued base salary, payable in monthly installments.

Reimbursement for the cost of continued health and dental benefits through COBRA, subject to the same cost-sharing as if Ms. Stacey were an employee, for the shorter of 12 months or until the date she obtains coverage from a new employer.

With respect to all outstanding equity grants held by Ms. Stacey immediately prior to the Separation Date which vest based upon Ms. Stacey's continued service over time, the portion that would have become vested during the 12-month period following the Separation Date will accelerate, become fully vested and exercisable, as of the Separation Date.

The award, if any, under the Epi Bonus Plan approved by the Board of Directors of Antares on May 28, 2015 and disclosed in Antares' Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities Exchange Commission on June 3, 2015, to the extent such award is earned pursuant to the terms of the Epi Bonus Plan.
