ITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 17, 2015, BB&T Corporation, a North Carolina corporation (BB&T), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with National Penn Bancshares, Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation (National Penn). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, National Penn will merge with and into BB&T (the Merger), with BB&T as the surviving corporation in the Merger. Immediately following the Merger, National Penn's wholly owned bank subsidiary, National Penn Bank, will merge with and into BB&T's wholly owned bank subsidiary, Branch Banking and Trust Company (the Bank Merger), with Branch Banking and Trust Company as the surviving bank in the Bank Merger. The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the Board of Directors of each of BB&T and National Penn.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, National Penn shareholders will have the right to receive for each share of National Penn common stock, at their election (subject to proration in the event cash or stock is oversubscribed) either (i) $13.00 in cash or (ii) 0.3206 of a share (the Exchange Ratio) of BB&T common stock, par value $5.00 (BB&T Common Stock) (the Merger Consideration). The aggregate Merger Consideration will consist of approximately $550 million in cash and approximately 31.6 million shares of BB&T Common Stock (for a total mix of Merger Consideration consisting of 30% in cash and 70% in BB&T Common Stock).

At the Effective Time, each option granted by National Penn to purchase shares of National Penn common stock will fully vest and will be converted into an option to purchase BB&T Common Stock on the same terms and conditions as were applicable prior to the Merger, subject to adjustment of the exercise price and the number of shares of BB&T Common Stock issuable upon exercise of such option based on the Exchange Ratio. At the Effective Time, each National Penn restricted stock award, restricted stock unit award and National Penn deferred stock unit award that will by its terms or by the terms of the applicable National Penn stock plan or deferral election settle in connection with the Merger will fully vest and will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, with the same election right as shares of National Penn common stock. At the Effective Time, each National Penn deferred stock unit award that will not by its terms or by the terms of the applicable National Penn stock plan or deferral election settle in connection with the Merger will fully vest, will be assumed by BB&T and will be converted, at the option of the holder thereof, into either a (1) cash-settled deferred stock unit award with a dividend reinvestment feature with respect to the number of shares of BB&T Common Stock equal to the number of shares of National Penn common stock subject to such award multiplied by the Exchange Ratio or (2) a deferred cash account accruing interest credits at the same rate as currently in effect with an initial account balance equal to the product of the number of shares of National Penn common stock subject to such award multiplied by $13.00, with each such assumed award to be paid in accordance with the applicable deferral election.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from both BB&T and National Penn, and each party has agreed to customary covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to the conduct of its business during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time and, in the case of National Penn, its obligation, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that its shareholders adopt the Merger Agreement and its non-solicitation obligations relating to alternative acquisition proposals.

The completion of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including, among others, (1) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by National Penn's shareholders, (2) authorization for listing on the New York Stock Exchange of the shares of BB&T Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, (3) the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 for the BB&T Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, (4) the absence of any order, injunction or other legal restraint preventing the completion of the Merger or the Bank Merger or making the consummation of the Merger or Bank Merger illegal and (5) the receipt of required regulatory approvals, including the approval of the Federal Reserve Board, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the North Carolina Commissioner of Banks and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking. Each party's obligation to complete the Merger is also subject to certain additional customary conditions, including (i) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (ii) performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations under the Merger Agreement and (iii) receipt by such party of an opinion from its counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both BB&T and National Penn and further provides that a termination fee of $64,500,000 will be payable by National Penn to BB&T upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of, and were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time, and investors should not rely on them as statements of fact. In addition, such representations and warranties (1) will not survive consummation of the Merger, unless otherwise specified therein, and (2) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding BB&T or National Penn, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding BB&T, National Penn, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses, the Merger Agreement and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Registration Statement on Form S-4 that will include a proxy statement of National Penn and a prospectus of BB&T, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other filings that each of BB&T and National Penn make with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).
