Form of Response Letter to Certain Pfizer Inc. Stockholders Regarding the Proposed Combination of Pfizer Inc. and Allergan plc, first distributed December 10, 2015

Dear XXX:

Thank you for your [e-mail/letter] regarding the proposed combination of Pfizer Inc. and Allergan plc. We appreciate your feedback concerning this transaction.

The transaction with Allergan is about two great companies coming together to create a global biopharmaceutical leader with two best-in-class businesses that will be positioned to:

Make more innovative medicines and therapies available to more people around the world;

Bring together greater resources and financial flexibility to invest in R&D, manufacturing, business development and build greater depth in our key categories; and

Deliver value to shareholders and support a large base of highly skilled workers worldwide.

All companies, including Pfizer, must pay taxes on their income earned in the U.S., regardless of where they are incorporated. This transaction will not affect the tax rate that Pfizer pays on U.S.-based income. An inversion can change the tax rate paid on earnings generated outside of the U.S., which allows those earnings to be used for other company purposes. For example, with substantially improved access to cash, Pfizer will have greater financial flexibility that will facilitate our continued discovery and development of new innovative medicines for patients, direct return of capital to shareholders and investment in the U.S., while also enabling our pursuit of business development opportunities on a more competitive footing within our industry.

I have enclosed a copy of Pfizer's Retail Investor FAQ, which also includes tax-related information for shareholders. For additional information on the proposed transaction, we invite you to visit <https://www.premierbiopharmaleader.com>.

I hope this information is helpful. Again, thank you for writing and bringing your concerns to our attention.

Sincerely,

Margaret M. Madden
