Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 21, 2015, the Delaware Chancery Court issued an opinion in In re VAALCO Energy, Inc. Stockholder Litigation, Consol. C.A. No. 11775-VCL, invalidating as a matter of law provisions of the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of VAALCO Energy, Inc., a Delaware corporation, that permitted the removal of VAALCO's directors by its stockholders only for cause. The Chancery Court held that, in the absence of a classified board or cumulative voting, VAALCO's only for-cause director removal provisions conflict with Section 141(k) of the Delaware General Corporation Law and are therefore invalid.

Article V, Section C of our amended and restated certificate of incorporation (the Charter) and Section 20 of our Amended and Restated Bylaws (the Bylaws) contain similar only for-cause director removal provisions, and we do not have a classified board of directors or cumulative voting. As such, and in light of the recent VAALCO decision, we will not attempt to enforce the foregoing only for-cause director removal provisions. We will also seek to amend the Charter at our 2016 annual meeting of stockholders and will cause the Bylaws to be amended on or about the date of such annual meeting in order to provide that, consistent with Section 141(k) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, any of our directors or our entire board of directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors.
