1.5 On 13 January 2016, the National Development and Reform Commission announced the Notice of the National Development and Reform Commission on Further Improving the Pricing Mechanism of Refined Oil (Fa Gai Jia Ge [2016] No.64) (the Notice), stating that when the price of crude oil in the international market with which the domestic refined oil price is affiliated is lower than US$40/barrel, the domestic refined oil price will not be adjusted downward further (the so-called floor price). The Notice states that when the price of crude oil in the international market is lower than US$40/barrel, which is the regulatory lower limit, the amount of refined oil price that has not been adjusted will be put into a risk reserve fund. A dedicated account will be set up which requires the approval of the government before using. The fund will mainly be used for energy conservation, emissions reduction, oil product quality upgrading and oil supply security. Specific management measures will be announced separately. As at the date of this Report, the specific management measures have not been announced yet, and the Company has not withdrawn any provisions.
