English Translation of Excerpts from Quarterly Securities Report Filed in Japan

This document is an English translation of selected information included in the Quarterly Securities Report for the quarter ended September 30, 2016 filed by Mitsubishi UFJ Financial Group, Inc. ( MUFG or we ) with the Kanto Local Financial Bureau, the Ministry of Finance of Japan, on November 29, 2016 (the Quarterly Securities Report ). An English translation of certain information included in the Quarterly Securities Report was previously submitted in a report on Form 6-K dated November 14, 2016. Accordingly, this document should be read together with the previously submitted report.

The Quarterly Securities Report has been prepared and filed in Japan in accordance with applicable Japanese disclosure requirements as well as generally accepted accounting principles in Japan ( Japanese GAAP ). There are significant differences between Japanese GAAP and U.S. GAAP. In addition, the Quarterly Securities Report is intended to update prior disclosures filed by MUFG in Japan and discusses selected recent developments in the context of those prior disclosures. Accordingly, the Quarterly Securities Report may not contain all of the information that is important to you. For a more complete discussion of the background to information provided in the Quarterly Securities Report disclosure, please see our annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 and the other reports filed with or submitted to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission by MUFG.

Additional Notes to the Japanese GAAP Semi-Annual Financial Statements

1. Significant Accounting Bases and Policies Applied to the Semi-Annual Consolidated Financial Statements

I. Scope of consolidation

(1) Number of Consolidated Subsidiaries: 218

Major subsidiaries as of September 30, 2016:

The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd.	Mitsubishi UFJ Trust and Banking Corporation
Mitsubishi UFJ Securities Holdings Co., Ltd.	Mitsubishi UFJ NICOS Co., Ltd.
ACOM CO., LTD.

(a) Changes in the scope of consolidation in the six months ended September 30, 2016

MUFG Capital Analytics LLC and three other companies were newly included in the scope of consolidation due to a share acquisition or for other reasons. In addition, PT. BTMU-BRI Finance and nine other companies were excluded from the scope of consolidation due to sales of shares or for other reasons.

(2) Non-consolidated subsidiaries

None.

(3) Entities not regarded as subsidiaries even though MUFG owns the majority of voting rights or business execution rights

Hygeia Co., Ltd.

OiDE CapiSEA, Inc.

(a) Reasons for excluding from the scope of consolidation

These entities were not treated as subsidiaries because Hygeia Co., Ltd. was established as a property management agent for a land trust project without any intent to control and because shares in OiDE CapiSEA, Inc. were held by consolidated venture capital and other subsidiaries for sales trading purposes with an aim to benefit from gains on their investments or for other purposes without any intent to control.

II. Application of the equity method

(1) Number of non-consolidated subsidiaries accounted for under the equity method

None.

(2) Number of equity method affiliates: 65

Major equity method affiliates as of September 30, 2016:

Mitsubishi UFJ Lease & Finance Company Limited

Morgan Stanley

Changes in the scope of application of the equity method in the six months ended September 30, 2016

Security Bank Corporation and another company were newly included in the scope of application of the equity method due to a share acquisition or for other reasons. In addition, The Taisho Bank, Ltd. and another company were excluded from the scope of application of the equity method due to decreases in voting rights held in these companies resulting from share exchange transactions or for other reasons.

Below is additional information.

1. Outline of the acquisition of shares of Security Bank

On January 14, 2016, The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd. (BTMU) concluded a Subscription Agreement with Security Bank. On April 1, 2016, BTMU acquired newly issued common shares and preferred shares, representing in the aggregate 20% of Security Bank's equity interest on a fully diluted basis, and appointed two directors to Security Bank's Board of Directors. As a result, Security Bank became an equity method affiliate.

An outline of Security Bank is as follows:

Corporate name

(The equity method investee's name):	Security Bank Corporation
Business description:	Commercial Bank
Date of application of the equity method:	April 1, 2016
Investment structure:	Third-party allotment of newly issued shares
Percentage of voting rights following the share acquisition:	20%

2. Period for which the results of operations of the equity method investee are included in the consolidated financial statements

The fiscal year end of Security Bank, the equity method investee, is the end of December, which differs by three months from the consolidated balance sheet date of MUFG. As the equity method began to apply to Security Bank on April 1, 2016, the results of operations of Security Bank for the period from April 1, 2016 to June 30, 2016 were included in the consolidated statements of income.

3. Outline of the accounting treatment applied

(a) Acquisition Cost

Consideration for the shares	Cash and due from banks	¥	88,404 million
Expenses directly related to the acquisition	Advisory fees, etc.	¥	741 million
Acquisition cost		¥	89,146 million

(b) Amount of goodwill recorded, reason for recording goodwill, amortization method and amortization period

(i) Amount of goodwill recorded

¥27,148 million

(ii) Reason for recording goodwill

The recorded goodwill reflected expected increases in profits from future business operations.

(iii) Amortization method and amortization period

Straight-line method over 20 years.

(3) Number of non-consolidated subsidiaries not accounted for under the equity method

None.

- (4) Number of affiliates not accounted for under the equity method

None.

- (5) Entities not regarded as affiliates even though MUFG owns 20% or more but 50% or less of voting rights

TECHTOM Ltd.

Osteopharma Inc.

Hirosaki Co., Ltd.

EDP Corporation

ISLE Co., Ltd.

AKITAYA Co., Ltd.

- (a) Reasons for excluding from the scope of affiliates

These entities were not regarded as affiliates because consolidated venture capital and other subsidiaries held shares in the entities for sales trading purposes with an aim to benefit from gains on their investments or for other purposes without any intent to control.

III. Semi-Annual Balance Sheet Dates of Consolidated Subsidiaries

- (1) The semi-annual balance sheet dates of consolidated subsidiaries were as follows:

January 24: 4 subsidiaries

The end of February: 1 subsidiary

The end of April: 1 subsidiary

The end of June: 131 subsidiaries

July 24: 13 subsidiaries

The end of September: 68 subsidiaries

- (a) Changes in the balance sheet dates of consolidated subsidiaries in the six months ended September 30, 2016

In the six months ended September 30, 2016, Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ (Malaysia) Berhad changed its annual balance sheet date from December 31 to March 31, making it consistent with the annual consolidated balance sheet date. For the accounting period for the six months ended September 30, 2016, the subsidiary was consolidated based on its financial statements for the nine months from January 1, 2016 to September 30, 2016.

- (2) The subsidiaries whose balance sheet date is January 24 were consolidated based on their preliminary financial statements as of July 24.

The subsidiary whose balance sheet date is the end of February was consolidated based on its preliminary financial statements as of the end of August.

The subsidiary whose balance sheet date is the end of April was consolidated based on its preliminary financial statements as of the end of July.

The remaining subsidiaries were consolidated based on their financial statements as of their respective balance sheet dates.

Adjustments were made to the consolidated financial statements to reflect significant transactions that occurred between the consolidated balance sheet date and the balance sheet dates of the subsidiaries described above.

IV. Accounting Policies

(1) Trading Assets and Trading Liabilities; Trading Income and Expenses

Transactions involving short-term fluctuations or arbitrage opportunities in interest rates, currency exchange rates, market prices of financial instruments or other market indices ( trading purposes ) are presented in Trading assets and Trading liabilities on the consolidated balance sheet on a trade-date basis, and gains and losses from trading transactions (interest and dividends, gains or losses on sales and gains or losses on valuation) are presented in Trading income and Trading expenses on the consolidated statement of income on a trade-date basis.

Trading assets and trading liabilities are stated at their fair values on the consolidated balance sheet date.

(2) Securities

- (a) Debt securities being held to maturity are stated at amortized cost (using the straight-line method) computed using the moving average method. Available-for-sale securities are primarily stated at their quoted market prices on the consolidated balance sheet date (cost of securities sold is calculated primarily using the moving average method), and securities whose fair values cannot be reliably determined are stated at acquisition costs computed using the moving average method.

Net unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities are included directly in net assets, net of applicable income taxes, except in the case of application of the fair value hedge accounting method, in which the change in fair value recognized is recorded in current earnings.

- (b) Securities that are held as trust assets in money held in trust are accounted for on the same basis as noted above in Notes (1) and (2)(a).

Net unrealized gains and losses on securities in money held in trust, which are not held for trading purposes or held to maturity, are included directly in net assets, net of applicable income taxes.

(3) Derivatives

Derivative transactions other than trading purposes are calculated primarily based on fair value.

(4) Depreciation and Amortization of Fixed Assets

(a) Tangible Fixed Assets except for Lease Assets

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets of MUFG and its domestic consolidated banking subsidiaries and domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries is computed using the declining-balance method, and is recorded based on the semi-annual period allocation of the estimated depreciation amount for the full year computed using the declining-balance method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. The useful lives are primarily estimated as follows:

Buildings: 15 to 50 years

Equipment: 2 to 20 years

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets of other consolidated subsidiaries is computed primarily using the straight-line method based on their estimated useful lives.

(b) Intangible Fixed Assets except for Lease Assets

Amortization of intangible fixed assets is computed using the straight-line method.

Development costs for internally used software are amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which are primarily 3 to 10 years.

(c) Lease Assets

Depreciation or amortization of lease assets in Tangible fixed assets or Intangible fixed assets under finance leases other than those that are deemed to transfer the ownership of leased property to the lessees is computed using the straight-line method over the lease periods with zero residual value unless residual value is guaranteed under the corresponding lease contracts.

(5) Deferred Assets

Bond issuance costs and stock issuance costs are expensed as incurred.

(6) Allowance for Credit Losses

Principal domestic consolidated subsidiaries determine allowances for credit losses as described below in accordance with the internal standards for self-assessment of asset quality and the internal standards for write-offs and provisions.

For claims on borrowers that have entered into bankruptcy, special liquidation proceedings or similar legal proceedings or whose notes have been dishonored and suspended from processing through clearing houses ( bankrupt borrowers ) or borrowers that are not legally or formally bankrupt but are regarded as substantially in a similar condition ( substantially bankrupt borrowers ), allowances are provided based on the amount of claims, after the write-offs as stated below, net of expected amounts to be collected through the disposal of collateral and the execution of guarantees. For claims on borrowers that are not yet legally or formally bankrupt but deemed to have a high possibility of becoming bankrupt ( potentially bankrupt borrowers ), where the amounts of principal repayments and interest payments cannot be reasonably estimated from the borrowers' cash flows, allowances are provided based on an overall solvency assessment of the claims, net of expected amounts to be collected through the disposal of collateral and the execution of guarantees. For claims on potentially bankrupt borrowers and claims on borrowers requiring close monitoring, where the amounts of principal repayments and interest payments can be reasonably estimated from the borrowers' cash flows, allowances are provided in an amount equal to the difference between the carrying amount of the claims and the amount of the estimated cash flows discounted by the relevant initial contractual interest rates.

For other claims, allowances are provided based on historical credit loss experience and others.

For claims originated in certain foreign countries, additional allowances are provided based on an assessment of political, economic and other conditions of these countries.

All claims are assessed by the relevant branches and credit supervision departments in accordance with the internal standards for self-assessment of asset quality. The credit review department, which is independent from those operating sections, subsequently audits these assessments.

For claims on bankrupt borrowers and substantially bankrupt borrowers, the amount of claims exceeding the estimated value of collateral or guarantees, which is deemed uncollectible, is written off. The total amount of write-offs was ¥413,491 million as of September 30, 2016 (¥397,076 million as of March 31, 2016).

Consolidated subsidiaries not adopting the procedures stated above provide for allowances based on their historical credit loss experience and others for collectively assessed claims and based on individual assessments of the possibility of collection for specific deteriorated claims.

(7) Reserve for Bonuses

Reserve for bonuses, which is provided for future bonus payments to employees, is recorded in the amount deemed to have accrued based on the estimated amount of bonuses as of the consolidated balance sheet date.

(8) Reserve for Bonuses to Directors

Reserve for bonuses to directors, which is provided for future bonus payments to directors and officers, is recorded in the amount deemed to have accrued based on the estimated amount of bonuses as of the consolidated balance sheet date.

(9) Reserve for stocks payment

Reserve for stocks payment, which is provided for future payments of compensation under the performance-based stock compensation plan for directors and officers of MUFG and certain domestic consolidated subsidiaries, is recorded in the amount deemed to have accrued based on the estimated amount of compensation as of the consolidated balance sheet date.

(10) Reserve for Retirement Benefits to Directors

Reserve for retirement benefits to directors, which is provided for future payments of retirement benefits to directors of consolidated subsidiaries, is recorded in the amount deemed to have accrued based on the estimated amount of benefits as of the consolidated balance sheet date.

(11) Reserve for Loyalty Award Credits

Reserve for loyalty award credits, which is provided for the future redemption of credits granted to credit card (such as Super IC Card) customers, is recorded in the converted Japanese yen amount deemed necessary based on the estimated future redemption of unused credits.

(12) Reserve for Contingent Losses

Reserve for contingent losses, which is provided for possible losses from contingent events related to off-balance sheet transactions and various litigation and regulatory matters, is calculated by estimating the impact of such contingent events. This reserve also includes future claims for repayment of excess interest payments on consumer loans that are estimated based on the past repayments, the pending claims and other factors.

(13) Reserves under Special Laws

Reserves under special laws represent the reserves for contingent liabilities from derivative financial instrument transactions executed for clients, which are recorded in accordance with Article 46-5-1 and Article 48-3-1 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law and Article 175 and Article 189 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Financial Instruments Business.

(14) Retirement Benefits

In calculating benefit obligation, the portion of the projected benefit obligation attributed to the six-month period ended September 30, 2016 is determined on a benefit formula basis. Unrecognized prior service cost and unrecognized net actuarial gains (losses) are amortized in the following manner:

Unrecognized prior service cost is amortized using the straight-line method for a fixed period, primarily over 10 years, within the employees' average remaining service period.

Unrecognized net actuarial gains (losses) are amortized using the straight-line method for a fixed period, primarily over 10 years, within the employees' average remaining service period, commencing in the fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year in which the net gains (losses) are incurred.

For certain overseas branches of domestic consolidated subsidiaries and some consolidated subsidiaries, net defined benefit liability and retirement benefit expenses are calculated using the simplified method.

(15) Translation of Assets and Liabilities Denominated in Foreign Currencies

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies or booked at overseas branches of domestic consolidated banking subsidiaries and domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries are translated into yen primarily at exchange rates prevailing at the consolidated balance sheet date, except for investments in non-consolidated affiliates which are translated into yen at exchange rates prevailing at the relevant acquisition dates.

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies of other consolidated subsidiaries are translated into yen at exchange rates prevailing at their respective balance sheet dates.

(16) Leasing Transactions

(As Lessees)

Domestic consolidated subsidiaries finance leases other than those that are deemed to transfer the ownership of leased property to the lessees are accounted for in a way similar to purchases, and the depreciation of lease assets is computed using the straight-line method over the lease term with zero residual value unless residual value is guaranteed by the relevant lease contracts.

(As Lessors)

Finance leases other than those that are deemed to transfer the ownership of leased property to the lessees are accounted for in a way similar to sales and income and expenses related to such leases are recognized by allocating interest equivalents to applicable fiscal periods instead of recording sales as Other ordinary income.

(17) Hedge Accounting

(a) Hedge Accounting for Interest Rate Risks

Domestic consolidated banking subsidiaries and domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries have adopted the deferred hedge accounting method for hedging transactions for interest rate risks arising from financial assets and liabilities. Portfolio hedging or individual hedging, as described in the Japanese Institute of Certified Public Accountants ( JICPA ) Industry Audit Committee Report No. 24, Treatment of Accounting and Auditing of Application of Accounting Standard for Financial Instruments in Banking Industry (February 13, 2002) and JICPA Accounting Committee Report No. 14, Practical Guidelines for Accounting for Financial Instruments (January 31, 2000), are primarily applied to determine hedged items.

With respect to hedging transactions to offset fluctuations in the fair value of fixed rate deposits, loans and other instruments, hedging instruments (e.g., interest rate swaps) are designated to hedged items individually or collectively by their maturities in accordance with JICPA Industry Audit Committee Report No. 24. With respect to hedging transactions to offset fluctuations in the fair value of fixed rate bonds classified as available-for-sale securities, hedging instruments (e.g., interest rate swaps) are designated to hedged items collectively by the type of bond. Since material terms related to hedged items and hedging instruments are substantially identical, and such hedging transactions are deemed highly effective, the assessment of effectiveness is based on the similarity of the terms.

With respect to hedging transactions to fix the cash flows related to floating rate deposits and loans as well as forecasted transactions related to short-term fixed rate deposits, loans and other instruments, hedging instruments (e.g., interest rate swaps) are designated to hedged items collectively by interest rate indices and tenors in accordance with JICPA Industry Audit Committee Report No. 24. Since material terms related to hedged items and hedging instruments are substantially identical, and such hedging transactions are deemed highly effective, the assessment of effectiveness is based on the similarity of the terms. The effectiveness of hedging transactions is also assessed by the correlation between factors that cause fluctuations in interest rates of hedged items and those of hedging instruments.

(b) Hedge Accounting for Foreign Currency Risks

Domestic consolidated banking subsidiaries and domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries have adopted the deferred hedge accounting method for hedging foreign currency risks arising from financial assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies. Portfolio hedging is applied to determine hedged items as described in JICPA

Industry Audit Committee Report No. 25 Treatment of Accounting and Auditing concerning Accounting for Foreign Currency Transactions in the Banking Industry (July 29, 2002). Hedging instruments (e.g., currency swaps and forward exchange contracts) are designated to hedged items collectively by currencies.

Portfolio hedging and individual hedging are applied to hedge foreign currency risks arising from equity investments in foreign subsidiaries and foreign affiliates and available-for-sale securities (other than bonds) denominated in foreign currencies. Monetary claims and liabilities denominated in the same foreign currencies or forward exchange contracts are used as hedging instruments. As for the hedge accounting method applied to equity investments in foreign subsidiaries and foreign affiliates, foreign currency translation differences arising from hedging instruments are recorded as foreign currency translation adjustments. The fair value hedge accounting method is applied to available-for-sale securities, (other than bonds) denominated in foreign currencies.

(c) Hedge Accounting for Stock Price Fluctuation Risks

Individual hedging is applied to hedge market fluctuation risks arising from equity securities strategically held by domestic consolidated banking subsidiaries and domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries. Instruments such as total return swaps are used as hedging instruments. The effectiveness of hedging transactions is assessed by the correlation between changes in the fair value of hedged items and changes in the fair value of hedging instruments. The fair value hedge accounting method is applied.

(d) Transactions among Consolidated Subsidiaries

Derivative transactions including interest rate swaps and currency swaps which are designated as hedging instruments among consolidated subsidiaries or between trading accounts and other accounts (or among internal departments) are not eliminated from the consolidated statements of income or valuation difference, but are recognized as related gains or losses or deferred under hedge accounting because these derivative transactions are executed while strictly meeting certain criteria under JICPA Industry Audit Committee Reports No. 24 and No. 25 so that they are regarded as equivalent to external third-party transactions.

(18) Cash and Cash Equivalents in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows

Cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated statements of cash flows are defined as Cash and due from banks on the consolidated balance sheet, excluding time deposits and negotiable certificates of deposits in other banks.

(19) Consumption Taxes

Japanese national and local consumption taxes are excluded from transaction amounts. Non-deductible portions of consumption taxes on the purchases of tangible fixed assets are expensed when incurred.

(20) Adoption of Consolidated Taxation System

MUFG and some of its domestic consolidated subsidiaries have adopted the consolidated taxation system.

(21) Accounting of Bills Discounted and Rediscounted

Bills discounted and rediscounted are accounted for as financial trading in accordance with the criteria under JICPA Industry Audit Committee Report No. 24.

(22) Accounting Standards for Foreign Subsidiaries

If the financial statements of foreign subsidiaries are prepared in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards ( IFRS ) or the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States ( U.S. GAAP ), such financial statements are used for consolidated accounting.

If the financial statements of foreign subsidiaries are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the relevant jurisdiction of domicile and not in accordance with IFRS or U.S. GAAP, such financial statements are mainly rearranged in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

In addition, adjustments are made in the process of consolidation as necessary.

2. Additional Information

(Implementation Guidance on Recoverability of Deferred Tax Assets)

On March 28, 2016, the Accounting Standards Board of Japan (ASBJ) issued ASBJ Guidance No.26, Implementation Guidance on Recoverability of Deferred Tax Assets. MUFG adopted this guidance on April 1, 2016.

(Update of the Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) No. 825 (Financial instruments) by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB))

Beginning in the six months ended September 30, 2016, MUFG's overseas affiliates under the equity method, to which U.S. GAAP applies, adopted early the update of ASC No.825 (Financial instruments).

Upon the adoption described above, with respect to financial liabilities which the affiliate elected to measure at fair value under the fair value option, in accordance with the accounting standards, MUFG recorded the changes in the fair value of such financial instruments resulting from a change in the instrument-specific credit risk in the amount of debt value adjustments of foreign affiliates (DVAs) in accumulated other comprehensive income. MUFG made cumulative catch-up adjustments to the opening balances of retained earnings and DVAs, at the beginning of the six months ended September 30, 2016.

As a result, at the beginning of the six months ended September 30, 2016, retained earnings increased by ¥8,464 million, and DVAs decreased by ¥8,464 million.

In addition, ordinary income and profits before income taxes for the six months ended September 30, 2016, each decreased by ¥9,233 million.

The effect on per share information is described in Per Share Information below.

(Implementation of a Board Incentive Plan for Directors and Officers)

I. Outline of the Plan

In the six months ended September 30, 2016, MUFG implemented a performance-based director and officer stock compensation plan using a Board Incentive Plan trust. The plan is designed to prevent excessive risk-taking and raise motivation to contribute to both short-term and medium- to long-term improvement of financial results, thereby enabling sustainable growth and medium- to long-term enhancement of the enterprise value of the MUFG Group.

The plan's beneficiaries are directors and officers of MUFG and certain domestic consolidated subsidiaries who satisfy prescribed beneficiary requirements. The trust entrusted with funds approved by the Compensation Committee of MUFG, together with funds contributed by certain domestic consolidated subsidiaries (collectively, Acquisition Funds), acquired shares of MUFG in the stock market with the Acquisition Funds.

During the trust period, in accordance with the prescribed share delivery rules, points are allocated to the beneficiaries, and the beneficiaries receive the delivery of shares of MUFG in the number representing a certain percentage of their respective allocated points. In addition, in accordance with the provisions of the trust agreement, the shares of MUFG representing the remaining points are liquidated within the trust, and the beneficiaries receive cash in the amount equal to the liquidated share price.

II. Shares of MUFG remaining in the trust

In the six months ended September 30, 2016, the carrying amount and number of shares which remain in the trust are 9,742 million yen and 18,779 thousand shares, respectively, and are included in the treasury shares reported as part of total net assets.

Bonds payable		19,301	18,657
Other liabilities			801
Acceptances and guarantees		130,389	129,116

In addition to the above, the following assets were pledged as collateral for cash settlements and other transactions or as deposits for margin accounts for futures and other transactions:

(in millions of yen)

	March 31, 2016	September 30, 2016
Cash and due from banks	¥ 3,425	¥ 4,297
Monetary claims bought	792,042	606,676

Payables under repurchase agreements	¥ 13,081,752	¥ 12,877,468
Payables under securities lending transactions	3,069,990	5,294,227

VIII. Overdraft facilities and commitment lines of credit are binding contracts under which MUFG's consolidated subsidiaries have obligations to disburse funds up to predetermined limits upon a borrower's request as long as there has been no breach of contractual terms. The total amount of the undrawn portion of these facilities and credit lines as of March 31, 2016 and September 30, 2016 were as follows:

(in millions of yen)

	March 31, 2016	September 30, 2016
Undrawn overdraft facilities and commitment lines of credit	¥ 88,241,307	¥ 85,909,119

The total amount of the undrawn portion does not necessarily represent actual future cash requirements because many of these contracts are expected to expire without being drawn upon. In addition, most of these contracts include clauses which allow MUFG's consolidated subsidiaries to decline a borrower's request for disbursement or decrease contracted limits for cause, such as changes in financial market condition, deterioration in the borrower's creditworthiness and certain other reasons. MUFG's consolidated subsidiaries may request a borrower to pledge real property and/or securities as collateral upon signing of the contract and perform periodic monitoring of the borrower's business condition in accordance with internal procedures, which may lead to renegotiation of contractual terms and/or a request for additional collateral and/or a guarantee.

IX. In accordance with the Law concerning Revaluation of Land (the Land Revaluation Law ) (No. 34, March 31, 1998), land used for business operations of domestic consolidated banking subsidiaries and domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries has been revalued as of the dates indicated below. The aggregate excess amount resulting from the revaluation, net of income taxes corresponding to the excess amount which were recognized as Deferred tax liabilities for land revaluation in liabilities, is stated as Land revaluation excess in net assets. Land revaluation excess includes MUFG's share of affiliated companies' aggregate land revaluation excess.
Dates of revaluation:

Domestic consolidated banking subsidiaries: March 31, 1998.

Domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries: March 31, 1998, December 31, 2001 and March 31, 2002.

The method of revaluation as set forth in Article 3, Paragraph 3 of the Land Revaluation Law:

Land value was determined based on (1) published land prices under the Land Price Publication Law as set forth in Article 2, Paragraph 1 of the Enforcement Ordinance of the Law concerning Revaluation of Land ( Land Revaluation Ordinance ) (No. 119, March 31, 1998), (2) standard land prices determined for measurement land spaces under the Enforcement Ordinance of National Land Planning Law as set forth in Article 2, Paragraph 2 of the Land Revaluation Ordinance, (3) land prices determined by the method established and published by the Director General of the National Tax Agency in order to calculate land value for determining taxable amounts subject to landholding tax provided in Article 16 of the Landholding Tax Law as set forth in Article 2, Paragraph 4 of the Land Revaluation Ordinance with price adjustments for shape and time, and (4) appraisal by certified real estate appraisers as set forth in Article 2, Paragraph 5 of the Land Revaluation Ordinance with price adjustments for time. In addition, some of MUFG's affiliates that were accounted for under the equity method conducted revaluations of land used for business operations on March 31, 2002.

		March 31, 2016		(in millions of yen) September 30, 2016
Guarantee obligations for private placement bonds	¥	580,398	¥	535,385

XV. Contingent liabilities
(Litigation)

The MUFG Group has received requests for information from certain regulators in relation to investigations regarding the MUFG Group's foreign operations, such as governance practices and foreign exchange trading practices in Europe, and is cooperating with these regulators in their investigations. Although it is probable the investigations in these practices could result in penalties, based upon current knowledge and the results of consultation with counsel, the timing and amounts of any penalties from these investigations cannot be reasonably estimated. Management also believes the amount of loss that is reasonably possible, but not probable, from various litigation and regulatory matters is not material to the MUFG Group's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

(*1)

General and specific allowances for credit losses corresponding to loans are deducted. However, with respect to items other than loans, the carrying amount is shown because the amount of allowance for credit losses corresponding to these items is insignificant.

- (*2) Derivatives transactions are excluded. Other liabilities represent other liabilities which fall within the scope of financial instruments subject to the fair value disclosure requirement pursuant to which the disclosure in 8. Financial Instruments and Related Disclosures is made.
- (*3) Derivatives in trading assets and liabilities and in other assets and liabilities are shown together. Assets and liabilities arising from derivatives transactions are presented on a net basis.

Notes:

1. Methods used for determining the fair value of financial instruments are as follows:

Assets

(1) Cash and due from banks

For deposits without maturity, the carrying amount is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying amount. For deposits with maturity, the carrying amount is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying amount because the remaining maturity period of the majority of such deposits is short (maturity within one year).

(2) Call loans and bills bought, (3) Receivables under resale agreements, and (4) Receivables under securities borrowing transactions

For each of these items, the majority of transactions are short contract terms (one year or less). Thus, the carrying amount is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying amount.

(5) Monetary claims bought

The fair value of Monetary claims bought is determined based on the price quoted by the financial institutions from which these claims were purchased or on the amount reasonably calculated based on the reasonable estimation.

For certain securitized products whose underlying assets are corporate loan receivables, the fair value is determined by taking into account an amount calculated by discounting the expected future cash flow, which is derived from such factors as default probability and prepayment rate derived from analyses of the underlying assets and discounted at a rate, which is the yield of such securitized products adjusted for the liquidity premium based on the actual historical market data, as well as the price obtained from external parties (brokers, etc.). For other securitized products, the fair value is determined based on the price obtained from external parties after considering the result of periodic confirmation of the current status of these products, including price comparison with similar products, time series data comparison of the same product, and analysis of consistency with publicly available market indices.

For other monetary claims bought to which these methods do not apply, the carrying amount is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying value from their qualitative viewpoint.

(6) Trading assets

For securities such as bonds that are held for trading purposes, the fair value is determined based on the market price at the exchange, the price quoted by the financial institutions from which these securities were purchased or the present value of the expected future cash flows discounted at the interest rate which is the adjusted market interest rate on the evaluation date.

(7) Money held in trust

For securities that are part of trust property in an independently managed monetary trust with the primary purpose to manage securities, the fair value is determined based on the price quoted by the financial institutions from which these securities were purchased.

(8) Securities

The fair value of equity securities is determined based on the price quoted by the exchange and the fair value of bonds is determined based on the market value, the financial institutions from which they were purchased or on the amount reasonably calculated. The fair value of investment trusts is determined based on the publicly available price. For privately placed guaranteed bonds held by MUFG's bank or trust subsidiaries, the fair value is determined based on the present value of expected future cash flows, which is adjusted to reflect default risk, amount to be collected from collateral, guarantees, guarantee fees and discounted at an interest rate based on the market interest rate as of the date of evaluation with certain adjustments. The value of variable rate Japanese government bonds is determined by discounting the expected future cash flow estimated based on factors such as the yield of government bonds, and the discounting rate is based on the yield of such government bonds, the value of embedded options and the liquidity premium based on the actual market premiums observed in the past.

(9) Loans and bills discounted

With respect to loans, for each category of loans based on types of loans, internal ratings and maturity length, the fair value is determined based on the present value of expected future cash flows, which is adjusted to reflect default risk and expected amount to be collected from collateral and guarantees and discounted at an interest rate based on the market interest rate as of the date of evaluation with certain adjustments. For loans with variable interest rates such as certain residential loans provided to individual homeowners, the carrying amount is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying amount, unless the creditworthiness of the borrower has changed significantly since the loan origination. For receivables from bankrupt, virtually bankrupt and likely to become bankrupt borrowers credit loss is estimated based on factors such as the present value of expected future cash flow or the expected amount to be collected from collateral and guarantees. Since the fair value of these items approximates the net amount of receivables after the deduction of allowance for credit losses on the consolidated balance sheets as of the consolidated balance sheet date, such amount is presented as the fair value. The fair value of loans qualifying for special hedge accounting treatment of interest rate swaps or designation of forward exchange contracts and other contracts under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in Japan ( JGAAP ) reflects the fair value of such interest rate swaps of forward exchange contracts and other contracts.

(10) Foreign exchange assets

Foreign exchange assets consist of foreign currency deposits with other banks (due from foreign banks (our accounts)), short-term loans involving foreign currencies (due from foreign banks (their accounts)), export bills, traveler s checks, etc. (foreign bills bought), and loans on notes using import bills (foreign bills receivable). For these items, the carrying amount is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying amount because most of these items are deposits without maturity or have short contract terms (one year or less).

Liabilities

(1) Deposits and (2) Negotiable certificates of deposit

For demand deposits, the amount payable on demand as of the fiscal year end date (i.e., the carrying amount) is considered to be the fair value. For variable rate time deposits, the carrying amount is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying amount because the market interest rate is reflected in such deposits within a short time period. Fixed rate time deposits are grouped by certain maturity lengths. The fair value of such deposits is the present value of discounted expected future cash flow. The discount rate used is the interest rate that would be applied to newly accepted deposits.

(3) Call money and bills sold, (4) Payables under repurchase agreements, (5) Payables under securities lending transactions and (6) Commercial paper

For these items, the carrying amount is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying amount because the majority of them are short contract terms (one year or less).

(7) Trading liabilities

For securities such as bonds that are sold short for trading purposes, the fair value is determined based on the price quoted by the exchange or the financial institutions to which these securities were sold.

(8) Borrowed money

For floating rate borrowings, the carrying amount is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying amount. This is done so on the basis that the market interest rate is reflected in the fair value set within a short time period for such floating rate borrowings and that there has been no significant change in MUFG's nor the subsidiaries' creditworthiness after such borrowings were made. For fixed rate borrowings, the fair value is calculated as the present value of expected future cash flow from these borrowings grouped by certain maturity lengths, which is discounted at an interest rate generally applicable to similar borrowings reflecting the premium applicable to MUFG or its subsidiaries.

(9) Foreign exchange liabilities

Among foreign exchange contracts, foreign currency deposits accepted from other banks and non-resident Japanese yen deposits (due to other foreign banks) are deposits without maturity. Moreover, foreign currency short-term borrowings have short contract terms (one year or less). Thus, the carrying amount is presented as the fair value for these contracts as the fair value approximates such carrying amount.

(10) Short-term bonds payable

For short-term bonds payable, the carrying amount is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying amount because they carried short contract terms (one year or less).

(11) Bonds payable

The fair value of corporate bonds issued by MUFG is determined based on their market price. For certain corporate bonds, the fair value is calculated as the present value of expected future cash flow discounted at an interest rate generally applicable to issuance of similar corporate bonds. For floating rate corporate bonds without market prices, the carrying amount of such bonds is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying amount. This is on the basis that the market interest rate is reflected in the fair value of such corporate bonds because such bond terms were set within a short time period and that there has been no significant change in the creditworthiness of MUFG after the issuance. For fixed rate corporate bonds, the fair value is the present value of expected future cash flow from these borrowings, which is discounted at an interest rate generally applicable to similar borrowings reflecting the premium applicable to MUFG or its subsidiaries. The fair value of corporate bonds qualifying for special hedge accounting treatment of interest rate swaps under JGAAP reflects the fair value of such interest rate swaps.

(12) Due to trust accounts

Since these are cash deposits with no maturity, the carrying amount is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying amount.

(13) Other liabilities

Since the contract period is short term (less than 1 year), the carrying amount is presented as the fair value, as the fair value approximates such carrying amount.

Derivatives

For information on derivatives transactions, see 12. Derivatives below.

2. The following table summarizes the carrying amounts of financial instruments whose fair values cannot be reliably determined (before deducting valuation allowances). These securities are not included in the amount presented under the line item (8) Securities Available-for-sale securities under Assets in the table above summarizing the fair values of financial instruments.

III. Impairment loss on securities

Securities other than trading securities and investments in affiliates (excluding those securities whose fair values cannot be reliably determined) whose fair values significantly declined compared with their acquisition costs, where the decline was considered to be other than recoverable, were written down to the respective fair values. In such case, the fair values were recorded as the carrying amounts on the consolidated balance sheet, and the differences between the fair values and the acquisition costs were recognized as losses (referred to as impairment losses) on the consolidated statement of income.

Impairment losses on such securities for the years ended March 31, 2016 were ¥10,351 million consisting of ¥10,063 million on equity securities and ¥287 million on debt and other securities.

Impairment losses on such securities for the six months ended September 30, 2016 were ¥10,068 million consisting of ¥9,994 million on equity securities and ¥73 million on debt and other securities.

The criteria for determining whether the fair value is significantly declined are set forth in the internal standards for asset quality self-assessment based on issuer classifications as follows:

(a) Bankrupt issuers, virtually bankrupt issuers and likely to become bankrupt issuers:
The fair value is lower than the acquisition cost.

(b) Issuers requiring close watch:
The fair value has declined by 30% or more of the acquisition cost.

(c) Normal issuers:
The fair value has declined by 50% or more of the acquisition cost.

Bankrupt issuers means issuers who have entered into bankruptcy, special liquidation proceedings or similar legal proceedings or whose notes have been dishonored and suspended from processing through clearing houses. Virtually bankrupt issuers means issuers who are not legally or formally bankrupt but are regarded as substantially in a similar condition. Likely to become bankrupt issuers means issuers who are not yet legally or formally bankrupt but deemed to have high possibility of becoming bankrupt. Issuers requiring close watch means issuers who require close monitoring as part of investment management. Normal issuers means issuers other than Bankrupt issuers, Virtually bankrupt issuers, Likely to become bankrupt issuers or Issuers requiring close watch.

Unless otherwise provided in the relevant Restricted Share Unit Agreement, the RSUs represent a right to receive one ADR per RSU, and the right vests pro-rata on each one-year anniversary of the grant date and becomes fully vested three years from the grant date, provided that the grantee has satisfied the specified continuous service and other requirements. Each ADR is exchangeable for one share of MUFG common stock.

14. Segment Information

I. Business Segment Information

(1) Summary of reporting segments

MUFG's reporting segments are business units of MUFG which its Executive Committee, the decision-making body for the execution of its business operations, regularly reviews to make decisions regarding allocation of management resources and evaluate performance.

MUFG makes unified group-wide strategies based on customer characteristics and the nature of business. Accordingly, MUFG has adopted customer-based and business-based segmentation, which consists of the following reporting segments: Retail Banking Business Group, Corporate Banking Business Group, Global Business Group, Trust Assets Business Group, Global Markets Business Group and Other.

Retail Banking Business Group:	Providing financial services to domestic individual customers
Corporate Banking Business Group:	Providing services relating to finance, real estate and stock transfers to domestic corporate customers
Global Business Group:	Providing financial services to overseas individual and corporate customers
Trust Assets Business Group:	Providing investment management and administration services for corporate pension funds, public pension funds, public funds and mutual funds
Global Markets Business Group:	Engaged in the trading business relating to foreign currency exchange, funds and investment securities for customers and with market counterparties, and administration of liquidity and cash management
Other:	Other than the businesses mentioned above

(a) Changes in reporting segments

MUFG's group companies are managed using a matrix framework consisting of the business segments mentioned above which are identified based on an integrated business group system to provide financial services and products under unified group-wide strategies as well as through individual MUFG group entities, which are grouped under the major operating subsidiaries as follows: The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd., Mitsubishi UFJ Trust and Banking Corporation, Mitsubishi UFJ Securities Holdings Co. Ltd., consumer finance subsidiaries and others. To assist appropriate assessment of MUFG's future cash flow forecasts, MUFG previously identified these groups of MUFG group entities as its reporting segments, each operating in a different industry and regulatory environment. However, beginning in this six-month period ended September 30, 2016, MUFG changed its reporting segments to the segmentation by the above-mentioned service-based Business Groups, following the progress made during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 in the implementation of unified group-wide business operations and management under the medium-term business plan that was commenced in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016.

The segment information for the six months ended September 30, 2015 has been restated to reflect the foregoing changes in the reporting segments.

(2) Methods of calculation of net revenue and operating profit (loss) for each reporting segment

The accounting methods applied to the reported business segments, except the scope of consolidation, are generally consistent with the methods described in Significant Accounting Bases and Policies Applied to the Semi-Annual Consolidated Financial Statements. The scope of consolidation includes MUFG's major subsidiaries. The reported figures are generally prepared based on internal managerial accounting rules before elimination of inter-segment transactions and other consolidation adjustments. Net revenues and operating expenses attributable to multiple segments are reported in accordance with internal managerial accounting rules generally calculated based on market value.

(a) Changes in the methods of calculation of operating profit (loss) of each reporting segment

In connection with the changes in the reporting segments implemented this six-month period ended September 30, 2016, the internal managerial accounting rules relating to the methods of calculation of net revenue and operating expenses attributable to multiple segments were changed from the methods based on third-party transaction prices to those based on market value.

The segment information for the six months ended September 30, 2015 has been restated based on the new methods of calculation.
