Background

As previously disclosed, including most recently on November 13, 2017 in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (the November 2017 10-Q), the Motors Liquidation Company GUC Trust (the GUC Trust) is involved in litigation concerning purported economic losses, personal injuries and/or death suffered by certain lessees and owners of vehicles (such persons, Potential Plaintiffs) manufactured by General Motors Corporation prior to its sale of substantially all of its assets to NGMCO, Inc., n/k/a General Motors LLC (New GM). Certain of the Potential Plaintiffs have filed lawsuits against New GM, filed motions seeking authority from the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the Bankruptcy Court) to file claims against the GUC Trust (the Late Claims Motions), or are members of a putative class covered by those actions.

As previously disclosed, including most recently in the November 2017 10-Q, the GUC Trust was previously engaged in discussions with certain of the Potential Plaintiffs regarding a potential settlement of the Late Claims Motions and various related issues (the Potential Plaintiff Settlement), and such discussions had meaningfully progressed. The GUC Trust ultimately did not execute the Potential Plaintiff Settlement. Instead, after careful consideration and negotiations, on September 12, 2017, the GUC Trust entered into a Forbearance Agreement (the Forbearance Agreement) with New GM by which (i) the GUC Trust agreed not to seek an order estimating the claims of the Potential Plaintiffs or seek the issuance of additional Adjustment Shares from New GM until the final resolution of certain litigation, (ii) New GM agreed to pay the costs of the GUC Trust's litigation in connection with the Late Claims Motions and related litigation, and (iii) New GM and the GUC Trust agreed to negotiate an appropriate rate of return from New GM should any GUC Trust distributions be held up solely due to the Late Claims Motions litigation.

The Forbearance Agreement has been executed by the parties, but its terms remain subject to certain conditions which may or may not ever be satisfied, including obtaining the approval of the Bankruptcy Court (an Approval Order), together with a finding that the Proposed Plaintiff Settlement was not binding on the GUC Trust. By its terms, the Forbearance Agreement was scheduled to automatically terminate on December 29, 2017 (the Outside Date) in the event that the Bankruptcy Court had not yet entered the Approval Order. On December 28, 2017, the GUC Trust and New GM entered into a First Amendment to Forbearance Agreement (the First Amendment) which had the effect of extending the Outside Date to February 28, 2018.

Whether the conditions precedent for the effectiveness of certain terms of the New GM Agreement will, at any point, be satisfied is uncertain and subject to numerous risks. Accordingly, holders of Units should carefully consider such uncertainty before making any decisions with respect to their investment in such Units.

A copy of the First Amendment is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K.
