Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 26, 2016, RealPage, Inc. (the “Company”) executed an amendment (the “Amendment”) to the Credit Agreement dated September 30, 2014 (as amended, the “Credit Agreement”) with each of the lenders party thereto (the “Lenders”) and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as administrative agent (the “Agent”). The Amendment amends certain terms of the existing credit agreement to provide for an incremental $125 million term loan (the “Term Loan”) that is coterminous with the existing revolving facility which matures on September 30, 2019. With the new Term Loan and the existing $200 million revolving facility, the Credit Agreement now includes $325 million of drawn or available credit. Principal payments on the Term Loan are $0.8 million, due quarterly, with interest in arrears, and the first payment is due on June 30, 2016. Beginning June 30, 2017, the quarterly principal amount for the Term Loan increases to $1.6 million for the next eight quarterly payments. In the final year of the Term Loan, a quarterly principal payment of $3.1 million is due on June 30, 2019 with any remaining principal due at the Term Loan maturity date of September 30, 2019. The Term Loan is subject to mandatory repayment requirements if certain asset sales or insurance or condemnation events occur, subject to customary reinvestment provisions. The Company may prepay the Term Loan in whole or in part at any time, with prepayment amounts to be applied to remaining scheduled principal amortization payments as specified by the Company. The Amendment also permits the Company to elect to increase the maximum permitted Consolidated Net Leverage Ratio (as defined in the Credit Agreement) on a one-time basis following the issuance of convertible notes or high yield notes in an initial principal amount of at least $150 million. In conjunction with the execution of the Amendment, the Company paid debt issuance costs of $0.6 million.

Term Loan proceeds were used to repay $34 million of borrowings previously outstanding under the revolving facility of the Credit Agreement and will be used to fund the acquisition of NWP Services Corporation and for other working capital purposes. Except as amended, all of the existing terms of the Credit Facility remain in place. As of the date of this Form 8-K, the $125 million Term Loan is fully drawn and no amounts are drawn under the available $200 million revolving facility. All of the obligations of the Credit Facility, including the Term Loan, are secured by substantially all the Company’s assets and guaranteed by the Company’s existing and future domestic subsidiaries except certain excluded subsidiaries, as provided in the Credit Agreement.

The Company intends to file the Amendment with its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ending March 31, 2016.
