Statement by Petrobras Bolívia Refinación (PBR)

---

(Rio de Janeiro, May 10, 2006). PETRÓLEO BRASILEIRO S/A - PETROBRAS, [Bovespa: PETR3/PETR4, NYSE: PBR/PBRA, Latibex: XPBR/XPBRA, BCBA: APBR/APBRA], a Brazilian international energy company, announces that its subsidiary, Petrobras Bolívia Refinación (PBR) released the following statement to the local press:

The company wishes to give notice that, to become effective, the appointment of directors and trustees from Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales Bolivianos (YPFB) to Petrobras Bolívia Refinación (PBR) must comply with, a series of legal and corporate procedures and formalities pursuant to the National Constitution and the laws of the Republic.

These procedures consist principally of the negotiation between the parties of the consideration due from YPF to Petrobras for the exchange of 50% plus 1 of PBR s shares; the promulgation of a special law authorizing the participation of YPF as a shareholder of PBR; the formalization of the transfer of a block of 50% of the shares plus 1 to YPF; amending the corporate bylaws; the convening of a Shareholders Meeting; among others.

More important still, it will be necessary to amend Article 8 of Privatization Law 1330, which prohibits state-owned companies from acquiring assets, values and other rights from companies transferred to the private sector under this legislation.

This, and other issues, will be discussed tomorrow at a meeting to be held in La Paz at which the Minister of Hydrocarbons, Andrés Soliz Rada, the President of YPF, Julio Alvarado, the Brazilian Minister of Mines and Energy, Silas Rondeau and the President of Petrobras, José Sergio Gabrielli de Azevedo will be present.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
