U.S. Ex-Im Bank approves a Preliminary Commitment to Petrobras

(Rio de Janeiro, April 27 2009). PETRÓLEO BRASILEIRO S/A - PETROBRAS, [Bovespa: PETR3/PETR4, NYSE: PBR/PBRA, Latibex: XPBR/XPBRA, BCBA: APBR/APBRA], a Brazilian international energy company, informs that, on April 14, 2009, Export-Import Bank of the United States (U.S. Ex-Im Bank) approved a Preliminary Commitment (PC) to Petrobras in support of the export of U.S. goods and services in connection with Petrobras' new exploration and development activities, as well as upgrades and expansions of its existing facilities.

Petrobras can withdraw separate lines with different tenors in the next two years to finance the import of U.S. services and equipments, following the conditions established in the PC. The total financed amount approved in the PC is US$ 2 billion and the maximum repayment term is 10 years.

This approval demonstrates diverse sources of funding available to the Company to finance its Investment Plan.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
