- 4. AGENDA: (A) Information and resolution on the considerations and conclusions of the Special Committee of the Board of Directors specially constituted to conduct the review of the project of combination of the eCommerce business developed by the Company through Nova Pontocom Comércio Eletrônico S.A. (“Nova”) with the eCommerce business developed by the controlling shareholder Casino Guichard Perrachon (“Casino”) through Cdiscount S.A. and (“Via Varejo”) and Nova.

5. RESOLUTIONS: The meeting was commenced by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, Mr. Jean-Charles Naouri. The works started and it was unanimously approved to draft the minutes in summary form. Then the members of the Special Committee have reported the analyses made based in the documents presented to them, which were made in cooperation with its financial and legal advisors, regarding the eCommerce Business Combination. After that, representatives of the financial advisor of the Special Committee, Credit Suisse, made a presentation regarding the works developed for purposes of evaluating the exchange ratio to be applicable for the definition of balance of Cnova's (as defined below) stock capital between Nova and Casino. Then the Special Committee delivered a favorable recommendation with regards to the implementation of the eCommerce Business Combination considering the following elements: (a) the commercial interests of the Company in the eCommerce activities will be preserved; and (b) the potential for creation of value for the Company and its shareholders through the integration of the eCommerce activities currently developed by Nova and Cdiscount into one of the largest global eCommerce companies, organized under the laws of the Netherlands, as Cnova N.V. ("Cnova"), which shares, depending on market conditions and other factors, should be listed in a US stock exchange. Afterwards, the Special Committee recommended that the respective weights of Nova and Cdiscount's eCommerce businesses be of 53.5% (fifty three point five percent) and 46.5% (forty six point five percent), respectively, being such exchange ratio considered, exclusively from a financial standpoint, to be within the valuation range contained in the opinion presented by Credit Suisse as well as being in accordance with the recommendation of the Via Varejo's Board of Directors Special Committee and in the opinion presented by its financial advisor, the Bank of America Merrill Lynch Banco Múltiplo S.A.. Thus, upon completion of the corporate reorganization necessary to implement the eCommerce Business Combination, the Company will indirectly hold, through Nova, 28% (twenty eight percent) of the outstanding and voting capital stock of Cnova, and, when considered the stake held by the Company at Via Varejo, its total indirect holding in Cnova will be of 38.2% (thirty eight point two percent). The eCommerce Business Combination shall be implemented by several corporate acts and shall involve the incorporation of holding companies based on the Netherlands and Luxembourg. The Special Committee, after analysis and discussions with its legal advisor, also presented to the Board of Directors its recommendation as to the minimum terms and conditions necessary to implement the eCommerce Business Combination, including, among other things: (1) preservation of the existing rights and relationships among the Company, Via Varejo and Nova, through an amendment of the Operational Agreement entered into by such mentioned companies, dated October 17, 2013 (the "Operational Agreement"), ensuring continuity of existing synergies and integration between eCommerce and the brick and mortar businesses; (2) the governance of Cnova so ensuring (a) the Company's right to appoint two (2) out of the nine (9) members of the initial Board of Directors of Cnova, being that the Board of Directors of Cnova shall also be composed of two (2) other additional members who must be independent directors, and (b) the election of the current CEO of Nova, Mr. Germán Pasquale Quiroga Vilardo, to the position of co-CEO of Cnova, observed that Cnova will have two (2) co-CEOs, with the other co-CEO being the CEO of Cdiscount. The co-CEOs will rotate as members of Cnova's Board of Directors and the CEO of Nova will be the first co-CEO sitting on the Board of Directors of Cnova; (3) the obligation for Cnova to adopt a Policy on Related Party Transactions that ensures the compliance with the practices usually adopted for such transactions in order to ensure transparency to manage situations of conflicts of interests; (4) the adoption by Cnova of an Audit Committee, formed of independent members, and a Nomination and Remuneration Committee. Furthermore, the Special Committee reported and recommended that, as a result of the discussions among the Committee and its advisors, the Special Committee of Via Varejo's Board of Directors and its advisors, and the managements of the companies involved and their advisors, the creation of Cnova shall observe the following additional conditions; (5) the Company shall license for a minimum period of twenty (20) years (and automatically renewable for an additional ten (10) year period) the use of the trademark "Extra", the domain name "extra.com.br", and certain other trademarks, domain names and rights related thereto for use in the eCommerce activities developed by the Brazilian subsidiary of Cnova; and (6) that the direct and indirect founding shareholders of Cnova, including the Company, will be entitled to receive special voting depositary receipts which will effectively grant them one (1) additional vote for each ordinary share of Cnova held and continue to be held (directly or indirectly) by them (or certain permitted transferees), in relation to the voting rights of new ordinary shares to be issued in the future in the context of the potential initial public offering of Cnova, being the special voting rights associated with the depositary receipts non-transferable to third-parties, subject to limited exceptions. After the questions and after the related discussions, given the favourable recommendation of the Special Committee, the members of the Board of Directors unanimously resolved (with the abstention of the legally prevented) (I) upon completion of certain conditions precedent, notably obtaining the necessary authorizations with the competent authorities, to approve the proposal for the eCommerce Business Combination under the terms recommended by the Special Committee; (II) to authorize the Company's Executive Management to take the necessary measures to, respected the conditions precedent applicable, execute the agreements and contracts that may be applicable to preserve the interests of the Company within the implementation of the eCommerce Business Combination, pursuant to the terms recommend by the Special Committee and discussed in this meeting, including with regards to the exercise of voting rights by the members of Nova's Board of Directors appointed by the Company in the resolutions that may be necessary to effect the resolution taken herein at this meeting, which shall encompass an instruction for the managers of Nova and Cnova to take any and all measures necessary to implement the eCommerce Business Combination as recommended by the Special Committee and approved by the Board of Directors, as well as (III) to authorize the submission of the application for registration of Cnova as a foreign private issuer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), a regulatory agency that regulates the U.S. securities market, in order to permit subject to market conditions and other factors (a) the admission to trading of the shares issued by Cnova on a stock exchange in the United States and (b) the public offering of new shares of Cnova. Then the Chairman of the Board of Directors, Mr. Jean-Charles Naouri, gave the floor to Mr. Ronaldo Iabrudi who presented the conclusions of the study of business synergies capture prepared by a specialized consulting company, as well as the discussions held on such topic in meetings of the Executive Management and both the Corporate Governance, Audit and Financial Committees of the Company. After the related discussions and in compliance with the Operational Agreement, the members of the Board of Directors unanimously resolved (with the abstention of the legally prevented), based on the recommendations from the Executive Management and both the Corporate Governance, Audit and Financial Committees of the Company, to approve the commercial parameters to be adopted for the capturing of commercial purchasing synergies among Via Varejo, Nova and the Company, so to provide for a compensation, free of charges or discounts, of 1.3% and 2.2% to be paid by Nova and the Company (Extra brand), respectively, to Via Varejo both of them to be calculated over purchases made by Via Varejo as from October 2013 of any items from common suppliers of the companies, being such parameters effective for a five year term observed the possibility for reviewing at the end of the third year.
