VI. Resolutions: Firstly, it is recorded in these minutes that director William Charles Carroll disclosed to the other directors his impediment to act in relation to the matters of the Agenda, under the terms of article 156 of the Corporations Act, declaring that his interest in those matters arises out of his position as executive officer of Delta, and that, for this reason, wasn't present and did not participate of discussions concerning the resolutions to be adopted regarding such matters. Immediately following, after the necessary explanations were provided with respect to the proposal for rationalization of the Company's fleet, and after the review of the final considerations made by the Independent Special Committee, which held a meeting on August 25, 2016 to deal with the matters provided for in the agenda of this meeting, as well as the pertinent documents, the following issues were approved by unanimous vote: (i) consent by VRG to the assignment by GECAS to Delta of the Agreements to be Assigned (as defined above), which shall be conditioned on the Confirmation, with the consequent and forthwith early termination of the agreement entered into by VRG; (ii) conditioned on the Confirmation, early termination of the Lease Agreements (as defined above), upon payment by VRG, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the referred agreements; (iii) conditioned on the Confirmation, the sublease transaction to be entered into between VRG, in its capacity as sublessor, and Delta, in its capacity as sublessee, with respect to the engines of aircraft MSN 39608, 39620, 39624 and 39632, whose current lessor is GECAS; (iv) confirmation of the execution of the Amendment to the Reimbursement Agreement. Accordingly, the Additional Reimbursement Obligations shall become subject to the Reimbursement Agreement, as well as the Obligors' obligation to pay Delta any and all amounts as may be borne by the latter arising out of the guaranty granted under the credit agreement entered into by Gol LuxCo, in its capacity as debtor, with Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc., in its capacity as administrative agent representing the creditors' interest; (v) confirmation of the execution of the Amendment to the Pledge Agreement; and (vi) confirmation of the acts performed by the executive officers and/or attorneys-in-fact of the Company seeking the implementation of the resolutions now approved, including the execution of the Amendment to the Reimbursement Agreement, the Amendment to the Pledge Agreement, and the other related documents, being further entitled to agree upon the terms and conditions of possible Additional Credit Agreements, including, without limitation, the payment terms, interest rate, remuneration interest, credit amount and waiver of rights, as well as authorization for the Executive Committee of the Company to execute any and all necessary documents, as well as to take the applicable actions, in order to fulfill the above referred resolutions. VII.
