Edgar Filing: MONMOUTH REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT CORP - Form 8-K

On March 26, 2007, Monmouth Capital Corporation, a New Jersey corporation (Monmouth Capital), Monmouth Real Estate Investment Corporation, a Maryland corporation (the Company), and Route 9 Acquisition, Inc., a New Jersey corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (MergerCo), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, MergerCo will merge with and into Monmouth Capital (the Merger), with Monmouth Capital continuing as the surviving corporation.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, at the effective time and as a result of the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of Monmouth Capital s common stock, par value $1.00 per share (Monmouth Capital Common Stock), will be converted into and exchanged for the right to receive 0.655 (the Exchange Ratio) shares (such shares, the Merger Consideration) of the Company s common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Company Common Stock). Upon consummation of the Merger, Monmouth Capital s outstanding 8.0% Convertible Subordinated Debentures due 2013 and 8.0% Convertible Subordinated Debentures due 2015 will remain outstanding and will become convertible into shares of Company Common Stock, at conversion prices adjusted to reflect the Exchange Ratio.

Following the effective time of the Merger, certain members of Monmouth Capital s board of directors will become members of the Company s board of directors.

The Company and Monmouth Capital have made representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement including, among others, covenants to: (i) conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary course consistent with past practice between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger; (ii) not engage in certain kinds of transactions during this period; and (iii) use their reasonable best efforts to consummate the Merger, including using their reasonable best efforts to take all steps necessary to obtain required governmental and third-party consents. Among other covenants and agreements, the Company agreed (i) to cause a meeting of its stockholders to be held to consider approval of the Merger and the issuance of the Merger Consideration and (ii) that the Company s board of directors would, subject to certain exceptions, recommend approval by its stockholders of the Merger and the issuance of the Merger Consideration. Among other covenants and agreements, Monmouth Capital agreed (i) to cause a meeting of its stockholders to be held to consider approval of the Merger and the Merger Agreement; (ii) that Monmouth Capital s board of directors would, subject to certain exceptions, recommend approval by its stockholders of the Merger and the Merger Agreement; and (iii) that Monmouth Capital would not solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or, subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions concerning or provide confidential information in connection with alternative business combination transactions.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including approval of the holders of Company Common Stock and Monmouth Capital Common Stock, absence of any legal prohibition on consummation of the Merger, obtaining governmental and third-party consents the failure of which to obtain would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect, the accuracy of the representations and warranties (subject generally to a material adverse effect standard) and material performance of all covenants and the delivery of customary legal opinions as to the federal tax treatment of the merger and the status of each of the Company and Monmouth Capital as a real estate investment trust under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Monmouth Capital and provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, Monmouth Capital may be required to pay the Company a termination fee of up to $1 million and/or reimburse the Company for its reasonable out-of-pocket transaction expenses up to $500,000.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.

The Merger Agreement, which has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms, contains representations and warranties of each of the Company and Monmouth Capital. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the Merger Agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed by the respective parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what a stockholder might view as material, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Investors should read the Merger Agreement together with the other information concerning the Company and Monmouth Capital that each company publicly files in reports and statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Item 5.03. Amendment to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On and effective March 26, 2007, the Company's Board of Directors adopted an amendment to the Company's Bylaws (the Bylaw Amendment) to delete the requirement currently contained in the Company's Bylaws that the Company's annual meeting be held during the month of April.

The foregoing description of the Bylaw Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Bylaw Amendment, which is filed as Exhibit 3.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.
