Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

National Fuel Gas Company's (the "Company") Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended ("Certificate of Incorporation"), provides that directors shall typically be elected to a three-year term, that the Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes, and that the three classes shall be as nearly equal in number as may be possible. (A class of directors is the group of directors whose terms expire at the same annual meeting of stockholders.) The Company's Certificate of Incorporation also provides that elected directors shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualify, subject to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office.

The Board of Directors currently has ten members. The services of director George L. Mazanec will conclude at the Company's 2012 annual meeting of stockholders, in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines with respect to director age. After the annual meeting, the Board of Directors will have nine members. To even the number of directors in each class, Philip C. Ackerman notified the Company on January 11, 2012 of his decision to resign from his current term as a director, effective at the start of the Company's 2012 annual meeting of stockholders. Mr. Ackerman's current term was scheduled to expire in 2013. The Board of Directors has nominated Mr. Ackerman, along with fellow current directors R. Don Cash and Stephen E. Ewing, to stand for election as directors at the Company's 2012 annual meeting, for three-year terms to expire in 2015.
