Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On December 30, 2011, the registrant dismissed Seale and Beers, CPAs (Seale and Beers) as our independent auditors. This action was approved by our Board of Directors.

The report of Seale and Beers on our financial statements as of December 31, 2010 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

In connection with the audit of our financial statements for the period ended December 31, 2010 and through the date of this Form 8-K, there were: (i) no disagreements between the Company and Seale and Beers on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Seale and Beers, would have caused Seale and Beers to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in its report on our financial statements for such period, and (ii) no reportable events within the meaning set forth in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

On December 30, 2011, we engaged L.L. Bradford and Company (L.L. Bradford) as our independent registered accounting firm. Since our inception through the date of this Form 8-K, we did not consult with L.L. Bradford on (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that may be rendered on the registrant's financial statements, and L.L. Bradford did not provide either a written report or oral advice to the registrant that was an important factor considered by the registrant in reaching a decision as to any accounting, auditing, or financial reporting issue; or (ii) the subject of any disagreement, as defined in Item 304 (a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K and the related instructions, or a reportable event within the meaning set forth in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

We provided Seale and Beers a copy of the disclosures contained herein and requested that Seale and Beers furnish us with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not Seale and Beers agrees with our statements in this Item 4.01. A copy of the letter dated December 30, 2011, furnished by Seale and Beers in response to that request, is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Current Report.
