Item 4.01 Change in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Sypris Solutions, Inc. (the "Company") recently completed a competitive process to select a firm to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2014. On June 11, 2014, the Audit Committee engaged Crowe Horwath LLP ("Crowe") as the independent registered public accounting firm for the Company, and dismissed Ernst & Young LLP ("EY") from that role. The change in accountants did not result from any dissatisfaction with the quality of professional services rendered by EY.

EY performed audits of the consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012. Their reports did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During the two years ended December 31, 2013, and from December 31, 2013 through the date of EY's dismissal, there have been no "disagreements" as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K between the Company and EY on any matter of accounting principles or practice, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope of procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of EY, would have caused EY to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreements in connection with its reports on the financial statements for such years. None of the "reportable events" described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K have occurred during the two years ended December 31, 2013, or through the date of EY's dismissal.

EY has furnished the Company a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission dated June 12, 2014, stating that it agrees with the above statements concerning EY in this report, which letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 16.1.
