Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(c) On June 5, 2013, the Board of Directors of The Fresh Market, Inc. (the “Company”) designated Jeffrey B. Short, the Company’s Vice President and Controller and interim principal accounting officer, as the Company’s principal accounting officer.

Mr. Short, 45, has served as the Company’s Vice President and Controller since January 2006 and interim principal accounting officer since November 2012. Mr. Short joined the Company in 2003 and previously served as Controller. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Short held various positions in finance and accounting with Swifty Serve Corporation, E-Z Serve Corporation, Randalls Food Markets and Arthur Andersen LLP. Mr. Short is a Certified Public Accountant and received a B.S. in Accounting from Texas A&M University.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Short and any other persons pursuant to which Mr. Short was designated as the Company’s principal accounting officer, nor are there any transactions involving the Company and Mr. Short that the Company would be required to report pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

(e) On June 3, 2013, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Jeffrey Ackerman, the Company’s Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (principal financial officer), which was the Company’s form employment agreement for executive officers. On the same date, Mr. Ackerman also became subject to the Company’s severance plan.

Under the employment agreement, Mr. Ackerman is subject to restrictive covenants, relating to noncompetition, nonsolicitation, nondisclosure of confidential information and nondisparagement, during the term of his employment and for a period of time thereafter calculated pursuant to the agreement’s provisions. Mr. Ackerman is not entitled to any compensation, benefits or other rights under the employment agreement.

As applied to Mr. Ackerman, the severance plan provides that, in the event that Mr. Ackerman’s employment is terminated by the Company without “cause” or by Mr. Ackerman for “good reason” (in each case, as defined in the severance plan), Mr. Ackerman will be entitled to the following compensation and benefits: (1) severance pay in an amount equal to 1.5 times his annual base salary; (2) a prorated annual bonus; and (3) continued medical and welfare benefits for Mr. Ackerman and his spouse and dependents for 1.5 years. The severance plan further provides that, in the event that Mr. Ackerman’s employment is terminated by the Company without “cause” or by Mr. Ackerman for “good reason,” within six months prior to a change in control of the Company (provided that Mr. Ackerman demonstrates that the termination was related to the change in control) or within two years following a change in control of the Company, Mr. Ackerman will also be entitled to (1) additional severance pay in an amount equal to 1.5 times his target annual bonus (or, if he does not have a target at the time of termination, average bonus for the previous three years, or portion thereof) and (2) full vesting of all equity-based awards held by Mr. Ackerman on the date of termination.

The foregoing descriptions of the employment agreement and the severance plan do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by the contents of the form employment agreement and the severance plan, which the Company previously has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and are Exhibits 10.12 and 10.11, respectively, to its most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K.
