ITEM 8.01. Other Events

On March 5, 2019, a purported shareholder of Reliance Bancshares, Inc. (“Reliance”) filed a putative derivative and class action lawsuit against Reliance, the members of the Reliance board of directors and Simmons First National Corporation (“Simmons”) in the St. Louis County Circuit Court, 21st Judicial Circuit of Missouri, on behalf of himself and similarly situated Reliance shareholders, and derivatively on behalf of Reliance, captioned Parshall v. Brouster, et al., Case No. 19SL-CC00963 (the “Action”). The Action relates to the proposed merger of Reliance with and into Simmons as described in the definitive proxy statement/prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on March 4, 2019 and first mailed to Reliance shareholders on or about March 6, 2019 (the “Proxy Statement/Prospectus”). The plaintiff alleges, among other things, that the individual defendants breached fiduciary duties by agreeing to an allegedly insufficient price for the sale of Reliance, and agreeing to allegedly inappropriate deal protection devices. The plaintiff further alleges that the Proxy Statement/Prospectus omitted material information that Reliance shareholders purportedly need in order to evaluate the proposed merger. The plaintiff alleges that Simmons aided and abetted the alleged fiduciary duty breaches by the individual defendants. The plaintiff seeks injunctive relief, unspecified damages, and an award of attorneys’ and experts’ fees and expenses.

Solely to avoid the costs, risks and uncertainties inherent in litigation, Simmons and Reliance have agreed to make additional disclosures to supplement the disclosure contained in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus (the “Additional Disclosures”). The Additional Disclosures are set forth below and should be read in conjunction with the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. In exchange for the agreement to make the Additional Disclosures, the plaintiff has agreed to dismiss the Action, with prejudice to his individual claims, and without prejudice to the claims of the putative members of the proposed class. The parties believe that the issuance of the Additional Disclosures will moot the claims set forth in the Action.

This decision to make the Additional Disclosures will not affect the merger consideration to be paid in the proposed merger or the timing of the special meeting of the Reliance shareholders.

Reliance and the other defendants have denied, and continue to deny, that they have committed or aided and abetted in the commission of any violation of law or engaged in any of the wrongful acts that were or could have been alleged in the Action, and maintain that they complied with their fiduciary and other legal duties and are making the Additional Disclosures solely to eliminate the burden and expense of further litigation, to put the claims that were or could have been asserted to rest, and to avoid any possible delay to the closing of the merger that might arise from further litigation. Nothing in this Current Report on Form 8-K shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable laws of any of the disclosures set forth herein.

SUPPLEMENT TO DEFINITIVE PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

The following information supplements the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and should be read in connection with the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, which should be read in its entirety. To the extent that information herein differs from or updates information contained in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the information contained herein supersedes the information contained in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. All page references in the information below are to pages in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and terms used below have the meanings set forth in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, unless otherwise defined below. Without admitting in any way that the disclosures below are material or otherwise required by law, Reliance and Simmons make the following supplemental disclosures:

Background of the Mergers

The disclosure under the heading “The Mergers—Background of the Mergers” is hereby supplemented by adding the following to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus at the end of the first paragraph on page 53.

Reliance did not enter into any non-disclosure agreements that contained standstill and/or “don’t ask, don’t waive” provisions that are or were preventing the counterparties from submitting superior offers to acquire Reliance.

Participants in the Solicitation

Simmons, Reliance and certain of its directors, executive officers and employees may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the shareholders of Reliance in connection with the Proposed Transaction. Information about Simmons' directors and executive officers is available in its proxy statement for its 2018 annual meeting of shareholders, which was filed with the SEC on March 14, 2018. Information regarding all of the persons who may, under the rules of the SEC, be deemed participants in the proxy solicitation and a description of their direct and indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise, will be contained in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus regarding the Proposed Transaction and other relevant materials to be filed with the SEC when they become available. Free copies of these documents may be obtained as described in the preceding paragraph.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K may not be based on historical facts and are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements may be identified by reference to a future period(s) or by the use of forward-looking terminology, such as “anticipate,” “estimate,” “expect,” “foresee,” “may,” “might,” “will,” “would,” “could” or “intend,” future conditional verb tenses, and variations or negatives of such terms. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, statements relating to the impact Simmons expects the Proposed Transaction to have on the combined entities operations, financial condition, and financial results, and the Company’s expectations about its ability to successfully integrate the combined businesses and the amount of cost savings and other benefits the Company expects to realize as a result of the Proposed Transaction. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements contained in this document in that actual results could differ materially from those indicated in such forward-looking statements, due to a variety of factors. These factors, include, but are not limited to, the ability to obtain regulatory approvals and meet other closing conditions to the Proposed Transaction, including approval by Reliance’s shareholders on the expected terms and schedule, delay in closing the Proposed Transaction, difficulties and delays in integrating the Reliance business or fully realizing cost savings and other benefits of the Proposed Transaction, business disruption following the Proposed Transaction, changes in interest rates and capital markets, inflation, customer acceptance of the Company’s products and services, and other risk factors. Other relevant risk factors may be detailed from time to time in the Company’s press releases and filings with the SEC. All forward-looking statements, expressed or implied, included in this Current Report on Form 8-K are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to herein. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of this Current Report on Form 8-K, and the Company and Reliance undertake no obligation, and specifically decline any obligation, to revise or update these forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.
