(d) On September 20, 2018, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of NuVasive, Inc. (the “Company”), following the recommendation of the Nominating, Corporate Governance and Compliance Committee of the Board, elected R. Scott Huennekens to serve as a director of the Company, effective October 1, 2018. Mr. Huennekens will serve as a Class II director and will stand for re-election to the Board at the Company’s 2021 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

In connection with the election of Mr. Huennekens to the Board, the Board approved an increase in the size of the Board from eight to nine members. Following the election of Mr. Huennekens to the Board, the Board is now comprised of nine directors, eight of whom are independent non-employee directors. There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Huennekens and any other person pursuant to which he was elected as a director of the Company.

Mr. Huennekens, age 54, has served as President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board of Verb Surgical, a start-up company formed by Google and Johnson & Johnson to develop an advanced digital surgery platform, since August 2015. Prior to joining Verb Surgical, Mr. Huennekens was the President, Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board of Directors of Volcano Corporation, a medical technology company focused on diagnostic and therapeutic solutions for coronary and peripheral artery disease, from 2002 until Volcano was acquired by Royal Philips in February 2015. Pursuant to the Company’s current non-employee director compensation package and under the Company’s 2014 Equity Incentive Plan, Mr. Huennekens will be awarded a pro-rated annual grant of restricted stock units (“RSUs”) on October 1, 2018, subject to vesting on the date of the 2019 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The number of shares of the Company’s common stock subject to the RSUs will be calculated by dividing the grant date value by the Company’s closing stock price on the grant date.
