Item
1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 27, 2015, United Community Banks, Inc. (the “Company”), the holding company for United Community Bank, Blairsville, Georgia, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with MoneyTree Corporation (“MoneyTree”), the holding company for First National Bank, Lenoir City, Tennessee. Under the Merger Agreement, MoneyTree will merge with and into the Company (the “Merger”) and First National Bank will merge with and into United Community Bank. Subject to certain conditions and potential adjustments, MoneyTree’s shareholders will have the right to receive 3.5832 shares of the Company’s common stock or $65.00 in cash, or any combination thereof, for each share of MoneyTree common stock and 89.58 shares of the Company’s common stock or $1,625 in cash, or any combination thereof, for each share of MoneyTree Series C preferred stock, for an aggregate merger consideration of $10,746,626 and 2,358,654 shares of the Company’s common stock. The parties anticipate closing the Merger in the second quarter of 2015.

The Merger Agreement has been approved by the boards of directors of each of the Company and MoneyTree. The closing of the Merger is subject to the required approval of MoneyTree’s shareholders, requisite regulatory approvals, the effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by the Company with respect to the stock to be issued in the transaction, and other customary closing conditions.

The Merger Agreement contains usual and customary representations and warranties that the Company and MoneyTree made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between the Company and MoneyTree, and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, the representations and warranties are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from what may be viewed as material to shareholders, and the representations and warranties may have been used to allocate risk between the Company and MoneyTree rather than establishing matters as facts.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated in certain circumstances, including: (i) by mutual written agreement of the parties; (ii) by either party upon a final and nonappealable denial of a required regulatory approval or injunction or similar restraint permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (iii) by either party if MoneyTree’s shareholders fail to approve the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (iv) by the Company if MoneyTree’s board of directors fails to recommend that its shareholders approve the Merger Agreement, changes such recommendation or breaches its non-solicitation covenants with respect to third-party proposals or its covenants regarding its obligation to call a shareholders’ meeting to vote on the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; or (v) by either party if any of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such party to consummate the Merger cannot be satisfied or fulfilled by September 30, 2015, if the failure of such condition is not a result of such party’s failure to perform, in any material respect, its covenants or agreements or of such party’s material breach of any of its representations or warranties. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain specified circumstances, MoneyTree may be required to pay the Company a termination fee of $2 million.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such document, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and which is incorporated herein by reference. The related press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information

This Current Report contains “forward-looking statements” as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In general, forward-looking statements usually use words such as “may,” “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “should,” “plan,” “estimate,” “predict,” “continue” and “potential” or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology including statements related to the expected timing of the closing of the proposed merger, the expected returns and other benefits of the proposed merger, to shareholders, expected improvement in operating efficiency resulting from proposed merger, estimated expense reductions resulting from the transactions and the timing of achievement of such reductions, the impact on and timing of the recovery of the impact on tangible book value, and the effect of the merger on the Company’s capital ratios. Forward-looking statements represent management’s beliefs, based upon information available at the time the statements are made, with regard to the matters addressed; they are not guarantees of future performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties that change over time and could cause actual results or financial condition to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements.

Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, the possibility that expected benefits may not materialize in the time frames expected or at all, or may be more costly to achieve; that the merger transactions may not be timely completed, if at all; that prior to completion of the merger transactions or thereafter, the parties’ respective businesses may not perform as expected due to transaction-related uncertainties or other factors; that the parties are unable to implement successful integration strategies; that the required regulatory, shareholder, or other closing conditions are not satisfied in a timely manner, or at all; reputational risks and the reaction of the parties’ customers to the merger transactions; diversion of management time to merger-related issues; and other factors and risk influences contained in the cautionary language included under the headings “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” and “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 and other documents subsequently filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). Consequently, no forward-looking statement can be guaranteed. Neither the Company nor MoneyTree undertakes any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. For any forward-looking statements made in this Current Report on Form 8-K, the exhibits thereto or any related documents, the Company and MoneyTree claim protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.
