PRELIMINARY – SUBJECT TO COMPLETION – DATED OCTOBER 19 , 2016

MERGER PROPOSED — YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear First Choice Bank Shareholder:

The boards of directors of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc., Berkshire Bank and First Choice Bank have agreed to a merger of First Choice Bank with and into Berkshire Bank (the “Merger”), with Berkshire Bank surviving as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. First Choice Bank is holding a special meeting on November 22, 2016 at 10:00 a.m., at The Stone Terrace, 2275 Kuser Road, Hamilton Township, New Jersey 08610, for its shareholders of record on October 19, 2016, to vote on the proposals necessary to complete the Merger. If the Merger Agreement, dated as of June 24, 2016, by and among Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc., Berkshire Bank and First Choice Bank (the “Merger Agreement”) is approved and the Merger is subsequently completed, First Choice Bank will merge with and into Berkshire Bank, with Berkshire Bank surviving as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc.

If the Merger is completed, each outstanding share of First Choice Bank common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.5773 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. common stock. In addition, each outstanding share of First Choice Bank preferred stock will be converted into the right to receive such number of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock equal to the number of shares of First Choice Bank common stock issuable upon the conversion of the First Choice Bank preferred stock multiplied by 0.5773. Based on Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s closing price of $25.51 on June 24, 2016 (the date preceding the public announcement of the proposed transaction), each share of First Choice Bank common stock exchanged for 0.5773 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, would have a value of $14.73, with a proposed aggregate value of approximately $111.7 million. Based on Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s closing price of $ 28.20 on October 19, 2016, each share of First Choice Bank common stock exchanged for 0.5773 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock would have a value of $ 16.28 , with a proposed aggregate value of approximately $ 121.7 million. Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “BHLB.” First Choice Bank stock is not traded on any established public trading market.

Although the number of shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock that holders of First Choice Bank common stock will be entitled to receive is fixed, the market value of the stock consideration will fluctuate with the market price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and will not be known at the time First Choice Bank shareholders vote on the merger. However, as described in more detail elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the average price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock over a specified period of time decreases below certain specified thresholds, First Choice Bank would have a right to terminate the Merger Agreement, unless Berkshire Hills Bancorp elects to increase the exchange ratio, which would result in additional shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock being issued.

The affirmative vote of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding common stock of First Choice Bank is required to approve the Merger Agreement. First Choice Bank has scheduled a special meeting so its shareholders can vote on the Merger Agreement. The First Choice Bank board of directors has determined that the Merger is advisable and in the best interests of First Choice Bank and the First Choice Bank board of directors unanimously recommends that First Choice Bank shareholders vote “FOR” the adoption of the Merger Agreement and “FOR” the approval of the other proposal described in this proxy statement/prospectus.

This document serves two purposes. It is the proxy statement being used by the First Choice Bank board of directors to solicit proxies for use at First Choice Bank special meeting. It is also the prospectus of Berkshire Hills Bancorp regarding the Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock to be issued if the Merger is completed. This document describes the Merger in detail and includes a copy of the Merger Agreement as Annex A.

First Choice Bank shareholders will vote to approve the Merger Agreement and, if necessary, the proposal to adjourn the meeting described below at a special meeting of shareholders to be held at The Stone Terrace, 2275 Kuser Road, Hamilton Township, New Jersey 08610 at 10:00 a.m., local time, on November 22, 2016 .

Only shareholders of record as of October 19, 2016 are entitled to attend and vote at First Choice Bank special meeting. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER
AND FIRST CHOICE BANK SPECIAL MEETING

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. (“Berkshire Hills Bancorp”) and Berkshire Bank entered into a Merger Agreement with First Choice Bank pursuant to which First Choice Bank will merge with and into Berkshire Bank, with Berkshire Bank as the surviving entity.

In order to complete the merger of First Choice Bank with and into Berkshire Bank, the shareholders of First Choice Bank must vote to approve the Merger Agreement. First Choice Bank will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to solicit this approval, as well as solicit approvals on other merger related matters. This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the Merger, the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus, the special meeting of First Choice Bank shareholders, and other related matters, and we encourage you to read it carefully.

Q: What will First Choice Bank’s shareholders be voting on at the special shareholders meeting?

At the special meeting of shareholders of First Choice Bank, First Choice Bank’s shareholders will be asked to vote to (i) approve the Merger Agreement, and (ii) if necessary, to approve a proposal to adjourn or postpone the First Choice Bank special meeting for the purpose of allowing additional time to solicit proxies. No business may be transacted at the First Choice Bank special meeting except as specified in the notice accompanying this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: WHAT DO I NEED TO DO NOW?

After you have carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus, indicate on your proxy card how you want your shares to be voted, then sign and mail it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope as soon as possible or submit your proxy telephonically or by the internet so that your shares may be represented and voted at the First Choice Bank special meeting. If you sign and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, First Choice Bank will count your proxy card as a vote “FOR” approval of the Merger Agreement and any other proposal to be properly considered and voted on at the First Choice Bank special meeting.

Q: WHAT AM I BEING ASKED TO VOTE ON AND HOW DOES MY BOARD RECOMMEND THAT I VOTE?

You are being asked to vote “FOR” the approval of the Merger Agreement. The First Choice Bank board of directors has determined that the proposed merger is in the best interests of First Choice Bank shareholders, has approved the A: Merger Agreement and recommends that First Choice Bank shareholders vote “FOR” the approval of the Merger Agreement. You are also being asked to vote “FOR” the ability to adjourn the meeting and to transact any other business that properly comes before the special meeting, or any adjournment or postponements of the meeting.

Q: WHAT WILL FIRST CHOICE BANK SHAREHOLDERS RECEIVE IN THE MERGER?

If the shareholders of First Choice Bank approve the Merger Agreement and the other conditions to closing are satisfied, for each share of First Choice Bank common stock you own, you will receive 0.5773 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock. In addition, each outstanding share of First Choice Bank preferred stock will be A: converted into the right to receive such number of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock equal to the number of shares of First Choice Bank common stock issuable upon the conversion of the First Choice Bank preferred stock multiplied by 0.5773. Based on 3,207,493 shares of First Choice Bank common stock issued and outstanding as of October 19, 2016 , plus 4,270,829 shares of First Choice Bank common stock issuable upon the conversion of the issued and outstanding shares of First Choice Bank

Table of Contents

Series A through Series E preferred stock, and the 0.5773 exchange ratio, approximately 4,317,235 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will be issued to First Choice Bank shareholders.

Q: WHY IS MY VOTE IMPORTANT?

A: The Merger cannot be completed unless the holders of two-thirds (2/3) of the issued and outstanding common stock of First Choice Bank vote to approve the Merger Agreement. If you do not return your proxy card by mail, telephonically or by the internet at or prior to the First Choice Bank special meeting, it will be more difficult for First Choice Bank to obtain the necessary vote to approve the Merger Agreement. The failure of a First Choice Bank shareholder to vote, by proxy or in person, will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement.

Q: HOW DO I VOTE?

You can vote by mail, telephonically or through the internet. If you vote by mail, you will need to complete, sign, A: date and return your proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided. You can also vote in person at the First Choice Bank special meeting.

Q: WHEN AND WHERE IS THE FIRST CHOICE BANK SPECIAL MEETING?

A: The First Choice Bank special meeting will be held at The Stone Terrace, 2275 Kuser Road, Hamilton Township, New Jersey 08610 at 10:00 a.m., local time, on November 22, 2016 .

Q: WHAT CONSTITUTES A QUORUM FOR THE FIRST CHOICE BANK SPECIAL MEETING?

The presence at the First Choice Bank special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders representing at least a majority of the outstanding shares of First Choice Bank common stock entitled to be voted at the First Choice Bank A: special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the First Choice Bank special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will be included in determining the number of shares present at the meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Q: WHAT IS THE VOTE REQUIRED TO APPROVE EACH PROPOSAL AT THE FIRST CHOICE BANK SPECIAL MEETING?

A: At the special meeting, the affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of First Choice Bank common stock is required to approve the Merger Agreement. The vote on the proposal to adjourn or postpone the First Choice Bank special meeting for the purpose, among others, of allowing additional time to solicit proxies requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority in interest of the First Choice Bank common stockholders present in person or by proxy at the special meeting, even if less than a quorum is present.

Q: DO THE HOLDERS OF PREFERRED STOCK GET TO VOTE ON PROPOSAL TO APPROVE THE MERGER AGREEMENT?

The holders of First Choice Bank preferred stock are not entitled to vote on the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, but do get to determine whether the Merger would be considered a liquidation event, entitling them to be paid their respective liquidation preferences in lieu of receiving merger consideration. Pursuant to a letter A: agreement with Berkshire Hills Bancorp, each director and certain officers of First Choice Bank, representing a majority of each series of preferred stock, have agreed to vote all of their shares of First Choice Bank preferred stock so that the Merger will not be deemed a liquidation event. Therefore, no proxies are being solicited from the holders of First Choice Bank preferred stock in connection with the First Choice Bank special meeting.

Table of Contents

A: Yes. First Choice Bank common shareholders are entitled to dissenters' rights under the New Jersey Banking Act. For further information, see "Proposal I—The Proposed Merger—Dissenters' Rights."

Q: IF MY SHARES ARE HELD IN "STREET NAME" BY MY BROKER, WILL MY BROKER VOTE MY SHARES FOR ME?

Q. WHAT IF I FAIL TO INSTRUCT MY BROKER?

A: If you fail to instruct your broker how to vote your shares and the broker submits an unvoted proxy, the resulting broker "non-vote" will be counted toward a quorum at the First Choice Bank special meeting, but it will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement.

Q. CAN I ATTEND THE SPECIAL MEETING AND VOTE MY SHARES IN PERSON?

A: Yes. All shareholders of First Choice Bank, including shareholders of record and shareholders who hold their shares "in street name" through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the First Choice Bank special meeting. If you plan to attend the special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership. In addition, you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. First Choice Bank reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership or without proper photo identification.

Q: CAN I CHANGE MY VOTE AFTER I HAVE VOTED?

A: Yes. If you have not voted through your broker, there are three ways for you to revoke your proxy and change your vote. First, you may send written notice to the Corporate Secretary of First Choice Bank stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you may complete and submit a new proxy card (if you submitted your proxy by Internet or by telephone, you can resubmit by Internet or telephone). Third, you may vote in person at the First Choice Bank special meeting. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow the directions you receive from your broker to change your vote. Your last vote will be the vote that is counted.

Q: SHOULD I SEND IN MY FIRST CHOICE BANK STOCK CERTIFICATES NOW?

No. You should not send in your stock certificates at this time. You will separately receive a form with instructions A: for exchanging your First Choice Bank stock certificates sometime after we obtain First Choice Bank 's shareholder approval and all necessary regulatory approvals.

Q: I AM ALSO A BERKSHIRE HILLS BANCORP SHAREHOLDER. DO I NEED TO DO ANYTHING WITH MY BERKSHIRE HILLS BANCORP STOCK CERTIFICATES?

No. Berkshire Hills Bancorp shareholders will not exchange their certificates in the Merger. The certificates A: currently representing shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will continue to represent the same number of shares of common stock of Berkshire Hills Bancorp after the Merger.

Q: WHEN DO YOU EXPECT TO MERGE?

First Choice Bank, Berkshire Bank and Berkshire Hills Bancorp are working toward completing the Merger as quickly as possible, and expect to complete the Merger in the fourth quarter of 2016. First Choice Bank, Berkshire Bank and Berkshire Hills Bancorp must first obtain the approval of the shareholders of First Choice Bank and all necessary regulatory approvals.

Instead, First Choice Bank will remain an A: independent entity. In addition, if the Merger Agreement is terminated in certain circumstances, a termination fee may be required to be paid by First Choice Bank. See “Proposal I—The Proposed Merger—Terminating the Merger Agreement” for a complete discussion of the circumstances under which termination fees will be required to be paid.

Q: WHAT ARE THE MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO U.S. HOLDERS OF FIRST CHOICE BANK STOCK?

The Merger is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Accordingly, U.S. holders of First Choice Bank common and preferred stock generally will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of shares of First Choice Bank stock for shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock. However, a U.S. holder of First Choice Bank stock generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on cash received in lieu of any fractional share of A: Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock that a holder would otherwise be entitled to receive. For further information, see “Proposal I — The Proposed Merger — Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger” beginning on page 63 . This tax treatment may not apply to all First Choice Bank shareholders. Determining the actual tax consequences of the Merger to First Choice Bank shareholders can be complicated and will depend on your particular circumstances. As of the record date, there were 3,207,493 shares of First Choice Bank common stock outstanding. Directors and executive officers of First Choice Bank who have or share voting power with respect to 1,093,179 outstanding shares of First Choice Bank common stock, representing 34.1 % of the outstanding shares of First Choice Bank common stock as of the record date have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the Merger at the special meeting.

The Merger and the Merger Agreement (page 30)

The acquisition of First Choice Bank is governed by the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement provides that, if all of the conditions are satisfied or waived, First Choice Bank will be merged with and into Berkshire Bank. First Choice Bank will be merged out of existence at the closing of the Merger We encourage you to read the Merger Agreement, which is included as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

What First Choice Bank Shareholders Will Receive in Consideration to be Received in the Merger (page 62)

If the Merger is completed, each share of First Choice Bank common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.5773 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock. In addition, each outstanding share of First Choice Bank preferred stock will be converted into the right to receive such number of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock equal to the number of shares of First Choice Bank common stock issuable upon the conversion of the First Choice Bank preferred stock multiplied by 0.5773. Based on Berkshire Hills Bancorp's closing price of $25.51 on June 24, 2016 (the date preceding the public announcement of the proposed transaction), each share of First Choice Bank common stock exchanged for 0.5773 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, would have a value of $14.73. Based on Berkshire Hills Bancorp's closing price of $ 28.20 on October 19, 2016, each share of First Choice Bank common stock exchanged for 0.5773 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock would have a value of $ 16.28 . Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "BHLB." First Choice Bank stock is not traded on any established public trading market.

First Choice Bank's board of directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the proposed Merger. The First Choice Bank board believes that the Merger Agreement, including the Merger contemplated by the Merger Agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, First Choice Bank and its shareholders, and therefore unanimously recommends that First Choice Bank shareholders vote “FOR” the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. In reaching this decision, First Choice Bank’s board of directors considered a variety of factors, which are described in the section captioned “Proposal I—The Proposed Merger—First Choice Bank’s Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the First Choice Bank Board” beginning on page 34 .

First Choice Bank’s board of directors unanimously recommends that First Choice Bank shareholders vote “FOR” the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the Merger Agreement.

Regulatory Matters Relating to the Merger (page 76)

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Merger cannot be completed unless the Merger of First Choice Bank into Berkshire Bank and the acquisition of First Choice Loan Services as an operating subsidiary of Berkshire Bank are approved by the requisite governmental entities and bank regulators, principally, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the New Jersey Commissioner of Banking and Insurance and the Massachusetts Division of Banks. Berkshire Bank has filed the relevant applications.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank shall have received the written opinions, dated as of the closing date of the Merger, of Luse Gorman, PC and Pepper Hamilton LLP, respectively, to the effect that the Merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Terminating the Merger Agreement (page 78)

The Merger Agreement may be terminated by mutual written consent of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Berkshire Bank and First Choice Bank at any time prior to the completion of the Merger. Additionally, subject to conditions and circumstances described in the Merger Agreement, either Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank or First Choice Bank may terminate the Merger Agreement if, among other things, any of the following occur:

the Merger has not been consummated by June 30, 2017, provided that the failure to consummate the Merger by such date was not due to terminating party's material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the Merger Agreement;

Termination Fee (page 78)

Under certain circumstances described in the Merger Agreement, Berkshire Hills Bancorp may be entitled to receive a $4.1 million termination fee in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement. See “Proposal I—The Proposed Merger—Terminating the Merger Agreement” on page 78 for a list of the circumstances under which a termination fee is payable.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours (page 67)

In considering the recommendation of the First Choice Bank board of directors that you vote to approve the Merger Agreement, you should be aware that some of First Choice Bank’s officers and directors have employment and other compensation agreements or economic interests that are different from, or in addition to, those of First Choice Bank shareholders generally. The First Choice Bank board of directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement, and in recommending to the shareholders that the Merger Agreement be approved. These interests include:

First Choice Bank employment agreements with Howard N. Hall, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of First Choice Bank, Joanne O’Donnell, Executive Vice President, Chief Credit Officer of First Choice Bank, and Lisa M. Tuccillo, Senior Vice President of Deposit Operations, that provide for cash severance payments and continued health insurance benefits in the event of a termination of employment without cause or for good reason within 180 days (90 days for Ms. Tuccillo) following a change in control;

The termination of all outstanding options and warrants to purchase First Choice Bank common stock, whether or not vested; with a payment to the holder of the option or warrant, as applicable, of an amount of cash equal to (i) the excess, if any, of $16.00 over the applicable per share price of the option or warrant, as applicable, (ii) multiplied by the number of shares of First Choice Bank common stock that the holder could have purchased with the option or warrant, as applicable, if the holder had exercised the option or warrant, as applicable, immediately prior to the date of the Merger;

Rights of First Choice Bank officers and directors to continued indemnification coverage and continued coverage under directors' and officers' liability insurance policies;

Seven executive officers of First Choice Loan Services entered into three-year retention agreements with Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank, which will become effective immediately prior to the Merger. Each of these executive officers of First Choice Loan Services must remain employed by First Choice Loan Services in the same capacities as they were on June 24, 2016 through the Merger; and Concurrent with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Martin Tuchman, First Choice Bank's Chairman, entered into an agreement with Berkshire Hills Bancorp, which, among other things, would provide Berkshire Hills Bancorp a right of first refusal after the Merger on certain sales of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock by Mr. Tuchman and otherwise restricts Mr. Tuchman's ability to sell shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, influence corporate transactions and management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, and initiate and support actions or shareholder proposals not recommended by Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors. Additionally, during the 36-month term of this agreement, Mr. Tuchman must vote all Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock beneficially owned by him in a manner consistent with the recommendations of the board of directors of Berkshire Hills Bancorp.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (page 63)

The Merger will be accounted for in accordance with accounting standards for business combinations in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Table of Contents

Comparison of Rights of Shareholders (page 82)

When the Merger is completed, First Choice Bank shareholders will become Berkshire Hills Bancorp shareholders and their rights will be governed by Delaware law and by Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. See "Comparison of Rights of Shareholders" beginning on page 82 for a summary of the material differences between the respective rights of First Choice Bank and Berkshire Hills Bancorp shareholders.

Dissenters' Rights (page 29)

First Choice Bank shareholders entitled to vote on the Merger have the right to dissent from the Merger and, if the Merger is consummated and upon their compliance with all requirements of New Jersey law, to receive a cash payment equal to the fair value of their shares of First Choice Bank common stock, determined in the manner set forth under New Jersey law, instead of the merger consideration. A copy of the section of the New Jersey Banking Act pertaining to dissenters' appraisals rights is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the statute carefully and consult with your legal counsel if you intend to exercise these rights.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 63)

The Merger is intended to qualify for U.S federal income tax purposes as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Accordingly, U.S. holders of First Choice Bank common and preferred stock generally will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of shares of First Choice Bank stock for shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock. However, a U.S. holder of First Choice Bank stock generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on cash received in lieu of any fractional share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock that a holder would otherwise be entitled to receive.

This tax treatment may not apply to all First Choice Bank shareholders. Determining the actual tax consequences of the Merger to First Choice Bank shareholders can be complicated and will depend on your particular circumstances. First Choice Bank shareholders should consult their own tax advisor for a full understanding of the Merger's tax consequences that are particular to each shareholder.

To review the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. holders of First Choice Bank stock in greater detail, please see the section “Proposal I—The Proposed Merger—Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger” beginning on page 63 .

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the section “Caution About Forward-Looking Statements” beginning on page 14, you should consider carefully the risk factors described below, in deciding how to vote. You should also read and consider the risk factors associated with the business of Berkshire Hills because the risk factors may affect the operations and financial results of the consolidated entity. These risk factors may be found in the periodic reports and other documents of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See “Where You Can Find More Information” on page 90 .

Because the market price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will fluctuate, First Choice shareholders cannot be sure of the trading price of the merger consideration they will receive and the price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock might decrease after the Merger.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of First Choice Bank stock will be converted into the right to receive merger consideration consisting of shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock. The exchange ratio in the merger agreement will not be adjusted in the event of any change in the stock price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp prior to the merger. There also will be a period of time between the date when shareholders of First Choice vote on the merger agreement and the date when the merger is completed. The market price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock may vary between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the date of the special meetings, and the date of completion of the merger. For example, during the twelve-month period ending on October 19, 2016, the price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock varied from a low of $ 24.71 to a high of $ 30.69 and ended that period at $ 28.20 . The market value of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock fluctuates based upon general market economic conditions, Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s business and prospects and other factors. Many of these factors are beyond the control of First Choice and Berkshire Hills Bancorp and are not necessarily related to a change in the financial performance or condition of First Choice or Berkshire Hills. As Berkshire Hills Bancorp market share prices fluctuate, based on numerous factors, the value of the shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock that a First Choice shareholder will receive will correspondingly fluctuate. It is impossible to predict accurately the market price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock after completion of the merger. Accordingly, the price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock on the date of the special meetings may not be indicative of their prices immediately prior to completion of the merger and the price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock after the merger is completed. Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “BHLB.” We urge you to obtain current market quotations for Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock. You can get these quotations from a newspaper, on the Internet or by calling your broker.

The restrictions on solicitation contained in the Merger Agreement and the termination fee may discourage other companies from trying to acquire First Choice Bank.

Until the completion of the Merger, First Choice Bank is prohibited from taking any action to knowingly initiate, solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with, or knowingly provide any information to any person other than Berkshire Hills Bancorp concerning any purchase of a majority of the outstanding First Choice Bank common stock, any Merger of First Choice Bank, or the sale of substantially all of the assets of First Choice Bank, or any similar transaction. In addition, First Choice Bank has agreed to pay a termination fee to Berkshire Hills Bancorp in specified circumstances. These provisions could discourage other companies from trying to acquire First Choice Bank even though those other companies might be willing to offer greater value to First Choice Bank's shareholders than Berkshire Hills Bancorp has offered in the Merger. The payment of the termination fee could also have a material adverse effect on First Choice Bank's financial condition.

First Choice Bank will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending.

The pursuit of the Merger may place a significant burden on management and internal resources. Any significant diversion of management attention away from ongoing business and any difficulties encountered in the transition could affect First Choice Bank's financial results. In addition, the Merger Agreement requires that First Choice Bank operate in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business and restricts First Choice Bank from taking certain actions prior to the effective time of the Merger or termination of the Merger without Berkshire Hills

Bancorp's consent in writing. These restrictions may prevent First Choice Bank from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the Merger.

There is no assurance when or even if the Merger will be completed.

Completion of the Merger is subject to satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions. See "Proposal I—The Proposed Merger—Conditions to Completing the Merger." There can be no assurance that Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank will be able to satisfy the closing conditions or that closing conditions beyond their control will be satisfied or waived.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank can agree at any time to terminate the Merger Agreement, even if First Choice Bank's shareholders have already voted to approve the Merger Agreement. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank can also terminate the Merger Agreement under other specified circumstances. See "Proposal I—The Proposed Merger—Terminating the Merger Agreement."

Certain of First Choice Bank's officers and directors have interests that are different from, or in addition to, interests of First Choice Bank's shareholders generally.

You should be aware that some of the directors and officers of First Choice Bank have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of First Choice Bank shareholders generally. These include: severance payments that certain officers may receive under existing employment agreements; the payment for stock options and stock warrants; provisions in the Merger Agreement relating to indemnification of directors and officers and insurance for directors and officers of First Choice Bank for events occurring before the Merger; retention agreements with certain key executives of First Choice Loan Services and an agreement with respect the shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock to be received by First Choice's Chairman, Martin Tuchman. For a more detailed discussion of these interests, see "Proposal I—The Proposed Merger—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours" beginning on page 67 .

Failure to complete the Merger could negatively impact the future businesses and financial results of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Berkshire Bank and First Choice Bank.

If the Merger is not completed, the ongoing businesses of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank may be adversely affected and Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank will be subject to several risks, including the following:

Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Berkshire Bank and First Choice Bank will be required to pay certain costs relating to the Merger, whether or not the Merger is completed, such as legal, accounting, and other professional fees;

under the Merger Agreement, First Choice Bank is subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to completing the Merger, which may adversely affect its ability to execute certain of its business strategies; and matters relating to the Merger may require substantial commitments of time and resources by Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Berkshire Bank and First Choice Bank management, which could otherwise have been devoted to other opportunities that may have been beneficial to Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Berkshire Bank and First Choice Bank as independent companies, as the case may be.

In addition, if the Merger is not completed, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and/or First Choice Bank may experience negative reactions from the financial markets and from their respective customers and employees. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and/or First Choice Bank also could be subject to litigation related to any failure to complete the Merger or to enforcement proceedings commenced against Berkshire Hills Bancorp or First Choice Bank to perform their respective obligations under the Merger Agreement. If the Merger is not completed, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank cannot assure their shareholders that the risks described above will not materialize and will not materially affect the business, financial results and stock prices of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and/or First Choice Bank.

The shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock to be received by First Choice Bank shareholders receiving the stock consideration as a result of the Merger will have different rights from shares of First Choice Bank common stock.

Following completion of the Merger, First Choice Bank shareholders will no longer be shareholders of First Choice Bank, a New Jersey bank, but instead will be shareholders of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, a Delaware corporation. There will be important differences between your current rights as a First Choice Bank shareholder and the rights to which you will be entitled as a Berkshire Hills Bancorp shareholder. See “Comparison of Rights of Shareholders” beginning on page 82 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and First Choice Bank common stock.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The success of the Merger will depend on, among other things, Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s ability to realize anticipated cost savings and to combine the businesses of Berkshire Bank and First Choice Bank in a manner that does not materially disrupt the existing customer relationships of First Choice Bank or Berkshire Bank, or result in decreased revenues from any loss of customers. If Berkshire Hills Bancorp is not able to successfully achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits of the Merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank have operated and, until the completion of the Merger, will continue to operate independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s or First Choice Bank’s ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect the ability of Berkshire Hills Bancorp to maintain relationships with customers and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the Merger.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank may not receive required regulatory approvals. Such approvals may be subject to adverse regulatory conditions.

Before the Merger may be completed and in connection with the change in control of First Choice Loan Services, various approvals or waivers must be obtained from, or notifications submitted to, various governmental entities and bank regulators, principally, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the New Jersey Commissioner of Banking and Insurance and the Massachusetts Department of Banking. An adverse development in either party’s regulatory standing or other factors could result in an inability to obtain one or more of the required regulatory approvals or delay their receipt. Neither First Choice Bank nor Berkshire Hills Bancorp can guarantee that it will receive all required regulatory approvals in order to complete the Merger. In addition, some of the governmental authorities from whom those approvals must be obtained may impose conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions on the completion of the Merger or require changes in the terms of the Merger and such conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions may have the effect of delaying the completion of the Merger, imposing additional material costs on or materially limiting the revenues of the combined company following the Merger or otherwise reduce the anticipated benefits of the Merger if the Merger were consummated successfully within the expected timeframe. In addition, neither Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Berkshire Bank nor First Choice Bank can provide assurance that any such conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions will not result in the delay or abandonment of the Merger. Additionally, the completion of the Merger is conditioned on the absence of any orders, decrees or injunction by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction that would enjoin or prohibit the completion of the Merger.

The fairness opinion obtained by First Choice Bank from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances subsequent to the date of the Merger Agreement.

First Choice Bank has obtained a fairness opinion dated as of June 24, 2016, from its financial advisor, Ambassador Financial Group, Inc. (“Ambassador”). First Choice Bank has not obtained, and will not obtain, an updated opinion as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus from its financial advisor. Changes in the operations and prospects of Berkshire Hills Bancorp or First Choice Bank, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank, and on which the fairness opinion was based, may alter the value of First Choice Bank or the price of shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock or First Choice Bank common stock by the time the Merger is completed. The opinion does not speak to the time the Merger will be completed or to any other date other than the date of such opinion. As a result, the opinion will not address the fairness of the exchange ratio, from a financial point of view, at the time the Merger is completed. For a description of the opinion that First Choice Bank received from Ambassador, please see “The Merger—Opinion of First Choice Bank’s Financial Advisor, Ambassador Financial Group, Inc.” beginning on page 37 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

First Choice Bank shareholders will have a reduced ownership percentage and voting interest after the Merger and will exercise less influence over management.

The holders of First Choice Bank common stock currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of First Choice Bank and on certain other matters affecting First Choice Bank. When the Merger occurs, each shareholder of First Choice Bank that receives shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will become a shareholder of Berkshire Hills Bancorp with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is much smaller than the shareholder’s current percentage ownership of First Choice Bank. Upon completion of the Merger, the former First Choice Bank shareholders will own approximately 12% of the outstanding shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock. Because of this, First Choice Bank’s shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Berkshire Hills Bancorp than they now have on the management and policies of First Choice Bank.

Risks Relating to Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s Business

You should read and consider risk factors specific to Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s business that will also affect the combined company after the Merger. These risks are described in the sections entitled “Risk Factors” in Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 and Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2016, and in other documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Please see the section entitled “Where You Can Find More Information” beginning on page 90 of this proxy statement/prospectus for the location of information incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

- (3) All performance ratios are annualized and are based on average balance sheet amounts, where applicable.
- (4) Fully taxable equivalent considers the impact of tax advantaged investment securities and loans. Generally accepted accounting principles require that loans acquired in a business combination be recorded at fair value, whereas loans from business activities are recorded at cost. The fair value of loans acquired in a business combination includes expected loan losses, and there is no loan loss allowance recorded for these loans at the time of acquisition. Accordingly, the ratio of the loan loss allowance to total loans is reduced as a result of the existence of such loans, and this measure is not directly comparable to prior periods. Similarly, net loan charge-offs are
- (5) normally reduced for loans acquired in a business combination since these loans are recorded net of expected loan losses. Therefore, the ratio of net loan charge-offs to average loans is reduced as a result of the existence of such loans, and this measure is not directly comparable to prior periods. Other institutions may have loans acquired in a business combination, and therefore there may be no direct comparability of these ratios between and among other institutions.

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

This document contains certain non-GAAP financial measures in addition to results presented in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (“GAAP”). These non-GAAP measures are intended to provide the reader with additional supplemental perspectives on operating results, performance trends, and financial condition. Non-GAAP financial measures are not a substitute for GAAP measures; they should be read and used in conjunction with Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s GAAP financial information. A reconciliation of non-GAAP financial measures to GAAP measures is provided above. In all cases, it should be understood that non-GAAP financial measures do not depict amounts that accrue directly to the benefit of shareholders. An item which management excludes when computing non-GAAP adjusted earnings can be of substantial importance to Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s results for any particular quarter or year. Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s non-GAAP earnings information set forth is not necessarily comparable to non-GAAP information which may be presented by other companies. Each non-GAAP measure used by Berkshire Hills Bancorp in this proxy statement/prospectus as supplemental financial data should be considered in conjunction with Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s GAAP financial information.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp utilizes the non-GAAP measure of adjusted earnings in evaluating operating trends, including components for adjusted revenue and expense. These measures exclude amounts which Berkshire Hills Bancorp views as unrelated to its normalized operations, including securities gains/losses, merger costs, restructuring costs, and systems conversion costs. Adjusted earnings are presented net of an adjustment for income tax expense. References to adjusted net income or adjusted income are also meant to refer to adjusted earnings. Berkshire Hills Bancorp also calculates adjusted earnings per share based on its measure of adjusted earnings. Berkshire Hills Bancorp views these amounts as important to understanding its operating trends, particularly due to the impact of accounting standards related to merger and acquisition activity. Analysts also rely on these measures in estimating and evaluating Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s operating performance. Management also believes that the computation of non-GAAP earnings and earnings per share may facilitate the comparison of Berkshire Hills Bancorp to other companies in the financial services industry.

Adjusted revenue and adjusted expense are computed based on the items used to compute adjusted earnings. Adjusted revenue excludes net securities gains. In several years, securities gains were recognized on stock positions held in acquired banks that resulted in the recording of revenue to recognize the gain at the time of the merger. In 2014, revenue was also adjusted to exclude a loss recorded on the termination of hedges, which was related to the acquisition of branches that was completed in the first quarter of that year. In 2013 and 2014, an adjustment was recorded for non-material out of period adjustments to net interest income, which were largely offsetting between the two periods.

Adjusted non-interest expense excludes merger and acquisition costs. These costs include professional fees, severance/benefit costs, systems conversion costs, and contract termination costs. Berkshire Hills Bancorp views merger and acquisition costs as part of the economic investment in acquired operations which are intended to provide future earnings benefits and return on investment. Restructuring costs include costs and losses related to the disposition of branches and other leased and owned real estate, as well as costs related to organization restructurings. Berkshire Hills Bancorp evaluates restructuring costs and considers the length of time for future operating benefits to payback these costs. Berkshire Hills Bancorp also includes net operating results of discontinued operations with restructuring costs. Berkshire Hills Bancorp adjusts expenses to exclude costs related to the conversion of core systems and other major computer systems which are not typical of normal annual operations and which build infrastructure for future expansion. In some cases, variable compensation costs related to the above projects are among the costs excluded in determining adjusted non-interest expense.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp determines the amount of the income tax expense adjustment as the difference between tax expense based on the GAAP tax rate and based on the effective tax rate applicable to core income. In 2014, due to the components of income in that year, Berkshire Hills Bancorp determined the income tax expense associated with the adjusting items for revenue and expense, and this amount was recorded as the income tax expense adjustment.

Adjusted return on assets and adjusted return on equity are computed as non-GAAP measures of performance and are based on adjusted net income and are used for the same reasons that adjusted net income is measured. Berkshire Hills Bancorp also measures its tangible equity, which excludes the balance of goodwill and other intangible assets. Berkshire Hills Bancorp measures tangible book value per share and the ratio of tangible equity to tangible assets. Tangible book value per share is an important valuation metric utilized by the investment community. The ratio of tangible equity to tangible assets is used by analysts and investors as one measure considered in evaluating Berkshire Hills Bancorp's leverage.

All shares of common stock represented by valid proxies received by First Choice Bank through this solicitation, that are not revoked, will be voted in accordance with your instructions on the proxy card. If you do not specify on your proxy card how you want your shares voted before signing and returning it, your proxy will be voted “FOR” approval of the Merger Agreement and “FOR” the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting if more time is needed to solicit additional proxies for the approval of the Merger Agreement.

First Choice Bank shareholders should NOT send stock certificates with their proxy cards. After the Merger is completed, First Choice Bank shareholders will be sent a transmittal form and instructions, at which time they will be requested to submit their stock certificates.

Solicitation of Proxies

First Choice Bank is soliciting proxies and will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from its shareholders. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, First Choice Bank will request that banks, brokers and other record holders send proxies and proxy material to the beneficial owners of First Choice Bank common stock and secure their voting instructions, if necessary. First Choice Bank will reimburse the record holders for their reasonable expenses in taking those actions. First Choice Bank may use several of its regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from First Choice Bank shareholders, either personally or by telephone, telegram, facsimile or letter.

Record Date

First Choice Bank board of directors has fixed the close of business on October 19, 2016 as the record date for determining First Choice Bank shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the First Choice Bank special meeting of shareholders. On October 19, 2016, 3,207,493 shares of First Choice Bank common stock were outstanding and held by approximately 496 holders of record.

Voting Rights and Vote Required

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of First Choice Bank common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the First Choice Bank special meeting of shareholders. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted solely for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. An unvoted proxy submitted by a broker is sometimes referred to as a broker non-vote.

Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding shares of First Choice Bank common stock entitled to vote at the First Choice Bank special meeting. You are entitled to one vote for each share of First Choice Bank common stock you held as of the record date.

Because the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding shares of First Choice Bank common stock entitled to vote at the First Choice Bank special meeting is needed for First Choice Bank and Berkshire Hills Bancorp to proceed with the Merger, the failure to vote by proxy or in person will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the Merger Agreement. Abstentions and broker non-votes also will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, First Choice Bank board of directors urges First Choice Bank shareholders to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope, or submit their proxy by telephone or internet.

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of First Choice Bank and their affiliates had the right to vote 1,093,179 shares of First Choice Bank common stock, or approximately 34.1% of the outstanding First Choice Bank common stock at that date. At the time the Merger Agreement with Berkshire Hills Bancorp was signed, each director and certain officers of First Choice Bank entered into a separate letter agreement with Berkshire Hills Bancorp, pursuant to which, among other things, they agreed to vote or cause to be voted all shares over which they maintain sole or shared voting power in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement.

The holders of First Choice Bank Preferred Stock are not entitled to vote on the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, but the Merger would be considered a liquidation event, entitling the holders of First Choice Bank Preferred Stock to be paid their respective liquidation preferences in lieu of receiving merger consideration, unless the holders of a majority of each series of First Choice Bank Preferred Stock determine that the Merger will not be deemed a liquidation event.

At the time the Merger Agreement with Berkshire Hills Bancorp was signed, each director and certain officers of First Choice Bank entered into a separate letter agreement with Berkshire Hills Bancorp, pursuant to which, among other things, they agreed to vote or cause to be voted all shares of First Choice Bank Preferred Stock over which they maintain sole or shared voting power that the Merger not be deemed a liquidation event.

The directors and officers who signed these letter agreements hold a majority of each series of First Choice Bank Preferred Stock. Therefore, no proxies are being solicited from the holders of First Choice Bank Preferred Stock in connection with the determinations by each series of First Choice Bank Preferred Stock that the Merger will not be deemed a liquidation event.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

First Choice Bank board of directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement. First Choice Bank board of directors has determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement are advisable and in the best interests of First Choice Bank and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” approval of the Merger Agreement and “FOR” the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting if more time is needed to solicit additional proxies for the approval of the Merger Agreement.

See “Proposal I—The Proposed Merger—First Choice Bank’s Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the First Choice Bank Board” on page 34 for a more detailed discussion of First Choice Bank board of directors’ recommendation.

Voting at the First Choice Bank Special Meeting

If you want to vote your shares of First Choice Bank common stock held in street name in person at the First Choice Bank special meeting, you will have to get a written proxy in your name from the broker, bank or other nominee who holds your shares.

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

Under the New Jersey Banking Act, shareholders of First Choice Bank who are entitled to vote on the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement have the right to dissent from the Merger and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of First Choice Bank common stock instead of the merger consideration. First Choice Bank shareholders electing to do so must comply with the statutory provisions relating to dissenters' rights in order to perfect their dissenters' rights. A copy of the applicable statutory provisions are attached as Annex C of this document.

Ensuring perfection of dissenters' rights can be complicated. The procedural rules are specific and must be followed precisely. A First Choice Bank shareholder's failure to comply with these procedural rules may result in his or her becoming ineligible to pursue dissenters' rights.

The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the New Jersey Banking Act procedures that a First Choice Bank shareholder must follow in order to dissent from the Merger and obtain payment of the fair value of his or her shares of First Choice Bank common stock instead of the merger consideration. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the statutory provisions relating to dissenters' rights, the full text of which appears in Annex C of this proxy statement/prospectus. First Choice Bank is notifying each of the holders of record of its common stock as of October 19, 2016 that dissenters' rights are available and intends that this proxy statement/prospectus constitutes this notice.

If you are a First Choice Bank shareholder and you wish to exercise your dissenters' rights, you must satisfy the following:

You must serve a written notice of dissent: You must serve a written notice of dissent from the merger agreement at the principal office of First Choice Bank no later than the third day prior to the First Choice Bank special meeting of shareholders. Delivery of the notice of dissent may be made by registered mail or in person by you or your agent.

You must not vote for approval of the merger agreement: You must not vote for approval of the merger agreement. If you vote, by proxy or in person, in favor of the merger agreement, this will terminate your dissenters' rights.

You must make a written demand for dissenters' rights: You must deliver a written demand for dissenters' rights to the principal office of First Choice Bank within 30 days after the filing of the merger agreement with the New Jersey

Edgar Filing: BERKSHIRE HILLS BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

Commissioner of Banking and Insurance following the First Choice Bank special meeting of shareholders where the merger agreement was approved by shareholders. This written demand for dissenters' rights must be separate from your proxy card. A vote against the merger agreement alone will not constitute a demand for dissenters' rights. Delivery of the demand for payment may be made by registered mail or in person by you or your agent.

If you are a First Choice Bank shareholder who elects to exercise dissenters' rights, you may mail or deliver a written demand to: First Choice Bank, 669 Whitehead Road, Lawrenceville, New Jersey 08648, Attention: Paul E. Fitzgerald, President and Chief Executive Officer.

The written demand for dissenters' rights should state that the shareholder is demanding payment of the value of the shareholder's shares and may specify the shareholder's name, mailing address and the number of shares of common stock owned. Berkshire Hills Bancorp may within ten days of receipt of the demand for dissenters' rights offer to pay the shareholder an amount for his shares that in the opinion of Berkshire Hills Bancorp does not exceed the amount which would be paid if First Choice Bank liquidated as of the filing of the merger agreement with the New Jersey Commissioner of Banking and Insurance following the special meeting of shareholders.

If a shareholder fails to accept the offer from Berkshire Hills Bancorp or if no offer is made, the shareholder must within three weeks after the receipt of the offer from Berkshire Hills Bancorp or within three weeks after the demand was made if no offer was made by Berkshire Hills Bancorp, initiate an action in New Jersey Superior Court. Berkshire Hills Bancorp has no obligation to file this action, and if you do not file this action within the above time frame, you will lose your dissenters' rights.

Table of Contents

The court will appoint a board of three appraisers to determine the value of the shares of all shareholders who are party to the action. In determining such fair value, the appraisers may take into account all relevant factors, including hearing evidence from the parties and upon such determination will file a report in the Superior Court where the determination of any two of the appraisers will control. Either party may appeal the ruling to the Superior Court within ten days of the filing of the appraisers' report and the Superior Court will issue a final ruling. Berkshire Hills Bancorp will then pay the dissenting shareholders of First Choice Bank the judicially determined value of First Choice Bank shares plus a judicially determined interest rate. Berkshire Hills Bancorp will be responsible for paying the fees of the appraisers.

Shareholders considering seeking dissenters' rights for their shares should note that the fair value of their shares determined under the New Jersey Banking Act could be more, the same, or less than the consideration they would receive pursuant to the merger agreement if they did not seek appraisal of their shares.

IF YOU FAIL TO STRICTLY COMPLY WITH THE PROCEDURES DESCRIBED ABOVE YOU WILL LOSE YOUR DISSENTERS' RIGHTS. CONSEQUENTLY, IF YOU WISH TO EXERCISE YOUR DISSENTERS' RIGHTS, WE STRONGLY URGE YOU TO CONSULT A LEGAL ADVISOR BEFORE ATTEMPTING TO DO SO.

PROPOSAL I — THE PROPOSED MERGER

The following summary of the Merger Agreement is qualified by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the Merger Agreement completely and carefully as it, rather than this description, is the legal document that governs the Merger.

General

The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of First Choice Bank with and into Berkshire Bank, with Berkshire Bank as the surviving entity. First Choice Bank will cease to exist upon closing of the Merger. First Choice Loan Services, Inc. will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Berkshire Bank.

Background of the Merger

On November 18, 2015, the board of directors of First Choice Bank held one of its regular monthly meetings. As part of the board's regular efforts to deliver value to shareholders, discussion at the meeting included consideration of the strategic alternatives available to the bank. At the meeting, the board considered, among other alternatives, a potential sale of its subsidiary, First Choice Loan Services, and/or a potential sale of the bank itself. Given certain challenges facing the bank, including increasing regulatory compliance costs, and the prospects of operating the bank without First Choice Loan Services, the board determined it would consider a potential sale of the bank. A committee of the board was established to take the lead in evaluating strategic alternatives, on behalf of the board as they were presented. Chairman, Martin Tuchman, Vice Chair Munish Sood and Robert Workman were appointed as the members of the committee. Houlihan Lokey Capital Inc. had been invited to the meeting to discuss its qualifications to provide financial advisory and investment banking services in connection with a potential sale or other transaction. After the meeting, a proposal was received from Houlihan Lokey and thereafter other investment bankers were interviewed by representatives of the First Choice board. On January 16, 2016, First Choice Bank signed an engagement letter with Houlihan Lokey.

In early 2016, Houlihan Lokey worked with the management of First Choice Bank to prepare a Confidential Information Memorandum to be used in the process of a potential transaction. Houlihan Lokey presented to First Choice Bank a list of potential acquirers to be contacted. This list contained institutions that might be interested in acquiring First Choice Bank in its entirety, as well as institutions that might have an interest in acquiring the bank or First Choice Loan Services only. In late March, the Confidential Information Memorandum was nearly complete and the First Choice board committee authorized Houlihan Lokey to start contacting institutions that might have an interest in acquiring First Choice Bank in its entirety.

Table of Contents

On March 24, 2016 Houlihan Lokey contacted Berkshire Hills Bancorp and had a discussion which resulted in Berkshire Hills Bancorp having an initial interest in First Choice Bank. Berkshire Hills Bancorp informed Houlihan Lokey that it would not participate in an auction process and would only proceed with a potential transaction if First Choice Bank agreed to negotiate with Berkshire Hills Bancorp on an exclusive basis.

On March 29, 2016 a confidentiality agreement with Berkshire Hills Bancorp was signed and on April 4, 2016, an initial meeting between First Choice Bank's representatives and Berkshire Hills Bancorp's representatives took place in New Jersey.

On April 12, 2016, before Houlihan Lokey had commenced a comprehensive solicitation effort, and before receiving any competing offers, it received a non-binding, indicative proposal from Berkshire Hills Bancorp. Houlihan Lokey presented the proposal initially to the First Choice board committee for consideration and then to the First Choice Bank board of directors on April 14, 2016, along with a proposed 30-day Exclusivity Agreement. Berkshire Hills Bancorp's initial proposal, based on preliminary information and subject to due diligence, proposed a valuation of First Choice Bank at 1.3 to 1.4 times its tangible book value. Based on a representative price of $27.00 per share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, the initial proposal suggested an exchange ratio of between 0.65 and 0.70 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock for each share of First Choice Bank common stock.

At the meeting, Houlihan Lokey reported on the general banking environment and historical acquisitions of similar banks and financial institutions; its analysis of First Choice Bank and First Choice Loan Services, including their strengths and business challenges, the potential for selling First Choice Loan Services and continuing to operate First Choice Bank as an independent institution, and provided a detailed analysis of the indicative proposal from Berkshire Hills Bancorp. Houlihan Lokey opined that while solicitation efforts had been limited to date, Berkshire Hills Bancorp was ideally suited to acquire both First Choice Bank and First Choice Loan Services in a combined transaction. Berkshire Hills Bancorp was unwilling to proceed with further diligence absent an agreement regarding exclusivity. After hearing the report from and engaging in a discussion with Houlihan Lokey, and further discussing the proposal among the directors, based on the report of its financial advisor, the financial strength and market capitalization of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, the board's perception of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's ability to acquire and integrate First Choice Loan Services, the fact that its common stock was listed on a national exchange, NYSE, its history of paying dividends to its stockholders and the prospect of consummating the transaction prior to the end of 2016, the First Choice Bank board determined to grant Berkshire Hills Bancorp the requested 30-day exclusivity. The Exclusivity Agreement was signed on April, 15, 2016.

From April 15, 2016 through June 24, 2016, Berkshire Hills Bancorp conducted an extensive due diligence investigation of First Choice Bank and First Choice Loan Services, including substantial financial analysis, management meetings and document review.

During this time, because negotiations had proceeded constructively towards a potential transaction, First Choice Bank determined that it was appropriate to extend the exclusivity period on three occasions, first on May 13, 2016, extending until May 27, 2016, second on May 27, 2016 extending until June 1, 2016, and finally on June 2, 2016, extending until June 24, 2016.

On May 31, 2016, Berkshire Hills Bancorp provided the First Choice board committee with a revised indication of interest with respect to the proposed merger, which reflected the results of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's due diligence investigations available at that time. The revised indication proposed an exchange ratio of 0.5864 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock for each share of First Choice Bank common stock, based on a valuation of $16.25 per share of First Choice Bank common stock and $27.71 per share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, its closing price on the New York Stock Exchange on May 31, 2016. First Choice Bank's outstanding warrants and options would receive a cash payment at the closing of the Merger. The revised proposal was subject to certain contingencies, including those based on First Choice Bank obtaining a minimum tangible book value per share on June 30, 2016, resolution of certain matters relating to loans guaranteed by the U.S. Small Business Administration, and key executives of First Choice Loan Services agreeing to continue employment following the merger.

Table of Contents

From May 31, 2016 to June 6, 2016, representatives from Houlihan Lokey and First Choice Bank's Chairman, Martin Tuchman, negotiated with Berkshire Hills Bancorp on the terms of the revised indication. On June 2, 2016, First Choice Bank received a second revised indication from Berkshire Hills Bancorp. The second revised indication included a $15.75 per share valuation of the First Choice Bank common stock, or an exchange ratio of 0.5684. Berkshire Hills Bancorp cited the results of its additional due diligence investigations, in particular with respect to First Choice Bank's loan portfolio and allowance for loan losses, as the primary reason for the decrease in valuation and exchange ratio.

On June 6, 2016, after additional negotiations by representatives of First Choice Bank and Houlihan Lokey with Berkshire Hills Bancorp, a further revised indication was presented orally to Houlihan Lokey, who relayed it to the board of directors of First Choice Bank. The June 6 oral indication included an increase in the exchange ratio, from 0.5684 to 0.5773, as more particularly described below under "The Merger Agreement—Consideration to be Received in the Merger". In addition, in response to a concern of First Choice with respect to the fixed nature of the exchange ratio, First Choice would be permitted to distribute to its stockholders, as a special cash dividend, 35% of any core earnings between July 1, 2016 and closing in excess of a $14.22 tangible book value per share, assuming First Choice was able to achieve a tangible book value of not less than $14.22 per share at closing and had positive core net income at closing. The special dividend proposal was initially suggested by First Choice Bank as a method of continuing to provide value in the form of cash to its stockholders during the pendency of the Merger, thereby decreasing First Choice Bank's concern regarding the fixed nature of the exchange ratio. Berkshire Hills Bancorp agreed with the proposal as a method of transferring to First Choice Bank's stockholders a portion of the earnings generated by First Choice Bank during the pendency of the Merger, while maintaining a majority of the earnings for the surviving bank. In addition, Berkshire Hills Bancorp believed the special dividend rate of 35% would continue to motivate First Choice Bank to operate in a profitable and efficient manner. Houlihan Lokey provided the Board with some additional feedback received from Berkshire Hills Bancorp with respect to its due diligence investigations, including Berkshire Hills Bancorp's analysis of the risks associated with the acquisition analysis of the market and other factors for consideration. The First Choice board of directors then unanimously authorized the committee to move forward with the negotiation of a definitive merger agreement consistent with the final offer and term sheet, for presentation to the board for final approval. The Board also agreed to extend the exclusivity period to permit a merger agreement to be negotiated and executed and authorized the President to obtain proposals from independent investment banking firms to provide a fairness opinion prior to entering into a final merger agreement.

On June 10, 2016, First Choice Bank engaged Ambassador to provide a fairness opinion in connection with the proposed merger.

On June 10, 2016, Berkshire Hills Bancorp delivered a draft merger agreement to Houlihan Lokey, which was distributed to First Choice Bank and its counsel, Pepper Hamilton LLP. The boards reviewed and discussed the material terms of the merger agreement, as well as certain other agreements (including a voting agreement to be signed by the directors and certain officers of First Choice Bank and an agreement to be signed by Mr. Tuchman, First Choice Bank's largest shareholder, that would govern certain of his activities as a stockholder of Berkshire Hills Bancorp after the closing), with senior management, Luse Gorman, PC, counsel to Berkshire Hills Bancorp, and Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. ("Sandler O'Neill"), Berkshire Hills Bancorp's financial advisor. Luse Gorman made a detailed presentation describing the key terms of the merger and the merger agreement. Sandler O'Neill presented a detailed financial analysis relating to the proposed transaction and answered follow-up questions from the boards. On June 24, 2016, the board of directors of First Choice Bank held a special meeting to consider the proposed merger. The board reviewed and discussed the material terms of the merger agreement as well as certain other agreements including a voting agreement to be signed by the directors and certain officers of First Choice Bank, and an agreement to be signed by Mr. Tuchman as the largest stockholder of First Choice Bank which would restrict his activities as a stockholder of Berkshire Hills Bancorp after the closing. A representative from Pepper Hamilton LLP, as counsel to First Choice Bank, made a detailed presentation describing the key terms of the merger and the merger agreement. Representatives of Houlihan Lokey were present at the meeting and to provide additional information and guidance on the terms of the merger agreement. Representatives of Ambassador were also present at the meeting to present the Ambassador fairness opinion with respect to the exchange ratio to the Board and answer questions. Based on the exchange ratio of 0.5773 and the closing price per share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock on June 24, 2016 (the date preceding the public announcement of the proposed transaction), the merger consideration exchanged per share of First Choice Bank common stock would have a value of $14.73. The market value of the merger consideration will continue to fluctuate with the market price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock.

After discussion, the First Choice Bank board of directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the proposed Merger, authorized the submission of the Merger Agreement and proposed Merger to the stockholders for their consideration and approval, and unanimously recommended that First Choice Bank shareholders vote “FOR” the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. First Choice Bank's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the First Choice Bank Board

The board of directors of First Choice Bank believes that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are fair to and in the best interests of the bank, and that the consideration to be paid in the Merger is fair to and in the best interests of the stockholders of First Choice Bank. Accordingly, First Choice board has approved the Merger Agreement and unanimously recommends that First Choice Bank stockholders vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

In approving the Merger Agreement, First Choice's board of directors consulted with legal counsel as to its legal duties and the terms of the Merger Agreement and with its financial advisors with respect to the financial aspects of the transaction and specific transaction terms. In arriving at its determination, First Choice's board of directors also considered a number of factors, including the following:

- the form and value of the consideration to be received by First Choice's stockholders pursuant to the Merger Agreement;

- its belief that the Merger was more favorable to First Choice's stockholders than the other alternatives reasonably available to First Choice and its stockholders, including the form and amount of the merger consideration and the alternative of remaining as a stand-alone, independent bank;

- First Choice's board of directors' familiarity with and review of information concerning First Choice's business, results of operations, financial condition, competitive position and future prospects;

- the current and prospective environment in which First Choice and First Choice Loan Services operates, including national, regional and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for banks and other financial institutions generally, the increased regulatory burdens on financial institutions generally and the trend toward consolidation in the banking industry and in the financial services industry;

- the financial presentation and advice of the First Choice's financial advisor Houlihan Lokey;

- the opinion of Ambassador that, as of the date of its opinion, that the exchange ratio provided for in the Merger is fair to the holders of First Choice common stock from a financial point of view;

- the limited liquidity of First Choice's common stock and preferred stock, and the greater liquidity of the Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock and its listing for trading on the New York Stock Exchange;

the ability of First Choice's stockholders to participate in the combined business of Berkshire Hills Bancorp following the Merger;

- the financial strength of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and its history of paying dividends to its stockholders;

the ability of Berkshire Hills Bancorp to execute a merger transaction from a financial and regulatory perspective and its recent history of being able to successfully integrate its merger partners;

the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, including the conditions to closing of the merger and the likelihood of their being satisfied, including the absence of any financing or Berkshire stockholder approval conditions to Berkshire's obligation to complete the merger;

the potential for First Choice Bank to pay a special dividend to the holders of its common stock prior to the effectiveness of the Merger;

the synergies of Berkshire Bank's residential mortgage origination business and First Choice Loan Services mortgage origination business and the ability of Berkshire Hills Bancorp to allocate the financial resources necessary to grow the combined businesses;

the financial risks to the business of First Choice Loan Services and resulting risk to First Choice Bank, if there is a material increase in mortgage interest rates;

the dependence of the First Choice Loan Services business on certain key members of management, and the risk that First Choice Loan Services would be unable to retain their services absent a transaction such as the Merger;

the financial attributes of the First Choice Bank common and preferred stock, dividend yields, liquidity, and corporate fundamentals;

the favorable tax treatment of the Berkshire Hills Bancorp proposal, which contemplated a tax-free exchange of First Choice shares for Berkshire Hills Bancorp shares;

the fact that Berkshire Bank does not currently operate in First Choice's market area and the potential benefit that would have to many of First Choice Bank's current employees;

the favorable results of the financial, business and legal due diligence investigations undertaken by First Choice Bank and its advisors;

First Choice Bank's current condition and historical operating results and the potential effects of a merger with Berkshire Hills Bancorp; adverse conditions in markets and prices for stock of financial institutions generally; adverse and increased regulatory compliance obligations, regulatory scrutiny and the resulting increased financial burden to banks, especially smaller local and regional banks, which limits growth opportunities; and the potential effects of the merger on First Choice Bank's depositors and customers and the communities served by First Choice Bank, which was deemed to be favorable given that they would be served by a geographically diversified organization with greater resources than First Choice Bank has.

In the course of its deliberations, the First Choice board also considered a variety of countervailing factors and risks with respect to entering into the Merger Agreement, including:

the risk that the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement might not be consummated due to failure to satisfy the closing conditions set forth therein, some of which are outside of First Choice Bank's control (including, without limitation, the receipt of regulatory approvals), and the potential adverse effect resulting therefrom due to the public announcement of the Merger Agreement;

the possibility that another party might have been willing to provide merger consideration higher than that provided in the Merger Agreement; the restrictions that the Merger Agreement imposes on soliciting competing proposals, and the fact that Firestone might be obligated to pay a termination fee of $4.1 million to Berkshire under specified circumstances;

the restrictions the Merger Agreement places on the conduct of First Choice Bank's business prior to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, which generally require First Choice Bank to use commercially reasonable efforts to conduct its business in the ordinary course of business (subject to certain limitations), which may delay or prevent First Choice Bank from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the Merger;

that First Choice Bank will no longer exist as a stand-alone, independent bank, and as such, its shareholders will no longer benefit as directly from the future financial performance or appreciation in the value of First Choice Bank distinct from the combined entity; and the interests of First Choice Bank's executive officers and directors in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, as described under the heading "Proposal I—The Proposed Merger—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours."

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by First Choice Bank's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the board of directors in arriving at its determination to approve, and to recommend that the First Choice Bank common stockholders vote to approve and adopt, the Merger Agreement. The First Choice Bank board of directors did not assign any relative or specific weights to the above factors, and individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. The First Choice Bank board of directors unanimously recommends that First Choice Bank stockholders vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp's and Berkshire Bank's Reasons for the Merger

Berkshire Hills Bancorp's and Berkshire Bank's boards of directors reviewed and discussed the transaction with their management and unanimously determined that the Merger is advisable and is fair to, and in the best interests of, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank. In reaching its determination, the Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank boards of directors considered a number of factors, including, among others, the following:

the Merger will expand Berkshire Bank's residential mortgage business and broaden its consolidated asset and revenue mix;

the Merger will diversify the geographic and sector mix of Berkshire Bank's loan portfolio;

the First Choice Bank Merger is expected to improve Berkshire Bank's earnings, capital and liquidity ratios. With the benefit of cost savings from merger efficiencies, Berkshire Hills Bancorp's return on assets and return on equity are targeted to improve when the acquisition is fully integrated. The Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock issued as merger consideration is expected to increase the ratios of equity to assets and tangible equity to assets. Berkshire Bank's ratio of loans/deposits (a key measure of liquidity) is expected to benefit as a result of the more favorable ratio at First Choice Bank;

the Merger will provide Berkshire Bank entry into the Princeton, New Jersey and Greater Philadelphia banking markets and complement Berkshire Bank's existing lending team at 44 Business Capital in the Philadelphia market; and following consummation of the Merger, First Choice Loan Services will operate as a subsidiary of Berkshire Bank with no change expected to First Choice Loan Services' operations or systems, which will ensure continuity of operations.

The Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank boards of directors also considered the potential risks related to the merger but concluded that the anticipated benefits of the merger were likely to substantially outweigh these risks. These potential risks included:

First Choice Bank's ratio of non-accrual loans to total loans;

the possibility of certain potential deposit run-off, primarily related to non-relationship accounts;

the possibility of encountering difficulties in achieving anticipated cost synergies and savings in the amounts estimated or in the time frame contemplated;

the possibility of encountering difficulties in successfully integrating First Choice Bank's business, operations and workforce with those of Berkshire Bank;

the transaction-related restructuring charges and other merger-related costs, including the payments and other benefits to be received by First Choice Bank management in connection with the merger pursuant to existing First Choice Bank plans and compensation arrangements and the merger agreement;

diversion of management attention and resources from the operation of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's business towards the completion of the merger; and the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger and the risk that such regulatory approvals will not be received in a timely manner and may impose unacceptable conditions.

This discussion of the factors considered by Berkshire Hills Bancorp's and Berkshire Bank's boards of directors is not exhaustive. Berkshire Hills Bancorp's and Berkshire Bank's boards of directors considered these factors as a whole, and considered them to be favorable to, and supportive of, its determination. Berkshire Hills Bancorp's and Berkshire Bank's boards of directors did not consider it practical, nor did it attempt, to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. In considering the factors described above, individual members of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's and Berkshire Bank's boards of directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Ambassador does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. Ambassador expressed no opinion as to the actual value of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's common stock when issued in the merger or the prices at which Berkshire Hills Bancorp's common stock might trade at any time.

In rendering its opinion, Ambassador assumed, with First Choice Bank's consent, that the merger and other transactions (including, without limitation, the payment of a special dividend to holders of First Choice Bank common stock equal to 35% of First Choice Bank's core net income in excess of $14.22 tangible book value per share from July 1, 2016 until the month end immediately preceding the closing of the merger, subject to certain conditions and limitations) would be consummated on the terms described in the merger agreement, without any waiver or modification of any material terms or conditions. Ambassador also assumed, with First Choice Bank's consent, that, in the course of obtaining the necessary governmental, regulatory and other third party approvals, consents and releases for the merger, including with respect to any divestiture or other requirements, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on First Choice Bank, Berkshire Hills Bancorp or the

In performing its analyses, Ambassador made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of Ambassador, First Choice Bank and Berkshire Hills Bancorp. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by Ambassador are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, Ambassador's opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by the First Choice Bank board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the First Choice Bank board with respect to the fairness of the exchange ratio. The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger were determined through negotiation between First Choice Bank and Berkshire Hills Bancorp and the decision to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of the First Choice Bank board.

The following is a summary of the material financial analysis presented by Ambassador to the First Choice Bank board in connection with rendering its opinion. This summary is not a complete description of the analyses and procedures performed by Ambassador in the course of arriving at its opinion. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Ambassador did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, Ambassador believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. No company, transaction or business used in Ambassador's analyses for comparative purposes is identical to First Choice Bank, Berkshire Hills Bancorp or the proposed merger and an evaluation of the results of those analyses is not entirely mathematical.

Opinion of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's Financial Advisor, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P.

By letter dated June 10, 2016, Berkshire Hills Bancorp retained Sandler O'Neill, to act as financial advisor to Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors in connection with Berkshire Hills Bancorp's consideration of a possible business combination involving Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the June 23, 2016 meeting at which Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors considered and discussed the terms of the merger agreement and the merger, Sandler O'Neill delivered to Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of such date, the Exchange Ratio was fair to Berkshire Hills Bancorp from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is an exhibit to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the agreement and the merger and is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to Berkshire Hills Bancorp. The opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Berkshire Hills Bancorp to engage in the merger, the form or structure of the merger or any other transactions contemplated in the merger agreement, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Berkshire Hills Bancorp, or the effect of any other transaction in which Berkshire Hills Bancorp might engage. Sandler O'Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by any Berkshire Hills Bancorp or First Choice Bank officer, director or employee, or class of such persons, if any, relative to the amount of compensation to be received by any other shareholder. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

a draft of the merger agreement, dated June 24, 2016;

Sandler O'Neill further relied on the assurances of the senior management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would have made any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O'Neill was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any such information and did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Bank. Sandler O'Neill assumed, with Berkshire Hills Bancorp's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank were adequate to cover such losses and would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available median analyst earnings per share estimates for Berkshire Hills Bancorp for the years ending December 31, 2016 through December 31, 2018 and an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by and discussed with the senior management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, and financial projections for First Choice Bank for the years ending December 31, 2016 through December 31, 2020, as provided by and discussed with the senior management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, a core deposit intangible asset, cost savings and expected deposit run-off, as provided by and discussed with the senior management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp. With respect to the foregoing information, the senior management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp confirmed to Sandler O'Neill that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available median analyst earnings per share estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of management of the future financial performance of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank, respectively, and Sandler O'Neill assumed that such performance would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information was based. Sandler O'Neill also assumed that there was no material change in Berkshire Hills Bancorp's or First Choice Bank's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill assumed in all respects material to its analysis that Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses.

Sandler O'Neill also assumed, with Berkshire Hills Bancorp's consent, that in all respects material to its analysis, that (i) each of the parties to the merger agreement would comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements were true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements would perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements were not and would not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Berkshire Hills Bancorp, First Choice Bank or the merger or any related transaction, (iii) the merger and any related transaction would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, (iv) the merger would be consummated without First Choice Bank's rights under Section 10.1.9 of the merger agreement having been triggered, and (v) the merger would qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to any of the legal, accounting or tax matters relating to the merger or any other transaction contemplated in connection therewith.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date of its opinion. Events occurring after the date thereof could materially affect Sandler O'Neill's opinion. Sandler O'Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date thereof. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to the trading values of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock or First Choice Bank common stock at any time or what the value of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock would be once it is actually received by the holders of First Choice Bank common stock.

In rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's opinion or the presentation made by Sandler O'Neill to Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors, but is a summary of all material analyses performed and presented by Sandler O'Neill. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O'Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to Berkshire Hills Bancorp or First Choice Bank and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank and the companies to which they are being compared. In arriving at its opinion, Sandler O'Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, Sandler O'Neill made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O'Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion, rather, Sandler O'Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the Exchange Ratio on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, First Choice Bank and Sandler O'Neill. The analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O'Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors at its June 23, 2016, meeting, which was subsequently confirmed in writing on June 24, 2016. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's common stock or the prices at which Berkshire Hills Bancorp's common stock or First Choice Bank's common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler O'Neill and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors or management with respect to the fairness of the merger. See "Berkshire Hills Bancorp's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Berkshire Hills Bancorp Board of Directors" for additional information on the factors Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors considered in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement.

Summary of Proposed Merger Consideration and Implied Transaction Metrics. Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial terms of the proposed merger. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, each share of First Choice Bank common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for certain shares of First Choice Bank common stock as specified in the merger agreement, will be converted into the right to receive, without interest, 0.5773 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock. Sandler O'Neill also considered and discussed with the Berkshire Hills Bancorp board of directors how this analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to net income. To illustrate this impact, Sandler O'Neill performed a similar analysis assuming First Choice Bank's net income varied from 25% above projections to 25% below projections. This analysis resulted in the following range of per share values for First Choice Bank common stock, applying the price to 2020 earnings multiples range of 13.0x to 18.0x referred to above and a discount rate of 13.99%.

Sandler O'Neill also performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of First Choice Bank common stock assuming that First Choice Bank performed in accordance earning projections provided by and confirmed with Berkshire Hills Bancorp senior management, inclusive of estimated cost savings associated with the transaction of $14.9 million for the year ending December 31, 2017, $15.2 million for the year ending December 31, 2018, $15.4 million for the year ending December 31, 2019, and $15.5 million for the year ending December 31, 2020, as provided by and discussed with Berkshire Hills Bancorp senior management. To approximate the terminal value of First Choice Bank common stock at December 31, 2020, Sandler O'Neill applied price to 2020 earnings multiples ranging from 13.0x to 18.0x and multiples of December 31, 2020 tangible book value ranging from 80% to 130%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 11.0% to 17.0%, which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of First Choice Bank's common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicates an imputed range of values per share of First Choice Bank common stock of $12.07 to $21.46 when applying earnings multiples and $8.41 to $17.54 when applying multiples of tangible book value.

In connection with its analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Berkshire Hills Bancorp board of directors how the present value analyses would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions. Sandler O'Neill noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger based on the following assumptions: (i) the merger closes in the fourth calendar quarter of 2016; (ii) pursuant to the merger agreement, each share of First Choice Bank common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be converted into the right to receive, without interest, 0.5773 shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock; (iii) all outstanding First Choice Bank options and warrants are cashed out by Berkshire Hills Bancorp at closing; and (iv) Berkshire Hills Bancorp's closing stock price of $25.51 on June 24, 2016. Sandler O'Neill also incorporated the following assumptions, each of which were provided by and discussed with Berkshire Hills Bancorp's senior management: (a) financial projections for First Choice Bank for the years ending December 31, 2016 through December 31, 2020; (b) estimated earnings per share projections for Berkshire Hills Bancorp, based on publicly available analyst consensus median earnings per share estimates for the years ending December 31, 2016 through December 31, 2018 with an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter; (c) a per share dividend payment at closing by First Choice Bank to holders of First Choice Bank common stock; (d) purchase accounting adjustments, including a gross credit mark on loans, a negative interest rate mark on gross loans, a negative mark on owned real estate, a fixed asset write-down, a positive interest rate mark on time deposits and a positive interest rate mark on borrowings; (e) the reversal of First Choice Bank's existing allowance for loan and lease losses; (f) an estimated deposit run-off on First Choice Bank's deposits; (g) estimated cost savings; (h) pre-tax one-time transaction costs and expenses; and (i) a mortgage bonus payment to First Choice Bank at close and over the subsequent three years. In addition, Sandler O'Neill assumed a core deposit premium on First Choice Bank's core deposits with straight line depreciation over 5 years and a pre-tax opportunity cost of cash of approximately 2.0%. The analysis indicated that the merger could be accretive to Berkshire Hills Bancorp's estimated earnings per share in 2017 (excluding transaction expenses in 2017) and dilutive to estimated tangible book value per share at close.

In connection with this analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Berkshire Hills Bancorp board of directors how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Sandler O'Neill's Relationship. Sandler O'Neill is acting as financial advisor to Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors in connection with the merger and will receive a transaction fee in an amount equal to approximately $838,000, 10% of such fee was paid to Sandler O'Neill upon Berkshire Hills Bancorp's entry into the merger agreement and the remainder will become payable at the time of closing of the merger. In addition, Sandler O'Neill received a fee in an amount equal to $200,000 upon rendering its fairness opinion to the Berkshire Hills Bancorp board of directors in connection with the merger, which fairness opinion fee will be credited in full towards the portion of the transaction fee which will become payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the merger. Berkshire Hills Bancorp has also agreed to reimburse Sandler O'Neill, upon request made from time to time, for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its engagement, including the reasonable fees and disbursements of its legal counsel. Berkshire Hills Bancorp has also agreed to indemnify Sandler O'Neill and its affiliates and their respective partners, directors, officers, employees, agents and controlling persons harmless from and against any and all losses, claims, damages and liabilities, joint or several, to which it may become subject under applicable federal or state law.

In the two years preceding the date of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, Sandler O'Neill provided certain other investment banking services to Berkshire Hills Bancorp and received fees for such services. Specifically, Sandler O'Neill advised Berkshire Hills Bancorp in its acquisition of Hampden Bancorp, Inc., for which it received fees totaling approximately $900,000. In addition, in the ordinary course of Sandler O'Neill's business as a broker-dealer, Sandler O'Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to Berkshire Hills Bancorp, First Choice Bank and their respective affiliates. Sandler O'Neill may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, First Choice Bank or their respective affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of its customers.

Surrender of Stock Certificates

Promptly following the completion of the Merger, Berkshire Hills Bancorp will cause to be delivered to First Choice Bank shareholders a letter of transmittal, together with instructions for the surrender of their First Choice Bank stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration. Until a First Choice Bank shareholder surrenders his, her or its First Choice Bank stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration, First Choice Bank shareholders will not be paid dividends or other distributions declared after the Merger with respect to any Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock for which their First Choice Bank shares may be exchanged. When First Choice Bank shareholders surrender their First Choice Bank stock certificates, Berkshire Hills Bancorp will pay any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest. After the completion of the Merger, there will be no further transfers of First Choice Bank stock. First Choice Bank stock certificates surrendered after the completion of the Merger will be canceled and exchanged for the merger consideration.

If their First Choice Bank stock certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed, First Choice Bank shareholders will have to prove their ownership of these certificates and that they were lost, stolen or destroyed before they receive any consideration for their shares. The letter of transmittal will include instructions on how to provide evidence of ownership.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

In accordance with current accounting guidance, the Merger will be accounted for pursuant to accounting standards for business combinations. The result of this is that the recorded assets and liabilities of Berkshire Hills Bancorp will be carried forward at their recorded amounts, the historical operating results will be unchanged for the prior periods being reported on and that the assets and liabilities of First Choice Bank will be adjusted to fair value at the date of the Merger. In addition, all identified intangibles will be recorded at fair value and included as part of the net assets acquired. To the extent that the purchase price, consisting of cash plus the number of shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock to be issued to former First Choice Bank shareholders and option and warrant holders at fair value, exceeds the fair value of the net assets including identifiable intangibles of First Choice Bank at the Merger date, that amount will be reported as goodwill. In accordance with current accounting guidance, goodwill will not be amortized but will be evaluated for impairment annually. Identified intangibles will be amortized over their estimated lives. Further, operating results of First Choice Bank will be included in the operating results of Berkshire Hills Bancorp beginning from the date of completion of the Merger.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following discussion sets forth the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of First Choice Bank preferred stock and common stock, generally referred to as “First Choice Bank stock,” who exchange First Choice Bank stock for Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock in the Merger. The discussion also sets forth the material U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. holders of the pre-merger special dividend (as defined below), if made. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, locality or foreign jurisdiction, or under any U.S. federal tax laws (such as the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010) other than federal income tax law. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (referred to as the “Code”), the regulations of the U.S. Department of the Treasury and court and administrative rulings and decisions in effect on the date of this document. These laws may change, possibly retroactively, and any change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

This discussion assumes that you hold your shares of First Choice Bank stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. Further, this discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances or that may be applicable to you if you are subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, including if you are:

In addition, this discussion does not address the tax consequences of the Merger to holders of First Choice Bank stock other than U.S. holders, holders of First Choice Bank options or warrants, or holders of First Choice Bank stock who exercise appraisal and/or dissenters rights. This discussion does not address the tax consequences to a holder of First Choice Bank stock of the receipt of regular monthly dividends paid consistently in accordance with past practice.

If a partnership (including an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds First Choice Bank stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend on the status of such partner and the activities of the partnership.

This discussion is not intended to be tax advice to any particular holder of First Choice Bank stock. Tax matters regarding the Merger are complicated, and the tax consequences of the Merger to you will depend on your particular situation. First Choice Bank shareholders are urged to consult their tax advisors as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger, as well as the effects of state, local, federal non-income and non-U.S. tax laws.

It is a condition to the closing of the Merger that Berkshire Hills Bancorp receive the opinion of its legal counsel, Luse Gorman, PC, and First Choice Bank receive the opinion of its legal counsel, Pepper Hamilton LLP, each dated as of the effective time of the Merger, substantially to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in that opinion (including factual representations contained in certificates of officers of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank), the Merger will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The tax opinions are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service, or “IRS,” or any court. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank have not sought and will not seek any ruling from the IRS regarding any matters relating to the Merger and, as a result, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth below. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions upon which the opinions are based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger could be adversely affected.

Based on the opinions that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger are as follows:

No gain or loss generally will be recognized by a U.S. holder of First Choice Bank stock upon the receipt of shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock in exchange therefor pursuant to the Merger (except in respect of cash received in lieu of fractional shares, as discussed below);

The aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock received by the U.S. holder in the Merger will be the same as the aggregate adjusted tax basis of shares of First Choice Bank stock surrendered in exchange therefor, reduced by the tax basis allocable to any fractional share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock for which cash is received;

The holding period of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock received by a U.S. holder will include the holding period of the First Choice Bank stock exchanged therefor; and Although no fractional shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will be issued in the Merger, a U.S. holder who receives cash in lieu of such a fractional share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock will generally be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the Merger and then having sold that fractional share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock for cash. As a result, a U.S. holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the holder’s aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of First Choice Bank stock surrendered that is allocable to its fractional share. Any capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for the fractional share (including the holding period of the shares of First Choice Bank stock surrendered therefor) is more than one year. Long-term capital gains of individuals generally are eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

For purposes of the above discussion of the bases and holding periods for shares of First Choice Bank stock and Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, First Choice Bank shareholders who acquired different blocks of First Choice Bank stock at different times or at different prices must calculate their basis and holding periods separately for each identifiable block of such stock exchanged or received in the Merger.

Pre-Merger Special Dividend. Under the terms of the merger agreement, First Choice Bank may, if certain circumstances are met, pay a per share distribution to the holders of First Choice Bank common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger (the “pre-merger special dividend”). The pre-merger special dividend is intended to be treated as a distribution by First Choice Bank within the meaning of Section 301 of the Code and not as consideration paid for First Choice Bank stock in the Merger. It is possible that the IRS would disagree with the characterization of the pre-merger special dividend as a distribution by First Choice Bank within the meaning of Section 301 of the Code and instead seek to characterize the pre-merger special dividend as merger consideration paid by Berkshire Hills Bancorp in exchange for a portion of a holder’s First Choice Bank common stock. If this characterization were to be sustained, the tax consequences of the cash received pursuant to the pre-merger special dividend would be different than described herein.

Assuming the pre-merger special dividend is characterized as a distribution by First Choice Bank under Section 301 of the Code, the pre-merger special dividend will be treated as a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent paid out of current or accumulated earnings and profits of First Choice Bank. Generally, individual U.S. holders who meet applicable holding period requirements under the Code for “qualified dividends”

(generally more than 60 days during the 121-day period surrounding the ex-dividend date) will be taxed on the pre-merger special dividend at a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 20%. To the extent that the amount of any dividend exceeds First Choice Bank's current and accumulated earnings and profits, the excess will first be treated as a tax-free return of capital, causing a reduction in the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the First Choice Bank common stock. If such basis is reduced to zero, any remaining portion of the pre-merger special dividend will be taxed as capital gain, which would be long-term capital gain if the U.S. holder has held the First Choice Bank common stock for more than one year at the time the pre-merger special dividend is received.

To the extent an individual U.S. holder of First Choice Bank common stock includes in income the pre-merger special dividend as a qualified dividend and such dividend constitutes an "extraordinary dividend" (generally, where the amount of the dividend exceeds 10% of the holder's tax basis in its stock), any loss on the sale or exchange of such stock, to the extent of such dividend, will be treated as long-term capital loss. U.S. holders of First Choice common stock should consult their tax advisors regarding the possible applicability of the extraordinary dividend provisions of the Code with respect to the pre-merger special dividend and the potential effect of such provisions on any losses realized with respect to Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock received in the merger.

In addition, U.S. holders that are corporations should consult their tax advisors regarding the possible availability of a dividends received deduction and the potential applicability of the extraordinary dividend provisions of the Code with respect to the pre-merger special dividend.

U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding any alternative characterization of the pre-merger special dividend, including as consideration received in exchange for their shares of First Choice Bank common stock.

Backup Withholding. Payments of cash (including cash in lieu of a fractional share and the pre-merger special dividend, if any) to a U.S. holder of First Choice Bank stock may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%) unless such holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or, in the case of backup withholding, furnishes its taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder of First Choice Bank stock under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or credit against such holder's federal income tax liability provided that the holder timely furnishes the required information to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements. U.S. holders of First Choice Bank stock who receive Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock pursuant to the Merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the Merger, and any such holder who, immediately before the Merger, holds at least 1% (by vote or value) of the outstanding First Choice Bank stock, or securities of First Choice Bank with a basis for federal income tax purposes of at least $1 million, will be required to file with its U.S. federal income tax return for the year in which the Merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the Merger.

The preceding discussion is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to a U.S. holder of First Choice Bank stock does not address all potential tax consequences that apply or that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances, and should not be construed as tax advice. Moreover, the discussion does not address any U.S. federal non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the Merger. Tax matters are very complicated and, accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult with a tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax consequences to you of the Merger.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours

In considering the recommendation of the First Choice Bank board of directors that you vote to approve the Merger Agreement, you should be aware that some of First Choice Bank's officers and directors have employment and other compensation agreements or economic interests that are different from, or in addition to, those of First Choice Bank shareholders generally. The First Choice Bank board of directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement, and in recommending to the shareholders that the Merger Agreement be approved.

Employment Agreements with First Choice Bank. First Choice Bank previously entered into employment agreements with each of Howard N. Hall (on November 9, 2014), Joanne O'Donnell (on January 5, 2015), and Lisa M. Tuccillo (on March 1, 2013). Under the employment agreements, if an executive's employment is terminated by First Choice Bank, or any successor, subsequent to the Merger and during the term of his or her employment agreement for any reason other than cause or the executive's death, or if the executive resigns for good reason, then the executive will receive a severance amount equal to one and one-half times his or her base salary (one times base salary for Ms. O'Donnell). If payable, the cash severance payable to Mr. Hall, Ms. O'Donnell and Ms. Tuccillo is estimated to be $370,500, $211,000 and $270,000, respectively, less tax withholding. Additionally, Mr. Hall and Ms. O'Donnell would be entitled to continued health insurance, at no cost to the executive, for eighteen months (twelve months for Ms. O'Donnell). The employment agreements provide that the cash severance payments, will be paid over a period of eighteen months in the case of Mr. Hall, a period of twelve months in the case of Ms. O'Donnell, and in a single lump sum cash payment in the case of Ms. Tuccillo.

Cash Payment for Outstanding Options and Warrants. Under the terms of the merger agreement, outstanding options and warrants to purchase First Choice Bank common stock, whether or not vested; will be terminated with a payment to the holder of the option or warrant, as applicable, of an amount of cash equal to (i) the excess, if any, of $16.00 over the applicable per share price of the option or warrant, as applicable, (ii) multiplied by the number of shares of First Choice Bank common stock that the holder could have purchased with the option or warrant, as applicable, if the holder had exercised the option or warrant, as applicable, immediately prior to the date of the Merger. Paul E. Fitzgerald, Howard N. Hall, Joanne O'Donnell and Lisa M. Tuccillo who hold 25,000; 10,000; 7,500 and 27,500 stock options, respectively, will receive cash payments of $2,500; $1,000, $750 and $124,025, respectively, upon termination of the options. Non-employee directors Steven Doerler, Nancy Dudas, Geoffrey Morsell, Munish Sood, Martin Tuchman, Richard Weise, and Robert Workman will each receive $98,500, $89,200, $103,015, $95,500, $107,500, $80,500, and $85,300, respectively, in cash upon the termination of the stock options held by each of them. Additionally, non-employee directors Steven Doerler, Nancy Dudas, Geoffrey Morsell, Munish Sood, Martin Tuchman, and Richard Weise will each receive a cash payment in exchange for the termination of the warrants held by each of them in the same manner as all other holders of warrants.

Severance Pay. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, each person who is an employee of First Choice Bank or a subsidiary of First Choice Bank and who is terminated for a reason other than cause within twelve months subsequent to the date of the Merger or resigns for good reason within twelve months subsequent to the date of the Merger or is not offered employment as of the date of the Merger, excluding those employees who are entitled to benefits under employment or change of control arrangements, shall be entitled to severance benefits. The amount of the severance benefits shall be determined under the applicable employer's severance plan, First Choice Bank or a subsidiary of First Choice Bank, or Berkshire Bank's severance plan if such payments would be more favorable to such person.

Indemnification. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Berkshire Hills Bancorp has agreed that it will from and after the effective time of the Merger, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, indemnify, defend and hold harmless each present and former officer, employee or director of First Choice Bank or any subsidiary of First Choice Bank against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement of or in connection with any action or investigation arising in whole or in part, out of the fact that such person is or was an officer, employee or director of First Choice Bank or any subsidiary of First Choice Bank. Any such claim must pertain to a matter arising, existing or occurring before the effective time of the Merger, regardless of whether such claim is asserted or claimed before or after the effective time of the Merger.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp has further agreed to obtain and fully pay the premiums for the extension of First Choice Bank's existing directors' and officers' insurance policies, in each case for a claims reporting or discovery period of at least six years from and after the effective time of the Merger. Berkshire Hills Bancorp is not required to spend more than 200% of the annual premiums currently paid by First Choice Bank.

Three-Year Retention Agreements. Seven executive officers of First Choice Loan Services entered into three-year retention agreements with Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank, which will become effective immediately prior to the Merger. Each of these executive officers of First Choice Loan Services must remain employed by First Choice Loan Services in the same capacities as they were on June 24, 2016 through the Merger.

Agreement with Chairman. Concurrent with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Martin Tuchman, First Choice Bank's Chairman, entered into an agreement with Berkshire Hills Bancorp, which, among other things, would provide Berkshire Hills Bancorp a right of first refusal after the Merger on certain sales of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock by Mr. Tuchman and otherwise restricts Mr. Tuchman's ability to sell shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock, influence corporate transactions and management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, and initiate and support actions or shareholder proposals not recommended by Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors. Additionally, during the 36-month term of this agreement, Mr. Tuchman must vote all Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock beneficially owned by him in a manner consistent with the recommendations of the board of directors of Berkshire Hills.

Employee Matters

Each person who is an employee of First Choice Bank as of the closing of the Merger will become an employee of Berkshire Bank and will be eligible to participate in group health, medical, dental, life, disability, and other welfare plans available to similarly situated employees of Berkshire Bank on the same basis that it provides such coverage to Berkshire Bank employees. With respect to any welfare plan or program of First Choice Bank that in the determination of Berkshire Hills Bancorp provides benefits of the same type as a plan maintained by Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Berkshire Hills Bancorp may continue the First Choice Bank plan until such employees become eligible for the Berkshire Hills Bancorp plan so that there is no gap in coverage. Berkshire Hills Bancorp will give credit to continuing First Choice Bank employees for purposes of Berkshire Bank's vacation and other paid leave programs for their accrued and unpaid vacation and/or leave balance with First Choice Bank. Employees of First Choice Bank will be eligible to participate in the Berkshire Bank 401(k) Plan as of the day following the closing date of the Merger.

Operations of Berkshire Bank after the Merger

The senior executive officers of First Choice Loan Services have entered into agreements with Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank to remain as officers of First Choice Loan Services following the Merger. These agreements, among other things, provide for the payment of an aggregate of $1.5 million in sign-on bonuses to the executive officers, payable in installments at the effective time and on the first two anniversaries of the effective time, provided the executive officers remain employed on the payment dates. The current Chief Operating Officer of Berkshire Bank will be appointed President of First Choice Loan Services upon completion of the Merger.

Agreement with First Choice Bank Chairman

Concurrent with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Martin Tuchman, First Choice Bank's Chairman, entered into an agreement with Berkshire Hills. Such agreement provides that for a term of up to 36 months from the date of the closing of the Merger, Mr. Tuchman generally may not: (i) with certain exceptions, transfer Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock beneficially owned unless such transfers are within certain timing and volume limits and if outside those timing or volume limitations, Berkshire Hills Bancorp is provided the right of first refusal on any sale, (ii) influence corporate transactions or management of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, or (iii) otherwise initiate Additionally, during the term of this agreement, Mr. Tuchman must vote all Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock beneficially owned in a manner consistent with the recommendations of the board of directors of Berkshire Hills Bancorp.

Time of Completion

Unless the parties agree otherwise and unless the Merger Agreement has otherwise been terminated, the closing of the Merger will take place on a date that is no later than the fifth business day following the date on which all of the conditions to the Merger contained in the Merger Agreement are satisfied or waived. See “—Conditions to Completing the Merger.” On the closing date of the Merger, Berkshire Bank will file articles of merger with the Massachusetts Department of Banking, the Massachusetts Secretary of the Commonwealth and the New Jersey Commissioner of Banking and Insurance merging First Choice Bank into Berkshire Bank. The Merger will become effective at the time stated in the articles of merger.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Berkshire Bank and First Choice Bank are working to complete the Merger quickly. It is currently expected that the Merger will be completed in the fourth quarter of 2016. However, because completion of the Merger is subject to various conditions, the parties cannot be certain of the actual timing.

Conditions to Completing the Merger

The parties' obligations to consummate the Merger are conditioned on the following:

The parties' representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement must be true and correct as of June 24, 2016, and upon the effective time of the Merger (except to the extent made with reference to an earlier date, in which case only as of such earlier date), except where the failure of any such representation or warranty to be true and correct (without giving effect to any “materiality,” “material,” “in all material respects” or “material adverse effect” qualifier or exception, or similar terms or phrases set forth therein) as of the effective time of the Merger (or express earlier date) would not have a material adverse effect (except for certain representations and warranties made in the Merger Agreement regarding the organization, capitalization and corporate authority of the parties, which must be true and correct in all material respects);

Each party having performed in all material respects all obligations and complied in all material respects with all agreements or covenants required by the Merger Agreement to be performed or complied with by them at or prior to the effective time of the Merger;

The parties obtaining any and all permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals required for the consummation of the Merger and the acquisition of First Choice Loan Services, the failure of which to obtain would have a material adverse effect on the parties;

No changes, other than changes contemplated by the Merger Agreement, in the business, operations, condition (financial or otherwise), assets or liabilities of a party to the Merger Agreement and its subsidiaries (regardless of whether or not such events or changes are inconsistent with the representations and warranties given in the Merger Agreement) that individually or in the aggregate has had or reasonably would be expected to have a material adverse effect on such party;

The Merger Agreement and each transaction contemplated thereby must be approved and adopted by the requisite votes of the First Choice Bank shareholders;

All required regulatory approvals having been received and all waiting periods thereto shall have expired, and such regulatory approvals shall not have included any condition or requirement that would result in a material adverse effect or a burdensome condition on either of the parties or their subsidiaries;

Table of Contents

Conduct of Business Before the Merger

In general, the Merger Agreement obligates First Choice Bank and Berkshire Hills Bancorp to conduct their businesses in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business and to use reasonable efforts to preserve intact their business organizations and assets and maintain their rights and franchises.

In addition, First Choice Bank has agreed that, until completion of the Merger and unless permitted by Berkshire Hills Bancorp, it will not:

First Choice Bank and Berkshire Hills Bancorp have agreed to use all reasonable efforts to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental entities that are necessary or advisable to consummate the Merger, which will include the approvals of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, New Jersey Commissioner of Banking and Insurance and the Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks. Berkshire Hills Bancorp has filed the application or notice materials necessary to obtain these regulatory approvals. The Merger cannot be completed without such approvals. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank cannot assure you that all of the required regulatory approvals will be obtained, when they will be received or whether there will be conditions in the approvals or any litigation challenging the approvals. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank also cannot assure you that the United States Department of Justice or any state attorney general will not attempt to challenge the Merger on antitrust grounds, or what the outcome will be if such a challenge is made.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank are not aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required prior to the Merger other than those described herein. Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank presently contemplate that each will seek any additional governmental approvals or actions that may be required in addition to those requests for approvals currently pending; however, Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank cannot assure you that any such additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The Merger is subject to approval by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation pursuant to the Federal Bank Merger Act. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation may not approve any transaction that would result in a monopoly or otherwise substantially lessen competition or restrain trade, unless it finds that the anti-competitive effects of the transaction are clearly outweighed by the public interest. In addition, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation considers the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the institutions involved and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. Under the Community Reinvestment Act, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation must take into account the record of performance of each company in meeting the credit needs of its entire communities, including low and moderate income neighborhoods, served by each company. Berkshire Bank and First Choice Bank each has a satisfactory CRA rating. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation also must consider the effectiveness of each institution involved in the proposed transaction in combating money-laundering activities, as well as any risk to the financial stability of the banking or financial systems of the United States.

Federal law requires publication of notice of, and the opportunity for public comment on, the applications submitted by Berkshire Hills Bancorp and Berkshire Bank for approval of the Merger and authorizes the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to hold a public hearing in connection with the application if it determines that such a hearing would be appropriate. Any such hearing or comments provided by third parties could prolong the period during which the application is subject to review. In addition, under federal law, a period of 30 days must expire following approval by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, within which period the Department of Justice may file objections to the Merger under the federal antitrust laws. This waiting period may be reduced to 15 days if the Department of Justice has not provided any adverse comments relating to the competitive factors of the transaction. If the Department of Justice were to commence an antitrust action, that action would stay the effectiveness of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's approval of the Merger unless a court specifically orders otherwise. In reviewing the Merger, the Department of Justice could analyze the Merger's effect on competition differently than the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and thus it is possible that the Department of Justice could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation regarding the Merger's competitive effects.

New Jersey Commissioner of Banking and Insurance. The Merger is subject to the approval of the New Jersey Commissioner of Banking and Insurance under the New Jersey Banking Act. In determining whether to approve the application, the New Jersey Commissioner of Banking and Insurance will consider, among other factors, whether the Merger will be in the public interest and conforms to the New Jersey Banking Act.

Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks. The Merger is also subject to the approval of the Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks pursuant to Massachusetts law. In determining whether to approve the application, the Commissioner of Banks will consider, among other factors, whether competition among banking institutions will be unreasonably affected, whether public convenience and advantage will be promoted and whether the Merger will result in “net new benefits” within the resulting institution’s Community Reinvestment Act assessment area.

No Solicitation

Until the Merger is completed or the Merger Agreement is terminated, First Choice Bank has agreed that it, its subsidiaries, its officers, directors, employees, representatives, agents and affiliates will not:

directly or indirectly initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any acquisition of First Choice Bank, whether by merger, acquisition of 25% or more of First Choice Bank’s capital stock or 25% or more of the assets of First Choice Bank or otherwise;

- enter into or maintain or continue discussions or negotiations regarding any such acquisition proposal; or
- obtain any such acquisition proposal or agree to or endorse any such acquisition proposal.

First Choice Bank may, however, furnish information regarding First Choice Bank to, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, any person or entity in response to an unsolicited acquisition proposal by such person or entity if and only to the extent that:

- such acquisition proposal did not result from a breach of the “No Solicitation” section of the Merger Agreement;
- First Choice Bank’s board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, that such unsolicited proposal, if consummated, is reasonably likely to result in a transaction more favorable to First

Choice Bank's shareholders from a financial point of view than the merger with Berkshire Hills Bancorp and is reasonably likely to be completed in accordance with its terms;

First Choice Bank receives for the person presenting the unsolicited acquisition proposal an executed confidentiality agreement in form and substance identical in all material respects to the confidentiality agreement between Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank; and the First Choice Bank special meeting of shareholders has not yet occurred.

Nothing contained in the Merger Agreement prohibits First Choice Bank or its representatives from (a) informing any person of the existence of the provisions of the "No Solicitation" section of the Merger Agreement, (b) contacting any person solely to clarify the terms and conditions of an acquisition proposal or (c) otherwise disclosing any information to the First Choice Bank shareholders that the First Choice Bank board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with its legal counsel) it must disclose in order not to breach its fiduciary duties to such shareholders.

First Choice Bank must promptly, but in no event later than one calendar day, notify Berkshire Hills Bancorp of any inquires, proposals or offers received by, any information requested from, or any discussions or negotiations sought to be initiated or continued with it or any of its representative regarding an acquisition proposal, indicating in connection with such notice the material terms of, and the name of the person making, any such inquires, proposals or offers.

Terminating the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement may be terminated prior to the closing, before or after approval by First Choice Bank's shareholders, as follows:

by mutual written agreement of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank;

by either Berkshire Hills Bancorp or First Choice Bank if the closing of the Merger has not occurred on or before June 30, 2017, and such failure to close is not due to the terminating party's material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the Merger Agreement;

by Berkshire Hills Bancorp or First Choice Bank if the shareholders of First Choice Bank have voted at the special shareholders' meeting and do not approve the Merger Agreement;

by a non-breaching party if the other party breaches any covenants, agreements, representations or warranties contained in the Merger Agreement and such breach, together with all other such breaches, would entitle the terminating party not to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and if such breach has not been cured within thirty days after written notice from the terminating party;

by either party if any required regulatory approvals for consummation of the Merger are not obtained or any court or other governmental authority issues a final order or other action prohibiting the Merger;

by Berkshire Hills Bancorp if (a) First Choice Bank receives a "superior proposal," as defined in the Merger Agreement, and the First Choice Bank board of directors enters into an acquisition agreement with respect to the superior proposal, withdraws its recommendation of the Merger Agreement, fails to make such recommendation or modifies or qualifies its recommendation in a manner adverse to Berkshire Hills Bancorp, (b) either (i) the First Choice Bank board or directors submits the Merger Agreement to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval or (ii) the First Choice Bank board of directors withdraws, qualifies or adversely modifies its recommendation of the Merger Agreement to the First Choice Bank shareholders (or publicly proposes or resolves to do so), and (c) the First Choice Bank shareholders do not approve the Merger Agreement; or by First Choice Bank in order to accept a superior proposal, as defined in the Merger Agreement, which has been received and considered by First Choice Bank in compliance with the applicable terms of the Merger Agreement, provided that First Choice Bank has notified Berkshire Hills Bancorp in accordance with the Merger Agreement of such superior proposal and has given Berkshire Hills Bancorp the opportunity during a period of three business days following delivery of the notice to negotiate amendments to the Merger Agreement which would permit First Choice Bank to proceed with the proposed merger with Berkshire Hills.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated, under either of the latter two scenarios described above, First Choice Bank shall pay to Berkshire Hills Bancorp a fee of $4.1 million. The fee would also be payable to Berkshire Hills Bancorp if First Choice Bank enters into a merger agreement with a third party within one year of (a) the termination of the Merger Agreement by Berkshire Hills Bancorp due to a breach by First Choice Bank after the occurrence of a bona fide acquisition proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise made known to the senior management or board of directors of First Choice Bank, or (b) the termination of the Merger Agreement by any party due to the failure of the shareholders of First Choice Bank to approve the Merger Agreement at the special meeting after the occurrence of an acquisition proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise made known to the shareholders of First Choice Bank.

Additionally, First Choice Bank may terminate the Merger Agreement at any time during the five business-day period commencing on the first date on which all regulatory approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the Merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period) (the “Determination Date”), if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

the number attained by dividing the average of the daily closing sales prices of one share of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date (the “Average Closing Price”) is less than $21.52 (the “Berkshire Hills Ratio”); and the number obtained by dividing the Berkshire Hills Ratio by $26.91 is less than the number obtained by dividing the sum of the daily average closing prices of the KBW Regional Bank Index for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date (the “Final Index Price”) by the average of the daily closing price of the KBW Regional Bank Index for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date (the “Index Price”) minus 0.20 (the “Index Ratio”).

If First Choice Bank elects to exercise its termination right as described above, it must give prompt written notice to Berkshire Hills. During the five business-day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, Berkshire Hills Bancorp shall have the option to increase the consideration to be received by the holders of First Choice Bank common stock by increasing the exchange ratio from 0.5773 to a number obtained by dividing $15.54 by the greater of (i) $21.53 or (ii) the product obtained by multiplying the Index Ratio by $26.91. If within such five business-day period, Berkshire Hills Bancorp delivers written notice to First Choice Bank that it intends to proceed with the Merger by paying such additional consideration as contemplated by the preceding sentence, then no termination shall have occurred, and the Merger Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

Because the formula is dependent on the future price of Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s common stock and that of the KBW Regional Bank Index, it is not possible to determine what the adjusted exchange ratio would be at this time, but, in general, the ratio would be increased and, consequently, more shares of Berkshire Hills Bancorp common stock issued, to take into account the extent of the decline in the value of Berkshire Hills Bancorp’s common stock as compared to the changes in the value of the common stock of the KBW Regional Bank Index.

Changing the Terms of the Merger Agreement

The parties may amend the Merger Agreement at any time before or after approval of the Merger Agreement by First Choice Bank shareholders. However, after such shareholder approval, no amendment may be made without the approval of First Choice Bank’s shareholders if it reduces the amount or value, or changes the form of, the merger consideration to be delivered to First Choice Bank shareholders pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

The parties may waive any of their conditions to closing, unless they may not be waived under law.

Expenses

Except as specifically provided in the Merger Agreement, each of Berkshire Hills Bancorp and First Choice Bank will pay its own costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger.

DESCRIPTION OF BERKSHIRE HILLS BANCORP, INC. CAPITAL STOCK

The following summary describes the material terms of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's capital stock and is subject to, and qualified by, Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws and the Delaware General Corporation Law. See "Where You Can Find More Information" as to how to obtain a copy of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

General

Berkshire Hills Bancorp is authorized to issue 50,000,000 shares of common stock having a par value of $0.01 per share, and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock having a par value of $0.01 per share. At October 19, 2016, 31,142,712 shares of common stock were outstanding. At that date, no preferred shares were outstanding.

Common Stock

Voting Rights. The holders of common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters presented to shareholders. Holders of common stock are not entitled to cumulate their votes in the election of directors. However, Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation provides that a record owner of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's common stock who beneficially owns, either directly or indirectly, in excess of 10% of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's outstanding shares, is not entitled to any vote in respect of the shares held in excess of the 10% limit.

No Preemptive or Conversion Rights. The holders of common stock do not have preemptive rights to subscribe for a proportionate share of any additional securities issued by Berkshire Hills before such securities are offered to others. The absence of preemptive rights increases Berkshire Hills Bancorp's flexibility to issue additional shares of common stock in connection with Berkshire Hills Bancorp's acquisitions, employee benefit plans and for other purposes, without affording the holders of common stock a right to subscribe for their proportionate share of those additional securities. The holders of common stock are not entitled to any redemption privileges, sinking fund privileges or conversion rights.

Dividends. Holders of common stock are entitled to receive dividends ratably when, as and if declared by Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors from assets legally available therefor, after payment of all dividends on preferred stock, if any is outstanding. Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, Berkshire Hills Bancorp may pay dividends out of surplus or net profits for the fiscal year in which declared and/or the preceding fiscal year, even if its surplus accounts are in a deficit position. Dividends paid by Berkshire Bank have historically been the primary operating source of funds available to Berkshire Hills Bancorp, and historic financing sources have included senior and subordinated debt and the issuance of trust preferred securities, preferred stock and common stock. Berkshire Hills Bancorp expects to use these sources of funds in the future, as well as proceeds it may obtain from the offering of common stock, preferred stock and/or debt securities for payment of dividends to its shareholders, the repurchase of its common stock and for other needs. Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors intends to maintain its present policy of paying regular quarterly cash dividends. The declaration and amount of future dividends will depend on circumstances existing at the time, including Berkshire Hills Bancorp's earnings, financial condition and capital requirements, as well as regulatory limitations and such other factors as Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors deems relevant.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp's principal assets and sources of income consist of investments in its operating subsidiaries, which are separate and distinct legal entities.

Liquidation. Upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the affairs of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, holders of common stock are entitled to receive their pro rata portion of the remaining assets of Berkshire Hills Bancorp after the holders of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's preferred stock, if any, have been paid in full any sums to which they may be entitled.

Preferred Stock

Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation authorizes its board of directors, without shareholder action, to issue preferred stock in one or more series and to establish the designations, dividend rates and rights, dissolution or liquidation rights, preferences, price and terms and conditions on which shares may be redeemed, terms and conditions for conversion or exchange into any other class or series of the stock, voting rights and other terms. The issuance of preferred stock, while providing flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions and other corporate purposes, could, among other things, adversely affect the voting power of the holders of common stock and could have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in Berkshire Hills Bancorp's control.

Certain Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaw Provisions Affecting Stock

Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws contain several provisions that may make Berkshire Hills Bancorp a less attractive target for an acquisition of control by anyone who does not have the support of Berkshire Hills Bancorp's board of directors. Such provisions include, among other things, the requirement of a supermajority vote of shareholders or directors to approve certain business combinations and other corporate actions, a minimum price provision, several special procedural rules, a staggered board of directors, a vote limitation provision and the limitation that shareholder actions may only be taken at a meeting and may not be taken by unanimous written shareholder consent. The foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to Berkshire Hills Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

Restrictions on Ownership

Under the federal Change in Bank Control Act, a notice must be submitted to the Federal Reserve if any person (including a company), or group acting in concert, seeks to acquire "control" of a bank holding company or savings association. An acquisition of "control" can occur upon the acquisition of 10% or more of the voting stock of a bank holding company or depository institution or as otherwise defined by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Under the Change in Bank Control Act, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System has 60 days from the filing of a complete notice to act, taking into consideration certain factors, including the financial and managerial resources of the acquirer and the anti-trust effects of the acquisition. Any company that so acquires control would then be subject to regulation as a bank holding company.

the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. Under Delaware law, a corporation may indemnify its directors, officers, and employees against expenses (including attorneys' fees) judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in proceedings arising because of the person's relationship to the company, so long as the individual acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the company (and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, so long as the individual had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful). To the extent a person eligible for indemnification is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense in such an action, indemnification for expenses actually and reasonably incurred is mandatory. Delaware law provides that a company may pay expenses incurred in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding provided the company receives from the individual a written undertaking to repay the advanced amounts if it is ultimately determined that the individual was not entitled to be indemnified. A similar standard for indemnification applies in a shareholder "derivative" claim (i.e., an action by or in the right of the company) except that indemnification only extends to expenses incurred in defense of such a proceeding and except that, where the individual has been found liable to the company, indemnification must be approved by the court.

connection with any proceeding involving such person in their capacity as a corporate agent, if (i) in a proceeding other than by or in the right of the bank, such person acted in a good faith, reasonable manner and, in a criminal proceeding, had no reason to believe their conduct was unlawful, or (ii) in a proceeding by or in the right of the bank, if such person acted in a good faith, reasonable manner and is not adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct, unless and to the extent the presiding court determines indemnification would be proper.

First Choice Bank must indemnify a corporate agent against expenses incurred to the extent that the corporate agent is successful on the merits or otherwise in defending such a proceeding.

As part of the Merger, each outstanding share of FCB Stock will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to the terms of Article III.

2.2 Closing; Effective Time.

The closing (“Closing”) shall occur no later than the close of business on the fifth Business Day following the satisfaction or (to the extent permitted by applicable law) waiver of the conditions set forth in Article IX (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or (to the extent permitted by applicable law) waiver of those conditions), or such other date that may be agreed to in writing by the parties. The Merger shall be effected by the filing of articles of merger with the MDOB and the requisite certifications filed with the NJDOBI on the day of the Closing (the “Closing Date”), in accordance with Massachusetts and New Jersey law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement and subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article IX, prior to the Effective Time BHLB may revise the structure for effecting the Merger described in Section 2.1 including, without limitation, by substituting a wholly owned subsidiary for the Bank, provided that (i) any such subsidiary shall become a party to, and shall agree to be bound by, the terms of this Agreement; (ii) there are no adverse tax consequences to BHLB, the Bank, or FCB or to the BHLB or FCB shareholders, and nothing would prevent the rendering of the opinion contemplated in Section 9.1.6, as a result of the modification; (iii) the consideration to be paid to the holders of FCB Common Stock under this Agreement is not thereby changed in kind, value or reduced in amount; and (iv) such modification will not delay materially the Closing or jeopardize or delay materially the receipt of any Regulatory Approvals or other consents and approvals

2.7 Additional Actions.

If, at any time after the Effective Time, BHLB shall consider or be advised that any further deeds, documents, assignments or assurances in law or any other acts are necessary or desirable to (i) vest, perfect or confirm, of record or otherwise, in the Bank its right, title or interest in, to or under any of the rights, properties or assets of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary, or (ii) otherwise carry out the purposes of this Agreement, FCB and its officers and directors shall be deemed to have granted to BHLB and the Bank an irrevocable power of attorney to execute and deliver, in such official corporate capacities, all such deeds, assignments or assurances in law or any other acts as are necessary or desirable to (a) vest, perfect or confirm, of record or otherwise, in the Bank its right, title or interest in, to or under any of the rights, properties or assets of FCB and any FCB Subsidiary or (b) otherwise carry out the purposes of this Agreement, and the officers and directors of the Bank are authorized in the name of FCB or otherwise to take any and all such action.

ARTICLE III
CONVERSION OF SHARES

3.1 Conversion of FCB Stock; Merger Consideration.

At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of BHLB, the Bank, FCB or the holders of any of the shares of FCB Stock, the Merger shall be effected in accordance with the following terms:

3.1.1 Each share of capital stock of the Bank that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding following the Effective Time and shall be unchanged by the Merger.

3.1.2 All shares of FCB Stock held in the treasury of FCB and each share of FCB Stock owned by BHLB or the Bank at the Effective Time (other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in connection with debts previously contracted) (“Treasury Stock”) shall, at the Effective Time, cease to exist, and such shares, including any Certificates therefor, shall be canceled as promptly as practicable thereafter, and no payment or distribution shall be made in consideration therefor.

3.1.3 Subject to a potential adjustment as provided in Sections 3.1.9 and 10.1.9, each outstanding share of FCB Common Stock (other than Treasury Stock and Dissenting Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive 0.5773 (the “Exchange Ratio”) shares of BHLB Common Stock.

3.1.4 Subject to a potential adjustment as provided in Sections 3.1.9 and 10.1.9, each outstanding share of FCB Preferred Stock (other than Treasury Stock and Dissenting Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive such number of shares of BHLB Common Stock as is equal to the product of the Common Stock Equivalent of such share of FCB Preferred Stock, multiplied by the Exchange Ratio.

3.1.5 Each outstanding share of FCB Common Stock, the holder of which has perfected his right to dissent under applicable law and has not effectively withdrawn or lost such right as of the Effective Time (the “Dissenting Shares”), shall not be converted into or represent a right to receive the Merger Consideration hereunder, and the holder thereof shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by applicable law. FCB shall give BHLB immediate notice upon receipt by FCB of any such demands for payment of the fair value of such shares of FCB Common Stock and of withdrawals of such notice and any other related communications (any shareholder duly making such demand being hereinafter called a “Dissenting Shareholder”), and BHLB shall have the right to participate in all discussions, negotiations and proceedings with respect to any such demands. FCB shall not, except with the prior written consent of BHLB, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demand for payment, or waive any failure to timely deliver a written demand for appraisal or the taking of any other action by such Dissenting Shareholder as may be necessary to perfect appraisal rights under applicable law. Any payments made in respect of Dissenting Shares shall be made by the Surviving Company.

3.1.6 If any Dissenting Shareholder withdraws or loses (through failure to perfect or otherwise) his right to such payment at or prior to the Effective Time, such holder's shares of FCB Stock shall be converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement. If such holder withdraws or loses (through failure to perfect or otherwise) his right to such payment after the Effective Time, each share of FCB Stock of such holder shall be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration.

3.1.7 Upon the Effective Time, outstanding shares of FCB Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist, and shall thereafter by operation of this Section 3.1 represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration and any dividends or distributions with respect thereto or any dividends or distributions with a record date prior to the Effective Time that were declared or made by FCB on such shares of FCB Stock in accordance with the terms of this Agreement on or prior to the Effective Time and which remain unpaid at the Effective Time.

3.1.8 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of BHLB Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, no dividend or distribution with respect to BHLB Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share interests, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of BHLB. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, BHLB shall pay to each former holder of FCB Stock who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share of BHLB Common Stock, an amount in cash, rounded to the nearest cent and without interest, equal to the product of (i) the fraction of a share to which such holder would otherwise have been entitled and (ii) the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of BHLB Common Stock as reported on the NYSE for the five (5) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Closing Date. For purposes of determining any fractional share interest, all shares of FCB Stock owned by a FCB shareholder shall be combined so as to calculate the maximum number of whole shares of BHLB Common Stock issuable to such FCB shareholder.

3.1.9 If BHLB changes (or the BHLB Board sets a related record date that will occur before the Effective Time for a change in) the number or kind of shares of BHLB Common Stock outstanding by way of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, reorganization or similar transaction, then the Exchange Ratio (and any other dependent items) will be adjusted proportionately to account for such change. If FCB changes (or the FCB Board sets a related record date that will occur before the Effective Time for a change in) the number or kind of shares of FCB Common Stock (or Rights thereto) outstanding by way of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, reorganization or similar transaction, then the Exchange Ratio (and any other dependent items) will be adjusted proportionately to account for such change.

3.2 Procedures for Exchange of FCB Common Stock.

3.2.1 BHLB to Make Merger Consideration Available. At or prior to the Effective Time, BHLB shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent for the benefit of the holders of FCB Common Stock, for exchange in accordance with this Section 3.2, an aggregate amount of cash sufficient to pay the aggregate amount of cash payable in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares pursuant to this Article III and shall instruct the Exchange Agent to issue such cash and shares of BHLB Common Stock for exchange in accordance with this Section 3.2 (such cash and shares of BHLB Common Stock, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto (without any interest thereon) being hereinafter referred to as the “Exchange Fund”).

3.2.2 Exchange of Certificates. BHLB shall take all steps necessary to cause the Exchange Agent, not later than five (5) Business Days after the Effective Time, to mail to each holder of a Certificate or Certificates a form letter of transmittal for return to the Exchange Agent and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares into which the FCB Common Stock represented by such Certificates shall have been converted as a result of the Merger, if any. The letter of transmittal shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent. Upon proper surrender of a Certificate for exchange and cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration and the Certificate so surrendered shall be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash payable in lieu of fractional shares or any unpaid dividends and distributions, if any, payable to holders of Certificates.

3.2.3 Rights of Certificate Holders after the Effective Time. The holder of a Certificate that prior to the Merger represented issued and outstanding FCB Common Stock shall have no rights, after the Effective Time, with respect to such FCB Common Stock except to surrender the Certificate in exchange for the Merger Consideration as provided in this Agreement. No dividends or other distributions declared after the Effective Time with respect to BHLB Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate until the holder thereof shall surrender such Certificate in accordance with this Section 3.2. After the surrender of a Certificate in accordance with this Section 3.2, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to shares of BHLB Common Stock represented by such Certificate.

3.2.4 Surrender by Persons Other than Record Holders. If the Person surrendering a Certificate and signing the accompanying letter of transmittal is not the record holder thereof, then it shall be a condition of the payment of the Merger Consideration that: (i) such Certificate is properly endorsed to such Person or is accompanied by appropriate stock powers, in either case signed exactly as the name of the record holder appears on such Certificate, and is otherwise in proper form for transfer, or is accompanied by appropriate evidence of the authority of the Person surrendering such Certificate and signing the letter of transmittal to do so on behalf of the record holder; and (ii) the Person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other similar taxes required by reason of the payment to a Person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

3.2.5 Closing of Transfer Books. From and after the Closing Date, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of FCB of the FCB Common Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they shall be exchanged for the Merger Consideration and canceled as provided in this Section 3.2.

3.2.6 Return of Exchange Fund. At any time following the nine (9) month period after the Effective Time, BHLB shall be entitled to require the Exchange Agent to deliver to it any portion of the Exchange Fund which had been made available to the Exchange Agent and not disbursed to holders of Certificates (including, without limitation, all interest and other income received by the Exchange Agent in respect of all funds made available to it), and thereafter such holders shall be entitled to look to BHLB (subject to abandoned property, escheat and other similar laws) with respect to any Merger Consideration that may be payable upon due surrender of the Certificates held by them. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither BHLB nor the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any holder of a Certificate for any Merger Consideration delivered in respect of such Certificate to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or other similar law.

3.2.7 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and the posting by such Person of a bond in such amount as the Exchange Agent may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration deliverable in respect thereof.

3.2.8 Withholding. BHLB or the Exchange Agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration such amounts as BHLB (or any Affiliate thereof) or the Exchange Agent are required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any applicable provision of U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. tax law. To the extent that such amounts are properly withheld and paid over to the appropriate Governmental Entity by BHLB or the Exchange Agent, such amounts will be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the FCB Common Stock in respect of whom such deduction and withholding were made by BHLB or the Exchange Agent.

3.3 Treatment of FCB Stock Options and Warrants.

3.3.1 FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.3.1 sets forth all of the outstanding FCB stock options (each, a “FCB Stock Option”) and outstanding FCB warrants (each, a “FCB Warrant”) as of the date hereof. Each FCB Stock Option and FCB Warrant, in each case whether vested or unvested, which is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and which has not been exercised or canceled prior thereto shall, at the Effective Time, fully vest (to the extent not vested) and be canceled and, on the Closing Date, BHLB shall pay to the holder thereof cash in an amount equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of FCB Common Stock provided for in each such FCB Stock Option or FCB Warrant, and (ii) the excess, if any, of (x) $27.71 multiplied by the Exchange Ratio (the “Exchange Price”) over (y) the Exercise Price (the “Cash Payment”). Any FCB Stock Option or FCB Warrant for which the Exercise Price exceeds the Exchange Price shall be cancelled as of the Effective Time without payment. For purposes of this Section 3.3.1, “Exercise Price” shall mean the exercise price per share of FCB Common Stock provided for in such FCB Stock Option or FCB Warrant. The Cash Payment shall be paid in cash within five (5) calendar days after the Closing Date, and shall be made without interest and net of all applicable withholding taxes. Prior to the Closing Date, FCB shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain written acknowledgement and consent of each holder of a then-outstanding FCB Stock Option or FCB Warrant to the termination of the FCB Stock Option or FCB Warrant and the payment of the Cash Payment in accordance with the terms of this Section 3.3.1. FCB shall prohibit the exercise of any FCB Stock Option or FCB Warrant beginning on and after the fifth trading day immediately preceding the Closing Date, and FCB shall terminate the FCB Equity Incentive Plan subject to the occurrence of the Effective Time and prior to the Closing Date.

3.3.2 At the Effective Time, the FCB Equity Incentive Plan and all related grant agreements thereunder shall terminate and the provisions in any other plan, program or arrangement providing for the issuance or grant of any other interest in respect of the capital stock of FCB shall be of no further force and effect.

4.1 Standard.

Except as set forth in the following sentence, no representation or warranty of FCB contained in this Article IV shall be deemed untrue or incorrect, and FCB shall not be deemed to have breached a representation or warranty, as a consequence of the existence of any fact, circumstance or event unless such fact, circumstance or event, individually or taken together with all other facts, circumstances or events inconsistent with any paragraph of this Article IV, has had or reasonably would be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, disregarding for these purposes (x) any qualification or exception for, or reference to, materiality in any such representation or warranty and (y) any use of the terms “material,” “materially,” “in all material respects,” “Material Adverse Effect” or similar terms or phrases in any such representation or warranty. The foregoing standard shall not apply to representations and warranties contained in Sections 4.2 (other than Sections 4.2.3, 4.2.4 and 4.2.5 and the last sentence of Sections 4.2.1 and 4.2.2), Section 4.3 and 4.4 (other than Section 4.4.2(iii)) which shall be true and correct in all material respects.

4.2 Organization.

4.2.1 FCB is a New Jersey chartered commercial bank duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of New Jersey. The deposits in FCB are insured by the FDIC to the fullest extent permitted by law, and all premiums and assessments required to be paid in connection therewith have been paid by FCB. FCB is a member in good standing of the FHLB and owns the requisite amount of stock of the FHLB, which amount, as of May 31, 2016, is set forth on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.2.1.

4.2.2 FCLS is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of New Jersey, and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of FCB. FCLS has full corporate power and authority to carry on its business as now conducted. FCLS is duly licensed and/or qualified to do business in the states of the United States and foreign jurisdictions where its ownership or leasing of property or the conduct of its business requires such license and/or qualification.

4.2.3 FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.2.3 sets forth each FCB Subsidiary and its jurisdiction of incorporation or organization. Each FCB Subsidiary is a corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity as set forth on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.2.3, duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation or organization. Each FCB Subsidiary is duly licensed and/or qualified to do business in the states of the United States and foreign jurisdictions where its ownership or leasing of property or conduct of its business requires such license and/or qualification.

4.2.4 The respective minute books of FCB, FCLS and each other FCB Subsidiary accurately record all corporate actions of their respective shareholders and boards of directors (including committees).

4.2.5 Prior to the date of this Agreement, FCB has made available to BHLB true and correct copies of the certificate of incorporation and bylaws or other governing documents of FCB, FCLS and each other FCB Subsidiary.

4.3 Capitalization.

4.3.1 The authorized capital stock of FCB consists of (i) 25,000,000 shares of FCB Common Stock, $5.00 par value (“FCB Common Stock”), and (ii) 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, of which (A) 10,000 shares have been designated “Series A Convertible Preferred Stock,” $2.00 par value per share (“Series A Preferred Stock”), (B) 20,000 shares have been designated “Series B Convertible Preferred Stock,” $2.00 par value (“Series B Preferred Stock”), (C)

6,000 shares have been designated “Series C Convertible Preferred Stock,” $2.00 par value (“Series C Preferred Stock”), (D) 10,000 shares have been designated “Series D Convertible Preferred Stock,” $2.00 par value (“Series D Preferred Stock”), (E) 12,500 shares have been designated “Series E Convertible Preferred Stock,” $2.00 par value (“Series E Preferred Stock”) (collectively, subparts (ii)(A) through (E) of Section 4.3.1 are referred to herein as “FCB Preferred Stock” and collectively with FCB Common Stock, “FCB Stock”), and (F) 4,941,500 remain undesignated. As of May 31, 2016, there were (i) 3,204,826 shares of FCB Common Stock validly issued and outstanding, fully paid and non-assessable and free of preemptive rights, and (ii) 7,500 shares of Series A Preferred Stock, 15,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, 6,000 shares of Series C Preferred Stock, 10,000 shares of Series D Preferred Stock, and 12,500 shares of Series E Preferred Stock validly issued and outstanding, fully paid and non-assessable and free of preemptive rights, and (iii) no shares of FCB Common Stock held by FCB as Treasury Stock. The FCB Subsidiaries do not own, of record or beneficially, any shares of FCB Stock, other than shares held as treasury stock. Neither FCB nor any FCB Subsidiary has or is bound by any Rights or other arrangements of any character relating to the purchase, sale or issuance or voting of, or right to receive dividends or other distributions on, any capital stock of FCB, or any other security of FCB or a FCB Subsidiary or any securities representing the right to vote, purchase or otherwise receive any capital stock of FCB or a FCB Subsidiary or any other security of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary, other than shares of FCB Common Stock underlying the FCB Stock Options, the FCB Warrants and the FCB Preferred Stock. FCB has granted outstanding options to acquire 371,900 shares of FCB Common Stock at a weighted average exercise price of $12.695 per share. FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.3.1 sets forth: the name of each holder of an outstanding FCB Stock Option, identifying the number of shares each such individual may acquire pursuant to the exercise of such options, the plan under which such options were granted, the grant, vesting and expiration dates, and the exercise price relating to the options held, and whether the FCB Stock Option is an incentive stock option or a nonqualified stock option. FCB has issued outstanding FCB Warrants to acquire 64,799 shares of FCB Common Stock at a weighted average exercise price of $10.00 per share. FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.3.1 sets forth the name of each holder of an outstanding FCB Warrant, identifying the number of shares each such individual may acquire pursuant to the exercise of such warrants, the grant, vesting and expiration dates, and the exercise price relating to the warrants held. FCB has issued FCB Preferred Stock to certain individuals. FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.3.1 sets forth the name of each holder of FCB Preferred Stock, identifying the number of shares to each individual, the series of preferred stock under which the issuance was made, the conversion rate to FCB Common Stock, and the annual dividend yield for each series. All shares of FCB Common Stock issuable pursuant to the FCB Equity Incentive Plan and the FCB Warrants will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable when issued upon the terms and conditions specified in the instruments pursuant to which they are issuable.

4.3.2 FCB owns all of the capital stock or other equity securities of each FCB Subsidiary, free and clear of all liens, security interests, pledges, charges, encumbrances, agreements and restrictions of any nature, except for Permitted Liens and as set forth in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws or other governing documents and applicable securities laws. Except for the FCB Subsidiaries and as set forth in FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.3.2, FCB, as of the date of this Agreement, does not possess, directly or indirectly, any equity interest in any corporate or other legal entity, except for equity interests held in the investment portfolios of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary (which as to any one issuer, do not exceed five percent (5%) of such issuer's outstanding equity securities) and equity interests held in connection with the lending activities of FCB, including stock in the FHLB.

4.3.3 Except as set forth on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.3.3, to the Knowledge of FCB, as of the date hereof no Person is the beneficial owner (as defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) of five percent (5%) or more of the outstanding shares of FCB Common Stock.

4.3.4 No bonds, debentures, notes or other indebtedness having the right to vote on any matters on which FCB's shareholders may vote have been issued by FCB and are outstanding.

4.4 Authority; No Violation.

4.4.1 FCB has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and, subject to the receipt of the Regulatory Approvals and the approval of this Agreement by FCB's shareholders (the "FCB Shareholder Approval"), to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by FCB and the completion by FCB of the transactions contemplated hereby, up to and including the Merger, have been duly and validly approved by the Board of Directors of FCB. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by FCB, and subject to FCB Shareholder Approval and the receipt of the Regulatory Approvals and due and valid execution and delivery of this Agreement by BHLB and the Bank, constitutes the valid and binding obligation of FCB, enforceable against FCB in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity.

4.4.2 (a) Subject to compliance by BHLB with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the execution and delivery of this Agreement by FCB, subject to receipt of Regulatory Approvals and FCB's and BHLB's compliance with any conditions contained therein, and subject to the receipt of the FCB Shareholder Approval, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and (b) compliance by FCB with the terms and provisions hereof will not (i) conflict with or result in a breach of any provision of the certificate of incorporation and bylaws or other governing documents of FCB, FCLS or any other FCB Subsidiary; (ii) violate any statute, code, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, order, writ, decree or injunction applicable to FCB, FCLS or any FCB Subsidiary or any of their respective properties or assets; or (iii) violate, conflict with, result in a breach of any provisions of, constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default) under, result in the termination or amendment of, accelerate the performance required by, or result in a right of termination or acceleration or the creation of any lien, security interest, charge or other encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of FCB, FCLS or any FCB Subsidiary under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, deed of trust, license, lease, agreement or other investment or obligation to which FCB, FCLS, or any FCB Subsidiary is a party, or by which they or any of their respective properties or assets may be bound or affected.

4.5 Consents.

Except for (a) the receipt of the Regulatory Approvals and compliance with any conditions contained therein, (b) compliance with applicable requirements of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act and state securities or “blue sky” laws, (c) the filing of the Articles of Merger with the MDOB and the requisite certifications with the NJDOBI, and (d) the FCB Shareholder Approval, no consents, waivers or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any Governmental Entity or Bank Regulator are necessary, and, to the Knowledge of FCB, no consents, waivers or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any other third parties are necessary, in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by FCB, the completion by FCB of the Merger and the performance by FCB of its obligations hereunder. To the Knowledge of FCB, no fact or circumstance exists, including any possible other transaction pending or under consideration by FCB or any of its Subsidiaries, that (a) would reasonably be expected to prevent or delay in any material respect, (i) any filings with or approvals or waivers required from the FRB, the FDIC, the NJDOBI or the MDOB or (ii) any required Regulatory Approvals, (b) would cause a Bank Regulator or Governmental Entity acting pursuant to the Bank Merger Act, the BHCA, the New Jersey Banking Law or the Massachusetts General Laws or any other applicable law or regulation to seek to prohibit or materially delay consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or impose a Burdensome Condition or (c) any Bank Regulator or Governmental Entity having jurisdiction over the affairs of FCB or FCLS, the consent or approval of which is not required or approval of which is not required pursuant to the rules of which a filing is not required, will object to the completion of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.6 Financial Statements.

4.6.1 The FCB Regulatory Reports have been prepared in all material respects in accordance with applicable regulatory accounting principles and practices throughout the periods covered by such reports, and fairly present in all material respects the consolidated financial position, results of operations and changes in shareholders’ equity of FCB as of and for the periods ended on the dates thereof, in accordance with applicable regulatory accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

4.6.2 FCB has previously made available to BHLB the FCB Financial Statements. The FCB Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP in all material respects, and (including the related notes where applicable) fairly present in each case in all material respects (subject in the case of the unaudited interim statements to normal year-end adjustments) the consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows of FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis as of and for the respective periods ending on the dates thereof, in accordance with GAAP during the periods involved, except as indicated in the notes thereto.

4.6.3 At the date of the most recent consolidated statement of financial condition included in the FCB Financial Statements or in the FCB Regulatory Reports, FCB did not have any liabilities, obligations or loss contingencies of any nature (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) of a type required to be reflected in such FCB Financial Statements or in the FCB Regulatory Reports or in the footnotes thereto which are not reflected or reserved against therein or disclosed in a footnote thereto, in each case to the extent required in accordance with GAAP, except for liabilities, obligations and loss contingencies which are not material individually or in the aggregate or which are incurred in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practice, and subject, in the case of any unaudited statements, to normal, recurring audit adjustments and the absence of footnotes.

4.7 Taxes.

Except as provided in this Agreement, neither FCB nor any of the FCB Subsidiaries has taken or agreed to take any action, has failed to take any action or knows any fact, agreement, plan or other circumstance that could reasonably be expected to prevent the Merger from qualifying as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries that are corporations for federal income Tax purposes are members of the same affiliated group within the meaning of Code Section 1504(a). FCB, on behalf of itself and the FCB Subsidiaries, has timely (taking into account extensions) filed or caused to be filed all Tax Returns (including, but not limited to, those filed on a consolidated, combined or unitary basis) required to have been filed by FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries prior to the date hereof, or requests for extensions to file such returns and reports have been timely filed. All such Tax Returns are true, correct, and complete in all material respects. FCB and the FCB

Subsidiaries have timely paid or, prior to the Effective Time will pay, all Taxes, whether or not shown on such returns or reports, due or claimed to be due to any Governmental Entity prior to the Effective Time other than Taxes which are being contested in good faith. FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries have declared on their Tax Returns all positions taken therein that could give rise to a substantial underpayment of United States federal income Tax within the meaning of Section 6662 of the Code (or any corresponding provision of state or local laws). The accrued but unpaid Taxes of FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries did not, as of the most recent FCB Financial Statements, exceed the reserve for Tax liability (rather than any reserve for deferred Taxes established to reflect timing differences between book and Tax income) set forth on the face of the most recent FCB balance sheet (rather than in any notes thereto). FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries are subject to Tax audits in the ordinary course of business. FCB management does not believe that an adverse resolution to any of such audits of which it has Knowledge would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on FCB. FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries have not been notified in writing by any jurisdiction that the jurisdiction believes that FCB or any of the FCB Subsidiaries were required to file any Tax Return in such jurisdiction that was not filed. Neither FCB nor any of the FCB Subsidiaries (A) has been a member of a group with which they have filed or been included in a combined, consolidated or unitary income Tax Return other than a group the common parent of which was FCB or (B) has any liability for the Taxes of any Person (other than FCB or any of the FCB Subsidiaries) under Treas. Reg. § 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of state, local, or non-U.S. law), as a transferee or successor, by contract, or otherwise. As of the date hereof, all deficiencies proposed in writing as a result of any audits have been paid or settled. There are no written claims or assessments pending against FCB or any FCB Subsidiary for any alleged deficiency in any Tax, and neither FCB nor any FCB Subsidiary has been notified in writing of any proposed Tax claims or assessments against FCB or any FCB Subsidiary. FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries each have duly and timely withheld, collected and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority all amounts required to be so withheld and paid under all applicable laws, and have duly and timely filed all Tax Returns with respect to such withheld Taxes, within the time prescribed under any applicable law. FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries have delivered to BHLB true and complete copies of all income Tax Returns of FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries for taxable periods ending on or after December 31, 2013. Neither FCB nor any of the FCB Subsidiaries is or has been a party to any “reportable transaction,” as defined in Code § 6707A(c)(1) and Treas. Reg. § 1.6011-4(b). Neither FCB nor any of the FCB Subsidiaries has distributed stock of another Person, or has had its stock distributed by another Person, in a transaction that was purported or intended to be governed in whole or in part by Code § 355 or Code § 361. Neither FCB nor any of the FCB Subsidiaries has been a United States real property holding corporation within the meaning of Code § 897(c)(2) during the applicable period specified in Code § 897(c)(1)(A)(ii).

4.8 No Material Adverse Effect.

Neither FCB nor any FCB Subsidiary has suffered any Material Adverse Effect since December 31, 2015 and, to FCB’s Knowledge, no event has occurred or circumstance arisen since that date which, in the aggregate, has had or reasonably would be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on FCB.

4.9 Material Contracts; Leases; Defaults.

4.9.1 Except as set forth in FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.9.1, neither FCB nor any FCB Subsidiary is a party to or subject to: (i) any employment, consulting or severance contract or arrangement with any past or present officer, director, employee or consultant of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary, except for “at will” arrangements; (ii) any plan, arrangement or contract providing for bonuses, pensions, options, deferred compensation, retirement payments, profit sharing or similar arrangements for or with any past or present officers, directors, employees or consultants of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary; (iii) any collective bargaining agreement with any labor union relating to employees of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary; (iv) any agreement which by its terms limits or affects the payment of dividends by FCB or any FCB Subsidiary; (v) any instrument evidencing or related to indebtedness for borrowed money in excess of $50,000, whether directly or indirectly, by way of purchase money obligation, conditional sale, lease purchase, guaranty or otherwise, in respect of which FCB or any FCB Subsidiary is an obligor to any Person, which instrument evidences or relates to indebtedness other than deposits, FHLB advances with a term to maturity not in excess of one (1) year, repurchase agreements, bankers’ acceptances, and transactions in “federal funds” or which contains financial covenants or other non-customary restrictions (other than those relating to the payment of principal and interest when due) which would be applicable on or after the Closing Date to FCB or any FCB Subsidiary; (vi) any other agreement, written or oral, which is not terminable without cause on sixty (60) days’ notice or less without penalty or payment, or that obligates FCB or any FCB Subsidiary for the payment of more than $30,000 annually or for the payment of more than $50,000 over its remaining term; or (vii) any agreement (other than this Agreement), contract, arrangement, commitment or understanding (whether written or oral) that materially restricts or limits the conduct of business by FCB or any FCB Subsidiary.

4.9.2 Each real estate lease that will require the consent of the lessor or its agent as a result of the Merger by virtue of the terms of any such lease, is listed in FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.9.2 identifying the section of the lease that contains such prohibition or restriction. Subject to any consents that may be required as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, to its Knowledge neither FCB nor any FCB Subsidiary is in material default under any material contract, agreement, commitment, arrangement, lease, insurance policy or other instrument to which it is a party, by which its assets, business, or operations may be bound or affected, or under which it or its assets, business, or operations receive benefits, and there has not occurred any event that, with the lapse of time or the giving of notice or both, would constitute such a default and all such material contracts, agreements, commitments, arrangements, leases, insurance policies and other instruments are listed on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.9.2.

4.9.3 True and correct copies of agreements, contracts, arrangements and instruments referred to in Section 4.9.1 and 4.9.2 have been made available to BHLB on or before the date hereof, are listed on FCB Disclosure Schedules 4.9.1 and 4.9.2 and are in full force and effect without modification on the date hereof. Except as set forth in FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.9.3, no such agreement, plan, contract, or arrangement (i) provides for acceleration of the vesting of benefits or payments due thereunder upon the occurrence of a change in ownership or control of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary or upon the occurrence of a subsequent event; (ii) requires FCB or any FCB Subsidiary to provide a benefit in the form of FCB Common Stock or determined by reference to the value of FCB Common Stock or (iii) contains provisions which permit an employee, director or independent contractor to terminate such agreement or arrangement without cause and continue to accrue future benefits thereunder.

4.10 Ownership of Property; Insurance Coverage.

4.10.1 Except as set forth on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.10.1, FCB and each FCB Subsidiary has good and, as to real property, insurable title to all assets and properties owned by FCB or such FCB Subsidiary, as applicable, in the conduct of its businesses, whether such assets and properties are real or personal, tangible or intangible, including assets and property reflected in the most recent consolidated statement of financial condition contained in the FCB Financial Statements or acquired subsequent thereto (except to the extent that such assets and properties have been disposed of in the ordinary course of business, since the date of such consolidated statement of financial condition), subject to no encumbrances, liens, mortgages, security interests or pledges, except Permitted Liens. FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries, as lessee, have the right under valid and existing leases of real and personal properties used by FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries in the conduct of their businesses to occupy or use all such properties as presently occupied and used by each of them. Such existing leases and commitments to lease constitute or will constitute operating leases for both tax and financial accounting purposes and the lease expense and minimum rental commitments with respect to such leases and lease commitments are as disclosed in all material respects in the notes to the FCB Financial Statements.

4.10.2 With respect to all material agreements pursuant to which FCB or any FCB Subsidiary has purchased securities subject to an agreement to resell, if any, FCB or such FCB Subsidiary, as the case may be, has a lien or security interest (which to FCB's Knowledge is a valid, perfected first lien) in the securities or other collateral securing the repurchase agreement, and the value of such collateral equals or exceeds the amount of the debt secured thereby.

4.10.3 FCB and each FCB Subsidiary currently maintain insurance considered by each of them to be reasonable for their respective operations. Neither FCB nor any FCB Subsidiary, has received notice from any insurance carrier on or before the date hereof that (i) such insurance will be canceled or that coverage thereunder will be reduced or eliminated, or (ii) premium costs with respect to such policies of insurance will be substantially increased. Except as listed on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.10.3, there are presently no claims pending under such policies of insurance and no notices of claim have been given by FCB or any FCB Subsidiary under such policies. All such insurance is valid and enforceable and in full force and effect (other than insurance that expires in accordance with its terms), and within the last three (3) years FCB and each FCB Subsidiary has received each type of insurance coverage for which it has applied and, except as listed on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.10.3, during such periods has not been denied indemnification for any claims submitted under any of its insurance policies. FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.10.3 identifies all policies of insurance maintained by FCB and each FCB Subsidiary, including the name of the insurer, the policy number, the type of policy and any applicable deductibles, as well as the other matters required to be disclosed under this Section 4.10.3. FCB has made available to BHLB copies of all of the policies listed on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.10.3.

4.11 Legal Proceedings.

Except as set forth on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.11, there is no suit, action, investigation or proceeding pending or, to its Knowledge, threatened against or affecting FCB or any FCB Subsidiary (and FCB is not aware of any facts that reasonably could be expected to be the basis for any such suit, action or proceeding) (1) that involves a Governmental Entity or Bank Regulator, or (2) that, individually or in the aggregate, is (A) material to FCB's and FCB's Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or reasonably likely to result in a restriction on FCB's business or any of the FCB Subsidiaries businesses, or, after the Effective Time, BHLB's or any of its Subsidiaries' businesses, or (B) reasonably likely to prevent or delay it from performing its obligations under, or consummating the transactions contemplated by, this Agreement. There is no injunction, order, award, judgment, settlement, decree or written regulatory restriction imposed upon or entered into by FCB, any of the FCB Subsidiaries or the assets of FCB or any of the FCB Subsidiaries.

4.12 Compliance with Applicable Law.

Except as set forth on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.12 and in Section 4.15:

4.12.1 FCB and each FCB Subsidiary is in compliance in all material respects with all applicable federal, state, local and foreign statutes, laws, regulations, ordinances, rules, judgments, orders or decrees applicable to it, its properties, assets and deposits, its business, its conduct of business and its relationship with its employees, including, without limitation, the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001, the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, the Truth in Lending Act, the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, the Consumer Credit Protection Act, the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the Fair Debt Collections Act, the Fair Housing Act, the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977 ("CRA"), the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act, and all other applicable fair lending laws and other laws relating to discriminatory business practices, and neither FCB nor any FCB Subsidiary has received any written notice to the contrary.

4.12.2 FCB and each FCB Subsidiary has all material permits, licenses, authorizations, orders and approvals of, and has made all filings, applications and registrations with, all Governmental Entities and Bank Regulators that are required in order to permit it to own or lease its properties and to conduct its business as presently conducted; all such permits, licenses, certificates of authority, orders and approvals are in full force and effect and no suspension or cancellation of any such permit, license, certificate, order or approval is threatened or will result from the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, subject to obtaining the Regulatory Approvals.

4.12.3 For the period beginning January 1, 2012, except as disclosed in FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.12.3, neither FCB nor any FCB Subsidiary has received any written notification or any other communication from any Bank Regulator (i) asserting that FCB or any FCB Subsidiary is not in material compliance with any of the statutes, regulations or ordinances which such Bank Regulator enforces; (ii) threatening to revoke any license, franchise, permit or governmental authorization; (iii) requiring or threatening to require FCB or any FCB Subsidiary, or indicating that FCB or any FCB Subsidiary may be required, to enter into a cease and desist order, agreement or memorandum of understanding or any other agreement with any federal or state governmental agency or authority which is charged with the supervision or regulation of banks, or engages in the insurance of bank deposits, restricting or limiting, or purporting to restrict or limit the operations of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary, including without limitation any restriction on the payment of dividends; or (iv) directing, restricting or limiting, or purporting to direct, restrict or limit the operations of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary (any such notice, communication, memorandum, agreement or order described in this sentence is hereinafter referred to as a “Regulatory Agreement”). Except as disclosed in FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.12.3, neither FCB nor any FCB Subsidiary has consented to or entered into any Regulatory Agreement that is currently in effect. The most recent regulatory rating given to FCB as to compliance with CRA is “Satisfactory” or better.

4.13 Employee Benefit Plans.

4.13.1 FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.13.1 contains a list of all written and unwritten pension, retirement, profit-sharing, thrift, savings, deferred compensation, stock option, employee stock ownership, employee stock purchase, restricted stock, severance pay, retention, vacation, bonus or other incentive plans, all employment, change in control, consulting, severance and retention agreements, all other written employee programs, arrangements or agreements, all medical, vision, dental, disability, life insurance, workers' compensation, employee assistance or other health or welfare plans, and all other employee benefit or fringe benefit plans, including "employee benefit plans" as that term is defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, currently adopted, maintained by, sponsored in whole or in part by, or contributed to by FCB or any of its ERISA Affiliates for the benefit of employees, former employees, retirees (or the dependents, including spouses, of the foregoing), directors, independent contractors or other service providers to FCB or FCLS and under which employees, former employees, retirees, dependents, spouses, directors, or other service providers of FCB or FCLS are eligible to participate (collectively, the "FCB and FCLS Benefit Plans"). FCB has furnished or otherwise made available to BHLB true and complete copies of (i) the plan documents and summary plan descriptions for each written FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan, (ii) a summary of each unwritten FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan (if applicable), (iii) the annual report (Form 5500 series) for the three (3) most recent years for each FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan (if applicable), (iv) the actuarial valuation reports with respect to each tax-qualified FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan that is a defined benefit pension plan for the three (3) most recent years, (v) all related trust agreements, insurance contracts or other funding agreements which currently implement the FCB and FCLS Benefit Plans (if applicable), (vi) the most recent IRS determination letter with respect to each tax-qualified FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan (or, for a FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan maintained under a pre-approved prototype or volume submitter plan, the IRS determination letter on such pre-approved plan) and (vii) all substantive correspondence relating to any liability of or non-compliance relating to any FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan addressed to or received from the IRS, the Department of Labor or any other Governmental Entity within the past three (3) years. Each FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan that may be subject to Section 409A of the Code ("FCB Non-qualified Deferred Compensation Plan") has been maintained and operated in compliance with Section 409A of the Code such that no Taxes under Section 409A of the Code may be imposed on participants in such plans.

4.13.2 All FCB and FCLS Benefit Plans are in material compliance with (and have been managed and administrated in accordance with) the applicable terms of ERISA, the Code and any other applicable laws. Except as set forth on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.13.2, each FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan governed by ERISA that is intended to be a qualified retirement plan under Section 401(a) of the Code has either (i) received a favorable determination letter from the IRS (and FCB is not aware of any circumstances likely to result in revocation of any such favorable determination letter) or timely application has been made therefore, or (ii) is maintained under a prototype plan which has been approved by the IRS and is entitled to rely upon the IRS National Office opinion letter issued to the prototype plan sponsor. To the Knowledge of FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries, there exists no fact which would adversely affect the qualification of any of the FCB and FCLS Benefit Plans intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code, or any threatened or pending claim against any of the FCB and FCLS Benefit Plans or their fiduciaries by any participant, beneficiary or Governmental Entity (other than routine claims for benefits).

4.13.3 Except as set forth on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.13.3, no “defined benefit plan” (as defined in Section 414(j) of the Code) has been maintained at any time by FCB or any of its ERISA Affiliates for the benefit of the employees or former employees of FCB or the FCB Subsidiaries.

4.13.4 Within the last six (6) years, neither FCB nor any of its ERISA Affiliates maintained or had any obligation to contribute to a FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan which is a “multiemployer plan” within the meaning of Section 3(37) of ERISA, and within the last six (6) years neither FCB nor any of its ERISA Affiliates has incurred any withdrawal liability within the meaning of Section 4201 of ERISA to any such “multiemployer plan.” Neither FCB nor any of its ERISA Affiliates has incurred any unsatisfied liability (other than PBGC premiums) to the PBGC, the IRS or any other individual or entity under Title IV of ERISA or Section 412 of the Code, and no event or condition exists that could reasonably be expected to result in the imposition of any liability on FCB or any of its ERISA Affiliates under such provisions or that could reasonably be expected to have an adverse effect on BHLB or the Bank.

4.13.5 FCB has complied in all material respects with the notice and continuation requirements of Parts 6 and 7 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA and Section 4980B of the Code (“COBRA”), and the regulations thereunder. All reports, statements, returns and other information required to be furnished or filed with respect to FCB and FCLS Benefit Plans have been timely furnished, filed or both in accordance with Sections 101 through 105 of ERISA and Sections 6057 through 6059 of the Code, and they are true, correct and complete. To FCB’s Knowledge, records with respect to FCB and FCLS Benefit Plans have been maintained in compliance with Section 107 of ERISA. To FCB’s Knowledge, neither FCB nor any other fiduciary (as that term is defined in Section 3(21) of ERISA) with respect to any of FCB and FCLS Benefit Plans has any liability for any breach of any fiduciary duties under Sections 404, 405 or 409 of ERISA. No FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan fails to meet the applicable requirements of Section 105(h)(2) of the Code (determined without regard to whether such FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan is self-insured).

4.13.6 FCB has not, with respect to any FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan, nor, to FCB’s Knowledge, has any administrator of any FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan, the related trusts or any trustee thereof, engaged in any prohibited transaction which would subject FCB, any ERISA Affiliate of FCB, or any FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan to a Tax or penalty on prohibited transactions imposed by ERISA, Section 4975 of the Code, or to any other liability under ERISA.

4.13.7 Except as set forth on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.13.7, FCB has no liability for retiree health and life benefits under any FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan other than any benefits required under COBRA or similar state laws.

4.13.8 Except as set forth on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.13.8, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will (A) result in any payment (including severance) becoming due to any director or any employee of FCB or FCLS from FCB or FCLS, respectively, under any FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan, (B) increase any benefits otherwise payable under any FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan or (C) result in any acceleration of the time of payment or vesting of any such benefit. Except as set forth on FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.13.8, no payment which in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement is or may reasonably be expected to be made by, from or with respect to any FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan, either alone or in conjunction with any other payment will or could properly be characterized as an “excess parachute payment” under Section 280G of the Code on which an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code is payable or will or could, either individually or collectively, provide for any payment by FCB or any of its ERISA Affiliates that would not be deductible under Code Section 162(m).

4.13.9 The actuarial present values of all accrued FCB Non-qualified Deferred Compensation Plans (including, to the extent applicable, entitlements under any executive compensation, supplemental retirement, or employment agreement) of employees and former employees of FCB or FCLS and their respective beneficiaries, other than entitlements accrued pursuant to funded retirement plans subject to the provisions of Section 412 of the Code or Section 302 of ERISA, have been fully reflected on the FCB Financial Statements to the extent required by and in accordance with GAAP.

4.13.10 There is not, and has not been, any trust or fund maintained by or contributed to by FCB or its employees to fund an employee benefit plan which would constitute a Voluntary Employees' Beneficiary Association or a "welfare benefit fund" within the meaning of Section 419(a) of the Code.

4.13.11 No claim, lawsuit, arbitration or other action has been asserted or instituted or, to the Knowledge of FCB, has been threatened or is anticipated, against any FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan (other than routine claims for benefits and appeals of such claims), FCB or any FCB Subsidiary or any director, officer or employee thereof, or any of the assets of any trust of any FCB and FCLS Benefit Plan.

5.4.1 BHLB has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and, subject to receipt of the Regulatory Approvals, to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by BHLB and the completion by BHLB of the transactions contemplated hereby, up to and including the Merger, have been duly and validly approved by the Board of Directors of BHLB. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by BHLB, and subject to the receipt of the Regulatory Approvals, FCB Shareholder Approval, and due and valid execution and delivery of this Agreement by FCB, constitutes the valid and binding obligations of BHLB, enforceable against BHLB in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity.

5.4.2 (a) Subject to compliance of FCB with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the execution and delivery of this Agreement by BHLB and the Bank, subject to receipt of the Regulatory Approvals, and compliance by FCB, BHLB and the Bank with any conditions contained therein, and subject to the receipt of the FCB Shareholder Approval, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and (b) compliance by BHLB with the terms and provisions hereof will not (i) conflict with or result in a breach of any provision of the certificate of incorporation or articles of association, as applicable, and bylaws or other governing documents of BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary; (ii) violate any statute, code, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, order, writ, decree or injunction applicable to BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary or any of their respective properties or assets; or (iii) violate, conflict with, result in a breach of any provisions of, constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default) under, result in the termination or amendment of, accelerate the performance required by, or result in a right of termination or acceleration or the creation of any lien, security interest, charge or other encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, deed of trust, license, lease, agreement or other investment or obligation to which BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary is a party, or by which they or any of their respective properties or assets may be bound or affected.

5.5 Consents.

Except for (a) the receipt of the Regulatory Approvals and compliance with any conditions contained therein, (b) compliance with applicable requirements of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act and state securities or “blue sky” laws, (c) the filing of the Articles of Merger with the MDOB and the requisite certifications with the NJDOBI, (d) the filing with the SEC of (i) the Merger Registration Statement and (ii) such reports under Sections 13(a), 13(d), 13(g) and 16(a) of the Exchange Act as may be required in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and the obtaining from the SEC of such orders as may be required in connection therewith, (e) notification of the listing of BHLB Common Stock to be issued in the Merger on the NYSE and (f) the approval of this Agreement by the FCB Shareholder Approval, no consents, waivers or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any Governmental Entity or Bank Regulator are necessary, and, to the Knowledge of BHLB, no consents, waivers or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any other third parties are necessary, in connection with (x) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by BHLB, the completion by BHLB of the Merger and the performance by BHLB of its obligations hereunder. To the Knowledge of BHLB and the Bank, no fact or circumstance exists, including any possible other transaction pending or under consideration by BHLB or any of its Subsidiaries, that (a) would reasonably be expected to prevent or delay in any material respect, (i) any filings with or approvals or waivers required from the FRB, the FDIC, the NJDOBI or the MDOB or (ii) any required Regulatory Approvals, (b) would cause a Bank Regulator or Governmental Entity acting pursuant to the Bank Merger Act, the BHCA, the New Jersey Banking Law or the Massachusetts General Laws or any other applicable law or regulation to seek to prohibit or materially delay consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or impose a Burdensome Condition or (c) any Bank Regulator or Governmental Entity having jurisdiction over the affairs of BHLB and the Bank, the consent or approval of which is not required or approval of which is not required pursuant to the rules of which a filing is not required, will object to the completion of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5.6 Financial Statements.

5.6.1 The BHLB Regulatory Reports have been prepared in all material respects in accordance with applicable regulatory accounting principles and practices throughout the periods covered by such statements, and fairly present in all material respects the consolidated financial position, results of operations and changes in shareholders' equity of BHLB as of and for the periods ended on the dates thereof, in accordance with applicable regulatory accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

5.6.2 BHLB has previously made available to FCB the BHLB Financial Statements. The BHLB Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP in all material respects, and (including the related notes where applicable) fairly present in each case in all material respects (subject in the case of the unaudited interim statements to normal year-end adjustments) the consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows of BHLB and the Bank on a consolidated basis as of and for the respective periods ending on the dates thereof, in accordance with GAAP during the periods involved, except as indicated in the notes thereto, or in the case of unaudited statements, as permitted by Form 10-Q.

5.6.3 At the date of the most recent consolidated statement of financial condition included in the BHLB Financial Statements or in the BHLB Regulatory Reports, BHLB did not have any liabilities, obligations or loss contingencies of any nature (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) of a type required to be reflected in such BHLB Financial Statements or in the footnotes thereto which are not fully reflected or reserved against therein or fully disclosed in a footnote thereto, in each case to the extent required in accordance with GAAP, except for liabilities, obligations and loss contingencies which are not material individually or in the aggregate or which are incurred in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practice, and subject, in the case of any unaudited statements, to normal, recurring audit adjustments and the absence of footnotes.

5.7 Taxes.

5.7.1 Except as provided in this Agreement, neither BHLB nor any of its Subsidiaries has taken or agreed to take any action, has failed to take any action or knows of any fact, agreement, plan or other circumstance that could reasonably be expected to prevent the Merger from qualifying as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries that are corporations for federal income Tax purposes are members of the same affiliated group within the meaning of Code Section 1504(a). BHLB, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, has timely (taking into account extensions) filed or caused to be filed all Tax Returns (including, but not limited to, those filed on a consolidated, combined or unitary basis) required to have been filed by BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries prior to the date hereof, or requests for extensions to file such returns and reports have been timely filed. All such Tax Returns are true, correct, and complete in all material respects. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries have timely paid or, prior to the Effective Time will pay, all Taxes, whether or not shown on such returns or reports, due or claimed to be due to any Governmental Entity prior to the Effective Time other than Taxes which are being contested in good faith. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries have declared on their Tax Returns all positions taken therein that could give rise to a substantial underpayment of United States federal income Tax within the meaning of Section 6662 of the Code (or any corresponding provision of state or local laws). The unpaid accrued but unpaid Taxes of BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries did not, as of the most recent BHLB Financial Statements, exceed the reserve for Tax liability (rather than any reserve for deferred Taxes established to reflect timing differences between book and Tax income) set forth on the face of the most recent BHLB balance sheet (rather than in any notes thereto). BHLB and its Subsidiaries are subject to Tax audits in the ordinary course of business. BHLB management does not believe that an adverse resolution to any of such audits of which it has Knowledge would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on BHLB. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries have not been notified in writing by any jurisdiction that the jurisdiction believes that BHLB or any of the BHLB Subsidiaries were required to file any Tax Return in such jurisdiction that was not filed. Neither BHLB nor any of the BHLB Subsidiaries (A) has been a member of a group with which they have filed or been included in a combined, consolidated or unitary income Tax Return other than a group the common parent of which was BHLB or (B) has any liability for the Taxes of any Person (other than BHLB or any of the BHLB Subsidiaries) under Treas. Reg. § 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of state, local, or non-U.S. law), as a transferee or successor, by contract, or otherwise. As of the date hereof, all deficiencies proposed in writing as a result of any audits have been paid or settled. There are no written claims or assessments pending against BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary for any alleged deficiency in any Tax, and neither BHLB nor any BHLB Subsidiary has been notified in writing of any proposed Tax claims or assessments against BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries each have duly and timely withheld, collected and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority all amounts required to be so withheld and paid under all applicable laws, and have duly and timely filed all Tax Returns with respect to such withheld Taxes, within the time prescribed under any applicable law. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries have delivered to FCB true and complete copies of all income Tax Returns of BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries for taxable periods ending on or after December 31, 2013. Neither BHLB nor any of the BHLB Subsidiaries is or has been a party to any “reportable transaction,” as defined in Code § 6707A(c)(1) and Treas. Reg. § 1.6011-4(b). Neither BHLB nor any of the BHLB Subsidiaries has distributed stock of another Person, or has had its stock distributed by another Person, in a transaction that was purported or intended to be governed in whole or in part by Code § 355 or Code § 361. Neither BHLB nor any of the BHLB Subsidiaries has been a United States real property holding corporation within the meaning of Code § 897(c)(2) during the applicable period specified in Code § 897(c)(1)(A)(ii).

5.8 No Material Adverse Effect.

Neither BHLB nor any BHLB Subsidiary has suffered any Material Adverse Effect since December 31, 2015 and, to BHLB’s Knowledge, no event has occurred or circumstance arisen since that date which, in the aggregate, has had or reasonably would be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on BHLB.

5.9 Ownership of Property; Insurance Coverage.

5.9.1 Except as set forth on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.9.1, BHLB and each BHLB Subsidiary has good and, as to real property, insurable title to all assets and properties owned by BHLB or such BHLB Subsidiary, as applicable, in the conduct of its businesses, whether such assets and properties are real or personal, tangible or intangible, including assets and property reflected in the most recent consolidated statement of financial condition contained in the BHLB Financial Statements or acquired subsequent thereto (except to the extent that such assets and properties have been disposed of in the ordinary course of business, since the date of such consolidated statement of financial condition), subject to no encumbrances, liens, mortgages, security interests or pledges, except Permitted Liens. BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries, as lessee, have the right under valid and existing leases of real and personal properties used by BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries in the conduct of their businesses to occupy or use all such properties as presently occupied and used by each of them. Such existing leases and commitments to lease constitute or will constitute operating leases for both tax and financial accounting purposes and the lease expense and minimum rental commitments with respect to such leases and lease commitments are as disclosed in all material respects in the notes to the BHLB Financial Statements.

5.9.2 With respect to all material agreements pursuant to which BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary has purchased securities subject to an agreement to resell, if any, BHLB or such BHLB Subsidiary, as the case may be, has a lien or security interest (which to BHLB's Knowledge is a valid, perfected first lien) in the securities or other collateral securing the repurchase agreement, and the value of such collateral equals or exceeds the amount of the debt secured thereby.

5.9.3 BHLB and each BHLB Subsidiary currently maintain insurance considered by each of them to be reasonable for their respective operations. Neither BHLB nor any BHLB Subsidiary, has received notice from any insurance carrier on or before the date hereof that (i) such insurance will be canceled or that coverage thereunder will be reduced or eliminated, or (ii) premium costs with respect to such policies of insurance will be substantially increased. Except as listed on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.9.3, there are presently no claims pending under such policies of insurance and no notices of claim have been given by BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary under such policies. All such insurance is valid and enforceable and in full force and effect (other than insurance that expires in accordance with its terms), and within the last three (3) years BHLB and each BHLB Subsidiary has received each type of insurance coverage for which it has applied and during such periods has not been denied indemnification for any claims submitted under any of its insurance policies. BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.9.3 identifies all policies of insurance maintained by BHLB and each BHLB Subsidiary, including the name of the insurer, the policy number, the type of policy and any applicable deductibles, as well as the other matters required to be disclosed under this Section 5.9.3. BHLB has made available to FCB copies of all of the policies listed on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.9.3.

5.10 Legal Proceedings.

Except as set forth on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.10, there is no suit, action, investigation or proceeding pending or, to its Knowledge, threatened against or affecting BHLB or any of its Subsidiaries (and it is not aware of any facts that reasonably could be expected to form the basis for any such suit, action or proceeding) (1) that involves a Governmental Entity or Bank Regulator, or (2) that, individually or in the aggregate, is (A) material to it and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or reasonably likely to result in a restriction on its or any of its Subsidiaries' businesses or, or after the Effective Time, BHLB's or any of its Subsidiaries' businesses, or (B) reasonably likely to prevent or delay it from performing its obligations under, or consummating the transactions contemplated by, this Agreement. There is no injunction, order, award, judgment, settlement, decree or written regulatory restriction imposed upon or entered into by BHLB, any of its Subsidiaries or the assets of it or any of its Subsidiaries.

5.11 Compliance with Applicable Law.

Except as set forth on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.11:

5.11.1 To BHLB's Knowledge, BHLB and each BHLB Subsidiary is in compliance in all material respects with all applicable federal, state, local and foreign statutes, laws, regulations, ordinances, rules, judgments, orders or decrees applicable to it, its properties, assets and deposits, its business, its conduct of business and its relationship with its employees, including, without limitation, the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001, the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, the Truth in Lending Act, the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, the Consumer Credit Protection Act, the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the Fair Debt Collections Act, the Fair Housing Act, the CRA, the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act, and all other applicable fair lending laws and other laws relating to discriminatory business practices, and neither BHLB nor any BHLB Subsidiary has received any written notice to the contrary.

5.11.2 BHLB and each BHLB Subsidiary has all material permits, licenses, authorizations, orders and approvals of, and has made all filings, applications and registrations with, all Governmental Entities and Bank Regulators that are required in order to permit it to own or lease its properties and to conduct its business as presently conducted; all such permits, licenses, certificates of authority, orders and approvals are in full force and effect and, to the Knowledge of BHLB, no suspension or cancellation of any such permit, license, certificate, order or approval is threatened or will result from the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, subject to obtaining the Regulatory Approvals.

5.11.3 For the period beginning January 1, 2012, neither BHLB nor any BHLB Subsidiary has received any written notification or any other communication from any Bank Regulator or Insurance Regulator (i) asserting that BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary is not in material compliance with any of the statutes, regulations or ordinances which such Bank Regulator or Insurance Regulator enforces; (ii) threatening to revoke any license, franchise, permit or governmental authorization; (iii) requiring or threatening to require BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary, or indicating that BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary may be required, to enter into a cease and desist order, agreement or memorandum of understanding or any other agreement with any federal or state governmental agency or authority which is charged with the supervision or regulation of banks, bank holding companies or insurance agencies, or engages in the insurance of bank deposits, restricting or limiting, or purporting to restrict or limit the operations of BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary, including without limitation any restriction on the payment of dividends; or (iv) directing, restricting or limiting, or purporting to direct, restrict or limit the operations of BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary. Neither BHLB nor any BHLB Subsidiary has consented to or entered into any Regulatory Agreement that is currently in effect. The most recent regulatory rating given to the Bank as to compliance with the CRA is “Satisfactory” or better.

5.12 Employee Benefit Plans.

5.12.1 BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.12.1 contains a list of all written and unwritten pension, retirement, profit-sharing, thrift, savings, deferred compensation, stock option, employee stock ownership, employee stock purchase, restricted stock, severance pay, retention, vacation, bonus or other incentive plans, all employment, change in control, consulting, severance and retention agreements, all other written employee programs, arrangements or agreements, all medical, vision, dental, disability, life insurance, workers’ compensation, employee assistance or other health or welfare plans, and all other employee benefit or fringe benefit plans, including “employee benefit plans” as that term is defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, currently adopted, maintained by, sponsored in whole or in part by, or contributed to by BHLB or any of its ERISA Affiliates for the benefit of employees, former employees, retirees (or the dependents, including spouses, of the foregoing), directors, independent contractors or other service providers to BHLB and under which employees, former employees, retirees, dependents, spouses, directors, or other service providers of BHLB are eligible to participate (collectively, the “BHLB Benefit Plans”). BHLB has furnished or otherwise made available to FCB true and complete copies of (i) the plan documents and summary plan descriptions for each written BHLB Benefit Plan, (ii) a summary of each unwritten BHLB Benefit Plan (if applicable), (iii) the annual report (Form 5500 series) for the three (3) most recent years for each BHLB Benefit Plan (if applicable), (iv) the actuarial valuation reports with respect to each tax-qualified BHLB Benefit Plan that is a defined benefit pension plan for the three (3) most recent years, (v) all related trust agreements, insurance contracts or other funding agreements which currently implement the BHLB Benefit Plans (if applicable), (vi) the most recent IRS determination letter with respect to each tax-qualified BHLB Benefit Plan (or, for a BHLB Benefit Plan maintained under a pre-approved prototype or volume submitter plan, the IRS determination letter on such pre-approved plan) and (vii) all substantive correspondence relating to any liability of or non-compliance relating to any BHLB Benefit Plan addressed to or received from the IRS, the Department of Labor or any other Governmental Entity within the past three (3) years. Each BHLB Benefit Plan that may be subject to Section 409A of the Code (“BHLB Non-qualified Deferred Compensation Plan”) has been maintained and operated in compliance with Section 409A of the Code such that no Taxes under Section 409A of the Code may be imposed on participants in such plans.

5.12.2 All BHLB Benefit Plans are in material compliance with (and have been managed and administrated in accordance with) the applicable terms of ERISA, the Code and any other applicable laws. Except as set forth on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.12.2, each BHLB Benefit Plan governed by ERISA that is intended to be a qualified retirement plan under Section 401(a) of the Code has either (i) received a favorable determination letter from the IRS (and BHLB is not aware of any circumstances likely to result in revocation of any such favorable determination letter) or timely application has been made therefore, or (ii) is maintained under a prototype plan which has been approved by the IRS and is entitled to rely upon the IRS National Office opinion letter issued to the prototype plan sponsor. To the Knowledge of BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries, there exists no fact which would adversely affect the qualification of any of the BHLB Benefit Plans intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code, or any threatened or pending claim against any of the BHLB Benefit Plans or their fiduciaries by any participant, beneficiary or Governmental Entity (other than routine claims for benefits).

5.12.3 Except as set forth on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.12.3, no “defined benefit plan” (as defined in Section 414(j) of the Code) has been maintained at any time by BHLB or any of its ERISA Affiliates for the benefit of the employees or former employees of BHLB or its Subsidiaries.

5.12.4 Within the last six (6) years, neither BHLB nor any of its ERISA Affiliates maintained or had any obligation to contribute to a BHLB Benefit Plan which is a “multiemployer plan” within the meaning of Section 3(37) of ERISA, and within the last six (6) years neither BHLB nor any of its ERISA Affiliates has incurred any withdrawal liability within the meaning of Section 4201 of ERISA to any such “multiemployer plan.” Neither BHLB nor any of its ERISA Affiliates has incurred any unsatisfied liability (other than PBGC premiums) to the PBGC, the IRS or any other individual or entity under Title IV of ERISA or Section 412 of the Code, and no event or condition exists that could reasonably be expected to result in the imposition of any liability on BHLB or any of its ERISA Affiliates under such provisions or that could reasonably be expected to have an adverse effect on BHLB or the Bank.

5.12.5 BHLB has complied in all material respects with the notice and continuation requirements of COBRA, and the regulations thereunder. All reports, statements, returns and other information required to be furnished or filed with respect to BHLB Benefit Plans have been timely furnished, filed or both in accordance with Sections 101 through 105 of ERISA and Sections 6057 through 6059 of the Code, and they are true, correct and complete. To BHLB’s Knowledge, records with respect to BHLB Benefit Plans have been maintained in compliance with Section 107 of ERISA. To BHLB’s Knowledge, neither BHLB nor any other fiduciary (as that term is defined in Section 3(21) of ERISA) with respect to any of BHLB Benefit Plans has any liability for any breach of any fiduciary duties under Sections 404, 405 or 409 of ERISA. No BHLB Benefit Plan fails to meet the applicable requirements of Section 105(h)(2) of the Code (determined without regard to whether such BHLB Benefit Plan is self-insured).

5.12.6 BHLB has not, with respect to any BHLB Benefit Plan, nor, to BHLB’s Knowledge, has any administrator of any BHLB Benefit Plan, the related trusts or any trustee thereof, engaged in any prohibited transaction which would subject BHLB, any ERISA Affiliate of BHLB, or any BHLB Benefit Plan to a Tax or penalty on prohibited transactions imposed by ERISA, Section 4975 of the Code, or to any other liability under ERISA.

5.12.7 Except as set forth on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.12.7, BHLB has no liability for retiree health and life benefits under any BHLB Benefit Plan other than any benefits required under COBRA or similar state laws.

5.12.8 Except as set forth on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.12.8, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will (A) result in any payment (including severance) becoming due to any director or any employee of BHLB from BHLB under any BHLB Benefit Plan, (B) increase any benefits otherwise payable under any BHLB Benefit Plan or (C) result in any acceleration of the time of payment or vesting of any such benefit. Except as set forth on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.12.8, no payment which in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement is or may reasonably be expected to be made by, from or with respect to any BHLB Benefit Plan, either alone or in conjunction with any other payment will or could properly be characterized as an “excess parachute payment” under Section 280G of the Code on which an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code is payable or will or could, either individually or collectively, provide for any payment by BHLB or any of its ERISA Affiliates that would not be deductible under Code Section 162(m).

5.12.9 The actuarial present values of all accrued BHLB Non-qualified Deferred Compensation Plans (including, to the extent applicable, entitlements under any executive compensation, supplemental retirement, or employment agreement) of employees and former employees of BHLB and their respective beneficiaries, other than entitlements accrued pursuant to funded retirement plans subject to the provisions of Section 412 of the Code or Section 302 of ERISA, have been fully reflected on the BHLB Financial Statements to the extent required by and in accordance with GAAP.

5.12.10 There is not, and has not been, any trust or fund maintained by or contributed to by BHLB or its employees to fund an employee benefit plan which would constitute a Voluntary Employees' Beneficiary Association or a "welfare benefit fund" within the meaning of Section 419(a) of the Code.

5.12.11 No claim, lawsuit, arbitration or other action has been asserted or instituted or, to the Knowledge of BHLB, has been threatened or is anticipated, against any BHLB Benefit Plan (other than routine claims for benefits and appeals of such claims), BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary or any director, officer or employee thereof, or any of the assets of any trust of any BHLB Benefit Plan.

5.13 Brokers, Finders and Financial Advisors.

Neither BHLB nor any BHLB Subsidiary, nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees or agents, has employed any broker, finder or financial advisor in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or incurred any liability or commitment for any fees or commissions to any such Person in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except for the retention of Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. by BHLB and the fee payable thereto. A true and correct copy of the engagement agreement with Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., setting forth the fee payable to Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. for its services rendered to BHLB in connection with the Merger and transactions contemplated by this Agreement is attached to BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.13.

5.14 BHLB Information Supplied.

The information relating to BHLB and any BHLB Subsidiary to be contained in the Merger Registration Statement, or in any other document filed with any Bank Regulator or other Governmental Entity in connection herewith, will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances in which they are made, not misleading.

5.15 Securities Documents.

Since January 1, 2014, BHLB has filed with the SEC all forms, reports, schedules, registration statements, definitive proxy statements and information statements or other filings ("BHLB SEC Reports") required to be filed by it with the SEC. As of their respective dates, the BHLB SEC Reports complied as to form with the requirements of the Exchange Act or the Securities Act, as applicable, and the applicable rules and regulations of the SEC promulgated thereunder in all material respects. As of their respective dates and as of the date any information from the BHLB SEC Reports has been incorporated by reference, the BHLB SEC Reports did not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. BHLB has filed all material contracts, agreements and other documents or instruments required to be filed as exhibits to the BHLB SEC Reports (the "BHLB Material Agreements").

5.16 Internal Controls.

5.17.1 The records, systems, controls, data and information of BHLB and its Subsidiaries are recorded, stored, maintained and operated under means (including any electronic, mechanical or photographic process, whether computerized or not) that are under the exclusive ownership and direct control of BHLB or its Subsidiaries or accountants (including all means of access thereto and therefrom), except for any non-exclusive ownership and non-direct control that would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the system of internal accounting controls described in the following sentence. BHLB and its Subsidiaries have devised and maintain a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurances regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP. BHLB has designed and implemented disclosure controls and procedures (within the meaning of Rules 13a-15(e) and 15D-15(e) of the Exchange Act) to ensure that material information relating to it and its Subsidiaries is made known to its management by others within those entities as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure and to make the certifications required by the Exchange Act and Section 302 and 906 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

5.17.2 BHLB's management has completed an assessment of the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting in compliance with the requirements of Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act for the year ended December 31, 2015, and such assessment concluded that such controls were effective. It has previously disclosed, based on its most recent evaluation prior to the date hereof, to its auditors and the audit committee of the FCB Board; (A) any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal controls over financial reporting and (B) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in its internal controls over financial reporting.

5.17.3 Since December 31, 2015, (A) neither BHLB nor any of its Subsidiaries nor, to its knowledge, any director, officer, employee, auditor, accountant or representative of BHLB or any of its Subsidiaries has received or otherwise had or obtained knowledge of any material complaint, allegation, assertion or claim, whether written or oral, regarding the accounting or auditing practices, procedures, methodologies or methods (including with respect to loan loss reserves, write-downs, charge-offs and accruals) of it or any of its subsidiaries or their respective internal accounting controls, including any material complaint, allegation, assertion or claim that it or any of its subsidiaries has engaged in questionable accounting or auditing practices, and (B) no attorney representing BHLB or any of its Subsidiaries, whether or not employed by it or any of its Subsidiaries, has reported evidence of a material violation of securities laws, breach of fiduciary duty or similar violation by BHLB or any of its officers, directors, employees or agents to its board of directors or any committee thereof or to any of its directors or officers.

5.17 BHLB Common Stock.

The shares of BHLB Common Stock to be issued pursuant to this Agreement, when issued in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and subject to no preemptive rights.

5.18 Available Funds

Immediately prior to the Effective Time, BHLB will have cash sufficient to pay or cause to be deposited into the Exchange Fund as required by Section 3.2.

5.19 Fairness Opinion.

BHLB has received an opinion, a copy of which will be provided to FCB promptly following the date of this Agreement, from Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., to the effect that, subject to the terms, conditions and qualifications set forth therein, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received by the shareholders of FCB pursuant to this Agreement is fair to BHLB and its shareholders from a financial point of view. Such opinion has not been amended or rescinded as of the date of this Agreement.

5.20 Board Approval.

The Board of Directors of BHLB determined that the Merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, BHLB and its stockholders, approved and declared advisable this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby.

5.21 Related Party Transactions.

5.21.1 Neither BHLB nor any BHLB Subsidiary is a party to any transaction (including any loan or other credit accommodation) with any Affiliate of BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary, except as set forth in BHLB Disclosure Schedule 5.25 or as described in BHLB's proxy statement dated March 24, 2016 distributed in connection with its annual meeting of shareholders held on May 5, 2016. FCB shall provide and shall request its auditors to provide BHLB with such historical financial information regarding it (and related audit reports and consents) as BHLB may reasonably request for Securities Law disclosure purposes. FCB shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, and shall cause each FCB Subsidiary to use its commercially reasonable efforts, to obtain as soon as practicable all consents and approvals of any other Persons or entities necessary for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.9 All Reasonable Efforts.

Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, FCB agrees to use, and agrees to cause each FCB Subsidiary to use, all commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all action and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary under applicable laws and regulations to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.10 Failure to Fulfill Conditions.

In the event that FCB determines that a condition to its obligation to complete the Merger cannot be fulfilled and that it will not waive that condition, it will promptly notify BHLB.

FCB shall promptly, but in no event later than one (1) calendar day, notify BHLB of such inquiries, proposals or offers received by, any such information requested from, or any such discussions or negotiations sought to be initiated or continued with FCB or any of its representatives indicating, in connection with such notice, the name of such Person and the material terms and conditions of any inquiries, proposals or offers, and receives from such Person an executed confidentiality agreement in form and substance identical in all material respects to the Confidentiality Agreement.

6.11.2 "Acquisition Proposal" shall mean any proposal or offer as to any of the following (other than the transactions contemplated hereunder) involving FCB or any of the FCB Subsidiaries: (i) any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, or other similar transactions; (ii) any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of 25% or more of the assets of FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, in a single transaction or series of transactions; (iii) any tender offer or exchange offer for 25% or more of the outstanding shares of capital stock of FCB or the filing of a registration statement under the Securities Act in connection therewith; or (iv) any public announcement of a proposal, plan or intention to do any of the foregoing or any agreement to engage in any of the foregoing.

“BHLB Observers”), provided that neither FCB nor any FCB Subsidiary shall be required to permit the BHLB Observers to remain present during any confidential discussion of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby or any Acquisition Proposal or during any other matter that the respective Board of Directors has been advised of by counsel that such attendance by the BHLB Observers may violate or be inconsistent with a confidentiality obligation or fiduciary duty or any legal or regulatory requirement.

6.13 FCB 401(k) Plan.

Effective as of the day preceding the Closing Date, and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Time, in the sole discretion of BHLB, BHLB may direct FCB to adopt such resolutions and/or amendments to cause the FCB 401(k) Plan (the “FCB 401(k) Plan”) to be terminated, merged or other such actions as permitted by applicable law, including, but not limiting to, amending the FCB 401(k) Plan to provide that: (i) the plan sponsor will be FCLS instead of FCB, (ii) the plan name will change to the FCLS 401(k) Plan, (iii) only employees of FCLS will be eligible to participate in the FCLS 401(k) Plan and any employees of a controlled group, within the meaning of Section 414(b) of the Code, will be excluded from participating in the FCLS 401(k) Plan, and (iv) as may be further amended pursuant to the direction of BHLB. The form and substance of such resolutions and any necessary amendments shall be subject to the review and approval of BHLB, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. FCB shall deliver to BHLB an executed copy of such resolutions and any necessary amendments as soon as practicable following their adoption by the Board of Directors of FCB and shall fully comply with such resolutions and any necessary amendments.

6.14 Tangible Book Value.

For purposes of this Agreement, “Tangible Book Value” shall mean, on a consolidated basis, FCB’s and FCB’s Subsidiaries (a) total assets on a consolidated basis less (b) the sum of (i) total liabilities, (ii) goodwill, and (iii) total intangible assets. For purposes of calculating Tangible Book Value and Final Tangible Book Value, the parties shall not give any effect to adjustments from June 20, 2016 to the Closing Date related to actions which are not consistent with FCB’s ordinary and customary methods or practices or GAAP, including but not limited to, any reduction in the allowance for loan losses or the provisions thereto, the gain on sale of any securities or loans not in the ordinary course of business, the conversions of unrealized gains to realized gains, increases or decreases in unrealized gains on securities, decreases in non-interest expenses or the deferral of any obligation due in the ordinary course of business, and the related tax effect of any of these listed adjustments. The calculation of Tangible Book Value per share shall include each share of FCB Common Stock issued after giving effect to the conversion of all of the FCB Preferred Stock prior to the Effective Time, as described in Section 3.4, and the exercise of all of the FCB Stock Options and FCB Warrants prior to the Effective Time. For the purpose of assessing Tangible Book Value, BHLB may request from FCB, and FCB shall provide, such reasonable information and documentation that provides support to FCB’s determination of Tangible Book Value, consistent with this Section, GAAP and FCB’s past practices.

6.15 FCB Common Stock Special Dividend.

Provided that Final Tangible Book Value per share exceeds $14.22 per share and FCB has a positive Core Net Income, FCB may pay a per share dividend to the holders of FCB Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time in an aggregate amount not to exceed 35% of Core Net Income in excess of the $14.22 Tangible Book Value per share.

ARTICLE VII
COVENANTS OF BHLB

7.1 Conduct of Business.

7.1.1 Affirmative Covenants.

(A) During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, except with the written consent of FCB, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, BHLB will, and it will cause each BHLB Subsidiary to: operate its business only in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business; use reasonable best efforts to preserve intact its business organization and assets and maintain its rights and franchises; and voluntarily take no action which would (i) change or waive any provision of its certificate of incorporation (or articles or organization in the case of the Bank) or bylaws in any way adverse to the rights of the FCB shareholders, except as required by law, except as set forth on BHLB Disclosure Schedule 7.1.1(A)(i); (ii) materially adversely affect the ability of the parties to obtain the Regulatory Approvals or materially increase the period of time necessary to obtain such approvals; (iii) materially adversely affect its ability to perform its covenants and agreements under this Agreement; (iv) result in the representations and warranties contained in Article V of this Agreement not being true and correct on the date of this Agreement or at any future date on or prior to the Closing Date or in any of the conditions set forth in Article IX hereof not being satisfied; (v) prevent or impede, or be reasonably likely to prevent or impede, the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

(B) Promptly after the Closing and prior to the Effective Time, BHLB shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent the Exchange Fund.

7.2 Disclosure Supplements.

From time to time prior to the Effective Time, BHLB will promptly supplement or amend the BHLB Disclosure Schedule delivered in connection herewith with respect to any matter hereafter arising which, if existing, occurring or known at the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in such BHLB Disclosure Schedule or which is necessary to correct any information in such BHLB Disclosure Schedule which has been rendered materially inaccurate thereby. No supplement or amendment to such BHLB Disclosure Schedule shall have any effect for the purpose of determining satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article IX.

7.3 Consents and Approvals of Third Parties.

BHLB shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, and shall cause each BHLB Subsidiary to use its commercially reasonable efforts, to obtain as soon as practicable all consents and approvals of any other Persons necessary for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

7.4 Reasonable Best Efforts.

Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, BHLB agrees to use and agrees to cause each BHLB Subsidiary to use reasonable best efforts in good faith to take, or cause to be taken, all action and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary under applicable laws and regulations to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as promptly as practicable.

7.5 Employees; Benefit Plans

Following the Closing Date, BHLB may choose to maintain any or all of the FCB and FCLS Benefit Plans in its sole discretion and FCB and FCLS shall cooperate with BHLB in order to effect any plan terminations to be made as of the Effective Time.

7.5.1 Benefit Plans Covering FCB Employees. For any FCB benefit plan, which generally covers only FCB employees, which is terminated and for which there is a comparable BHLB Benefit Plan of general applicability, BHLB shall take all reasonable action so that eligible FCB employees at the Closing Date and who remain so employed immediately following the Effective Time (the “Continuing FCB Employees”) shall be entitled to participate in such BHLB Benefit Plan to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of BHLB (it being understood that inclusion of Continuing FCB Employees in the BHLB Benefit Plans may occur at different times with respect to different plans and that this Section 7.5.1 does not apply to FCLS employees). BHLB shall cause each BHLB Benefit Plan in which Continuing FCB Employees are eligible to participate to take into account for purposes of eligibility and vesting under the BHLB Benefit Plans (but not for purposes of benefit accrual) the service of such employees with FCB to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose by FCB; provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits. Nothing herein shall limit the ability of BHLB to amend or terminate any of the FCB and FCLS Benefit Plans or BHLB Benefit Plans in accordance with their terms at any time; provided, however, that BHLB shall continue to maintain the FCB benefit plans (other than stock-based or incentive plans) for which there is a comparable BHLB Benefit Plan until the FCB employees are permitted to participate in the BHLB Benefit Plans, unless such BHLB Benefit Plan has been frozen or terminated with respect to similarly-situated employees of BHLB or any Subsidiary of BHLB.

7.5.2 Benefit Plans Covering FCLS Employees. An FCLS benefit plan, which generally covers only FCLS employees at the Closing Date (the “FCLS Benefit Plans”), may be continued, modified or terminated after the Effective Time. To the extent such plan or plans are not terminated, eligible FCLS employees at the Closing Date and who remain so employed immediately following the Effective Time (the “Continuing FCLS Employees”) shall be entitled to participate in the FCLS Benefit Plans to the same extent as such employees participated in the FCLS Benefit Plans immediately prior to the Effective Time. Nothing herein shall limit the ability of BHLB to amend or terminate any of the FCLS Benefit Plans

7.5.3 Bank 401(k) Plan Participation. All Continuing FCB Employees shall be eligible to participate in Bank’s 401(k) plan on the day after the Closing Date. All rights to participate in Bank’s 401(k) Plan are subject to Bank's right to amend or terminate Bank's 401(k) plan in its sole and absolute discretion and are subject to the terms of Bank's 401(k) plan including, but not limited to, the eligibility and vesting provisions of such plan. Continuing FCLS Employees shall continue to participate in the FCB 401(k) Plan or its successor, subject to Section 6.13 of this Agreement and as the plan may be further amended in the sole discretion of BHLB.

7.5.4 Welfare Benefits. If Continuing FCB Employees become eligible to participate in a medical, dental or health plan of BHLB upon termination of such plan of FCB or FCLS, BHLB shall make all commercially reasonable efforts to cause each such plan to (i) waive any preexisting condition limitations to the extent such conditions are covered under the applicable medical, health or dental plans of BHLB, (ii) honor under such plans any deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employees and their beneficiaries during the portion of the calendar year prior to such participation and (iii) waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to such employee on or after the Effective Time, in each case to the extent such employee had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under an analogous FCB Benefit Plan prior to the Effective Time. Continuing FCLS Employees will continue to be covered by medical, dental and health plans as maintained by FCLS prior to the Closing Date, and the FCLS benefit plan may be amended or terminated in the sole discretion of BHLB.

7.5.5 Paid Time Off Programs. BHLB will give Continuing FCB Employees credit, for purposes of BHLB's vacation and/or other paid leave benefit programs, for such individuals accrued and unpaid vacation and/or paid leave balance with FCB as of the Closing Date. Continuing FCLS Employees may continue to be covered by paid time off programs maintained by FCLS prior to the Closing Date.

7.5.6 BHLB to Honor Agreements. Subject to any required regulatory approval or satisfaction of a condition in any Regulatory Approval, BHLB agrees to honor all employment agreements, change in control agreements, severance agreements, deferred compensation agreements and consulting agreements that FCB and FCLS has with its current and former employees and which have been identified in FCB Disclosure Schedule 4.9.1, except to the extent any such agreements shall be superseded or terminated at the Closing Date or following the Closing Date with the written consent of the affected parties and provided that no payments made under such agreements would be characterized as an "excess parachute payment" as such term is defined in Code Section 280G.

7.5.7 No Guarantee of Employment, Severance. Except to the extent of commitments herein or other contractual commitments, if any, specifically made or assumed by BHLB hereunder or by operation of law, BHLB shall have no obligation arising from and after the Closing Date to continue in its employ or in any specific job or to provide to any specified level of compensation or any incentive payments, benefits or perquisites to any Person who is an employee of FCB of any FCB Subsidiary as of the Closing Date. Each Person who is an employee of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary as of the Closing Date and who is terminated by BHLB for a reason other than cause within twelve (12) months subsequent to the Closing Date or is not offered employment with BHLB as of the Effective Time or resigns for good reason, excluding those employees who are entitled to benefits under employment or change of control arrangements, shall be entitled to severance benefits pursuant to FCB or FCLS's severance plan or policy, as applicable, or BHLB's current severance plan or policy, if such payments would be more favorable to such Person; provided, however, if such benefits pursuant to FCB or FCLS's plan or policy, as applicable, will result in an excise tax under Code Section 4980D, such plan or policy shall be modified to the extent necessary so as to avoid the imposition of such excise tax and the affected participant under such plan or policy shall be paid an additional amount such that his or her benefit, net applicable taxes, equals the value of the benefit reduced or eliminated by such action.

7.5.8 Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act. If requested by BHLB, FCB shall take all such actions as BHLB may request in order to fully and timely comply with any and all requirements of both the federal Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act of 1988 ("WARN Act") and any state specific WARN Act statutes, including providing notices to FCB's and FCB Subsidiaries' employees.

7.6 Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance.

7.6.1 Prior to the Effective Time, BHLB shall obtain and fully pay the premium for the extension of (i) the Side A coverage part (directors' and officers' liability) of FCB's existing directors' and officers' insurance policies, and (ii) FCB's existing fiduciary liability insurance policies, in each case for a claims reporting or discovery period of at least six (6) years from and after the Effective Time, from an insurance carrier with the same or better credit rating as FCB's current insurance carrier with respect to directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance (collectively, "D&O Insurance" and such insurance carrier, the "Insurance Carrier") with terms, conditions, retentions and limits of liability that are at least as favorable as FCB's existing policies with respect to any actual or alleged error, misstatement, misleading statement, act, omission, neglect, breach of duty or any matter claimed against any Person covered thereby that arose, existed, or occurred at or prior to the Effective Time (including in connection with this Agreement or the transactions or actions contemplated hereby); provided, however, that in no event shall BHLB be required to expend for such "tail" policy a premium amount in excess of an amount equal to 200% of the annual premiums paid by FCB for D&O Insurance in effect as of the date of this Agreement. In connection with the foregoing, FCB agrees, in order for BHLB to fulfill its agreement, to provide the Insurance Carrier with such representations as such insurer may request with respect to the reporting of any prior claims.

7.6.2 In addition to Section 7.6.1, BHLB shall, from and after the Effective Date, to the fullest extent that would have been permitted to FCB under New Jersey law and the FCB certificate of incorporation (to the extent not prohibited by federal law), indemnify, defend and hold harmless each Person who is now, or who has been at any time before the date hereof or who becomes before the Effective Time, an officer or director of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary (the "Indemnified Parties") against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees), liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement (which settlement shall require the prior written consent of BHLB, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, or administrative (each, a "Claim") in which an Indemnified Party is or is threatened to be made a party or witness in whole or in part or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such Person is or was an Indemnified Party if such Claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing, or occurring before the Effective Time (including, without limitation, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby), regardless of whether such Claim is asserted or claimed before, or after, the Effective Time. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this Section 7.6.2 upon learning of any Claim, shall notify BHLB (but the failure so to notify BHLB shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have under this Section 7.6.2, except to the extent such failure materially prejudices BHLB). In the event of any such Claim (whether arising before or after the Effective Time) (1) BHLB shall have the right to assume the defense thereof (in which event the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such matter) and upon such assumption BHLB shall not be liable to any Indemnified Party for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by any Indemnified Party in connection with the defense thereof, except that if BHLB elects not to assume such defense, or counsel for the Indemnified Parties reasonably advises the Indemnified Parties that there are or may be (whether or not any have yet actually arisen) issues which raise conflicts of interest between BHLB and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to them, and BHLB shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties, (2) except to the extent otherwise required due to conflicts of interest, BHLB shall be obligated pursuant to this paragraph to pay for only one (1) firm of counsel for all Indemnified Parties unless there is a conflict of interest that necessitates more than one law firm, and (3) BHLB shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

7.6.3 In the event that either BHLB or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving company or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of BHLB shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.6.

7.6.4 The obligations of BHLB provided under this Section 7.6 are intended to be enforceable against BHLB directly by the Indemnified Parties and shall be binding on all respective successors and permitted assigns of BHLB.

7.7 Stock Listing.

BHLB agrees to file a notification form for the listing on the NYSE (or such other national securities exchange on which the shares of BHLB Common Stock shall be listed as of the Closing Date) of the shares of BHLB Common Stock to be issued in the Merger.

A-52

7.8 Reservation of Stock.

BHLB agrees at all times from the date of this Agreement until the Merger Consideration has been paid in full to reserve a sufficient number of shares of BHLB Common Stock to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.

7.9 Communications to FCB Employees; Training

BHLB and FCB agree that as promptly as practicable following the execution of this Agreement, meetings with employees of FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries shall be held at such locations as BHLB and FCB shall mutually agree, provided that representatives of FCB shall be permitted to attend such meetings. BHLB and FCB shall mutually agree in advance as to the scope and content of all communications to the employees of FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries. At mutually agreed upon times following execution of this Agreement, representatives of BHLB shall be permitted to meet with the employees of FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries to discuss employment opportunities with BHLB, provided that representatives of FCB shall be permitted to attend any such meeting. From and after the first date on which all Regulatory Approvals (and waivers, if applicable) and the FCB Shareholder Approval necessary for the consummation of the Merger (disregarding any waiting period) have been obtained, BHLB shall also be permitted to conduct training sessions outside of normal business hours or at other times as FCB may agree, with the employees of FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries and may conduct such training seminars at any branch location of FCB or loan production office of FCLS; provided that BHLB will in good faith attempt to schedule such training sessions in a manner which does not unreasonably interfere with FCB's or FCLS's normal business operations.

7.10 Current Information.

During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, BHLB will cause one or more of its representatives to confer with representatives of FCB to inform FCB regarding BHLB's operations at such times as FCB may reasonably request. BHLB will promptly notify FCB of any change in the ordinary course of its business or in the operation of its properties and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, of any governmental complaints, investigations or hearings (or communications indicating that the same may be contemplated), or the institution or the threat of material litigation involving BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary.

7.11 Access to Properties and Records.

Subject to Section 11.1, BHLB shall permit FCB access upon reasonable notice and at reasonable times to its properties and those of the BHLB Subsidiaries, and shall disclose and make available to FCB during normal business hours all of its books and records relating to the assets, properties, operations, obligations and liabilities, including, but not limited to, all books of account (including the general ledger), tax records, minute books of directors' and shareholders' meetings (other than minutes that discuss any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other subject matter that BHLB reasonably determines should be kept confidential), organizational documents, bylaws, material contracts and agreements, filings with any regulatory authority, litigation files, plans affecting employees, and any other business activities or prospects in which FCB may have a reasonable interest; provided, however, that BHLB shall not be required to take any action that would provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure, in BHLB's reasonable judgment, would interfere with the normal conduct of BHLB's business or would violate or prejudice the rights or business interests or confidences of any customer or other Person or entity or would result in the waiver by it of the privilege protecting communications between it and any of its counsel or contravene any applicable law. BHLB shall provide and shall request its auditors to provide FCB with such historical financial information regarding it (and related audit reports and consents) as FCB may reasonably request for Securities Law disclosure purposes. FCB shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with BHLB's regular business operations during any such access to BHLB's property, books and records. BHLB and each BHLB Subsidiary shall permit FCB, at FCB's expense, to (i) cause a Phase I environmental assessment to be performed at any physical location owned or occupied by BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary and (ii) cause an appraisal to be performed in respect of any real property owned by BHLB or any BHLB Subsidiary.

7.12 Financial and Other Statements.

7.12.1 Promptly upon receipt thereof, BHLB will furnish to FCB copies of each annual, interim or special audit of the books of BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries made by its independent registered public accountants and copies of all internal control reports submitted to BHLB by such accountants, or by any other accounting firm rendering internal audit services, in connection with each annual, interim or special audit of the books of BHLB and the BHLB Subsidiaries made by such accountants.

7.12.2 As soon as reasonably available, but in no event later than the date such documents are filed with the MDOB, FRB or FDIC, BHLB will deliver to FCB the BHLB Regulatory Report filed by BHLB or the Bank. Within twenty-five (25) days after the end of each month, the Bank will deliver to FCB a consolidating balance sheet and a consolidating statement of operations, without related notes, for such month prepared in accordance with current financial reporting practices, as well as a month-end and year to date comparison to budget.

7.12.3 BHLB promptly will advise upon receipt and permit review by FCB of any inquiry or examination report of any Bank Regulator with respect to the condition or activities of BHLB or the Bank.

ARTICLE VIII
REGULATORY AND OTHER MATTERS

8.1 Meeting of Shareholders.

FCB will (i) take all steps necessary to duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a special meeting of its shareholders as promptly as practicable after the Merger Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC, for the purpose of considering this Agreement and the Merger (the “FCB Shareholders Meeting”), except as otherwise provided in this Section, (ii) in connection with the solicitation of proxies with respect to the FCB Shareholders Meeting, have its Board of Directors recommend approval of this Agreement to the FCB shareholders; and (iii) cooperate and consult with BHLB with respect to each of the foregoing matters. The Board of Directors of FCB may fail to make such a recommendation referred to in clause (ii) above, or withdraw, modify or change any such recommendation only if such Board of Directors, after having consulted with and considered the advice of its financial and legal advisors, has determined that the making of such recommendation, or the failure to withdraw, modify or change its recommendation, would constitute a breach of the fiduciary duties of such directors under applicable law.

8.2 Proxy Statement-Prospectus; Merger Registration Statement.

8.2.1 For the purposes (i) of registering BHLB Common Stock to be offered to holders of FCB Common Stock in connection with the Merger with the SEC under the Securities Act, and (ii) of holding the FCB Shareholders Meeting, BHLB shall draft and prepare, and FCB shall cooperate in the preparation of, the Merger Registration Statement, including a proxy statement and prospectus satisfying all applicable requirements of applicable state securities and banking laws, and of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder (such proxy statement/prospectus in the form mailed by FCB to the FCB shareholders, together with any and all amendments or supplements thereto, being herein referred to as the “Proxy Statement-Prospectus”). BHLB shall provide FCB and its counsel with appropriate opportunity to review and comment on the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, and shall incorporate all appropriate comments thereto, prior to the time it is initially filed with the SEC or any amendments are filed with the SEC. BHLB shall file the Merger Registration Statement, including the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, with the SEC. Each of BHLB and FCB shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the Merger Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, and FCB shall thereafter promptly mail the Proxy Statement-Prospectus to its shareholders. BHLB shall also use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or “blue sky” permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and FCB shall furnish all information concerning FCB and the holders of FCB Common Stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

8.2.2 BHLB shall, as soon as practicable but in no event later than September 30, 2016, file the Merger Registration Statement with the SEC under the Securities Act in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. BHLB will advise FCB promptly after BHLB receives notice of the time when the Merger Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, of the issuance of any stop order or the suspension of the registration of the shares of BHLB Common Stock issuable pursuant to the Merger Registration Statement, or the initiation or threat of any proceeding for any such purpose, or of any request by the SEC for the amendment or supplement of the Merger Registration Statement, or for additional information, and BHLB will provide FCB with as many copies of such Merger Registration Statement and all amendments thereto promptly upon the filing thereof as FCB may reasonably request.

8.2.3 FCB and BHLB shall promptly notify the other party if at any time it becomes aware that the Proxy Statement-Prospectus or the Merger Registration Statement contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements contained therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. In such event, FCB shall cooperate with BHLB in the preparation of a supplement or amendment to such Proxy Statement-Prospectus that corrects such misstatement or omission, and BHLB shall file an amended Merger Registration Statement with the SEC, and FCB shall mail an amended Proxy Statement-Prospectus to its shareholders.

8.3 Regulatory Approvals.

Each of FCB and BHLB, and their respective Subsidiaries, will cooperate with the other and use reasonable efforts to promptly prepare and as soon as practicable following the date hereof but in no event later than August 31, 2016, file all necessary documentation to obtain all necessary permits, consents, waivers, approvals and authorizations of the MDOB, the NJDOBI, the FDIC, the FRB, the SBA, the Department of Justice, the Federal Trade Commission and any other third parties and Governmental Entities or Bank Regulators necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall BHLB or the Bank be required to agree to any prohibition, limitation, or other requirement of any Bank Regulator that would, in BHLB's or the Bank's sole discretion (a) prohibit or materially limit the ownership or operation by BHLB or the Bank of all or any material portion of the business or assets of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary, (b) compel BHLB or the Bank to dispose of or hold separate all or any material portion of the business or assets of FCB or any FCB Subsidiary, (c) impose a material compliance burden, penalty or obligation on BHLB or the Bank resulting from noncompliance by FCB with its regulatory obligations, including but not limited to its regulatory obligations as an SBA lender; or (d) otherwise materially impair the value of FCB and the FCB Subsidiaries (any such requirement alone, or more than one such requirement together, a "Burdensome Condition"). FCB and BHLB will furnish each other and each other's counsel with all information concerning themselves, their Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be necessary or advisable in connection with any application, petition or other statement made by or on behalf of FCB or BHLB to any Bank Regulator or Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. FCB shall have the right to review and approve in advance all characterizations of the information relating to FCB and any FCB Subsidiary which appear in any filing made in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement with any Governmental Entity. In addition, FCB and BHLB shall each furnish to the other for review a copy of each such filing made in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement with any Governmental Entity prior to its filing. Each of FCB and BHLB will cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to address any conditions in any regulatory approval to allow for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX CLOSING CONDITIONS

9.1 Conditions to Each Party's Obligations under this Agreement.

The respective obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be subject to the fulfillment at or prior to the Closing Date of the following conditions, none of which may be waived:

9.1.1 Shareholder Approval. This Agreement and each transaction contemplated hereby requiring stockholder approval shall have been approved and adopted by the requisite votes of the shareholders of FCB.

9.1.2 Injunctions. None of the parties hereto shall be subject to any order, decree or injunction of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction, and no statute, rule or regulation shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated, interpreted, applied or enforced by any Governmental Entity or Bank Regulator, that enjoins or prohibits the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

9.1.3 Regulatory Approvals. All Regulatory Approvals required to complete the Merger shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and all waiting periods relating thereto shall have expired.

9.1.4 Effectiveness of Merger Registration Statement. The Merger Registration Statement shall have become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Merger Registration Statement shall have been issued, and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated or threatened by the SEC and, if the offer and sale of BHLB Common Stock in the Merger is subject to the state securities or “blue sky” laws of any state, shall not be subject to a stop order of any state securities commissioner.

9.1.5 NYSE Listing. BHLB shall have filed a notification form for the listing of the BHLB Common Stock to be issued in the Merger.

9.2 Conditions to the Obligations of BHLB and the Bank under this Agreement.

The obligations of BHLB and the Bank under this Agreement shall be further subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 9.2.1 through 9.2.6 at or prior to the Closing Date:

9.2.1 Representations and Warranties. Each of the representations and warranties of FCB set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct as of the date of this Agreement and upon the Effective Time with the same effect as though all such representations and warranties had been made at the Effective Time (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, which only need be true and correct as of such earlier date), in any case subject to the standard set forth in Section 4.1; and FCB shall have delivered to BHLB a certificate to such effect signed by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of FCB as of the Effective Time.

9.2.2 Agreements and Covenants. FCB and each FCB Subsidiary shall have performed in all material respects all obligations and complied in all material respects with all agreements or covenants to be performed or complied with by each of them at or prior to the Effective Time, and BHLB shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of FCB by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of FCB to such effect dated as of the Effective Time.

9.2.3 Permits, Authorizations, Etc. The parties shall have obtained any and all permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals required for the lawful consummation of the Merger and the acquisition of FCLS as a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Bank, the failure of which to obtain would have a Material Adverse Effect on either FCB or BHLB and the Bank.

9.2.5 Regulatory Conditions. No Regulatory Approval required for consummation of the Merger and the acquisition of FCLS as a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Bank shall include any condition or requirement that would result in a Material Adverse Effect or Burdensome Condition on BHLB or FCB, and their respective Subsidiaries.

The obligations of FCB under this Agreement shall be further subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 9.3.1 through 9.3.5 at or prior to the Closing Date:

9.3.1 Representations and Warranties. Each of the representations and warranties of BHLB set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct as of the date of this Agreement and upon the Effective Time with the same effect as though all such representations and warranties had been made at the Effective Time (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, which only need be true and correct as of such earlier date), in any case subject to the standard set forth in Section 5.1; and BHLB shall have delivered to FCB a certificate to such effect signed by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of BHLB as of the Effective Time.

9.3.2 Agreements and Covenants. BHLB and the Bank shall have performed in all material respects all obligations and complied in all material respects with all agreements or covenants to be performed or complied with by each of

ARTICLE X
TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

10.1 Termination.

This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing Date, whether before or after approval of the Merger by the shareholders of FCB (except as otherwise indicated below):

10.1.1 At any time by the mutual written agreement of BHLB, the Bank and FCB;

10.1.2 By either party (provided, that the terminating party is not then in breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a breach of any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party, which breach by its nature cannot be cured prior to the Closing Date or shall not have been cured within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach by the terminating party to the other party, conditioned upon the defaulting party promptly commencing to cure the default and thereafter continuing to cure the default; provided, however, that neither party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.1.2 unless the breach of representation or warranty, together with all other such breaches, would entitle the terminating party not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Section 9.2.1 (in the case of a breach of a representation or warranty by FCB) or Section 9.3.1 (in the case of a breach of a representation or warranty by BHLB or the Bank);

10.1.3 By either party (provided, that the terminating party is not then in breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a failure to perform or comply with any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party or its Subsidiaries, which failure by its nature cannot be cured prior to the Closing Date or shall not have been cured within thirty (30) days after written notice of such failure by the terminating party to the other party, conditioned upon the defaulting party promptly commencing to cure the default and thereafter continuing to cure; provided, however, that neither party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.1.3 unless the breach of covenant or agreement, together with all other such breaches, would entitle the terminating party not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Section 9.2.2 (in the case of a breach of covenant by FCB) or Section 9.3.2 (in the case of a breach of covenant by BHLB or the Bank);

10.1.4 At the election of either party, if the Closing shall not have occurred by the Termination Date, or such later date as shall have been agreed to in writing by BHLB and FCB; provided, that no party may terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.1.4 if the failure of the Closing to have occurred on or before said date was due to such party's material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in this Agreement;

10.1.5 By either party, if the shareholders of FCB shall have voted at the FCB Shareholders Meeting on the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and such vote shall not have been sufficient to approve and adopt such transactions.

10.1.6 By either party if (i) final action has been taken by a Bank Regulator whose approval is required in order to satisfy the conditions to the parties' obligations to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby as set forth in Article IX, which final action (x) has become unappealable and (y) does not approve this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) any court of competent jurisdiction or other Governmental Entity shall have issued an order, decree, ruling or taken any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and unappealable;

10.1.7 By the Board of Directors of BHLB if each of the following conditions are satisfied: (i) FCB has received a Superior Proposal and the Board of Directors of FCB has entered into an acquisition agreement with respect to the Superior Proposal, withdrawn its recommendation of this Agreement, has failed to make such recommendation, or has modified or qualified its recommendation in a manner adverse to BHLB, (ii) either (x) the Board of Directors of FCB submits this Agreement to its stockholders without a recommendation for approval or (y) the Board of Directors of FCB withdraws, qualifies or adversely modifies (or publicly proposes or resolves to withdraw, qualify or adversely modify) its recommendation of this Agreement to the FCB stockholders, and (iii) the FCB stockholders do not approve this Agreement.

10.1.8 By the Board of Directors of FCB if FCB has received a Superior Proposal and the Board of Directors of FCB has made a determination to accept such Superior Proposal; provided that FCB shall not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.1.8 and enter into a definitive agreement with respect to the Superior Proposal until the expiration of three (3) Business Days following BHLB's receipt of written notice advising BHLB that FCB has received a Superior Proposal, specifying the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal (and including a copy thereof with all accompanying documentation, if in writing) identifying the Person making the Superior Proposal and stating whether FCB intends to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to the Superior Proposal (a "Notice of Superior Proposal"). After providing such Notice of Superior Proposal, FCB shall provide a reasonable opportunity to BHLB during the three (3)-day period to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable FCB to proceed with the Merger on such adjusted terms. Any material amendment of such Superior Proposal shall require a new Notice of Superior Proposal and FCB shall be required to comply again with the requirements of this Section 10.1.8; provided, however, that references to the three (3) Business Day period above shall be deemed to be references to a two (2) Business Day period.

10.1.9 By the Board of Directors of FCB if it so determines by a majority vote of the members of the entire Board of Directors of FCB, at any time during the five-day period commencing on the Determination Date, such termination to be effective on the 30th day following such Determination Date, if and only if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

- (1) The BHLB Market Value on the Determination Date is less than $21.52; and
- (2) the number obtained by dividing the BHLB Market Value on the Determination Date by the Initial BHLB Market Value shall be less than the number obtained by dividing (x) the Final Index Price by (y) the Initial Index Price minus 0.20;

subject, however, to the following three sentences.

If FCB elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 10.1.9, it shall give prompt written notice thereof to BHLB. During the five Business Day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, BHLB shall have the option of paying additional Merger Consideration by increasing the Exchange Ratio to equal the number obtained by dividing (1) $15.54 by the greater of (i) the product of 0.80 and the Initial BHLB Market Value or (ii) the product obtained by multiplying the Index Ratio by the Initial BHLB Market Value. If within such five Business Day period, BHLB delivers written notice to FCB that it intends to proceed with the Merger by paying such additional consideration as contemplated by the preceding sentence, then no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 10.1.9, and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified and, thereafter, any reference in this Agreement to “Merger Consideration” shall be deemed to refer to the Merger Consideration reflecting the Exchange Ratio as modified pursuant to this Section 10.1.9).

For purposes of this Section 10.1.9, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated below:

“Acquisition Transaction” means (i) a merger or consolidation, or any similar transaction, involving the relevant companies, (ii) a purchase, lease or other acquisition of all or substantially all of the assets of the relevant companies, (iii) a purchase or other acquisition (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange or otherwise) of securities representing 10% or more of the voting power of the relevant companies; or (iv) agree or commit to take any action referenced above.

“BHLB Market Value” means, as of any specified date, the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of BHLB Common Stock as reported on the NYSE for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding such specified date.

“Determination Date” means the first date on which all Regulatory Approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the Merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period).

“Index” means the KBW Regional Bank Index.

“Index Ratio” means the Final Index Price divided by the Initial Index Price.

“Initial BHLB Market Value” means $26.91.

“Initial Index Price” means the average of the daily closing prices of the Index for the 10 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of the Agreement.

“Final Index Price” means the sum average of the daily closing prices of the Index for the 10 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date.

If any company belonging to the Index declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction between the date of this Agreement and the Determination Date, the prices for the common stock of such company shall be appropriately adjusted for the purposes of applying this Section 10.1.9. If a company belonging to the Index announces a sale between the date of this Agreement and the Determination Date, such company shall be removed from the Index and the relative weighting of the companies remaining in the Index shall be appropriately adjusted.

10.2 Effect of Termination.

10.2.1 In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to any provision of Section 10.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no further force, except that (i) the provisions of Sections 10.2, 11.1, 11.2, 11.3, 11.4, 11.5, 11.6, 11.8, 11.9, 11.10, 11.11, and any other section which, by its terms, relates to post-termination rights or obligations, shall survive such termination of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect.

10.2.2 If this Agreement is terminated, expenses and damages of the parties hereto shall be determined as follows:

(A) Except as provided below, whether or not the Merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses.

(B) In the event of a termination of this Agreement because of a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement, the breaching party shall remain liable for any and all damages, costs and expenses, including all reasonable attorneys' fees, sustained or incurred by the non-breaching party as a result thereof or in connection therewith or with respect to the enforcement of its rights hereunder.

(C) As used in this Agreement, "Termination Fee" shall mean $4.1 million. As a condition of BHLB's willingness, and in order to induce BHLB to enter into this Agreement, and to reimburse BHLB for incurring the costs and expenses related to entering into this Agreement and consummating the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, FCB hereby agrees to pay BHLB, and BHLB shall be entitled to payment of, the Termination Fee by wire transfer of same day funds on the earlier of (x) the date of termination or, if such date is not a Business Day, on the next following Business Day or (y) within three (3) Business Days after written demand for payment is made by BHLB, as applicable, following the occurrence of any of the events set forth below:

(i) FCB terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1.8 or BHLB and the Bank terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1.7; or

(ii) The entering into a definitive agreement by FCB relating to an Acquisition Proposal or the consummation of an Acquisition Proposal involving FCB within one (1) year after the occurrence of any of the following: (i) the termination of this Agreement by BHLB and the Bank pursuant to Section 10.1.2 or

10.1.3 because of a breach by FCB or any FCB Subsidiary after the occurrence of a bona fide Acquisition Proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise made known to the senior management or board of directors of FCB; or (ii) the termination of this Agreement by BHLB and the Bank or FCB pursuant to Section 10.1.5 because of the failure of the shareholders of FCB to approve this Agreement at the FCB Shareholders Meeting after the occurrence of an Acquisition Proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise made known to the shareholders of FCB.

(D) The parties acknowledge that the agreements contained in this Section 10.2.2 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, BHLB and the Bank would not enter into this Agreement. The amount payable by FCB pursuant to this Section 10.2.2 constitutes liquidated damages and not a penalty and shall be the sole and exclusive monetary remedy of such party in the event of termination of this Agreement on the bases specified in such section.

10.3 Amendment, Extension and Waiver.

Subject to applicable law, at any time prior to the Effective Time (whether before or after approval thereof by the shareholders of FCB), the parties hereto by action of their respective Boards of Directors, may (a) amend this Agreement, (b) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of any other party hereto, (c) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto, or (d) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein; provided, however, that after any approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby by the shareholders of FCB, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment of this Agreement which decreases the amount or value, or changes the form of, the Merger Consideration to be delivered to FCB's shareholders pursuant to this Agreement. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party, but such waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with such obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure. Any termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Article X may only be effected upon a vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors of the terminating party.

We further have assumed, with your consent, that the Merger will qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

We express no view or opinion as to any terms or other aspects (other than the Exchange Ratio to the extent expressly specified herein) of the Merger or any related transaction, including the treatment of First Choice preferred stock or the fairness to, or any other consideration of, the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of First Choice (other than holders of First Choice Common Stock to the extent expressly specified herein) or any other party to the Merger. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other transaction or business strategy in which First Choice might engage or the merits of the underlying decision by First Choice to engage in the Merger. Ambassador expresses no opinion with respect to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any of the officers, directors, or employees of any party to the Merger, or any class of such persons, relative to the Exchange Ratio or otherwise.

Ambassador's fairness committee has approved the issuance of this fairness opinion letter.

First Choice has engaged the services of Ambassador solely to render a fairness opinion and has agreed to pay Ambassador a fee for such services, the majority of which is payable upon presentation of our opinion. In addition, a portion of Ambassador's fee became payable upon the signing of our engagement agreement, a portion is payable for an updated fairness opinion, if requested by First Choice and rendered by Ambassador, and a portion is payable upon close of the Merger.

We are an approved broker-dealer for First Choice and periodically purchase and sell securities to First Choice.

Over the past two years, we have not provided investment banking or other consulting services to Berkshire Hills for which we have received compensation from Berkshire Hills. In the future, Ambassador may pursue the opportunities to provide investment banking and other consulting services to First Choice and Berkshire Hills, but none have been discussed or contemplated.

Our engagement and the opinion expressed herein are for the benefit of the Board of Directors of First Choice (in its capacity as such) and our opinion is rendered to the Board of Directors of First Choice in connection with its evaluation of the Merger. Our opinion is not intended to and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act with respect to the Merger or any matter relating thereto.

Based on the foregoing, our experience, and other factors we deemed relevant, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, that the Exchange Ratio provided for in the Merger is fair to the holders of First Choice Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Ambassador Financial Group, Inc.

ANNEX C

STATUTORY PROVISIONS RELATING TO DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

New Jersey Statutes Annotated ("NJSA") 17:9A-140

A. A shareholder who

(1) is entitled to vote at the meeting of shareholders prescribed by section 137; and who

(2) serves a written notice of dissent from the Merger Agreement, in the manner, at the place, and within the time prescribed in subsections B and C of this section; and who

(3) does not vote to approve the Merger Agreement at the meeting prescribed by section 137, or at any adjournment thereof, may, within thirty days after the filing of the agreement in the department as provided by section 137, serve a demand upon the receiving bank at its principal office, for the payment to him of the value of his shares of stock. The receiving bank may, within ten days after the receipt of such demand, offer to pay the shareholder a sum for his shares, which, in the opinion of the board of directors of the receiving bank, does not exceed the amount which would be paid upon such shares if the business and assets of the bank whose stock such shareholder holds were liquidated on the day of the filing of the agreement pursuant to section 137.

B. Service of the notice of dissent prescribed by paragraph (2) of subsection A of this section shall be made at the principal office of the bank whose stock is held by the dissenting shareholder, and shall be made not later than the third day prior to the day fixed for the meeting of the shareholders of such bank pursuant to section 137.

C. Service of the notice of dissent and of the demand for payment prescribed by this section may be made by registered mail or personally by the dissenting shareholder or his agent.

NJSA 17:9A-141

If a shareholder fails to accept the sum offered for his shares pursuant to section one hundred forty, he may, within three weeks after the receipt by him of the bank's offer of payment, or, if no offer is made by the bank, within three weeks after the date upon which his demand was served upon the bank as specified in section one hundred forty, institute an action in the Superior Court for the appointment of a board of three appraisers to determine the value of his shares of stock as of the day of the filing of the Merger Agreement pursuant to section one hundred thirty-seven. The court may proceed in the action in a summary manner or otherwise. Any other shareholder who has the right to institute a similar action may intervene. The court shall, in respect to any one bank, appoint a single board of three appraisers to determine the value of the shares of all shareholders of such bank who are parties to such action.

NJSA 17:9A-142

A. The appraisers shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of their duties. They shall meet at such place or places, and shall give such notice of their meetings as the court may prescribe. The bank and each shareholder who is a party to the action instituted pursuant to section one hundred forty-one, may be represented by attorneys in the proceedings before such appraisers, and may present such evidence to them as shall be material to the issue. The determination of any two of the appraisers shall control. Upon the conclusion of their deliberations, the appraisers shall file in the Superior Court a report and appraisal of the value of the shares of stock, and shall mail a copy thereof to the bank and to each shareholder who is a party to said action.

B. The bank and each shareholder who is a party to said action shall have ten days after the filing of the report and appraisal within which to object thereto in the Superior Court. In the absence of any objections, the report and appraisal shall be binding upon the bank and upon such shareholders, and the bank shall pay each such shareholder the value of his shares, as reported by the appraisers, with interest from the date of the filing of the Merger Agreement pursuant to section one hundred thirty-seven, at such rate, not in excess of the legal rate, as shall be fixed by the appraisers. If objections are made, the court shall make such order or judgment thereon as shall be just.

C. The Superior Court shall fix the compensation of the appraisers, which shall be paid by the bank, and shall be vested with full jurisdiction over all matters arising out of an action instituted pursuant to section one hundred forty-

one. In the case of a vacancy in the board of appraisers, the Superior Court shall, on its own motion, or upon motion of a shareholder, or of the receiving bank, fill such vacancy.

NJSA 17:9A-143

Upon payment by the bank of the value of shares of stock pursuant to this article, the holder thereof shall assign such shares to the bank.

NJSA 17:9A-144

A shareholder who fails to act pursuant to sections 140 or 141 shall be forever barred from bringing any action to enforce his right to be paid the value of his shares in lieu of continuing his status as a shareholder in the receiving bank.

NJSA 17:9A-145

An offer by the bank and an acceptance thereof by the shareholder pursuant to section 140 and the determination of value upon proceedings brought pursuant to sections 141 and 142 shall constitute a debt of the receiving bank for the recovery of which an action will lie.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. is a Delaware corporation subject to the applicable indemnification provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the “Delaware Corporation Law”). Section 145 of the Delaware Corporation Law provides for the indemnification, under certain circumstances, of persons who are or were directors, officers, employees or agents of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc., or are or were serving at the request of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. in such a capacity with another business organization or entity, against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, brought or threatened against or involving such persons because of such person’s service in any such capacity. In the case of actions brought by or in the right of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc., Section 145 provides for indemnification only of expenses, and only upon a determination by the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses.

The Tenth and Eleventh articles of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc.’s certificate of incorporation provide as follows:

TENTH:

A. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Director or an Officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director, Officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an “indemnitee”), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a Director, Officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a Director, Officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith; provided, however, that, except as provided in Section C hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

B. The right to indemnification conferred in Section A of this Article TENTH shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Delaware General Corporation Law requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee in his or her capacity as a Director or Officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such indemnitee, including, without limitation, services to an employee benefit plan) shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section or otherwise. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in Sections A and B of this Article TENTH shall be contract rights and such rights shall continue as to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a Director, Officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee’s heirs, executors and administrators.

C. If a claim under Section A or B of this Article TENTH is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, or in a suit brought by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expenses of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met any applicable standard for indemnification set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this Article TENTH or otherwise shall be on the Corporation.

D. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article TENTH shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws, agreement, vote of shareholders or Disinterested Directors or otherwise.

E. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any Director, Officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or subsidiary or Affiliate or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

F. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article TENTH with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of Directors and Officers of the Corporation.

ELEVENTH: A Director of this Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director, except for liability: (i) for any breach of the Director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its shareholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law; or (iv) for any transaction from which the Director derived an improper personal benefit. If the Delaware General Corporation Law is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of Directors, then the liability of a Director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the shareholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a Director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

The foregoing indemnity and insurance provisions have the effect of reducing directors' and officers' exposure to personal liability for actions taken in connection with their respective positions.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Berkshire pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, Berkshire has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by Berkshire of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of Berkshire in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, Berkshire will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Item 22. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement: (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement (notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement); and (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(5) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the registrant undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (5) above, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment has become effective, and that for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(7) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(8) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of, and included in, this registration statement when it became effective.

(9) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit, or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
