Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

On April 25, 2016, each of the Reporting Persons, other than Messrs. Baksa and Giles, entered into a Voting Agreement (the “Voting Agreement”), pursuant to which each of the Reporting Persons, other than Messrs. Baksa and Giles, appointed LF-RB Management, LLC as proxy and attorney-in-fact for such Reporting Person, to vote any and all of its shares of Common Stock with regard to any question, action, resolution, election or other matter presented to the shareholders of the Issuer (or its successor, if any) for vote or approval, whether at a meeting or pursuant to written consent or otherwise. In addition, each of Messrs. Baksa and Giles has informally agreed to consult with the LF-RB Management, LLC with respect to actions taken by him with respect to the shares of the Issuer’s Common Stock that are from time-to-time owned by him. Accordingly, Mr. Baksa, who filed a Schedule 13G on February 6, 2015 with respect to the shares of Common Stock owned by him, may be deemed to no longer be holding his shares of Common Stock for investment purposes, but rather, to be holding such shares of Common Stock with the purpose or effecting of changing or influencing control of the Issuer. For the foregoing reasons, LF-RB Management, LLC may be deemed by Rule 13d-5 of the Exchange Act to have shared voting power with respect to, and beneficial ownership of, the shares of Common Stock of the Issuer held by the parties to the Voting Agreement and Messrs. Baksa and Giles. Except as described herein, there are no contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) between the Reporting Persons and any other person with respect to any securities of the Issuer. Each of the Reporting Persons may be deemed to be members of a “group,” within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with the other Reporting Persons as a result of having entered into the Voting Agreement and the other understandings described in this Item 4. Except as provided under the Voting Agreement, there is no formal written agreement between or among any of the Reporting Persons as it relates to the Issuer’s securities, including any agreement with respect to the holding or disposing of such securities, or as to the manner in which the LF-RB Management, LLC, as proxy and attorney-in-fact, shall vote the shares of Common Stock.

The Reporting Persons purchased the shares of Common Stock based on the Reporting Persons’ belief that the shares of Common Stock, when purchased, were undervalued and represented an attractive investment opportunity. Depending upon overall market conditions, other investment opportunities available to the Reporting Persons, and the availability of shares of Common Stock at prices that would make the purchase of additional shares of Common Stock desirable, the Reporting Persons may increase their ownership of shares of Common Stock of the Issuer through, among other things, the purchase of shares of Common Stock on the open market, in private transactions or otherwise, on such terms and at such times as the Reporting Persons may deem advisable.

The Reporting Persons intend to review their investment in the Issuer on a continuing basis and to seek to engage in discussions with management and the Board of Directors of the Issuer concerning the business, operations and future plans of the Issuer. Depending on various factors including, without limitation, the Issuer's financial position and business strategy, the price of the shares of Common Stock, conditions in the securities markets and general economic and industry conditions, the each of the Reporting Persons may in the future take such actions with respect to its investment in the Issuer as it deems appropriate including, without limitation, seeking Board representation, making proposals to the Issuer concerning changes to the capitalization, ownership structure or operations of the Issuer, purchasing additional shares of Common Stock, selling some or all of its shares of Common Stock, engaging in any hedging or similar transaction with respect to the shares of Common Stock or changing its intention with respect to any and all matters referred to in this Item 4.

The Reporting Persons may seek to have discussions with the Issuer's management, board of directors, lenders or other parties regarding the transactions enumerated above. The Reporting Persons may determine to further coordinate their activities with respect to their investment in the Issuer in the future.

Depending on market conditions, its continuing evaluation of the business and prospects of the Issuer and other factors, the Reporting Persons may dispose of or acquire additional shares of the Issuer. Except as set forth above, none of the Reporting Persons has any present plans which relate to or would result in:

- (a) The acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Issuer, or the disposition of securities of the Issuer;
- (b) An extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries;
- (c) A sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries;
- (d) Any change in the present board of directors or management of the Issuer, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board;
- (e) Any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Issuer;
- (f) Any other material change in the Issuer's business or corporate structure;
- (g) Changes in the Issuer's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Issuer by any person;
- (h) Causing a class of securities of the Issuer to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association;

(i) A class of equity securities of the Issuer becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; or (j) Any action similar to any of those enumerated above.

Robert C. Schweitzer, Chairman

RiceBran Technologies, Inc.

6720 North Scottsdale Road, Suite 390

Scottsdale, AZ 85253

Dear Mr. Schweitzer:

We own or represent 9.07% of the issued and outstanding shares of RiceBran Technologies, Inc. (the “Company” or “RiceBran”). We are gravely disturbed with the Company’s directionless status and the inability of current management and the Board to effectively manage the Company and create shareholder value. We believe that immediate changes are required in order to change the direction of the Company and salvage the lost value which many of the shareholders have suffered. Some of these failures by the Company include the following:

Inability to Grow Business in a High Growth Category

We view the Company’s primary business opportunities to be in the functional food, beverage and nutraceutical sectors. Despite creating a unique and valuable protein/fiber food ingredient product set, the Company’s products have not effectively penetrated the market or gained significant product adoption or achieved expectation in a growing market. The few supply agreements and joint ventures that the Company has announced have been complete disappointments. The following are examples:

- Inability to deliver a highly sought after product to end user, due to lack of distribution with key strategic customers.

· Making acquisitions which have yielded negligible sales growth such as that of H&N Distribution. Management significantly missed its FY15 guidance for total revenue of $67 million and positive EBITDA margins of 10%-12%. Rather they generated a mere $40 million in revenue and negative EBITDA of ($1,175,000).¹ Annual revenues for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 have stagnated at around the $40 million level.²

Lack of Leadership and Focus

The management and Board have consistently demonstrated their lack of a “firm grip” on the business. Since 2012, the Company has raised over $30 million in capital to fund its operations which to date has only translated into a significant decline in equity value, and approximately 90% dilution to shareholders. They have repeatedly missed their stated business goals and projections, and withdrew guidance for 2015. Furthermore, management has not issued any guidance for 2016 nearly 4 months into the year, leading the market to believe that the company has no better grip on its business than at any other point over the past several years. The following are examples:

¹ Transcript from the Q3-2014 earnings call held on November 14, 2014.

² Information from the Company’s 10K Reports filed on March 30, 2016, March 31, 2015 and April 1, 2014.

Focusing time on the Brazilian business, which we believe is significant distraction to management and requires further assessment. It has been plagued by shutdowns, shortages of raw materials, labor issues.

- Seeking and signing joint ventures that amount to minimal financial benefit to the Company.

- Focusing on the low margin animal feed business.

- Focusing on Asian and European markets, while North America continues to be underdeveloped.

Substantial Operating Losses and Cash Burn Leading to Dilution of Shares

Serial quarterly losses and annual capital raises continue to deflate shareholders' value. Management and board continue to burn through cash each quarter at the expense of the shareholders. The following are examples:

- The Company's total accumulated losses for the past 3 years exceeds $52 million³

Management does not appear to have a handle on cash management. For example, during the Q3-2015 earnings call held on November 12, 2015 when management was asked if they anticipated the need to raise additional capital given the current and projected cash balances, the Company's CEO stated, "As we sit here today, No."

However, less than 90 days later the Company completed a $3 million capital offering of its Series F Convertible Preferred Shares, convertible into an aggregate of 2,000,000 shares of its common stock. The conversion price was at a discount to the prevailing market price and represented almost 20% of further dilution to shareholders.

Pursuing a misguided capital allocation strategy whereby the Company has spent over $30 million of capital in the past few years and yet again had to return to the equity markets two months ago to "keep on the lights."

Investing tens of millions of dollars in working capital into a Brazilian operation which is 5,000 miles away from its Arizona headquarters.

Compensation Does Not Reflect Excessive Shareholder Losses

With all the failures noted above, the total compensation to management and the board has increased significantly during this same period of substantial decline, and is dramatically out of proportion to the Company's size by any measure. Such increase is entirely inconsistent with the Company's glaring lack of success and abysmal performance. While the Company employed the services of Mercer to analyze compensation, RIBT shareholders would be interested in seeing the comparative market data for other money losing $40 million revenue companies providing such bloated compensation packages.

The following are examples:

Edgar Filing: RiceBran Technologies - Form SC 13D

Despite record losses of almost $23,000,000 in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, senior management compensation increased to $2,878,456 from $1,448,287 or approximately 100% compared to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013.

³ Information from the Company's 10K Reports filed on March 30, 2016, March 31, 2015 and April 1, 2014.

⁴ Transcript from the Q3-2015 earnings call held on November 12, 2015.

Total board compensation increased by approximately 38% to $901,783 in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 compared to $650,714 in fiscal year ended December 31, 2013.⁵

As frustrated shareholders we propose the following action steps in order to create shareholder value and allow RiceBran to reach its full potential:

Changes in management and the Board with experienced food industry candidates which we have identified. That management and the Company's financial resources be focused in the United States to maximize the potential of our strong domestic market. That our candidates are prepared to implement a plan to effectively utilize the Company's limited resources to penetrate the food, beverage and nutraceuticals markets and drive product adoption and sales. New leadership is prepared to work for substantially less compensation than the current management and board.

We are prepared to provide additional capital resources, as required, to implement the plan.

We look forward to meeting with you and the Board immediately to discuss our operating and strategic plan and proposed changes to preserve and create value for shareholders, with the goal of transforming RiceBran into a leading global food ingredient company. Please feel free to contact us by May 4, 2016. We can be reached at (212) 247-0581 or by email at: ricebraninvestors@gmail.com.

Very truly yours,
