Item 1.01

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 2, 2013, CTS Corporation (“CTS”) sold its Electronics Manufacturing Solutions (“EMS”) business to Benchmark Electronics, Inc. (“Benchmark”) pursuant to the terms and conditions of a stock purchase agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) and related ancillary agreements entered into by CTS and Benchmark on the same date (collectively, the “Transaction”). CTS operated the EMS business largely through its wholly owned subsidiary CTS Electronics Manufacturing Solutions, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“CTS EMS”), and CTS EMS’ direct subsidiaries. Included in the Transaction are five manufacturing facilities located in Moorpark, California, Londonderry, New Hampshire, Bangkok, Thailand, Matamoros, Mexico and San Jose, California, and approximately 1,000 employees.

In connection with the Transaction, CTS received cash consideration of $75 million, which includes (a) $58.5 million paid by Benchmark to CTS, pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, in exchange for all of the equity in CTS EMS, and (b) $16.5 million paid by Benchmark Electronics Netherlands Holding B.V., a limited liability company organized under the laws of the Netherlands and a wholly owned subsidiary of Benchmark (“Benchmark Netherlands”), to CTS, pursuant to a separate stock purchase agreement entered into between CTS and Benchmark Netherlands on the same date, in exchange for all of the equity in CTS Electronics Corporation (Thailand), Ltd., a limited company organized under the laws of Thailand. In addition, certain assets of the EMS business that were held by CTS or its affiliates (other than CTS EMS and its subsidiaries), primarily employees, leases and certain contracts, were transferred to CTS EMS immediately prior to the signing and closing of the Transaction.

Each of CTS and Benchmark made standard representations and warranties and covenants relating to itself and, in the case of CTS, with respect to the EMS business. The Purchase Agreement provides that each of CTS and Benchmark will indemnify the other for certain losses, subject to certain limits.

CTS has also entered into a transition services agreement with Benchmark, pursuant to which CTS will provide certain transitional, administrative and support services to Benchmark on a short-term basis.

The Purchase Agreement will be filed as an exhibit to CTS’ quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending September 29, 2013.
