On November 7, 2003 registrant issued a press release entitled
"Halliburton Extends Debt Exchange Offer."

The text of the press release is as follows:

HALLIBURTON EXTENDS DEBT EXCHANGE OFFER

HOUSTON, Texas -- Halliburton (NYSE: HAL) announced today that it is extending until 5:00 p.m. New York City time, on November 19, 2003, the expiration date of the offer by Halliburton to issue its new 7.6% debentures due 2096 in exchange for a like amount of 7.60% debentures due 2096 of its subsidiary, DII Industries, LLC. As of 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on November 5, 2003, which was the original expiration date for the exchange offer, holders of approximately 97% of the outstanding DII Industries debentures had tendered for exchange.

The exchange offer is being offered in connection with DII Industries' solicitation of consents to amend the indenture governing the DII Industries debentures. As previously announced, as of 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on October 24, 2003, the consent payment deadline, DII Industries had received consents from holders of more than 95% of the principal amount of outstanding DII Industries debentures. These consents have been accepted and have become and remain irrevocable, and DII Industries has amended the indenture governing its 7.6% debentures. The amendments will take effect when the exchange offer is completed. One of the remaining conditions to the exchange offer and the effectiveness of the indenture amendment is that all prerequisites shall have been satisfied for concluding the proposed settlement of asbestos and silica claims of Halliburton's subsidiaries. Halliburton may further extend the exchange offer until this and other conditions to the exchange offer have been satisfied. Holders tendering DII Industries debentures may withdraw tendered debentures up until the extended exchange offer expiration date.

The exchange offer and consent solicitation are subject to the terms and conditions of the Offering Memorandum and Consent Solicitation Statement dated October 9, 2003. This announcement amends and supplements the Offering Memorandum and the related letter of transmittal with respect to the matters described above. All other terms and conditions of the Offering Memorandum and the related letter of transmittal remain in full force and effect.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy securities. The debentures being offered by the company have not been registered under the United States federal or state securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements.

Halliburton, founded in 1919, is one of the world's largest providers of products and services to the petroleum and energy industries.
