AmeriServ Financial To Present At

ABA Community Bank Investor Conference

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., October 28 AmeriServ Financial Inc. (NASDAQ: ASRV) President and CEO Allan R. Dennison, and Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Jeffrey Stopko, will speak to a gathering of bank stock investors later today at the American Bankers Association (ABA) Community Bank Investor Conference in New York City.

We have a positive message for investors, said Dennison. With today's widespread economic problems, it has been difficult to cause investors to take the time to appreciate how AmeriServ has been reinvented. We're now taking steps to be noticed by more investors.

AmeriServ's third quarter earnings, released on Oct. 13, show a 31% improvement over the third quarter of 2007. During the first nine months of this year, the company has increased net income by more than 84% compared to the same nine months of 2007. This turnaround in the company's performance occurs at a time of unprecedented turmoil in financial markets, a sign that AmeriServ's strategic direction is sound, according to Dennison.

We took steps to create a conservative balance sheet before any of today's problems surfaced. These corrective actions prepared AmeriServ to face the current economic troubles with strong capital, broad-based liquidity and improving earnings, Dennison said. Investors may be overlooking the value in AmeriServ stock due to all the negative news elsewhere in financial markets.

AmeriServ Financial, Inc. is the parent of AmeriServ Financial Bank and AmeriServ Trust & Financial Services Company.

The AmeriServ Community Bank Investor Conference presentation will be webcast live, and also made available online for later replay. For information or to view the presentation, logon to:
