Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 2, 2016, First Commonwealth Financial Corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with DCB Financial Corp. (“DCB”). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, DCB will merge with and into the Company (the “Merger”), with the Company as the surviving corporation in the Merger. It is anticipated that following the consummation of the Merger, Delaware County Bank and Trust Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of DCB, will merge with and into First Commonwealth Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, with First Commonwealth Bank as the surviving bank (together with the Merger, the “Transaction”) pursuant to a separate Bank Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the Board of Directors of each of the Company and DCB. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), DCB shareholders will be entitled to receive 1.427 shares of Company common stock or $14.50 in cash for each share of DCB common stock. Subject to proration to ensure that the aggregate merger consideration is comprised of 80% Company common stock and 20% cash, DCB Financial shareholders may elect to specify the number of their shares to exchange for the cash consideration and the number of their shares to exchange for the stock consideration. The aggregate merger consideration, including cash consideration to be paid to holders of outstanding DCB stock options, is expected to be approximately $107.3 million. Each outstanding option to acquire shares of Company common stock will be cancelled in exchange for a cash payment equal to the value of the option, if any. In addition, unvested restricted stock will vest in full upon the merger and will be entitled to receive the merger consideration.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from the Company and DCB, and each party has agreed to customary covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to (1) the conduct of DCB’s businesses during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the Merger, (2) DCB’s obligations to facilitate its shareholders’ consideration of, and voting upon, the Merger Agreement and the Merger, (3) the recommendation by the Board of Directors of DCB in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger by its shareholders, and (4) DCB’s non-solicitation obligations relating to alternative business combination transactions.

The completion of the Merger is subject to the approval of DCB shareholders, regulatory approvals and customary closing conditions and is expected to close during the second quarter of 2017. Immediately following the Merger, the Company will designate one individual who is currently a director of DCB, as mutually agreed upon by DCB and the Company, to be appointed to the Board of Directors of the Company.

The Merger Agreement contains customary termination rights for both the Company and DCB and further provides that a termination payment of approximately $5.3 million will be payable by DCB to the Company in certain circumstances.
