Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Cendant Corporation anticipates that it will disclose to prospective lenders that its vehicle rental business is planning to issue an aggregate of approximately $1.0 billion of eight- and ten-year senior unsecured notes due 2014 and 2016, respectively. Cendant's vehicle rental business is also planning to arrange for a new $2.375 billion secured credit facility that is expected to consist of a $1.5 billion five-year revolving credit facility and an $875 million six-year term loan. These financings are planned for the second quarter of 2006. Cendant's vehicle rental business intends to initially receive approximately $1.875 billion of gross proceeds from these financings, which will be used principally to repay asset-backed vehicle indebtedness.

These financings are part of Cendant's previously announced plan to separate Cendant into four independent, publicly traded, pure-play companies — one each for Cendant's real estate, travel distribution, hospitality and vehicle rental businesses.

The offering of the notes and the consummation of the credit facilities, including the terms thereof, are subject to market and other customary conditions. Therefore, no assurance can be given that these financings will be ultimately consummated as described or at all. These financings are not contingent upon the consummation of Cendant's planned separation transactions.

The notes will be offered in the United States to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act. The notes have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this report constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Company to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. All statements that refer to expectations or other characterizations of future events, circumstances or results are forward-looking statements. The Company cannot provide any assurances that the separation or any of the proposed transactions related thereto will be completed, nor can it give assurances as to the terms on which such transactions will be consummated. Various risks that could cause future results to differ from those expressed by the forward-looking statements included in this report include, but are not limited to: risks inherent in the contemplated separation and related transactions, including risks related to borrowings and costs related to the proposed transactions; increased demands on Cendant's management teams as a result of the proposed transactions; changes in business, political and economic conditions in the U.S. and in other countries in which Cendant and its companies currently do business; changes in governmental regulations and policies and actions of regulatory bodies; changes in operating performance; and access to capital markets and changes in credit ratings, including those that may result from the proposed transactions.
