Section 8 - Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On April 18, 2006, Seitel, Inc. (the "Company") issued a press release announcing the expiration, at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on April 17, 2006, of its offer (the "Offer") to purchase up to $8,513,000 principal amount of its 11.75% Senior Notes due 2011 (the "Notes"). The Company was required by the terms of the indenture for the Notes entered into with LaSalle Bank National Association as of July 2, 2004 (the "Indenture") to make the Offer because the Company generated excess cash flow (as defined in the Indenture) for the year 2005. There were no Notes tendered pursuant to the Offer.

The press release includes a non-GAAP financial measure, excess cash flow, and a related reconciliation to income from operations, the most directly comparable GAAP measure. The terms of the Indenture define excess cash flow and further utilize this financial measure to determine if, when and to what extent a purchase offer must be made to holders of the Notes. The Company's management believes disclosure of the excess cash flow measure is useful information because it provides an understanding of why the purchase offer has been made and how the amount of the purchase offer was determined.
