BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF MILLER ENERGY RESOURCES, INC. ISSUES STATEMENT REGARDING DISSIDENT SHAREHOLDER LETTER

KNOXVILLE, TN - (December 19, 2013) Miller Energy Resources, Inc. (the “Company”) (NYSE: MILL) released the following statement in response to the public statements of a group of dissident shareholders:

“Our board of directors takes our shareholders’ views very seriously and met yesterday to review the letter sent to the Company’s shareholders by the group of dissident shareholders referring to themselves as “Concerned Miller Shareholders” as well as the notice of their intent to nominate candidates for election to the board at the Company’s upcoming Annual Meeting.

We have a very strong record of creating shareholder value over the last several years, with the price per share of our common stock having increased more than 120% YTD prior to the effect of the dissidents’ letter, while the increase for the S&P Oil & Gas E&P Select Industry Index was less than 19% over the same period. We certainly agree that the Company has valuable assets and a great opportunity to continue to create significant value for our shareholders.

The board values the opinions of all of our shareholders, and is always open to constructive engagement with them. Therefore, despite the fact that the dissidents appear to be led by a former consultant whose contract was not renewed by the Company, we are carefully evaluating the concerns raised in their letter. The board will be in communication with shareholders in the coming weeks in connection with our proxy statement and the annual meeting and will make further recommendations regarding the election of directors for their consideration.”
